SIGMA DELTA CHI IS HOST TO SECONDARY SCHOOL JOURNALISTS

Prominent Maine Newspaper Men Speak on Writing and Publishing School Papers

The Maine Chapter of the Sigma Delta Chi has completed successfully its second annual Secondary School Journalistic Conference. The conference which was held on the campus last Friday and Saturday proved by the increase in the number of high schools and preparatory schools represented and the increase in delegates that the schools throughout the State realize the benefits derived from such a conference. In spite of the unfavorable weather this year there were 94 delegates representing 45 high schools scattered over the State from Biddeford to Fort Kent, whereas last year there were 58 delegates from about 25 schools.

The program was similar to that of last year. Lectures by prominent newspaper men of the State and students and faculty members of the University, a banquet in Balentine Hall, followed by an inspection trip through the Bangor Publishing Co., a taste of college life, and finally a dance in the gym. Among the prominent newspaper men who spoke to the delegates were A. L. T. Cummings of the State Chamber of Commerce, Sam E. Conner of the "Lewiston Journal," R. T. Patten of the "Skowhegan Independent Reporter," Miss Helen Havener of the "Portland Evening Express" and Oliver L. Hall, editor of the "Bangor Daily Commercial." These men told their experiences as newspaper reporters, and they emphasized the necessity of fact and speed as the foundation of a reporter's success.

One of the most impressive parts of the program was the banquet at Balentine. Sam Conner told stories of his experience as a journalist in his address to the delegates on the subject of "Stories, Journalistic and Not Journalistic." Next R. T. Patten gave an exhibition with the Indian Clubs. During the exhibition A. L. T. Cummings was struck on the head with a stuffed club. Not thirty seconds later the "Skowhegan Independent Reporter" was in the hands of each delegate and he read in black head-lines a report of the tragedy at Balentine. This stunt greatly impressed the delegates and it certainly got the idea of the value of speed in reporting across as nothing else would do.

At nine o'clock the same evening the delegates boarded a special car for Bangor. While there they inspected the office of the "Bangor Daily News" where they saw the actual work involved in publishing a daily paper. The process of linotyping, proof reading and printing was explained in detail as the work was followed through by the group.

Saturday morning was taken up by lectures from Dr. H. M. Ellis, head of the English Department of the University, Miss Helen Havener, who told her experiences and mentioned the possibilities in Journalism from the Woman's Standpoint, and by R. T. Patten, who dealt with the problem of financing a high school paper. Among the students who spoke Saturday were Conrad Kennison who spoke on "How Humor Plays its Part," Charles E. Johnson, editor of the "Prism," who spoke on the High School Year Book, Edward Cutting, editor of the "Campus," who spoke on "Plans for a High School Weekly," and Frank Hussey, Business Manager of the "Cam-

Senior Skulls Endorse Sher- wood Eddy Meetings

In view of the fact that one of the main objects of the Senior Skull Society is to render service to the University whenever possible, the 1924 Senior Skull Society heartily endorses the coming Sherwood Eddy meetings in that they aim to promote the well being of the University, and urges that all Maine men and women attend the meetings.

Intramural Track Finals Are Nearing Completion

The majority of the finals of the Intramural track meet were run off Saturday afternoon, and some very interesting races developed during the course of the afternoon. In the 40 yard dash, Lawry, Dyer, Berry, and Roundsville ran neck and neck. "Tim" Lawry won by only a hair in 5 seconds. Roundsville ran a fine race in the quarter, pulling ahead of Eaton when it looked as if the latter would take the race. His time, 57 4-5 is good for the board track.

Fraser came thru in the hammer event beating Barrows and eclipsing his former record with a 130 1/2 foot throw. Jackson, also, did very well in his department, tossing the discus 108 feet, overshooting Barrows by three feet.

The relay races always provide a thrill and Saturday was no exception. The week before the Interfraternity Relay had been taken in close race by the dormitory beating the Sigma Alpha Epsilon in 2.08. This week end the girls entered

S. A. E. Wins Title In Basketball Tournament

By defeating the Phi Epsilon Pi quintet last Thursday evening, the S. A. E. team won the intramural basketball championship. The winning teams in the three leagues were the Phi Epsilon Pi in the South League, the S. A. E. in the Middle League, and the Dormitory team in the North League.

The elimination contests to find the champion of the campus started on Tuesday evening, March 11, at which time the S. A. E. five played the Dormitory team. The former won by a 14 to 12 score.

