September 28, 1891 we received notice from Judith B. Titcomb that Mary Wells was at her house and in need of immediate assistance. We investigated the case and found that her settlement was in New Gloucester. We immediately notified the overseers of the poor of that town, and they claimed her settlement. We have notified them according to law since that time, the last notice being sent February 29, 1892. Mr. Hatch, one of the overseers of New Gloucester came to North Yarmouth in February, 1892, and said they would look up the case and take counsel, and he would guarantee that New Gloucester would pay all bills that they were legally obliged to pay. We have taken counsel with J. W. Symonds, Esq., and his opinion is that her settlement is in New Gloucester without any doubt. We agreed with Mrs. Titcomb for her board at $2.50 per week.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

	228					$1231 20	$302 57	$1603 30

$302.57 was taken from the whole amount and added to Districts No. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9, as per table above.

DISTRICT No. 1.

This school was under the instruction of Miss Jessie E. Andrews for the entire year. At each visit during the spring and fall terms the school appeared orderly, and Miss Andrews seemed to be very much interested in her school. Good improvement was made especially by some of the younger ones.

The winter school, although the order was not what it

DISTRICT No. 2.

Spring, fall and winter terms thirty weeks in all, Miss Carrie T. Whitney, teacher. I visited the school twice each term and always found the order first-class. The recitations prompt and correct, and for all I know the school gave general satisfaction. Wages $5.00, board $2.25

DISTRICT No. 3.

Miss Della S. Hayes, taught two terms in this district, twenty-three weeks in all. The order was good which is always the first requisite. There was manifest among the scholars, a fair degree of interest, and was pleased to notice improvement especially in writing. Wages in fall, $4.00, in winter $5.00, board $2.00.

DISTRICT No. 4.

Miss Addie M. Libby, taught the school for the entire year. This is the smallest district in town, consequently it is difficult to awaken that degree of interest among the scholars that we find in some of our larger districts. At each visit the teacher and scholars seemed interested in their work. I think that Miss Libby is rather mild in the treatment of her pupils. Wages of teacher spring $3.00, fall $3.50, winter $4.00, price of board $2.00.

DISTRICT No. 5.

Spring term eight weeks. Winter term twelve weeks Miss Viola V. Burnham, teacher. This school was orderly, and I think the time was profitably spent. Wages of teacher, spring $3.25, winter $4.00, board $1.75.

DISTRICT No. 6.

Spring term, Miss Della S. Hayes, teacher. When the school was visited the scholars were orderly and attentive to their studies, and the teacher seemed to be doing all in her power to promote the best interests of her pupils. Wages $4.00, board $2.00.

Miss Grace Blake taught the fall term. Miss Blake worked hard to have a good school, and as far as I know gave good satisfaction. Wages $3.50, board $2.00.

Winter term was under the instruction of Miss Mary A. Lawrence. Miss Lawrence is one of our oldest teachers, and her experience gives her decided advantage in organizing and conducting her school. The order was good and the appearance of the school, although somewhat broken up by sickness, was very gratifying. The scholars of this district are deserving of one of our best teachers, and such they have surely had. Wages of teachers including board, $8 00.

DISTRICT No. 7.

Is under the supervision of Pownal.

DISTRICT No. 8.

Is under the supervision of Yarmouth.

DISTRICT No. 9.

Miss Abbie S. Loring, taught the spring term of eight weeks. This was Miss Loring's first school. At each visit the order was excellent, and I was pleased to find at the close of the term, a noticeable improvement. Wages $3 00, board $2 00.

Winter term, Miss Florence Loring teacher. Although the school was badly broken up by sickness, I think a fair degree of progress was made. Wages of teachers, $4 00, board $2 00.

Many schools in the past year have been very successful, while other were only partially so.

I do not wish you to understand that in our best schools every scholar makes good progress.

Some are absent from school a large part of the time, and their parents manifest little or no interest in their welfare as scholars. School after school passes in some districts without receiving a single visit from parents in the district. It is indispensable to the success of any school that the teacher have the cordial coöperation of the parents, and when reports unfavorable to the teacher reach the ears of parents, they should not be too hasty in expressing their opinion. They should visit the school and see for themselves. If this were done we should hear less complaining, and our schools would be much more profitable.
