Fraternities Granted Open House Permit After Students Protest

Social Committee Votes To Allow Usual Saturday Night Parties; Open-House To Count As Regular Informal Party In Future Years

Open house parties may be held at all fraternities on Saturday, February 23rd, the night following the Intra-Mural A.A. mid-winter Ball, it was announced by Prof. F. J. Kueny, chairman of the faculty committee on social affairs late Wednesday afternoon. The open house will not count as an extra party and each fraternity will be allowed two other informal dances during the Spring semester. In the future, however, the open house party will count as one of the informal parties of the second half year. Feeling that open house night is connected by tradition with the Intra-Mural Ball, the committee declared that open house parties shall always be held the evening following the mid-winter formal.

Prof. Kueny refused to allow several fraternities to hold open house and the matter was brought to a head Wednesday. At the meeting of the social committee, a group of representative students were present to plead for the retention of the various parties. Explaining his stand on the matter, Prof. Kueny said that he had talked with several of the chaperones and they did not wish to undertake the care of open house parties. He argued that the Winter Carnival was a thing of the past, that open house was a part of Winter Carnival, and hence passed into the discard along with the main events.

Prof. Pollard, director of University Extension, and a member of the social committee, took exceptions to Prof. Kueny's statement that the Winter Carnival had been abolished. Declaring that the Student Senate had made Washington's Birthday a regular class day, he argued the Winter Carnival racing events had been abolished for the present year, but that the Carnival Ball was still a feature. Prof. Pollard said that open house was connected by tradition with the intramural affairs and he felt that it should

Maine Debaters Defeat Pittsburg University

The University of Maine debaters defeated the University of Pittsburg by a unanimous decision Tuesday night. The Maine team upheld the negative of the resolution: That the jury system should be abolished.

The debate was attended by the largest audience ever present at such an event at the university. C. E. Phillips of the Pittsburg team was unable to take part in the debate due to a throat trouble. Pittsburg's other two men debated in a highly commendable manner, and interwove much humor into their speeches. R. F. Hamilton, the first speaker for Pittsburg, spoke for Phillips. He was followed by David Burger. Asa V. Warratt, Chas. E. O'Connor and George Ankeles represented Maine. Hon. Charles J. Dunn, Associate Justice of the Maine Supreme Court presided. The judges were R. D. Fellows of Bangor, the Rev. Wayne L. Robinson and H. E. Bryant of Bangor.

The Pittsburg men were entertained at the S.A.E. House by members of the Maine Debating Council after the debate.

President Boardman Has Trophy Collection

Two years ago this month President Boardman received a letter from W. Earl Hopper of West Long Branch, N. J. offering to make a collection of foreign flags, autographed photographs and trophies for the University. This work was to be done without charge. The only expense for the University was to be the postage. The offer was accepted.

This kind of collecting is a hobby of Mr. Hopper's, and he has made valuable collections for several libraries and churches.

The collection here is called the U. of M. Peace Memorial, and the trophies obtained from foreign countries are collected for the purpose of establishing a closer relation with these countries.

The collection now contains:
Flags: two American, one Japanese,

Alpha Omicron Pi Offers $1000 Scholarship

Among the notices of scholarships posted in Alumni Hall is one of $1,000 offered by Alpha Omicron Pi, payable to a girl wishing to do graduate work and who is not a member of that sorority, provided, however, that she has graduated from an institution where a chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi is located.

No limits are placed as to the field of study that the girl may follow, but judgment will be based upon fitness for her chosen profession, her attitude toward life, and upon her general needs and qualifications.

Since there is a chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi here girls from the University of Maine may apply for the scholarship.

The money is to be used for the college year of 1929-1930 and will be paid in two installments, $500 on Sept. 1, 1929 and Jan. 1, 1930. Application blanks may be procured from Dean Bean or from Priscilla Sawyer at Mt. Vernon House.

The scholarship offered by the local chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi has been raised to include the cost of a full semester's tuition at the University of Maine. This will be awarded to a girl who shall apply for it, during the spring semester of the freshman year, and the money is to be used during the spring semester of the sophomore year.

Maine Men Attend Two Alumni Meetings

President Boardman and Mr. Crossland leave for Portland Friday where they will be guests of the Portland Alumni Association at a banquet held at the Outing Club.

Saturday evening, Dr. Clarence Cook Little, ex-president of the University of Michigan, Dr. Harold S. Boardman, president of the University of Maine and Mr. Charles Crossland, Alumni Secretary, will be the guests of the Boston Alumni Association at its annual dinner, to be held at the Hotel Westminster, Boston.

