EDITORS EXPECT TO HAVE 1925 PRISMS HERE JUNIOR WEEK

New Features to Be Embodied in Annual Book; Fewer Copies Ordered

Final proofs of the 1925 Prism have been corrected and forwarded to the publishing company. Every effort will be made to have the books delivered on the campus during Junior Week.

A pencil drawing of President Little by Francis Weatherbee '26, twelve pages of campus views (in colors) on pebbled paper, a ten page section devoted to the R.O.T.C. containing pictures of all companies and company commanders, are some of the unique features of the edition.

The book consists of 336 pages, profusely illustrated, and is a complete record of the past year. Pictures of all fraternities and honor societies, all athletic teams, their captains and managers, and individual photographs of all juniors are included. It will be bound in black imitation leather on which is engraved a suitable design.

A special section has been devoted to the Winter Carnival and the Intramural Athletic Association, and there is a page in memory of Arthur Leroy Huston, a member of the class of 1925 who was drowned last April. Activities of the Women's Branch of the Athletic Association are covered completely in the general athletic section, edited by Stanley B. Hyde.

The grinds, edited by Aura C. Coburn, have been somewhat reformed. There are the customary six pages of incriminatory snapshots, but in other respects the department is different. In the past, it has been customary to lampoon individuals; this year, the Prism has a grudge against certain systems of instruction and college customs.

There is a burlesque on the University catalog, the "author" of which is charged with "deliberate distortion of the truth." A travesty on a text book holds up to ridicule the pedantic practice of annotating voluminously everything that was ever written in a creditable style. In one sketch, the "Carnival King" is "crowned" with a sledge hammer, and in a short farce, an anonymous writer proves the thesis that professors are "just plain human." One feature is a set of specimen examinations "required for exit from the University of Maine."

In general, however, the Prism is a record rather than a symposium of undergraduate wit and humor. To avoid the necessity of cutting prices next year, the board has ordered 100 less copies than are usually delivered. After the copies already paid for are distributed, there will be but 150 books for general circulation. If the supply is exhausted before June, additional copies will be ordered, but if not, the book will be out of print next year. This step has been taken on the recommendation of the faculty advisor to insure against financial difficulties.

The Prism is dedicated to President Little. Charles E. Johnson is the editor and David C. Jacobs is the business manager.

TRACK TEAM IS READY FOR NEW HAMPSHIRE MEET

Men in Good Condition, Kanaly Says; Hope for Dry Field

The University of Maine track team will meet the University of New Hampshire team on Alumni field next Saturday. The Varsity-Freshmen meet scheduled for last Saturday was cancelled on account of the snow. This meet would have enabled Coach Kanaly to watch both teams in competition. However, the performance of the squad at a trial held last week was better than he expected, considering the lack of practice on account of the rain and the poor condition of the track, Coach Kanaly said. He stated that the squad was in very good physical condition and that the cinders would be equally as good.

A partial list of the entries of the Maine team are: 100 and 220 yard dashes, Lawry, Cahill and one to be chosen; 440 yard run, Eaton, Moody, Burnham, Weatherbee; 880 yard run, Murray, Hillman, Capt. Ames and two to be chosen; one mile run, Capt. Ames, Hillman, Patten, Gero and one to be chosen; two mile run, Raymond, Noyes, Hart, Patten; 120 high hurdles, Ring, True, Lincoln; 220 yard hurdles, Stevens, Standish, Giddings and two to be chosen; high jump, Houghton, Plummer, Giddings and two to be chosen; broad jump, Lawry, Kelly, Larrabee, and two to be chosen; pole vault, Snow, MacGill, Trask, Wood; shot put, Jackson, Elliott and three to be chosen; hammer throw, Fraser, Barrows; discus throw, Barrows, Jackson, Horsman and two to be chosen; javelin throw, Baxter, Linnekin, Chalmers, Horsman.

The track prospects are not considered very bright at the University of New Hampshire as the track was in a bad condition and due to the loss of seven letter men by graduation. It is expected that New Hampshire will be fairly strong in both the high and low hurdles and rather weak in field events as they have only one letter man in the weights.

GIGANTIC HOAX REGARDING "LOCOMOTIVE LION" NOW LAID BARE BY PROFESSOR

Conscientious Faculty Member Admits That Legend About The "Lion" Being a Relic of the Veazie Railroad Is a Ridiculous Myth; Owner Regarded The Ancient Engine as a Heap Of Junk 25 Years Ago

MAINE'S PRICELESS RELIC—THE "LOCOMOTIVE LION"

The "Locomotive Lion" which reposes in state behind Alumni Hall, a revered relic of the original Veazie railroad, is a rank imposter, the Campus has learned on good authority. It never ran on the Veazie road, but on the "Portland" line, and was presented to the University soon after 1900, after it had been condemned as worthless scrap iron, and of little historical value.

