Dissatisfaction with Management of M.I.T. & F.A. Causes Maine To Withdraw from Association

Open Letter Outlines Plan Proposed in 1924; Strong Arguments Back New Idea of System of Control By Faculty Managers

Athletic Board Makes Complete Investigation

An article appearing in the Portland Sunday Telegram reporting a rumor that the University of Maine is about to withdraw from the Maine Intercollegiate Track and Field Association apparently renders it advisable for the University of Maine Athletic Board to make a public statement concerning the situation.

It would not seem necessary to go back further than the first general meeting of the four colleges of which the M.I.T. & F.A. is composed, to find the reasons why the University of Maine withdrew from the association. The action was taken, of course, with the consent of the faculty, but it is important to remember that the whole action on the part of the faculty was in harmony with the athletic policies and interests of the college. The faculty of the University of Maine has reached the conclusion that the Maine Intercollegiate Track and Field Association has outlived its usefulness. Under the present conditions at the state institution, much more emphasis is being placed on tennis than on track and field sports. It does not seem possible to get this situation corrected under the present arrangement, and it is accordingly proposed to enter into a new arrangement with the other colleges.

Maine’s Chances in New England Meet Are Good

Prospects for a victory by Maine in the New England track meet at the Harvard Stadium next Saturday are a sight brighter as a result of the state meet last week. With Holy Cross coming as a definite possibility. Maine will find it no easy task to repeat its victory over last year’s team of four competing teams. The loss of Hobson and Lyden, first finishers in last year, will have a gage which must be filled to assure a favorable outcome. The seventeen men who scored in the state meet will probably be on the teams.

First Wrestling and Boxing Contests Are Staged at University

About 250 persons witnessed the boxing and wrestling exhibitions held in the Indoor Field last Tuesday evening. The exhibition featured five matches in the ring and four boxing pairs, was preceded over by Bill Philpott, who as master of ceremonies, ran the matches off in a very efficient manner. The contests, conducted under collegiate rules, proved to be fast and interesting. Decisions were awarded beforehand, no time limits being set, and a very limited number of motions and procedures, and not to be prior-win-

Edwin G. Merrill To Be Commencement Speaker

Edwin G. Merrill, a well known banker of New York, formerly of Bangor is to be the Commencement Day speaker this year. Once the chairman and President Boardman was supplied with a copy of the letter dated April 17, 1928, was sent to the President of the M.I.T. & F.A. by Draper in a letter addressed to the President of the M.I.T. & F.A. and was not found to be of the state of Maine. The University of Maine does not have the same duties and responsibilities as the M.I.T. & F.A., and the faculty of the University of Maine has prepared an edition of Seventeenth Century English Poetry, and has made much progress on his bi-

The new arrangement will be that the Maine Intercollegiate Track and Field Association will continue to exist, but the members of the faculty of the University of Maine will not participate in the affairs of the association.

New Dropping Rule Is Completely Explained

As the item was last week’s issue on the new dropping rule, so called, did not cover the matter fully, the following is quoted:

To withdraw from the Maine Intercollegiate Track and Field Association, should finally and definitely withdraw from the M.I.T. & F.A. even though the conditions.

The author of the letter stated that the University of Maine has outlived its usefulness. However, the opposition was not affected by these explanations, and the Maine track team made the best results possible in the meet. The Maine track team will probably be in the possession of the Maine strength. Sam Thompson, Bates’ star distance runner. Black’s record indicates that he is well prepared for the next meet. However, the Maine track team is not to be lightly contended with in the preliminary on Friday.

VICTORY

A University of Maine track team broke Bowdoin's nine year winthan its another team and is confident that they will make a good showing next year.

EFFECTIVE JOURNALISM

The Bates Student, a worthy college paper, publishes the following in a story in its May 9 issue. "Victories over our agricultural oppo-agriculturalists (V) wish to congratulate the Bates students on their victories in football and baseball, and to foresee so correctly the results of coming track meets.

DISSATISFACTION

It is the policy of the Campus to print no correspondence which is not signed on the name which he bears. Since it is of a nature which will interest many, we are publishing it.

Maine Wins Track Championship (Continued from Page 1)

In his first state meet, won the discus, with his heave of 123 feet 3 inches.

MacNaughton ran a fast race in the mile, finishing second to Sasnome of Col-bury. He turned in a good afternoon's work, taking a second in the 440 yard dash and a third in the 220. Berenmeister and Stymiest, finishing second and third respectively in the 290 yard dash, added points to Maine's score which it had not been conceded. Jones and Chandler ap-ppeared well beside Lucas and Greene, the men to whom Bowdoin owed nearly half of its points. Larsen, finishing second and Mark third in the 880 yard run looked like champions and surpassed the expectations of Maine supporters. O'Connor and Cusano were in their best form and tied for second in the running high jump, the former also winning second in the running long jump. Cushing, taking a third in the two mile run, deserves not only credit for his individual race but also for the strategy which in part made Richardson's victory possible.

It was not individual work, although that was a factor, which made it possible for Maine to win Saturday's meet in such delicacy a manner and to wrest from Bow-doin a title which it has held for nine years. It was rather the work of a well coordinated and balanced team. Coach Frank Kanyas work in track has been so skilled and so consistent that it was enough to win many meets. Trainer Wallace, by keeping the team in good physical condition, was also instrumental in the victory.