The next evening the Dormitory five clashed with the Phi Epsilon Pi team in an exciting game. An extra five-minute period had to be played to decide the victorious team. The Dormitory basketeers again lost, this time to the tune of 22 to 12. Mike Gentile stood out on the latter team, while Kamenkovitch starred for the victors.

The decisive contest was played on Thursday evening, March 13, by the winners of the two previous games. In a fine display of basketball playing the S. A. E. team won a hard earned victory by a score of 18 points against their opponents 17. Crozier was generally acknowledged as the best player on the S. A. E. team, and Kamenkovitch did the best work for the Phi Epsilon Pi aggregation.

WORCESTER PAPER JIBES AT CO-EDS

Gazette Comments Humorously on Phi Mu Party

(Worcester Gazette)

"What kind of young men are the male students at the University of Maine? We read this account of the Phi Mu sorority leap year party. The girls called for their male friends at fraternity houses, bundled them into street cars and forced them to take seats while they stood in the aisles, bought the tickets at a moving picture theatre, assisted them in removing and putting on their coats, and after the show bought them ice cream and cigarettes!"

A good many people were alarmed when the girls first began to wear knickers. A good many of us thought this alarm was not justified by the facts.

But the Maine girls are not only wearing the pants, they are putting the boys in a position where they will shortly don skirts and frizz their hair.

Something ought to be done about it."

Freshman Basket Tossers Win Two Hard Contests

Ask the freshmen basketball team how Southwest Harbor entertains. Last Friday night the freshmen team went to Southwest Harbor and defeated the High School team 31 to 22. A feature of the game was the playing of Capt. Wass against his brother Henry Wass of Southwest Harbor.

Humphrey, who has been playing a fine game for the freshmen, was injured during the first period and was unable to play the rest of the trip.

After the game the team was royally entertained at a dance and banquet.

Lobley, K. S. Field, H. C. Howard, W. B. O'Connor, C. R. Atherton. This rank is the average of three factors: First: Scholastic record at the end of the first half year; Second: Personal interview by the Dean of his college; Third: Personal estimate by three faculty members and two student associates.

FEAR FAILURE OF HEATING PLANT

Several Serious Leaks Found in Main Steam Line; President Little Blames Legislature For Conditions

Indications of possible breaking down of the steam plant in the occurrence of several serious leaks in the main steam supply line have been noticed on the campus of the University of Maine within the past few days. It will be remembered that the University authorities requested sufficient money from the State at the last Legislature to replace the present antiquated and worn out system by an adequate and economic new system. No appropriation was made for this purpose, in spite of the urgent pleas of those interested in the University.

Sherwood Eddy World Figure in Leadership

Writer and Lecturer Has Had a Brilliant Career

Sherwood Eddy, who will speak here this week-end, is now a world figure in Christian leadership. He was graduated at Yale in 1891. He went to India in 1896 at his own expense. After fifteen years of work among the students of the Indian Empire, he was called to be Secretary for Asia for the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Associations. Nine years of service in this capacity among the students and officials of India, China, Japan, the Near East and Russia have been characterized by the brilliance, energy, judgment and devotion so singularly combined in this young statesman.

In 1912-1913 Mr. Eddy was engaged with Dr. John R. Mott in conducting meetings for students throughout Asia. In June 1914 he returned to China for an extended campaign among the student and official classes there. Notwithstanding the war, the audiences that year averaged 3,000 a night. In Hongkong, for instance, 4,000 students and business men attended and it was necessary to hold three meetings in three successive days.

Sophomore Pipes

Wednesday, March 13, after chapel, Charles Emmons, chairman of the sophomore pipe committee, reported to the class that the pipes had been selected and that the price would be $4.00. The sample shown was very satisfactory. Any member of the class wishing to purchase one should give the chairman or any other member of the committee one-half of the price at once if he expects to smoke the friendly pipe before graduation. Seventy-five members of the class must pay this money before the pipes can be ordered.

Sunday, March 16, was Go-to-church Sunday for the Beta Theta Pi fraternity. Twelve members attended the morning services at the United Parish Church.

The result now is that should the present occurrence of leaks with the resultant expense of digging and replacement become more widespread than at present, it seems possible that an emergency of the most serious nature may result. Even as matters stand at present, money which should be available for educational purposes is having to be spent for digging through the frozen ground and hunting for the holes in the pipe. Temporary patching is all that the worn out and rotten nature of the whole system justifies.