The tradition that the "Lion" was one of the first locomotives to run on the Bangor and Piscataquis line, the second railroad in the United States, is entirely unfounded, according to a member of the faculty who ought to know.

Of the early history of the "Lion" little is known. It was one of the locomotives used on the "Portland" line, but was discarded many years ago. During a celebration in Portland to commemorate the conclusion of the Spanish American War, it was one of the exhibits on a float. Before the parade was over, the float collapsed, and the owners made no effort to remove their relic. Soon afterwards, it was shipped to the University

Balentine Board Walk Is Reported Unsafe

Co-eds Fear Injury

Some of the co-eds are going to take out accident policies if the Balentine board walk is left in its present dangerous state. To navigate it successfully requires sea legs, and too often a sprint to a first hour class ends in an ignominious tumble. At other times the gentle, undulating motion of the walk is reminiscent of the "Whip" at Coney Island. Its numerous cracks and crevices are the depository for lost articles, and it the planks are ever taken up there will be a harvest of hairpins, pencils, and pens, etc., that will rival the "Lost and found" box in the Registrar's office.

"M" CLUB SHOW TO EQUAL EXPECTATIONS

The best stage settings, the most attractive costumes ever seen on the campus are included in the "M" Club's big minstrel show, the Twentieth Century Musical Revue which will be presented in the chapel May 2.

One hundred persons, 50 girls and 50 men, comprise the cast, and many specialty acts are in store for the audience. Eight dancing girls and nine merry minstrels will contribute a good deal to the evening's entertainment.

A ten piece orchestra will accompany the chorus and the lighting effects will be the same as those used in a Bangor show. Harold F. Moon, who is directing the project, will remove the present stage equipment on the Wednesday before the show, and will set up his own scenery, which he is assuring the players will leave little to be desired.

Reserved seats are now on sale at the bookstore. Indications are that there will be few left by the last of next week.

Seniors—All orders for caps and gowns must be in at the University Store by May 1st.

MASQUE AND DOMINO TO PLAY "ICEBOUND"

The Masque and Domino Society are working hard on the play they will present on Thursday evening, May 8. The play, "Icebound," by Owen Davis won the Pulitzer Prize last year as the best American play produced during the theatrical season of 1922-3. It treats the life in the small villages of Maine and contains both light and serious parts. The cast, who are rehearsing several times a week under the direction of Professor Mark Bailey, are as follows:

Henry Jordan	Edward Engel
Emma, his wife	Lynette Walker
Nettie, her daughter	Clara Peabody
Sadie Fellows, a widow	Mary Harris
Orin, her son	Daniel Webster
Ella Jordan, the unmarried sister	Florence Gushee
Ben Jordan	Kenneth MacGregory
Doctor Curtis	Chester Cambell
Judge Bradford	Robert Hamlet
Jane Crosby	Anna Torrens
Hannah	Crystal Hughes
Jim Jay, deputy sheriff	William Bailey

Plan now to attend the state meet at Lewiston, May 17.

Student Senate To Legislate On Smoking In College Buildings

At the last meeting of the Men's Student Senate, the main topic under discussion was whether or not smoking should be prohibited in the various buildings of the University. This proposition was presented to the Senate some time ago by Dean Boardman who reports that the fire insurance company that underwrites these buildings threatens to raise the rate because of the increase in fire hazard that the practice of smoking leads to.

Two other reasons taken into consideration were the unkempt appearance that half burnt matches and cigar and cigarette "butts" impart to the buildings; and also, the annoyance it causes people who do not smoke. Dean Boardman mentioned a number of large universities where this rule is in effect and believes that the majority of the undergraduates will be in favor of this ruling. The Senate plans to take a "straw" vote to determine the sentiment of the student body.

Flowers Bloom in New Greenhouse

Snow Has No Effect

This is snapdragon time at the new greenhouse, and all the potted plants have made a good start. Specimens of every flower studied by Floriculture students are growing and the surplus blossoms are being sold. There is always a good demand for plants, especially geraniums. Occasionally somebody obeys the suggestion "Say it with flowers," and secures a free bouquet. Mr. Beal, in charge of the greenhouse, says that next year he expects to have a greater variety of cut flowers, including roses, chrysanthemums, and carnations.

How the Wind Bloweth

April 21, 1924

Mr. E. C. Cutting,
Editor—Campus,
Dear Mr. Cutting:

I have noticed with a great deal of interest the encouraging fact that matters of fundamental value to the University are being frankly and freely discussed in the editorial columns of the Campus as well as in the letters of its correspondents.

I am anxious, therefore, to bring to the attention of the undergraduate body the showing made by various national fraternities and sororities at the Student Volunteer Conference which was held on the campus February 29-March 2 of this year. At that time I wrote the heads of the men's fraternities outlining in a general way the purposes of the conference and urging the participation of a large number of the undergraduate body. I tried to point out that it was a big opportunity to obtain material of great educational value as well as to help the University.

