MAINE ELEVEN WILL TRY TO AVENGE WILDCAT DEFEATS

Conference Championship Will Be Goal of Bricemen When Whistle Blows For Saturday's Game, With Whole
Team at Peak of Training

WILL BE LAST FRAY FOR SENIORS

Assuring themselves of at least a tie in the State Series title Maine is now preparing to take the New Hampshire Wildcats into camp Saturday and annex the New England Conference Title. The Wildcat has beaten Maine in the last three years twice and Maine tied them the other game. So now Maine is out to avenge these defeats and once more establish the football supremacy that is theirs. Last year the team let down after the State Series as if that game was the climax and as a result went down to defeat after playing ahead of the Granite Staters until a touchdown that Maine earned was taken away by the referee and gave New Hampshire the game 14-7.

But this year Brice is pursuing a different policy and instead of making the Bowdoin game his objective he is planning ahead to the New Hampshire game and as a result the team that meets New Hampshire will be a team that is just reaching the peak of its training and not a post season climax.

After Maine decisively defeated Bowdoin last Saturday there seems to be little chance left for any doubt but what Maine has the team and the plays that can mount up a score on New Hampshire that will insure a Maine victory. By reasoning of past games Maine won decisively over Rhode Island State who beat New Hampshire 20-18. Maine beat Bowdoin who beat the Wildcats 12-7. Maine beat Connecticut Aggies who beat them 9-6, and Maine beat Bates 67-0, while Tufts beat Bates 28-0, and Tufts beat New Hamp-

CONN. AGGIES ARE BEATEN

Bangor Team Defeats
Freshman Hockey
Players

On Saturday morning, the Maine hockey team, playing a brilliant game against their old rivals, the "Connecticut Aggies," defeated them for the third time in successive years, and, amid the cheers of the spectators, rolled up a score of 8-0.

The "Aggies" were complacent over their 9-0 defeat of Jackson College, the day before, and began the game with the idea that Maine was only a small and easily-removed obstacle in their path to glory. After the first few plays, when Maine, in perfect formation carried the ball down to their goal, the "Aggies" lost their confidence, and began to fight. But it was a losing fight. The Maine forwards easily evaded the opposing backs, and were continually rushing the Aggie goal. The Connecticut team lacked cooperation. Their fullbacks were hard-hitters, but they did not pass to any single player, and, when they had cleared the ball out of their territory, it was picked up by a Maine player and carried back again. The team has no coach, and the captain has been filling this position.

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM TO RUN IN N. E. MEET IN BOSTON MONDAY

KANALY EXPECTS HARRIERS TO GIVE GOOD ACCOUNT OF THEMSELVES

The varsity cross country team leaves this weekend for Boston where it will run in the New England Intercollegiate Meet to be held over the Franklin Park course on Monday of next week. The team is composed of Captain Cushing, Benson, Richardson, McNaughton, Lindsay, Stinson and Mank, and will be accompanied by Coach Frank Kanaly and Manager Lloyd. The freshmen are to be represented by a team at this meet also and ten men are to make the trip. The two races are to be run a half hour apart, one at two o'clock and one at two-thirty.

While not making any predictions at present, Coach Kanaly has the greatest confidence in his team and expects Maine to be well placed in the final scoring if it isn't at the top of the list. Bud Lindsay is at present on the sick list and may not be able to run Monday but if improvement comes, he will be able to uphold his end of the team. The greatest opposition will probably be New Hampshire State, who are out to avenge their decisive defeat handed them at Orono this fall.

The Bowdoin game added two more players to the injured list at the Maine football camp. Jackie Moran, substitute half got some lime in his eye, recovering slowly. Kid Powell received a severe blow in the head while attempting to recover a fumble and was knocked unconscious. A slight concussion of the brain set in and a temporary loss of memory resulted. He is improving slowly, but it will be some time before he will be able to resume his regular work.