Such a condition has been characterized by Dr. Little as due to the failure of the people of the State of Maine to realize the seriousness of conditions here. He is confident that before the next legislature convenes there will be sufficient change in public sentiment to insure against a repetition of the present situation.

Conn. Aggie Girls Win Over Co-ed Basketeers

The Connecticut Aggie sextet won from the Girls' Varsity team, Saturday evening by a score of 22-17. The game was a hard fought and exciting one. But the visitors had the edge on our home team just a bit.

A stag dance under the auspices of the Sigma Delta Chi society followed the game. A large enthusiastic crowd was present at both events and a lively time was enjoyed by everyone.

The meeting of the Math Club, scheduled for Wednesday, March 12, was postponed on account of the stormy weather and the inability of certain members to be present.

Sherwood Eddy

So much has been said about Sherwood Eddy who begins a series of religious addresses here Friday evening, that every student of the University must realize Mr. Eddy's wonderful ability as a speaker, and the good fortune that Maine students have in being able to hear him on their own Campus.

The facts of Mr. Eddy's life, with details of his travels, the large number of students who hear him every year in all parts of the world, and other details that show he is a man worth hearing, are told elsewhere in this paper.

It is hard for those who have never heard the speaker to realize fully the extent of his ability, and the value of the messages he has for college students, but one lecture is enough to be convinced, we are told by those who should know.

That being the case, every member of the University should make a special effort to attend the first meeting Friday evening, in order that failure to attend may not be regretted later.

Miss Doris Twitchell, who was in charge of arrangements for the recent Student Volunteer Union Conference, recently received a letter from Miss Helen E. Hill, of Bates, president of the Volunteer Union, expressing the appreciation of the delegates for the hospitality and co-operation of the University of Maine students.

Miss Hill believes that the Conference was a success, due in large part to the co-operation of the Maine Christian Association and the members of the University.

Pi Beta Phi Has Semi- Formal Party in Orono

Pi Beta Phi fraternity held a semi-formal dancing party Saturday evening, March 15, at Orono Town Hall. Decorations were green and white, carrying out the Saint Patrick's Day idea. The hall was curtained off around the balcony by streamers of alternate colors. A booth for the chaperones was built at one side.
A background of green and white was formed on the stage, and the bottom of the stage was built up so only the heads and shoulders of the orchestra showed.
Shamrocks were scattered on the white carrying out the effect.

The favors were combined cardcases and pocketbooks of blue suede for the women and card cases of gray suede for the men.

Among the 16 dances two novelties were enjoyed. A Paul Jones broke up the formality of the party early in the evening. Also green and white caps were matched for partners. Music was furnished by Wiswell's orchestra.

During intermission mint punch, pistachio ice cream and crackers were served in accordance with the color scheme.

Among the guests of the evening were several alumnae who returned to attend the banquet and dance. The patrons for the party were Dean and Mrs. Stevens, Dean and Mrs. Boardman. Professor and Mrs. Pollard, Mrs. Kate C. Estabrook, and Mrs. W. H. Armstrong of Rockland acted as chaperones for the evening.

There, there, little girl, don't cry;
It will grow out again—bye and bye.

CORRESPONDENCE

Editor Campus

Dear Sir:

I have a chance to give away some good books absolutely free. Only a limited number are to be allowed me to give away to men here at the University of Maine.

The men who are paying for these books and following my judgment as to whom they shall be given here have only one condition—they must be read. If they are willing to pay for them, the right men ought to be willing to read them.

There are two books to each man involved. One book is by Dr. John R.
Mott "Confronting Young Men with the Living Christ." While I have not yet read this particular book I'll testify that any book written by Dr. Mott is worth any young man's reading and careful thought. The other book is "Life-Principles" by a Business Man.

Will those interested leave their names with me right away.

Faithfully yours,

A. B. Clark

To the Editor of the Campus:

The second annual Secondary School Journalists' Conference is over, and we wish to thank those whose cooperation made the conference possible.

Such a project for the purpose of improving high school journalism is worth while, we believe, and surely when ninety-five delegates attend, representing forty-four schools, reaching from Biddeford to Fort Kent, the favorable publicity and credit reflecting upon the University is not small.

The committee wishes to thank the faculty and student speakers, the men's fraternities, and particularly the women students. Entertaining the large delegation of high school girls meant considerable inconvenience and sacrifice on the part of the co-eds concerned, and to them is due a great deal of credit.

