FROSH AND SOPHS IN DESPERATE BATTLES

During the great war, the Frosh and Sophs were on opposite sides, and the Frosh, led by their beloved Professor McGillicutty, were in the trenches, fighting for their lives. The Sophs, on the other hand, were on the home front, working in the factories and supporting the war effort.

The battle raged on for weeks, with both sides sustaining heavy losses. However, in the end, the Frosh emerged victorious, thanks to their superior numbers and strategic planning. The Sophs, on the other hand, were forced to retreat and regroup.

The next day, the Frosh and Sophs met to discuss the aftermath of the battle. They agreed that the Frosh had shown great bravery and leadership, and that the Sophs had demonstrated great resilience and determination. In the end, the two sides were able to put their differences aside and work together for the betterment of the college.

All in all, it was a great day for the Frosh and Sophs, and they learned valuable lessons about leadership, strategy, and teamwork. They were able to come together and overcome their differences, and they were proud of their accomplishments. The Frosh and Sophs will forever be remembered as two great sides who fought hard and played fair, and who ultimately learned to work together for the greater good.

The annual R. O. T. C. Hop was given by the military department of the University at Alumni Hall, Friday evening, April ninth. The Hop was beautifully decorated with Maine blue and white streamers. The banners of the companies made appropriate backgrounds for the decorations. A campaign song held by the "Bluejackets" who furnished music for an order of twenty danses. Tiny varicolored lights scattered about the bandstands added to the attractiveness of the setting.

Delicious punch was served by freshmen during the dance, and ice cream and cookies at intermission. The favors were dainty handkerchiefs attractively wrapped in white boxes tied with blue ribbons.

Patrons for the Hop were President Boardman, and Boardman, Stevens, W. S. Chase and Capt. Kenneth W. Barker, Lieutenants Lawrence B. Blethen and Lieutenant Laurence K. Whitten and Lieutenant Wallace G. Elliott composed the Hop Committee.

Remove your own wishes and look it coldly. Are you satisfied in the work you do? What sort of work is it? Would you like to change if you could? Would you like more freedom of action? Would you like your income to answer more nearly to your present efforts.

Close harmony

Don't think that a college "sing" is the only place for close harmony. The electrical communication industry, too, has applied the big idea.

Four men put their heads together in the research laboratory — and there evolves a new and scientifically accurate basis for the measurement of speech and hearing.

"There is a place made for your engineers, whose pole lines stretch across country, work hand in hand with purchasing engineers who look forty years ahead for the pole supply of the future.

In the factory, engineers and craftsmen together develop new processes and almost human machines to increase production and effect economies.

Combined ability—that's the thing! In the words of the song, "a long pull, a strong pull, and we'll all pull together."

"THE DESTINY" continues nightly at 9:00PM.

"SEAHORSES" continues Saturdays at 8:30PM.

SCOOP

Scoop will be discontinued this year since the women members of the class are to be present for the first time in history.

The Secret of How This Graduate Made a Five Figure Income In Five Years

LIVED IN Norfolk, Ohio.
He fias wanted him to go into some business around home.

Went to the city he thought he wanted to live in.

Tired that having spent four years at college, he didn't really want to try living down to "just a job."

Neither did he want to go back to father's old business.

So we are, the same old story as many of you college fellows have to have sooner or later.

But a red-blooded, two-fisted kind of a fellow, with his old college chums, and he went to get in some business that he wouldn't keep him all bottled up.

Looked around a bit during his college days, and finally decided he would build new greenhouses and grow lettuces and tomatoes.

From the very start he made money. That was the thrill.

Now he has a lot of friends on top of a hill, and from the big city, and acts of greenhouse-covered fields of ferns and lettuces.

Both of them are having the time of their life.

I wish the well of Norfolk, Ohio could do as well as you.

"We'll hold you the greenhouses and let you do in your own way to getting started."

Write us. "Let's get the idea working and plans started."

If interested write to the Manager of our Service Department, Close Building, Cleveland, Ohio; who will give you his personal attention.

When the straight-8 blows a shoe

BEFORE you even look for the jack or tire-wrench, tuck a neat waxed card of Prince Albert into the muzzle of your Jimmy-pipe. Light up . . . and get yourself in the frame of mind where a flat tire is "all in the day's work." Talk about a gloom-chaser!

P. A. simply knocks troubles for a row of plunged-steel mudguards. Its cool, soothing smoke percolates into your system, the sun rays through the clouds, and everything is hotsy-totsy. Yes, indeed, fellows, Prince Albert is great tobacco.

And paste this in the flyleaf of your textbook. Look up . . . and get yourself in the frame of mind where a flat tire is "all in the day's work." Talk about a gloom-chaser!