The figures which I give below are compiled partly from those on file at the Registrar's office and partly from the official list of registrants at the conference. They are as follows:

Fraternity	No. in	No. at	% at
	Frat.	Conf.	Conf.
Alpha Sigma Mu	28	10	36
Phi Kappa Sigma	33	6	18
Sigma Phi Sigma	26	4	16
Sigma Alpha Epsilon	42	6	14
Phi Eta Kappa	38	4	11
Kappa Sigma	37	3	8
Phi Mu Delta	37	3	8
Sigma Nu	37	3	8
Alpha Tau Omega	34	2	6
Delta Tau Delta	31	2	6
Theta Chi	40	2	5
Sigma Chi	38	1	3
Beta Theta Pi	30	0	0
Lambda Chi Alpha	29	0	0
Phi Epsilon Pi	19	0	0
Phi Gamma Delta	36	0	0
Sorority	No. in	No. at	% at
	Sorority	Conf.	Conf.
Delta Delta Delta	23	17	74
Pi Beta Phi	15	5	33½
Phi Mu	17	4	24
Chi Omega	15	3	20
Alpha Omicron Pi	16	2	12½

From the above figures there may be gleaned some idea of the difficulties met with in starting any project of an educational value other than those actually proscribed as course work. The fraternities are supposed to be leaders in all types of desirable campus activities. The figures given are not of course a basis for final valuation as to the activity of any particular organization. It is, however, a somewhat interesting straw and as such possibly indicates the way the wind blows. At all events, I believe that there is in the situation food for thought.

Sincerely yours,

C. C. Little

Spring Again

Spring is here! How do we know? Certainly not by the weather. But there are standard signs by which we always recognize Spring. We awake in the morning to find a beautiful day. With joy in our hearts, and our books under our arm, we start gaily for class. Overhead white clouds are floating across a deep blue sky. As we watch them, our eyes are caught by some blackbirds flying along—suddenly utter blackness! A few moments later, as we arise from the ground we say, "Did some one hit me?" Even as we watch, the mystery is explained. A student on his way to class steps blithely upon a loose board in the board walk, and is immediately "crowned" with the other end of the board as it flies up. This time we proceed more cautiously with our eyes on the ground instead of on the heavens. What! now our new spring outfit is all spattered with mud! Wrathfully we look after the departing "bug" as it speeds on its way quite unaware of the mischief it has done. Deciding that the walks are dangerous to the constitution, and roadways to the vocabulary we decide to try the grass. Oh how soft it is underfoot, I do believe the trees are beginning to bud. Crash,—who tripped me? As we look around for some lurking enemy we discover we have tripped over a board that reads "Keep Off the Lawns!" With a sigh we hunt up a cement walk and stick to this for the rest of the day, thankful that spring comes but once a year.

CORRESPONDENCE

Editor-in-Chief,
Maine Campus,
Dear Sir:

I wish to tell you that I believe the editorial of last week on spring camp of the R.O.T.C. was entirely uncalled for. I do not think the general attitude toward the camp is as the article expressed the matter.

In the first place, how many students are going to mourn because they are losing a few days of instruction? I have heard many complaints to the effect that there are too few holidays, but I never saw any grieving over too many. What do the last few classes prior to examinations amount to anyway? There is never any real work done in them.

Again, the statement was made that the expense for camp would be from eight to ten dollars. May I ask from whom the writer received that information? The amount will not exceed $7.00 and those students residing in the dormitories will have their board rebated for that week. In the beginning, there was some discussion as to whether the camp should be held in Newport or Augusta. The R.O.T.C. members were told that the cost of going to Augusta would probably be eight or nine dollars, yet, regardless of that, 50% of the corps voted for Augusta.

The editorial also states that "some, strange as it may seem, would rather follow the regular schedule of college work than live in pup tents for five days." Doubtless the writer of the editorial will make something of himself some day, if he goes through life with that studious point of view. He admits that it seems strange, and it does. I ask, who would not rather spend the five days out of doors, with swimming, sports, and physical development as well as mental coordination, than cooped up in classrooms in June?

I have yet to see the serious effect of a group of students getting through their examinations with nothing to do a few days before Commencement. All but the Seniors will probably go home, and the Seniors should know enough to be able to take care of themselves for a week. If they don't, they can come along to military camp also.

In the remainder of the editorial, the gist of the affair seems to be from a monetary standpoint. I shall be deeply sorry if anyone is injured financially by the money they pay to attend military camp. As to who was responsible for making camp compulsory seems to be aside from the matter now, when the so-called unfair deed has been done. The faculty have ruled the week off, and any sentiment contrary to their ruling is disloyal both to the faculty and the University. I should be pleased to talk with anyone who is as dissatisfied as the writer of the editorial.

Very respectfully yours,
W. Wesley Patterson.

Symphony Coming

The Bangor Symphony Orchestra will come to Alumni Hall for a concert again this year on Wednesday, April 30th at 8 o'clock. Last year their concert was a success in spite of extremely unfavorable weather, and a much larger audience is hoped for this year.