Following the dinner, there will be speeches by President Boardman, Charles Crossland and former president of the University, Dr. C. C. Little, who will be the principal speaker of the evening.

Dr. C. A. Dickinson, head of the psychology department and "Vic" McNaughton have received invitations to represent the faculty and student bodies.

Prof. Kueny Explains Gym Dance Rules

There seem to have been various arguments this year over the dances in the gymnasium, and the manner and rules by which they are conducted. So Professor Kueny, as chairman of the social committee, would like to make the matter clear to all thru the Campus.

Pay dances, which can be held Friday and Saturday nights only, may be run for three reasons:

They must be for the purpose of genuine charity; the charity must be important. Also, they can be held for this purpose only when there is no stipulation for said charity in the budget of the University.

THIRTY-ONE GIRLS SURVIVE RIFLE SQUAD CUT

Eliminations for the Girls' Rifle team have taken place and the following girls are to come for future practice and the matches. If they do not report for practice this week they will be dropped from the team.

The names and average scores are:
C. Mutty, 94; D. Culley, 93; J. Roney, 93; C. Floyd, 91; M. Avery, 90; F. White, 89; K. Marvin, 89; J. Campbell, 88; B. Brown, 88; M. Fellows, 88; E. Copeland.

Four Students Receive 4-Point Rank Average

Two Seniors and Two Juniors Win Coveted Honor

Four students of the University received the much coveted honor of 4-point in their studies last semester, according to the reports at the Registrar's office.

Barbara Damm, Freida Hatch, Jenny Hutchinson and Edward Kelley are the four persons having all A's for rank or an average of 4-point at the end of the fall semester.

Barbara Damm, a senior, is a sociology major and has always made the Dean's list, many times being nearer 4-point than 3-point. She is a member of Beta Pi Theta, the honorary French society, the Outing Club, the Delta Zeta sorority and Phi Kappa Phi.

Freida Hatch, a history major and a junior, has made the Dean's list many times. She made 4-point at mid-semester also. This is an unusual honor for her.

Jenny Hutchinson is also a junior and is a major in the department of Home Economics. She was a member of the Sophomore Eagle society last year and was secretary of the Women's Athletic Association. She played on the freshman hockey and basketball teams and has since played on her class teams. She is a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Five Men Place On Maine Winter Sports Team

Will Compete at Lewiston and Rumford

The Maine Outing Club held the final trials for the winter sports team Tuesday afternoon on Alumni field. The team is to represent the university in the inter-collegiate meet at Bates Saturday and the championship meet at Rumford next Monday and Tuesday.

The team will be composed of two snowshoe men and three ski men. At the final trials, Charles Cutting was first in the cross country run on snowshoes and Steven Mank was second. Mank was high man two years ago in the Bates meet.

Stanley Cole placed third in the cross country and won the dashes on snowshoes. R. H. Allen completed the seven mile ski course in 44½ minutes. Wilfred Davis will compete in the ski jumping, being considered the best ski jumper in college. Last year he jumped 100 feet in the Eastern amateur meet in Rumford.

Omar Colby, star ski performer, is convalescent from a recent illness but will probably be able to go. The Outing Club will send two snowshoe men who can compete in both cross country and dash events—Cutting and Cole. Colby, Davis, and Allen will represent Maine in the skiing events.

Bangor American Legion To Sponsor "University of Maine" Night Feb. 21

Maine Band To Present Concert at Bangor City Hall; Dance and Celebration To Be Held

The Maine band will hold a concert and dance in Bangor City Hall on Thursday evening, February 21, under the auspices of the Bangor American Legion. Plans are being carried out now to make this a big "University of Maine night," with every possible means of getting a large crowd of students, alumni, and friends being used by the Legion and the merchants of Bangor. Over 1500 tickets to the concert and dance have been sent to Maine alumni in the vicinity of Bangor, a cup has been offered to the fraternity or sorority which sells the largest number of tickets, and extensive advertising, which will contain the central thought of "Boost the University of Maine and its band," are among the preparations being made to make the affair a grand success. The Legion is not working for itself alone; it is to give the larger part of the gate receipts to the band.

The Maine band at the present time is in its prime. Director Sprague thinks it to be one of the best bands the University has had in many years. It is true that the music was somewhat ragged at the football games last fall, but there is a great difference in the band of then and the band today.