Unbeknown to many, Rip Black, Maine's stellar right end, entered the game Saturday with a strained shoulder with the chance that a severe blow might injure the shoulder for good. But notwithstanding, Rip played a ripping game. Harry Hartman, right guard, had a bad leg

PEAKES IS LEADING KICKER OF EAST

A dual drop-kick or placement kick contest in which each team would have five tries for goal with a different kicker and a different snapper-back each time is the newest and perhaps most novel method yet proposed for settling tie games in football. The idea belongs to William J. McAvoy, coach of football and basketball at the University of Vermont. The contest would follow the deadlocked play and the winning team would be the one making the most goals in the five attempts. The try for point after each touchdown would be abolished under this system which McAvoy believes would emphasize general kicking ability and remove the tendency of a team to depend upon the booting of one skilled toe.

Outstanding among those steady-nerved young men who poise behind crumbling lines and boot the ball over the cross bars for a small but important extra point after touchdown is Peakes of the high-scoring University of Maine eleven. Peakes has made 21 extra points besides four touchdowns. Other consistent kickers in the East include Halicki of Bucknell and Cohalan of Manhattan, each with 14 extra points; Roepke, Penn State, and Strong, N. Y. U., each 13; Madden, Columbia, and Lane, Dartmouth, each 12; and Booth, Pittsburgh, 11.

The Executive Committee of the Alumni Association met Saturday morning, November 5. All members of the committee were present showing that they are interested in the University. Plans were discussed for the completion of the new gymnasium. The Indoor Field is now clear of all debts and has been presented to the University. All the money from now on which is collected for the Memorial Fund will be deposited for the new gymnasium.

MAINE NIGHT QUITE WET

Alumni and Students
Turn Out Despite Storm

Over one thousand alumni and a large percentage of the student body braved the heavy seas whipped up on Alumni Field by a strong gale, to attend the Maine Night celebration held at the indoor field last Friday evening.

The outside situation was a hopeless one, water and wind being outstanding features. The indoor field furnished an ideal shelter and the program was carried out as planned with the exception of the usual bonfire which was cancelled because of weather conditions.

The enthusiastic gathering of alumni, faculty, and students listened to a fine speaking program. Professor C. P. Weston, who spoke on "Maine To-day", was the outstanding speaker. Professor Weston told, in a pleasing and amusing manner, of the changes which the University of Maine has undergone since its beginning.

R. H. Fogler, president of the Alumni Association, added spice to the program with an amusing talk.

Professor L. S. Corbett, chairman of the athletic board, truly replaced the bonfire, as he said, in his warm praise of the Athletic Board and its cooperation.

The other speakers were:

PROMINENT ALUMNI AT BOWDOIN GAME

The following Alumni were seen in the stands cheering for Maine:

Paul L. Bean of Lewiston '04, all Maine end on 1903 championship team.

Charles D. Bartlett of Bangor '14, author of our football song, Marching to Victory.

R. H. Bryant of Biddeford '15, quarterback on the state championship team which beat Harvard 7-0.

L. O. Barrows of Newport '16, member of Governor's council.

Hosea Buck of Bangor '93, Alumni Trustee.

A. L. Bird of Rockland '99, captain of football team.

H. G. (Hap) Crozier of Brownville '27, varsity pitcher for several years captain of 1926 baseball team.

N. S. Donahue of Belfast '15, all Maine end and played on four state championship teams.

W. B. Hussey of Bangor '21, all Maine guard.

Verne Beverly of Presque Isle '20, all Maine end.

Lloyd Houghton '12, captain of Track.

Otis C. Lawry of Fairfield '16, Baseball and Track man. He later played in the big leagues.

N. H. Mayo of Portland '09, star first baseman.

Frank Pretti of Portland '17, held records in the two mile and was captain of the cross country team. He was a member of the cross country team which won American Intercollegiate cross country run.

George Stobey of Waterville '14, varsity pitcher.

Leon W. Smiley of Skowhegan '13, star halfback.

Allen F. Sawyer of Bangor '14, captain of the state championship football team in 1913.

In a time honored encounter the Pale Blue chargers of the University of Maine, won a decisive victory last Saturday over their traditional rivals, the Black and White standard bearers from Bowdoin.

It was a mud-stained, forlorn looking Polar Bear that picked himself up when the game was over. Hopelessly beaten he returned once again to his Brunswick home his only reconciliation, the hope of having better luck next time.