The Arts Club is acting as guarantor for the Concert, and the proceeds will go to the University Band, and to the Symphony Orchestra Endowment Fund.

Tickets will be on sale by the members of the University Band, and at the University Store.

Phi Sigma

Phi Sigma, the honorary biological society initiated Tuesday night, eight students and four faculty members and one honorary member, Dr. Barbara Hunt of Bangor.

The faculty members are Prof. Henry M. Halverson, Dwight Demeritt, Dr. Karl Sax, and Dr. John Gowen.

The students are Egbert M. Andrews of Gray, John A. Small of Newport, Howard Reiche of Portland, David Jacobs of Lawrence, Mass., Frank Hussey of Presque Isle, Dwight L. Moody of Danforth, Joseph Murray of Hampden and Hervey Bean of Vienna.

Elections to Phi Kappa Phi are as follows: Mary Lillian Copeland, Cecil Gladstone Garland, Francis Edward Handy, Beatrice Winnifred Johnson, Ethelyn Marcia Percival, Ellen Victoria Pierson, Clifford Sanford Reynolds.

Schedule For Intra-Mural Tennis Matches

The schedule of the Intra-mural tennis tournament has been arranged as follows. Beta Theta Pi, Sigma Nu and Sigma Chi fraternities will arrange a date before the new schedule starts to play off last year's tournament. This year each organization will arrange with their opponent for a court and a time for playing (preferably one of the two dates given). Failure to report will mean that a team is disqualified.

The schedule:

Sigma Phi Sigma vs. Sigma Nu April 30 or May 1
Theta Chi vs. Phi Omega Delta April 30 or May 1
Beta Theta Pi vs. Commons April 30 or May 1
Semi-Finals, May 21 or 22
Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Delta Tau Delta April 30 or May 1
Kappa Sigma vs. Phi Eta Kappa April 30 or May 1
Phi Kappa Sigma vs. Lambda Chi Alpha April 30 or May 1
Semi-Finals, May 21 or 22
Phi Mu Delta vs. Alpha Gamma Rho April 30 or May 1
Sigma Chi vs. Alpha Tau Omega April 30 or May 1
Phi Gamma Delta vs. Phi Epsilon Pi April 30 or May 1
Semi-Finals, May 21 or 22
Finals will be played off at some time to be arranged later.

Alpha Gamma Rho

On Friday, April 18, the Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity held its spring initiation and banquet. The faculty speakers were Professor George E. Simmons, Professor Corbett and Professor E. R. Hitchiner. Professor Simmons, as toastmaster, made the evening a decided success.

George Hilton '24, John P. Downing '25, Kenneth E. McFadden '26, John E. Le Plant '25 and Robert Stewart '26 were the student speakers.

The initiates: Donald H. Ridley '27, Sanford; O. W. Small '27, Farmington; Alton L. Best '27, Allentown, Pa.; Gerald Keene '27, Bridgton.

Phi Mu Tea

A charmingly appointed tea was given April 15th by the members of the Phi Mu sorority at the home of Mrs. John Huddilston in honor of Mrs. Beryl Molleson of Ithaca, New York, president of Beta Province.

The guests were received by Mrs. Huddilston, Mrs. Molleson, Kathleen Mahoney and Ruth Waterhouse. The guests consisted of representatives of each sorority and their patronesses. Miss Aileen Bennett poured, assisted by the Misses Rachel Huddilston, Shirley Roberts, Betty Hunt, Anna Sargent, Helen Mayo and Kathleen Hunt.

Varsity Tennis

The prospects for a winning varsity tennis team are very good this year as practically all of the men of last year's team are still on the campus. The team will be led by Bruce Davenport who is captain this year.

Practice has been carried on in the gymnasium thus far but the outdoor courts will be in condition soon.

The schedule for this year:
May 10—Bates, Lewiston
Wed.-Thurs., May 14-15—State meet, Orono
Sat. May 24—Colby, Waterville
Pending—Boston University

Will Nominate for A. A. Board Tuesday

There will be a meeting of the nominating committee of the Athletic Association, Tuesday, April 29, 1924, at 7 P.M. in 3 Alumni Hall, to make nominations for the officers of the Athletic Association for the year 1924-1925. The officers to be elected are: president, vice-president, senior member, and secretary. Four candidates for each office are nominated. The nominating committee is composed of one representative from each fraternity and sorority, and representatives of non-fraternity students in the ratio of one representative for each 40 or major fraction thereof.

The election will be held Tuesday, May 13, 1924, from 1 to 5 P.M.

Miss Arnold in Spain

Miss Frances Arnold of the Spanish Department who was granted a leave of absence for study in Spain is now in Madrid. Miss Arnold sailed June 21 from N. Y. taking a tour thru Southern France and Spain, later attending the fall and winter courses at the Centro Estudios Historicos.