The concert in Bangor will be approximately

Maine Trackmen Train For Early Spring Meets

Niles May Be Unable To Compete Again This Season

Coach Jenkins' relay men are training diligently for the coming intramural meet, the Bates dual meet on March 9 and a possible chance to compete in the I.C.A.A.A. at New York City. Capt. Niles is on the uphill grade but may not be able to indulge in further competition this season. Capt. Niles was too ill to compete in the B.A.A. meet at Boston and Ed Tolman was also on the sick list.

There is a good aggregation of quarter and half-milers still in the field. Berenson, Hardy, Lathrop, Tolman and Stymiest are still runners up for speedy material for a representative team. McNaughton, Richardson, Austin, Lindsay, Mank and Chandler are also on the list.

The relay season has drawn to a close and only one more meet looms in the air as a possible chance for competition. Some of Jenkins' relay material are combining their efforts in relay preparation for intramurals on Feb. 19 and in winter sports competition for winter sports meets within the State and throughout New England.

The Maine relay aggregation is a speedy one in the mile relay, if all the logical contestants were available at one time. Sickness has hit the Blue trackmen hard this season and wrecked the chances of the team making a record.

First Half '30 Prism To Go To Press Feb. 18

Junior Material Must Be In Feb. 17

That the first half of the 1930 Prism will be put in the printer's hands by February 18, was announced by Horton Flynt, editor, today. This copy includes the Senior activities and the Junior write-ups and pictures.

There are still a few Juniors who have not turned in their writeups. If these writeups are not in the Prism board's hands before Sunday, February 17, they cannot appear in the Prism. Members of the class may leave them at the Beta House, SAE House, with Prexie Pearce at ATO, with Edna Bailey, Mount Vernon, with Polly Hall, Balentine, or with Dick Bradford at Vaughn's, Park St.

The color scheme of the 1930 Prism will be: light blue tints on white, highly coated paper, black halftone ink while the cover will be produced in a grey-black background with blue embossed section.

The groups, which are scheduled to appear at a certain time, must all be there at that time or the whole schedule is broken up. The photographer is behind his schedule now because of the past sickness and because many of the groups have cancelled their appointments too late to permit the Prism board to arrange a new schedule. If a group cannot appear at the scheduled time it should notify Reginald Wilson, SAE or Polly Hall, Balentine, three or four days before the appointment.

Freshman Five Defeat Rhode Island 43-41

Last Saturday night at the Indoor Field, the Maine freshman basketball team defeated the Rhode Island freshman team 43 to 41. The game was by far the most exciting one witnessed here this year, if not for many years. Fast, clean, hard play was shown throughout. Beautiful team work, as well as spectacular individual playing made the game a feature.

Perhaps the outstanding fact of the game was the way the Maine freshmen came back on the floor and played during the second half. The first quarter Rhode Island led 12 to 6, and the half ended with the score 21 to 18 in her favor. Maine quickly piled up a ten-point lead, only to have Rhode Island reduce this lead to a single point late in the game. The fight was anybody's up until the final whistle. Dickson featured for Maine, and Tyler for Rhode Island.

Maine can well feel proud of its freshman team. It is a well coached, snappy outfit able to give the best in its class a good battle.

Liberal Courses For Techs Offered By A&S

The faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences has instituted a course called "An Outline of General Culture" for the honor students in the junior class of the College of Technology. The meetings are held on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The class is composed of honor students, but this is not an honor course. The purpose of the series of lectures is to broaden the horizon of interest in liberal studies. The list of subjects with the instructors has been announced. They are:

Anthropology—Prof. Rice, Levinson, Buchan.
History—Colvin, Mitchell.
Religions—Dean Stevens.
Art—Huddilston, Sprague.
Literature—Chase, Huddilston, Kueny, Draper, Ellis.
Philology—Chase.
Sciences—Hart, Brautlecht, Fitch, Jordan, Young, Dickinson, Buchan, Merrill.
Philosophy—Levinson.

Ineligibles Keep Glee Club From Traveling

Maine's athletes and journalists are not the only heroes to be restricted by ineligibility, it appears. The song birds of the University have received the dread punishment.

The Glee Club and the Instrumental Club were to make a tour of New England in the near future, giving concerts in Portland, Boston, Quincy, Hopedale, Springfield, Northampton, Hartford and possibly New York. However, so many singers are down in their ranks that there will be no trip for a while. This postponement is a great blow to the members of the two clubs which are now in prime musical shape.

BILL KENYON SAYS BOXING IS PROGRESSING

Bill Kenyon announces that the intramural boxing classes are progressing rapidly. The men are still being drilled on the fundamentals of the art. At present there is a squad of about forty-five men and it looks as if the forthcoming tournament will show plenty of competition. Some of the men are good, and there are others who are not so good. With this combination there should be some clever bouts, and some bouts that are not so clever but nevertheless interesting.

