Greetings, UMaine Community!

I am writing in hopes that you will nominate a book for the 2025 Honors Read. Each year, first-year Honors students come together to read and discuss a common text—the Honors Read. The Honors Read both creates community among our incoming scholars and conveys an important message about who we are and what we value at the University of Maine and in the Honors College. The book is selected from among the nominations by juniors and seniors in the Honors Read tutorial course.

Nominations are due by November 10, and can be made using this form. Nominated books should be by living writers and available in paperback editions (ideally costing $16 or less). There are no other restrictions on nominations.

Recent Honors Reads include Becoming Nicole: The Transformation of an American Family, by Amy Ellis Nutt (2021); Braiding Sweetgrass: Indigenous Wisdom, Scientific Knowledge, and the Teachings of Plants, by Robin Wall Kimmerer (2022); There Will Be No Miracles Here, by Casey Gerald (2023); and How Far the Light Reaches, by Sabrina Imbler (2024).

Please reach out to me if you have questions. I look forward to receiving your nominations!

With thanks and warm regards,

Ellen Weinauer