During the first few months of her stay in Madrid, she lived at the Instituto Internacional, a school founded by an American woman to provide a home for American girls studying in Spain, but which now forms a part of the Residencia de Senoritas.

At present thru the kindly efforts of Senorita Maria de Maeztu, directora del Grupo de Señoritas, she is pleasantly located in a cultured Spanish family where no English is spoken.

Miss Arnold leaves Spain soon to visit France and Italy, returning home in June.

Spring Camp

"Plans for the spring camp are by no means complete as yet," says Major Glover, "but we shall expect in another week to be able to give the Campus a fairly complete outline of the program." "We are now working hard on the arrangements for railroad transportation, equipment, preparation of the camp site, food supplies, and what is most important of all—the cooks."

The reporter mentioned that a good many fellows were worrying as to whether they would be required to wear their blouses or coats at the camp.

Major Glover laughed heartily at this and said, "Certainly not. Tell them they will probably take them down, but they will be worn only for formal dress."

Hardy's Tivoli Orchestra of Worcester will be the attraction at the Junior Prom, May 10. It is rarely indeed that such music as this is heard on the campus, as those who attended the Winter Carnival will testify. Hardy's Orchestra is composed of seven pieces. They play regularly at Hotel Bancroft and the Copley Plaza. It was previously understood that this orchestra would be at the Track Club Cabaret, but, such is not the case. The Junior Prom will be the last opportunity to hear them this season.

Co-ed (on telephone)—"Hello."
Man—"Hello, Ruth. Do you know who this is?"

Co-ed—"I'm awfully sorry, Arthur, but I don't seem to recognize your voice."—Varnish.

FRESHMEN AT MICHIGAN PAY FOR CLASS SPIRIT

The freshman class of Michigan Uni-

hoisted into position and the rope cut,
making it impossible to lower the flag

Dinner Parties

The board of Trustees have formally
accepted an offer from the local chapter
of Phi Beta Kappa which will establish a scholarship for a student doing graduate work in the Arts and Sciences.

This Scholarship provides a year's free tuition in the Graduate School, and the award is not restricted, as in case of the other scholarships offered by the University, to members of the graduating class. The recipient need not be a member of Phi Beta Kappa, and may be a graduate of another college or university.

Anyone interested should consult with Dean Stevens or Dean Chase for further information in regard to form of application. This should be done as soon as possible, so that the award may be made before Commencement.

New Scholarship

One of the splendid results of the discussion groups established by Sherwood Eddy is the weekly dinner parties
arranged between Mt. Vernon and Balen-tine. Each Wednesday night fifteen girls from Mt. Vernon are to come to Balestine for dinner and fifteen Balen-tine girls go to Mt. Vernon. The first exchange was last Wednesday and was very successful. The girls all enjoyed themselves. The purpose of this exchange is to further the friendship between the girls in each house and to substitute Maine spirit for dormitory
spirit.

the University recently and deprived of

How the Wind Bloweth

April 21, 1924

Mr. E. C. Cutting,
Editor—Campus,
Dear Mr. Cutting:

I have noticed with a great deal of interest the encouraging fact that matters of fundamental value to the University are being frankly and freely discussed in the editorial columns of the Campus as well as in the letters of its correspondents.

I am anxious, therefore, to bring to the attention of the undergraduate body the showing made by various national fraternities and sororities at the Student Volunteer Conference which was held on the campus February 29-March 2 of this year. At that time I wrote the heads of the men's fraternities outlining in a general way the purposes of the conference and urging the participation of a large number of the undergraduate body. I tried to point out that it was a big opportunity to obtain material of great educational value as well as to help the University.

The figures which I give below are compiled partly from those on file at the Registrar's office and partly from the official list of registrants at the conference. They are as follows:

Fraternity	No. in No.	at % at
	Frat. Conf.	Conf.
Alpha Sigma Mu	28	10 36
Phi Kappa Sigma	33	6 18
Sigma Phi Sigma	26	4 16
Sigma Alpha Epsilon	42	6 14
Phi Eta Kappa	38	4 11
Kappa Sigma	37	3 8
Phi Mu Delta	37	3 8
Sigma Nu	37	3 8
Alpha Tau Omega	34	2 6
Delta Tau Delta	31	2 6
Theta Chi	40	2 5
Sigma Chi	38	1 3
Beta Theta Pi	30	0 0
Lambda Chi Alpha	29	0 0
Phi Epsilon Pi	19	0 0
Phi Gamma Delta	36	0 0
Sorority	No. in No.	at % at
	Sorority Conf.	Conf.
Delta Delta Delta	23	17 74
Pi Beta Phi	15	5 33½
Phi Mu	17	4 24
Chi Omega	15	3 20
Alpha Omicron Pi	16	2 12½

From the above figures there may be gleaned some idea of the difficulties met with in starting any project of an educational value other than those actually proscribed as course work. The fraternities are supposed to be leaders in all types of desirable campus activities. The figures given are not of course a basis for final valuation as to the activity of any particular organization. It is, however, a somewhat interesting straw and as such possibly indicates the way the wind blows. At all events, I believe that there is in the situation food for thought.