The battle for supremacy between the two bears of the State of Maine was not an uninteresting one, however, even tho the score might indicate that it was somewhat of a walkaway. The Polar Bear, although he saw after the first few minutes of play, that "he didn't have a thing on ice," fought heroically in hope of scoring a point against his black adversary. Thruout the fight he growled ferociously, making never tiring attempts but with every new try his opponent proved a little too efficient for him.

The Black Bear proved his supremacy in all stages of the game. In line bucks, end runs, and especially in the passing game he showed a marked advantage over his white opponent. Although a few of the attempted forward passes were not completed, the Black Bear gridsters stuck like glue to the biggest part of them. As a matter of fact most of the yardage was gained thru the air game but there was also a lot of good line bucking along with this, which made the offensive work of the bears very well balanced.

Captain "Mose" Nanigian played the game of his life scoring two touchdowns and breaking thru for more than his share of the tackles. Rip Black, at the other end position, played a heads-up game, intercepting several passes and holding his own when the Polar Bear attempted to skirt his end. In the backfield Osgood played one of the best games of his college career. It seemed as though he had been injected with some magic power developer. He ran back the punts and operated the team like the worthy veteran hat he is.

The Polar Bear luminaries were little less spectacular. In the backfield Frank Foster played an exceptionally fine game. Several times he broke loose for com-

Two Alumni Fly To Game And Provide Thrills

Most of the people came to the game last Saturday by car. A few came by train. But only two used the airplane as their means of conveyance to Orono. They were Merle Fogg of West Enfield, ex-'20, and Carl Ring, '25. Fogg, who is the owner of the plane, obtained permission Saturday morning from Treasurer Youngs to land near the Crosby building. Although the ground was a little soft, the airmen had no difficulty either in landing or in taking off. Before the game the two flew over Alumni Field and entertained the gathering crowd with exhibitions of loop-the-loops, tail spins, falling leap, etc. After the game Fogg and Ring made a quick getaway and were flying low over the field before the people had emptied the seats.

Only once before has a man used an airplane to come to a football game in Orono. This was Capt. Albert W. Stevens '07, who flew from McCook Field, Ohio, to Bangor in 1923. He took part in Maine Night exercises and the next day saw the Maine-Bowdoin game. Capt. Stevens is now chief of the Aerial Photographic Branch of the Engineering Division of the U. S. Army. He is noted for breaking the world's record for parachute jumping, with his drop of over four miles and a half.

How Did You Do It?

Every year about this time, the faculty expect to hear someone pop the same, old, and now worn-out, question: How about the Friday after Thanksgiving? This un-failing, annual question is now ranking in importance with the persistence and regularity by which we beat Bowdoin at football. If it were omitted for one year, the faculty, no doubt, would have cause to wonder at the decadence of student spirit. But then, isn't history full of examples where principles emerge victorious, only after persistent efforts? We should like to recommend such an attitude here at Maine (we have tried everything else) with best wishes and hopes for the future.

At the same time, let us congratulate Bates at their recent good fortune, which, judging from our own experiences, must have come only after many years' labor. The following editorial from The Bates Student will explain what has happened:

"I'll be home for Thanksgiving." We wish to extend the faculty our sincere appreciation. Not merely due to the fact that they have granted our petition, but because they evidently believed the wishes of the three or four hundred students who signed the petition to be sincere—that they did sign because of the keen desire to be in their homes on Thanksgiving Day and not merely to have another day off. This seems a very fine instance of the co-operation and mutual understanding necessary between faculty and students in order to foster the proper campus morale."

Future Bowdoin Games

The Bowdoin-Maine game, played here every other year, is the only game at which our traffic problem becomes complex—and the seating arrangement at the game, difficult! For this reason, a million dollar bowl is out of the question, and not only that, but ridiculous. Autos, to say nothing of airplanes, were filing down from the campus fully an hour after the last whistle had blown on the field. All of which must be comforting to the exchequer of the A. A., and to others interested in the importance which this game is assuming in Maine football circles. The future promises even larger crowds, more cars, and even airplanes!

