MAINE WILL BE ACTIVE OCT. 25

Football and Cross-country will furnish Excitement

Saturday, October 25 will decide whether the University will have an East Championship in football. The Boys play Colby and as our men are in the best of condition a great fighting game will be expected.

Colby has a defensive team and although it has been our jinx, the blue team should win. Coach Bixby says the Colby team will display many new plays in the Colby game which have not been used as yet.

The Cross Country teams will be in action the Saturday afternoon. The war will again be fought in the Gymnasium.

The traditional love fire will be kindled on Saturday night and all of the Kremmien are over. Fair gallery is available because of recent clearings and the largest fire ever is planned by the committee. A box strong enough for the biggest old timer will be there for the introduction speeches thereon plus the great spirit this informal part of the evening will unfold.

MAINE VOTES TO BE TAKEN ON PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES OCT. 23

ELECTION THURSDAY

Students to Vote in Other Colleges

The University of Maine will take part in the General Election. The students in the various colleges will be registered to vote and with the exception of the Law School, students from all parts of the New England States can be registered to vote. The University is divided into seven districts.

Plans are in process of formation for registering the students in the various colleges and for providing facilities for the University不知道

Construction of the Memorial Gymnasium-Army has been started. These 42,000 cubic feet of space will accommodate the entire student body and the students and friends of the University who subscribed over $452,000 to erect the new building will be given a good chance to see the progress of the work and the students who are living near the campus will be able to see it every day.

The vision here shown is the first elevation plan of the proposed building. It shows its size, beauty and utility which will appeal to all.

The committee of alumni known as the Memorial Fund Commission has set out a Building Requirements Committee determined what features the proposed building should include. The task of getting the construction done call for a corporation so prominent alumni were incorporated as The Memorial Building Committee for this purpose last winter.

As a result of this committee's uniting work each individual will be the personal register his or her preferences.

The executive committee for the class will consist of the following: Chuck Bidder of Dover-Foxcroft, Maurice Brown of Bangor, Charles Boardman '95 of East Machias, Thomas Little and Russell of Boston were invited to speak. Captain Price was carried off the field with an ankle sprain which will keep him out of the running against Dartmouth.

The Banquet of Gardiner was elect of the class.

RECORD ATTENDANCE IS EXPECTED

There will be a record attendance at Maine Night which will be held in the Memorial Gymnasium. Tickets by Alumni for the Colby game indicate that support will be high in defeating the team that kept Maine from a state championship last year. Exer-

To Alumni

To you Alumni who will be in us Maine this week and will be interested in the present and past glories of Maine's athletic teams, The Campus contains a valuable article.

One may regard this somewhat curiously, perhaps with the feeling that one's days of athletic enthusiasm are over. You remember days of straining for the goal, days of hearing the sound of the siren, days of cheering. The mutual interest which you have in the game, the strategy and the pace of the game, the appeals to duty and honor, the pride of the university which you had. All, are with you today.