Sincerely yours,

C. C. Little

Spring Again

Spring is here! How do we know? Certainly not by the weather. But there are standard signs by which we always recognize Spring. We awake in the morning to find a beautiful day. With joy in our hearts, and our books under our arm, we start gaily for class. Overhead white clouds are floating across a deep blue sky. As we watch them, our eyes are caught by some blackbirds flying along—suddenly utter blackness! A few moments later, as we arise from the ground we say, "Did some one hit me?" Even as we watch, the mystery is explained. A student on his way to class steps blithely upon a loose board in the board walk, and is immediately "crowned" with the other end of the board as it flies up. This time we proceed more cautiously with our eyes on the ground instead of on the heavens. What! now our new spring outfit is all spattered with mud! Wrathfully we look after the departing "bug" as it speeds on its way quite unaware of the mischief it has done. Deciding that the walks are dangerous to the constitution, and roadways to the vocabulary we decide to try the grass. Oh how soft it is underfoot, I do believe the trees are beginning to bud. Crash—who tripped me? As we look around for some lurking enemy we discover we have tripped over a board that reads "Keep Off the Lawns!" With a sigh we hunt up a cement walk and stick to this for the rest of the day, thankful that spring comes but once a year.

CORRESPONDENCE

Editor-in-Chief,
Maine Campus,
Dear Sir:

I wish to tell you that I believe the editorial of last week on spring camp of the R.O.T.C. was entirely uncalled for. I do not think the general attitude toward the camp is as the article expressed the matter.

In the first place, how many students are going to mourn because they are losing a few days of instruction? I have heard many complaints to the effect that there are too few holidays, but I never saw any grieving over too many. What do the last few classes prior to examinations amount to anyway? There is never any real work done in them.

Again, the statement was made that the expense for camp would be from eight to ten dollars. May I ask from whom the writer received that information? The amount will not exceed $7.00 and those students residing in the dormitories will have their board rebated for that week. In the beginning, there was some discussion as to whether the camp should be held in Newport or Augusta. The R.O.T.C. members were told that the cost of going to Augusta would probably be eight or nine dollars, yet, regardless of that, 50% of the corps voted for Augusta.

The editorial also states that "some, strange as it may seem, would rather follow the regular schedule of college work than live in pup tents for five days." Doubtless the writer of the editorial will make something of himself some day, if he goes through life with that studious point of view. He admits that it seems strange, and it does. I ask, who would not rather spend the five days out of doors, with swimming, sports, and physical development as well as mental coordination, than cooped up in classrooms in June?

I have yet to see the serious effect of a group of students getting through their examinations with nothing to do a few days before Commencement. All but the Seniors will probably go home, and the Seniors should know enough to be able to take care of themselves for a week. If they don't, they can come along to military camp also.

In the remainder of the editorial, the gist of the affair seems to be from a monetary standpoint. I shall be deeply sorry if anyone is injured financially by the money they pay to attend military camp. As to who was responsible for making camp compulsory seems to be aside from the matter now, when the so-called unfair deed has been done. The faculty have ruled the week off, and any sentiment contrary to their ruling is disloyal both to the faculty and the University. I should be pleased to talk with anyone who is as dissatisfied as the writer of the editorial.

Very respectfully yours,
W. Wesley Patterson.

Symphony Coming

The Bangor Symphony Orchestra will come to Alumni Hall for a concert again this year on Wednesday, April 30th at 8 o'clock. Last year their concert was a success in spite of extremely unfavorable weather, and a much larger audience is hoped for this year.

The Arts Club is acting as guarantor for the Concert, and the proceeds will go to the University Band, and to the Symphony Orchestra Endowment Fund.

Tickets will be on sale by the members of the University Band, and at the University Store.

Phi Sigma

Phi Sigma, the honorary biological society initiated Tuesday night, eight students and four faculty members and one honorary member, Dr. Barbara Hunt of Bangor.

The faculty members are Prof. Henry M. Halverson, Dwight Demeritt, Dr. Karl Sax, and Dr. John Gowen. The students are Egbert M. Andrews of Gray, John A. Small of Newport, Howard Reiche of Portland, David Jacobs of Lawrence, Mass., Frank Hussey of Presque Isle, Dwight L. Moody of Danforth, Joseph Murray of Hampden and Hervey Bean of Vienna.

Elections to Phi Kappa Phi are as follows: Mary Lillian Copeland, Cecil Gladstone Garland, Francis Edward Handy, Beatrice Winnifred Johnson, Ethelyn Marcia Percival, Ellen Victoria Pierson, Clifford Sanford Reynolds.