Many students found, much to their discomfort, that the space allotted them to watch the game, via the blanket tax, was hardly enough to allow them to stand to cheer in fear that the available 3" (if lucky) would disappear. A great many did not feel this discomfort—they stood altogether. Enough space was allowed, we are told, but so many outsiders sneaked in without blanket taxes that they filled up the precious seats. This, despite the fact that an announcement was made that no one would be admitted without the blanket tax! When our peak reaches 15,000, a practice game in the morning between the teams, just for students and those who wish to sneak in, is the only alternative!

Prof. Dickinson will speak at the meeting of the Arts Club Saturday afternoon, which will be held at the home of Dean G. D. Chase. His subject will be "The Development of Mentality."

Sophomores Win In Cross Country Meet

The Sophomores won the Inter-class cross country meet held over the course last Monday with a score of 29. The Freshmen were second with a score of 59, followed by the Juniors with a score of 82, and the Seniors were fourth with 111 points.

Every class but the Seniors had a full team, they having only three men. Richardson and Lindsey of the sophomore class, and McNaughton of the junior delegation tied for first place. Captain Cushing of the senior team finished fourth closely followed by Al Benson, also a senior. Miller, who turned in several good performances last spring surprised the track followers by placing sixth. Miller has not been out for track this fall because of scholastic difficulties but showed that his ability is not latent.

Interscholastic Meet For C.C. Championship

The Maine Interscholastic Cross Country Championship will be held here at the University of Maine this year. There will be a dinner given to the participants at 11:30 A.M. the day of the meet. The following schools have been invited to participate in this meet which is to be run off November 11th at 3 P.M.

Washburn High School, *Scarboro High School, Yarmouth High School, Freeport High School, *Danforth High School, *Brewer High School, Van Buren High School, Wypitlock High School, *Deering High School, South Windham High School, La Grange High School.

*Hebron Academy, *Lee Academy, Wilton Academy, Hartland Academy, Dover-Foxcroft Academy, Coburn Classical Institute, Maine Central Institute, *Pennell Institute of Gray.

*Those who have already signified intentions of competing.

Dr. Young, of the Biology department, represented the University of Maine at the inauguration of President Pease of Amherst College last Friday.

Miss J. Josephine Tucker, of the English department, is giving a weekly course in English at the Bangor Theological Seminary.

Prof. J. H. Huddleston gave a talk on "Various Views of Socrates" at the meeting of the Maine Teachers' Association in Portland.

Prof. Mark Bailey acted as delegate from the University at the second annual Institute of the Eastern Intercollegiate Forensic Conference held in Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 5. Prof. Bailey made a start in establishing an Eastern Intercollegiate Speaking Contest for original speeches. It is hoped that a prize will be donated. Plans are to have a number of the eastern colleges join and have an oratorical contest. Tentative plans were made and Prof. Bailey hopes that in another year the idea will materialize.

Prof. Ellis, head of the English department is giving a course of instruction in English to the Bangor schools every week.

Harold W. Leavitt, Associate Professor of Civil Engineering and Testing Engineer for the State Highway Commission, represented the University at the regional meeting of the State Chamber of Commerce held at Auburn on November 3. Professor Leavitt recently attended a meeting of the Committee on Highway materials of the American Association of State Highway Officials at Washington, D. C.

Professor Llewellyn M. Dorsey has recently returned from Cleveland, Ohio, where he attended a meeting of the National Ice Cream Manufacturers' Association. Mr. Dorsey is Associate Professor of Animal Industry and in charge of the Dairy Husbandry curriculum and is a member of the New England Ice Cream Manufacturers' Association which is a regional division of the National Association. He also attended the Dairy Industries Exposition held at Cleveland in conjunction with the other association.

Dean Cloke, Professor E. H. Sprague and Professor W. S. Evans will attend the meeting of the New England Section of the Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education at Tufts College November 12.

