CHRISTMAS HANDICAP PLANS COMPLETED WITH MINOR CHANGES
MEET TO START AT 7:00 AND OWLS TO RUN DANCE

By

The Christmas Handicap plans are nearing completion and should be finished this week. The committee has been working hard, as announced by the director, to have the race completed on time. The race will be held on December 20th and the tickets will be on sale at the Liberty Book store. The cast will be announced shortly.

ARTS RALLY MAKES HIT
Proves to be Excellent Information Bureau

How many people on the campus know the answers to the riddles? A worker for the information bureau has compiled a list to answer the question. The list contains the names of the students who have answered the riddles correctly. The list will be available to the public soon.

DUTT Little Loses "CLIPPY"
Well-known Scotch Terrier Causes Sensation at Michigan

President Little of the University of Michigan advertised in the Michigan Daily last week for his lost Scotch Terrier, "Clippy," describing the dog as "shy and unobtrusive." A reward of $25 was offered.

The feature column of the page added the following to the search for the lost dog in a quiet manner:

"NAUGHTY, NAUGHTY, MUSTN'T PLAY TIGER"

Students who are absent from classes may have the perfectly valid excuse that they were out hunting President Little's dog, one Clippy.
ORGANIZATIONS

Miss McKellar, a field worker from the national headquarters of the Camp Fire Girls of America, recently paid us a visit. She told us about her work with the Camp Fire Girls of America, and their activities. Her first lecture was given on Monday afternoon, November 30, before the Land-

-I land, and its meaning, and its necessity was tak-
-en up and discussed in an informal group. Another interesting and important Camp Fire symbols and words, made by Mrs. McKellar, were also brought to us. Other lectures on November 30 were given by Miss McKellar, who expressed her interest and confidence in me.

I raine you to keep the Camp Fire, which I have served with great interest, in mind at all times.

The Contributors' Club held its semi-
-annual initiation Thursday evening, Dec. 2. Twenty-two new members were in attendance, and two already members, Dr. C. E. S. Hill, chairman of the chapel orchestra and music director, and Mr. A. H. H. Bennett, head of the department of music, were both present.

The Phi Eta Kappa fraternity held an initiation meeting in the chapel Saturday evening, December 4. An orchestra un-
-der the direction of Miss McKellar and her husband furnished music for the occasion.

The members present were Mrs. Mrs. V. C. V. and Mrs. H. J. E., and Miss McKellar, who was acting as chair-

A short pause and the scene shifted to Prof. Kenny's flower garden. Prof. Kenny (William Backe) is seen leaning on his hoe in the garden (two vases of faded flowers on either side of the stage). A glowing cord appears (Hetty Poncho) who finds it very difficult to gain any satisfaction whatsoever concerning her flowering in French, but due to her interest in the "mystical romance" of the language, and finally to her intense interest in "justice" (plaintiffs) and thrilling suit catalogs, she is rewarded with the gift of a posy. The supposed beauty of the garden was exchanged for an interior of Dean Stevens' (Brad Baker) office. It took something real acting on the part of Anna Stinchfield to put her part across, but she did it nobly—a meek little girl just so lost in the bible and the story of that non-existent, interesting author—Charles Dickens—that she neglected her parties, her studies, and her meals. After the program, Kenny's delicious punch and fancy cookies were served in the gymnasium.

This is a Bank worthy of your Confidence and eager for your Patronage.

REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY, WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.
A sermon in stones

 Cecil Rhodes, the diamond king, had a real idea which he passed on to diamonds in the rough. "Be well-rounded men, broad in your sympathies," he said, and he made this the basis for selection of Rhodes scholars.

Surely there's a lesson for every man—graduates alike in arts, in pure science or in applied science—to balance the student in him with the athlete, the individualist with the "citizen of the world." Surely there's a lesson for every man—graduate alike in arts, in pure science or in applied science—to balance the student in him with the athlete, the individualist with the "citizen of the world."