Schedule For Intra-Mural Tennis Matches

The schedule of the Intra-mural tennis tournament has been arranged as follows. Beta Theta Pi, Sigma Nu and Sigma Chi fraternities will arrange a date before the new schedule starts to play off last year's tournament. This year each organization will arrange with their opponent for a court and a time for playing (preferably one of the two dates given). Failure to report will mean that a team is disqualified.

The schedule:

Sigma Phi Sigma	vs	April 30 or May 1
Sigma Nu	vs	April 30 or May 1
Theta Chi	vs	April 30 or May 1
Phi Omega Delta	vs	April 30 or May 1
Beta Theta Pi	vs	April 30 or May 1
Commons	vs	April 30 or May 1
Semi-Finals, May 21 or 22
Sigma Alpha Epsilon	vs	April 30 or May 1
Delta Tau Delta	vs	April 30 or May 1
Kappa Sigma	vs	April 30 or May 1
Phi Eta Kappa	vs	April 30 or May 1
Phi Kappa Sigma	vs	April 30 or May 1
Lambda Chi Alpha	vs	April 30 or May 1
Semi-Finals, May 21 or 22
Phi Mu Delta	vs	April 30 or May 1
Alpha Gamma Rho	vs	April 30 or May 1
Sigma Chi	vs	April 30 or May 1
Alpha Tau Omega	vs	April 30 or May 1
Phi Gamma Delta	vs	April 30 or May 1
Phi Epsilon Pi	vs	April 30 or May 1
Semi-Finals, May 21 or 22

Finals will be played off at some time to be arranged later.

Alpha Gamma Rho

On Friday, April 18, the Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity held its spring initiation and banquet. The faculty speakers were Professor George E. Simmons, Professor Corbett and Professor E. R. Hitchiner. Professor Simmons, as toastmaster, made the evening a decided success.

George Hilton '24, John P. Downing '25, Kenneth E. McFadden '26, John E. Le Plant '25 and Robert Stewart '26 were the student speakers.

The initiates: Donald H. Ridley '27, Sanford; O. W. Small '27, Farmington; Alton L. Best '27, Allentown, Pa.; Gerald Keene '27, Bridgton.

Phi Mu Tea

A charmingly appointed tea was given April 15th by the members of the Phi Mu sorority at the home of Mrs. John Huddilston in honor of Mrs. Beryl Molleson of Ithaca, New York, president of Beta Province.

The guests were received by Mrs. Huddilston, Mrs. Molleson, Kathleen Mahoney and Ruth Waterhouse. The guests consisted of representatives of each sorority and their patronesses. Miss Aileen Bennett poured, assisted by the Misses Rachel Huddilston, Shirley Roberts, Betty Hunt, Anna Sargent, Helen Mayo and Kathleen Hunt.

Varsity Tennis

The prospects for a winning varsity tennis team are very good this year as practically all of the men of last year's team are still on the campus. The team will be led by Bruce Davenport who is captain this year.

Practice has been carried on in the gymnasium thus far but the out door courts will be in condition soon.

The schedule for this year:
May 10—Bates, Lewiston
Wed.-Thurs., May 14-15—State meet, Orono
Sat. May 24—Colby, Waterville
Pending—Boston University

Will Nominate for A. A. Board Tuesday

There will be a meeting of the nominating committee of the Athletic Association, Tuesday, April 29, 1924, at 7 P.M. in 3 Alumni Hall, to make nominations for the officers of the Athletic Association for the year 1924-1925. The officers to be elected are: president, vice-president, senior member, and secretary. Four candidates for each office are nominated. The nominating committee is composed of one representative from each fraternity and sorority, and representatives of non-fraternity students in the ratio of one representative for each 40 or major fraction thereof.

The election will be held Tuesday, May 13, 1924, from 1 to 5 P.M.

Miss Arnold in Spain

Miss Frances Arnold of the Spanish Department who was granted a leave of absence for study in Spain is now in Madrid. Miss Arnold sailed June 21 from N. Y. taking a tour thru Southern France and Spain, later attending the fall and winter courses at the Centro Estudios Historicos.

During the first few months of her stay in Madrid, she lived at the Instituto Internacional, a school founded by an American woman to provide a home for American girls studying in Spain, but which now forms a part of the Residencia de Senoritas.

At present thru the kindly efforts of Senorita Maria de Maeztu, directora del Grupo de Senoritas, she is pleasantly located in a cultured Spanish family where no English is spoken.

Miss Arnold leaves Spain soon to visit France and Italy, returning home in June.

Spring Camp

"Plans for the spring camp are by no means complete as yet," says Major Glover, "but we shall expect in another week to be able to give the Campus a fairly complete outline of the program."

"We are now working hard on the arrangements for railroad transportation, equipment, preparation of the camp site, food supplies, and what is most important of all—the cooks."

The reporter mentioned that a good many fellows were worrying as to whether they would be required to wear their blouses or coats at the camp.

Major Glover laughed heartily at this and said, "Certainly not. Tell them they will probably take them down, but they will be worn only for formal dress."