BANGOR POLICE WILL TRY TO STOP BUMMING

Bumming—that time-saving and money-saving pastime of college students must stop, at least within the city limits of Bangor. In the interests of safety—first to life, limb, and family reunions, the Chief of Police of Bangor has stated that students will no longer be permitted to spread themselves along State Street waiting for someone to pick them up and drive them to Orono. Following a minor accident recently, precautions are being taken to prevent any future accidents caused by students stepping out from the side of the road or walking down along the middle of it. While arrest for bumming is not mentioned at the present time, it does not follow that such a measure will not be taken in the future if the habit is not discontinued. As it is, a "pleasant interview" with the Chief for offenders apprehended is not improbable.

Masque Will Present Mystery Play Dec. 14

The Maine Masque will present "In the Next Room," on December 14. The play is one of the best produced in recent years. The mysterious atmosphere which permeates it, makes the play very interesting. The cast is working hard and it will, no doubt, be a big success.

The cast is as follows:

Philip Vantine—Maurice Wheeler
Lorna Webster, his niece—Thelma Shea or Louise Theriault
James Godfrey—J. Hobart Pierce
Rogers (Vantine's Footman)—Versal Robey
Parks (Vantine's Butler)—Robert Parks

Tim Morel, a policeman—Reginald Wilson
Madame De Charriere—Sylvia Gould or Jessie Ashworth
Julia—Polly Hall
Colonel Piggott—Franchaw Orcutt

Phi Kappa Phi recently announced its pledges from the class of 1928 at the annual meeting held in Wingate Hall. They are: G. Raymond Chappell, Linwood S. Cotton, Thelma A. Perkins, and Philip H. Trickey.

Election of officers for the coming year took place at this time and the following were elected by a unanimous vote: president, Dean Paul Cloke; vice-president: Professor Marion Buzzell; secretary: Professor J. H. Waring; treasurer: Weston Evans; historian: Ava H. Chadbourne.

Bates to Have Recess Thanksgiving Week

For the first time in many years Bates is to have a four day recess at Thanksgiving time, as announced by the student council last Wednesday. The recess is to begin Wednesday night, November 23, and continue until Monday morning. This is to give the students a chance to go to their homes.

Last year a similar plan was under consideration here at Maine, but no action was taken.

With just Thursday a holiday, it is practically impossible for the majority of students to go home, especially when double cuts are the rule for Wednesday and Friday.

It seems as though something could be worked out satisfactory to both the students and the University. Perhaps by giving an extra day after Thanksgiving, and eliminating the holiday at Memorial day, which always comes during finals or just previous to them, an equilibrium could be maintained.

A picture of the Pi Beta Phi lodge appeared in the Boston Post last Sunday. This is certainly publicity for the University.

The reign of Bananas the Eighth will be short and sweet as he goes back to his home in Lincoln after the New Hampshire game Saturday. The Senior Skulls are going to buy a cub some time next spring.

Conn. Aggies Are Beaten

This evening, the varsity hockey team leaves Bangor on the eight o'clock train, on its first and only trip of the season, to play Jackson College in Medford, Mass., tomorrow afternoon.

Last year the Maine team, playing Jackson at Medford Hillside, defeated them 8-0. The Connecticut Aggies defeated Jackson 9-0 last Friday, and on Saturday, Maine rolled up a score of 8-0 over the "Aggies." By all indications, Maine should slaughter Jackson, but comparative scores are not to be depended on, and Maine is going into the game, not with a confident idea of their ability to whitewash Jackson, but with the determination to fight their hardest to win.

The following girls will make the trip: Captain Bobby White, Virginia Smith, Arline Robbins, Mary Robinson, Dorothy Ross, Beulah Kneeland, Ellen Mullaney, Eunice Barrows, Thelma Shea, Alice Webster, Mary Mahoney, Caroline Collins, Rachel Matthews, Rebecca Matthews, Sadie Thompson, Elizabeth Murphy, Sylvia Gould, and Francis Fuller.

In the annual freshman-Bangor hockey battle which took place last Tuesday afternoon, the home team, displaying fine cooperation, held Bangor to a score of 3-0.

The freshmen gave an exhibition of perfect team work, in which they have been thoroughly trained, while Bangor was more interested in individual playing; her forwards carried the ball continually without passing.

Spurred on by the cheering and honking of automobile horns, the freshmen fought as they never had before, and Bangor, who had expected an easy victory, was forced to summon all her forces in order to make her goals.