Let it be said in passing that by doing such really constructive work for the University as this, rather than by writing critical letters in the Campus, will the status and "rights" of the Maine co-ed be established.

Thanks again, everybody.

Truly yours,

Hazen H. Ayer,

Chairman Conference Committee

Chi Omega Initiation

The annual initiation activities of Xi Beta Chapter of Chi Omega were held during the week-end of Feb. 29 and March 1. The banquet was held, as usual, in the banquet hall at the Bangor House. The fraternity colors, cardinal and straw, were dominant in the scheme of decoration.

On Saturday, March 1, the dancing party was held at Brown's Hall, in Old Town. Here again, the color scheme was carried out according to custom—this time it was developed in crepe paper streamers and pompons. The favor dance was developed with relation to Leap Year—both engagement and wedding rings being exchanged while the girls sang: "How'd You Like to Know a Chi Omega?"

The initiates in whose honor the parties were given were: Alice Ryder Hill, Depot; Isabelle Z. Ames, Lincolnville; er; Mildred Greely Brown, Readfield

by.

able to compete.

Track for girls is an innovation at Maine this year. Under the management of Joy Nevens '24, the girls have been in practice for two weeks.

Sigma Chi

Sigma Chi fraternity held its annual Hobo Ball, Friday evening, March 14, at their chapter house.

The Ball was given under the auspices of the I. W. W. and the guests were dressed to carry out the hobo idea.

An order of 16 dances was enjoyed.
A confetti dance added novelty to the party. Music was furnished by the Ambassadors. During intermission refreshments of punch, frozen pudding, and cake were served. The chaperones were Professor and Mrs. H. B. Sweetser.

BALENTINE NOTES

Mrs. Armstrong of Rockland has been visiting her daughter, Grace Armstrong, over the week-end.

Margaret White entertained Phyllis Haley of Winterport High School Friday and Saturday of this week. Miss Haley was a delegate to the Journalistic Convention.

Betty Kingsbury '23, Ardis Lancy

Prof. Hill Outlines Conference of Engineering Teachers

A. S. Hill, associate professor of electrical engineering, who spent part of last summer's vacation at the East Pittsburgh Works of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company, and attended the Summer Conference for Engineering Teachers conducted under the auspices of that company, gives the following description of the activities of the Conference and the opportunities which it afforded to become acquainted with the work of Maine Alumni at the East Pittsburgh Plant.

The program of the Conference was arranged to give all the visiting teachers:

1. A broad perspective of the organization, plant, and policies of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company, and a survey of the latest developments in the design, production, and application of the apparatus manufactured by this company.

2. An opportunity to engage in some line of engineering work best suited to the needs of the individual teacher.

3. The privilege of meeting many of the executives of the Westinghouse Company and other prominent engineers and business men; of hearing them outline some of the more difficult technical and commercial problems with which they are at present confronted; and of discussing with them the bearing of these problems on controversial questions of engineering education.

4. A glimpse of the varied educational and industrial activities of the Pittsburgh District, afforded by numerous inspection trips and Saturday afternoon excursions, notable examples being visits to the Carnegie Museum, the Carnegie Institute of Technology, the University of Pittsburgh, the great steel mills of the National Tube Works, the Colfax Power Station, and the Harwich Coal Mine.

In addition to the formal program there were a number of optional features both technical and social. Among these the opportunity of renewing the acquaintance of one's former students, seeing them at their work, calling on them in their homes, and talking over with them the problems which they had encountered since leaving the University, proved to be one of the most valuable and pleasant of the summer's experiences. Thus the writer spent considerable time in this way with Mr. C. R. Boothby, '22, who is now on design and development work in the Small Motor Department with Mr. P. R. Shean '22, who is designing railway motors in the Motor Engineering Department, and with Mr. V. E. Trouant
'21, at present an engineer in the Automotive Department; and also took the opportunity to look up a number of other Maine men or had the pleasure of unexpected meetings with them about the plant, among these being Mr. R. J.
Pierce '15, of the Supply Engineering Department, Mr. H. T. Carey '22, of the Publicity Department, Mr. F. K. Chapman '22, of the Works Management Department, Mr. R. E. Thomas '23, who entered the company's Student Course during the summer, and Mr. F. E. Handy
'24, who was spending his summer vacation on research work in the Instrument Section of the Supply Engineering Department.

All the Maine graduates at the East Pittsburgh Works have excellent records with the company, being rated as good or exceptionally good men in their respective fields. They are building up an enviable reputation for the engineering courses of the University of Maine.