Hardy's Tivoli Orchestra of Worcester will be the attraction at the Junior Prom, May 10. It is rarely indeed that such music as this is heard on the campus, as those who attended the Winter Carnival will testify. Hardy's Orchestra is composed of seven pieces. They play regularly at Hotel Bancroft and the Copley Plaza. It was previously understood that this orchestra would be at the Track Club Cabaret, but, such is not the case. The Junior Prom will be the last opportunity to hear them this season.

Co-ed (on telephone)—"Hello."
Man—"Hello, Ruth. Do you know who this is?"

Co-ed—"I'm awfully sorry, Arthur, but I don't seem to recognize your voice."—Varnish.

FRESHMEN AT MICHIGAN PAY FOR CLASS SPIRIT

The freshman class of Michigan University will have to foot a bill of over fifty dollars for the removal of a flag bearing the numerals of 1927 from the top of the flag staff. The banner was hoisted into position and the rope cut,
making it impossible to lower the flag
without climbing to the top of the mast.
Arrangements have been made to have a man climb the pole and straighten things out.—The Tech.

I can get a good story—something ex-so? Tell me where, quick."

Roommate—"Library. Ask for 'Don Juan.'—Long Distance.

Diemand: "Fat, why are you mailing all the empty envelopes?"

Edstrom: "I'm cutting classes in a correspondence school."

Rum—Ho hum! There's nothing new under the sun.

Bum—No, and there's also a lot of old stuff pulled off under the moon.

In order to get some first-hand information on the life a hobo leads, a

Dinner Parties

The board of Trustees have formally
accepted an offer from the local chapter
of Phi Beta Kappa which will establish
a scholarship for a student doing graduate work in the Arts and Sciences.

This Scholarship provides a year's free tuition in the Graduate School, and
the award is not restricted, as in case of
the other scholarships offered by the University, to members of the graduating class. The recipient need not be a member of Phi Beta Kappa, and may be a graduate of another college or university.

Anyone interested should consult with Dean Stevens or Dean Chase for further information in regard to form of application. This should be done as soon as
before Commencement.

New Scholarship

One of the splendid results of the discussion groups established by Sherwood Eddy is the weekly dinner parties
arranged between Mt. Vernon and Balen-tine. Each Wednesday night fifteen girls from Mt. Vernon are to come to Barentine for dinner and fifteen Balen-tine girls go to Mt. Vernon. The first exchange was last Wednesday and was very successful. The girls all enjoyed themselves. The purpose of this exchange is to further the friendship between the girls in each house and to substitute Maine spirit for dormitory
spirit.

CO-EDS WANT SMOKING ROOM

Brown University women of the minority group would like to have a smoking room, it was learned at the women's student government convention.
Eleven of the colleges and universities represented had no rule against smoking, and one college reported a rule permitting students to smoke.—Brown University.

Thirteen students in the department of military science and tactics in the University of Ohio, were suspended from the University recently and deprived of all university privileges for the remainder of the semester. Credit for work done in other courses than military science will also be lost. Continued unexcused absences were given as the cause for the suspension, according to Colonel Townsend, commandant.

of Maine, and posed in the 1921 pageant as a "Veazie" locomotive.

The second railroad to be built in the United States was the Bangor and Piscataquis line connecting the Brownville slate quarries with shipping facilities in Bangor. This road was later extended to Old Town. Col. Veazie bought it in 1847, after which it was known as the "Veazie Railroad." It had two locomotives, neither of which was the lion.

Goods were brought from New York and Boston to Bangor by packet and schooner, and then by railroad around Penobscot rapids to Old Town. From this point goods were shipped by steam packet lines from Old Town and Milford to Mattawamkeag, and thus took goods to points which reached lumber camps.

"Grape-Nuts" and Psychology

An interesting letter from a student at the University of Pennsylvania

POSTUM CEREAL COMPANY, INC.
 Battle Creek, Michigan

Gentlemen:

Today in psychology class we had an experiment known as the mental imagery experiment in which we were given the Galton Breakfast Table Blank to fill out.

The procedure of this interesting experiment was first to recall in the "mind's eye" the breakfast table as we sat down to it that morning and to call up its general appearance: the table, the food, dishes, and those present.

This is what happened to me:

I tried to recall the appearance of the table, the dishes, those who sat at the table with me—the only thing that I could recall was my breakfast food—"Grape-Nuts." I could see plainly in my mental imagery the crisp and wonderfully delicious dish of my breakfast food and the well-known box of Grape-Nuts.

The cause for this mental imagery of "Grape-Nuts" was that we are "conscious of environment through sensations"—that we will recall in mental imagery those things that have made a favorable impression upon our minds.

I have eaten "Grape-Nuts" since the time I started to grade school and your famous slogan "There's a Reason" explains it all.

Yours for a well-balanced food,

(Signed) S. H. LEBENSBERGER