Many times the freshmen rushed the ball toward their opponents' goal, which was completely blocked by the massing of the whole Bangor team, and they were unable to get the ball through it; this was their greatest weakness.

Maine Eleven Will Try To Avenge Wildcat Defeats

shire 39-0 last Saturday. But as nothing can be made of comparative scores it is hard to prophesy the exact result of Saturday's game. Maine has decidedly the stronger team but, as before, they may fall down at the crucial moment and give way to defeat. But unless the team and its moral changes suddenly the Maine Bear will be fighting Saturday to show New England that it has one of the highest ranking small college teams in the East.

Maine demonstrated an attack Saturday that is hard to stop and if that same attack is worked again Saturday New Hampshire will have to step in order to keep the scoring down and meanwhile attempt to annex a few points itself. Maine's line was as a stonewall Saturday and it was very rarely that a gain of any length at all was made thru this same line. Bowdoin's backs were thrown for a few losses mainly because the line tore through the heavier Bowdoin line and smeared the plays before they got started.

Saturday's game is the last game this season and will mark the passing of some real football players who have made Maine's teams winning teams in late years. Tony Beaker, fighting guard; Ossie Osgood, dependable quarter; Pat Peakes, star triple threat man; Captain Nanigian, most capable of wingmen, Jack Minutti, tackle of great merit; and Harry Hartman, a new find but a strong guard are those that will play their last game of college football for Maine next Saturday against the Granite Staters.

Maine Night Quite Wet

Fred Scribner '28, who spoke for the student body; Coach Frank Kanaly, who introduced Captain Cushing of the cross country team; and Coach Fred Brice who spoke of the Bowdoin game and introduced captain of football, "Mose" Nanigian.

President Boardman acted as chairman and the University of Maine Band furnished a splendid musical program.

The spirit of celebration lasted throughout the night and the following day the little black bear of Maine triumphed over his arctic brother from Bowdoin before a capacity crowd, on Alumni field.

The field which the night before had been a sea of mud was in very good condition, thanks to the efforts of alumni and university hands.

A formation drill by the band and a snake dance conducted by the student body after the game added novelty to the day's sport.

that pained him considerably. Jimmie Buzzell also played under difficulty in that an ankle that has been bothering considerably lately, was very sore last week and has improved little so far. Osgood who played the most stellar game of his career last Saturday is back in uniform again and seems to be little bothered with injuries.

BATES PAPER PRAISES CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

The following extract was taken from the Bates Student, November 4, and should make Maine, the team, and Coach Frank Kanaly feel proud of the attitude which Bates holds for us:

"Altho the University of Maine is our rival, we feel that any team that can turn in a performance like theirs in the State Cross-Country Meet is deserving of congratulations. When only one opponent can break into the first six places, it is evident that the winning team is a brilliant one and one that should make the rest of New England sit up and take notice at the N. E. Intercollegiate on the fourteenth of November at Boston."

ARTS RALLY ON NOV. 30

The College of Arts and Sciences will have a rally Wednesday, November 30. This rally is open to all students of the College of Arts and Sciences. All Arts students are urged to keep that date open for the rally. These rallies have been a feature each year for the purpose of raising spirit for the College of Arts and Sciences. This corresponds to the smoker which is given by the College of Technology. A small prize is offered to the student who submits the best suggestions for stunts and good natured jokes for the rally. Light refreshments will be served. The admission will be ten cents.

The R.O.T.C. unit will parade in Old Town on Armistice Day.

It costs a lot. but Camel must have the best

It is true that Camel is the quality cigarette, but it costs to make it so. To make Camel the favorite that it is costs the choicest crops of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos grown. It requires the expense of a blending that leaves nothing undone in the liberation of tobacco taste and fragrance.

But the fame that Camel has won is worth all the trouble. It has brought modern smokers a new realization of excellence. They are particular and fastidious and they place Camel first.

Your taste will delight itself in these choice tobaccos. Camels get better the more of them you smoke. Their subtle tastes are unfolded by experience. They are always delightfully smooth.

"Have a Camel!"