The new Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Medical College which is situated two miles south of Baton Rouge, will be opened in the fall of 1924.

United States Loses To The Maine State Team

The Maine-staters trimmed the United States in a fast and exciting game, 21 to 19 before a small crowd in Alumni Hall, Saturday night. Altho never leading, the United States were dangerous at all times. The game was in the balance, as first one five and then the other tossed the ball thru the ring. In the last half, the Maine Staters obtained a six point lead, put in their substitutes, and nearly lost the game.

"Louie" Horsman played a sensational game, making two perfect shots from midfloor. Lake, also a Maine-stater, played a good game at forward. Starring for the visitors, "Crabby" Newell and "Captain" Epstein kept the Blue players on their toes thruout the game.
Jowett and Soderberg had a nip and tuck battle at center the latter outscoring his smaller opponent by one basket.

This game winds up a season in which the basketballers have been very successful. They have won nine of the fifteen games on the schedule most of which have been played on their opponents' courts. With three of the mainstays of the team graduating this year the court crew will have to be remodeled for the season of 1925.

"Maine Is Standing Still" Says Senator Brewster

Senator Ralph O. Brewster of Cumberland County spoke to the student body in Chapel Monday noon about the possibilities of the State of Maine.

"For the last couple of generations," he said, "Maine has been standing still so far as population is concerned. People leave because they believe the opportunities in Maine are inferior to those in the South and West.

"The two greatest crops in Maine are potatoes and tourists. About fifty million dollars is brought yearly into the state by each one. The tourist traffic offers great opportunity for our development. We can develop the summer traffic and our winter sports traffic, such as we see in Switzerland.

"The growth of Florida and Southern California in the last fifteen years has been caused by tourists, who have been converted to the possibilities of those states sufficiently to settle and invest money and labor there.

"Get rid of this inferiority complex," said Senator Brewster in conclusion,
"and see in the next two decades which peculiarly belong to you who are here, see the expanse and growth of this state of Maine which we all love. Go forward with a vision; and, to paraphrase the words of Calvin Coolidge, 'Have faith in the State of Maine.'"

A Class Distinction

The Hinge-Cap is the insignia of Williams Shaving Cream and of Williams only.
You'll notice three things about Williams every time you shave. 1. Williams lather is heavier and holds the moisture in against the beard. Quicker and more thorough softening takes place. 2. Williams lather lubricates your skin—your razor actually seems to "glide" the hairs off. 3. Williams lather leaves the skin in marvelously fine condition. No matter how frequently you shave, your face stays cool, smooth and comfortable.

You'll enjoy every shave with Williams. It is a pure, natural-white cream without any artificial coloring whatsoever.

The Williams Hinge-

His twenty-four years of service in lands abroad have fitted him to deal in truer perspective with the present world situation as a moral challenge to America.

In years filled with untiring activity, time has been found for useful authorship; beginning with his "Supreme Decision," there followed his books on "The Awakening of India," "The New Era in Asia," "The Students of Asia," "With our Soldiers in France," "Everybody's World," "Facing the Crisis," and his latest book, "The New World of Labor."

Sherwood Eddy has just returned from Europe where he has been making a study of political, social and industrial problems. Last year he visited or worked in twenty-two of the principal countries of Europe and Asia. In Czechoslovakia he conducted the first student conference in that new republic, five hundred years after John Huss, the rector of the University of Prague, was burned at the stake.

In Cairo two theaters were filled each night, and the attendance rose from over 2,500 a night in that city to more than 6,000 in Assiut. Mr. Eddy had special opportunities for interviews with the leading men of Europe, including President Masaryk of Czechoslovakia, the King of Bulgaria, members of Cabinets, employers and labor leaders as well as students and professors of the universities of Europe. On his recent visit to Germany he had extended interviews and conferences with President Ebert, the Minister of Reparations, the late Chancellor, and representative leaders of the Universities, of Labor and of Church and State. It is out of living experience with men that he can speak upon the present world situation.

SPRING TRACK STARTS

The track season opens April 26 with a dual meet between the University of New Hampshire and Maine.

As there are only three weeks between April 7 and April 26 preparation for this meet will be seriously handicapped. Coach Kanaly and Captain Ames wish to have the track men report April 2 or 3 to start the spring work. They realize it is asking a lot of men to sacrifice part of their spring vacation for this week, but if Maine is to have a winning team they say it is urgent that extra training be held. Work will be held twice a day, morning and afternoon. All those that are willing to do their part for the success of track should notify "Wes" Ames or "Larry" Connors.

A REPLY TO THE CO-ED HATER

Maybe co-eds are quite hoggish
As they walk along the street, Knocking off into the ditches
Each poor chap they chance to meet.

But they've lots to say on their side,
All the men are not polite;
They don't always stick to their half,
Don't you really think I'm right?

They barely get out of a class room
'Fore they light a cigarette, Blow the smoke into our faces, Oh, it's charming, you can bet.

As for tagdays, why blame co-eds?
We don't start them all, you know; What about M Club? Winter Carnival?
That's where some of the proceeds go.

Co-eds buy, as well as sell tags,
If we do, why can't the men?
Just give up an occasional movie,
Or a cigarette now and then.

You charge us to keep up Maine spirit, Yet at your banquet to "boost Maine"
How many women were there present?
That's it! slam co-eds again!

"In the name of civilization, Co-edism, humanity, Americanism, and old Maine spirit," Can your croaking! Let us be!

—One of the Co-eds.

COLLEGE LIFE—ACCORDING TO MODERN AUTHORS

She: What did you do this summer?
He: Father told me to practice for college.

She: You mean you studied?
He: No, I raised Hell.

"No getting around it, there's one guy you've got to take your hat off to."
"Who's that?"
"The barber."

Julia: Gee, but there are an awful lot of boys that don't want to get married this leap year.

Ruth: How do you know?
Julia: Cause, I've asked them.

cessive hours in one of the largest theatres in the city to accommodate the crowd. The officials of China from the President and Vice-President down to the governors and local officials received Mr. Eddy, sometimes sending out official proclamations of the meetings. During the early years of the war, Mr. Eddy was with the British Army in France, and, during the closing year, on the American, British and French fronts. Since the Armistice, his regular work has taken him across Asia, including Egypt, Palestine, Syria, Mesopotamia and Turkey, through the stricken countries of Europe and around the world.

WHY we chose the name Campus Togs for our clothes

Despite the fact that for twenty-five years we made our clothes and sold them under the label, Chas. Kaufman & Bros., we chose the name Campus Togs as significant of the new spirit in clothes for men of all ages.

For the past ten years we have featured Campus Togs as the trade label for our clothes. It seemed to us significant as a name that would indicate clothes designed and proportioned to please discriminating men. It also signifies in dress the breeze and smartness that the young man or college boy who travels the campus has, and which puts him in the envied class, at least from the standpoint of being youthful and making the most of his age in his appearance.

To also put youthful appearance into clothes for older men, was the new feature for our designing department to work out successfully, and in its achievement we confidently present clothes to the world, for all men, which measure up to the significance of the trade name we have chosen.

We guarantee our clothes tained with a race which the Non-Frats won from the Phi Mu sorority. The freshman relay resulted in a tie, between the Phi Eta Kappa and the Dormitory, with the Theta Chi second.

Tuesday afternoon marked the completion of the events of the Inter-mural Track Meet. The final event, the Pole Vault, came off at this time, being the deciding event in the meet.

Roy Hobson '27, of Phi Eta Kappa, placed first in this, with four men, Snow, McGill, Proctor, and Stitham, tying for second. This gave Phi Eta 7 points and the championship of the meet.

The Inter-mural Cup had already been won by Phi Eta, this last event determining the possession for the coming year of the "Charlie Rice" Cup. S. A. E. had 20 points toward the cup, Phi Eta 17 points, and Theta Chi 14 points. With the winning of 7 points the results were Phi Eta 24 points, S. A. E. 20 points, Theta Chi 15 points.

The pole vault event has yet to come off and so the results of the competition for the Charles Rice cup are not complete. All letter men and those who have been in actual competition will not count toward the Inter-mural Cup which is also given in this meet.

Saturday night the conference closed with a reception and dance which followed the girls' basketball game against Conn. Aggies. Each dance was named for a paper such as "Shadow Land," "Western Stories," "Snappy Stories," etc.

Saturday afternoon the winners of the contest were named. First prize was given to "The Sedan" of Hampden Academy, edited by Trenetta Emery; second prize was awarded to "The Oceanic" from Old Orchard, edited by Harvey V. Benway; third prize to the "Islander" of Bar Harbor. In the newspaper class, Ellsworth High, which got second prize last year, was awarded first prize, followed by the "Arcturus" of Caribou and the "Morse Mentor" from Morse High.