At the request of the administration the Campus submitted to the fraternities and the dormitory council this week several suggestions and topics concerning the Student Senate for discussion. At the regular chapter meetings most of the houses and the dormitory council Monday evening these suggestions and topics were discussed, and the secretaries of more than one-half the groups have submitted the decisions to the Campus for publication. Several fraternities did not take up the matter because of initiation banquets and ceremonies with which they were occupied, but these groups will do so in the near future. One fraternity did not wish to consider the questionnaire.

The suggestions presented to the fraternities and dormitory council were arranged by the editor of the Campus and the new chairman of the Constitution Committee of the Senate and were thought to be of sufficient importance to deserve discussion by the student body instead of by the Senate alone. Altho there are many other points which could have been submitted to the students, it was felt that these could be discussed and arranged better by the Senate.

The following topics and suggestions were sent to the campus groups:

1. Membership:
 - (a) The Senate should be made up of juniors and seniors only?
 - (b) Discussion of off-campus representation.
 - (c) Question of having one man elected to be an alternate to attend meetings in case the regular representative could not attend.
2. Methods of gaining attendance and maintaining interest. Discussion.
3. Financing of Senate expenses and projects, such as Bananas, stationery, representative's expenses to National Student Federations, etc.
 - (a) Should each student be assessed a small sum?
 - (b) Should the group represented support the Senate, as a group?
 - (c) Should the administration give partial support?

Kenyon's Basketeers Lose To Edward Little

The freshman hoop team lost its second game of the season Tuesday night at Auburn, being defeated by Edward Little High School 21 to 17. The game was a slow, unimpressive one. The freshmen were unable to accustom themselves to the small playing surface and the poor lighting system. Their passing was good, but their shooting was decidedly off form. Each team scored six floor goals, but Edward Little's ability to make good their shots from the foul line gave them their margin of victory.

Summary:

Seniors Are Graduated After Fall Semester

Sixteen members of the senior class in the College of Arts and Sciences completed their work at midyears. They are: Thelma Virginia Ham (Latin), Ida Mae Haskell (Mathematics), Esther Jones Hawkes (Economics and Sociology), Edward Gilman Kelley (Chemistry), Karl Davis Larson (Physics), Mary Mahoney (English), Philip Merrill Marsh (English), Mary Florence Reed (English), Calista Elizabeth Sylvester (History), Erna Elizabeth White (Spanish), Roger Carson Wilkins (German), Raynor Keese Fitzhugh (Mathematics), Alice Revere Lincoln (French), Harold Leland MacLaren (Education), Frank Preble Parsons (Education), Clarence Dunham Pillsbury (Mathematics).

With the exception of the last five, these students completed their work in a period of three and one-half years.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

This year there has been a large amount of conflict in American colleges between the students and the faculties for various reasons. The University of Maine has had its share of difficulties of this nature, though nothing serious has resulted. Certain members of the faculty here possess an almost uncanny ability to smooth out rough spots between their group and the student body, and this alone has prevented the exposure of any conflict which may have existed temporarily.

This week it was rumored that the chairman of the faculty committee on social affairs was opposed to the idea of allowing the fraternities on the campus to hold open-house parties in connection with the Intra-mural mid-winter ball, because he believed that open-house parties were connected with the Winter Carnival of past years and so were outlawed when the carnival was abolished, or rather suspended temporarily. This unexpected interpretation caused a great uproar among the fraternities because it meant that many plans would necessarily be changed. As a result representatives of several fraternities met with the faculty committee on social affairs, explained their side of the question, cleared up all misunderstandings, and were rewarded by a decision by the committee in favor of the open-house proposition.

There are three kinds of government in connection with college affairs: student self-government, faculty control, and cooperation between faculty and students. Student self-government seldom succeeds, because youth is inexperienced in meeting the trials of life and needs advice along these lines. Faculty control arouses a feeling of antagonism in students toward the faculty. The nature of students rebels against authority, even when they realize it to be the best thing. The most efficient type of government is cooperative government in which the students and faculty both have voice, because the students are those who know most about college life while the faculty can discuss the sides of a question which only men of experience can see. The main argument for cooperative government is: if you wish to do anything for students, do it with them; if you have a point with which they disagree, explain it to them before you force it on them.

The purpose of such student government is to encourage participation, responsibility, and cooperation—three essentials for a successful life; to help students recognize that they should be the leaders and not the open mouthed awe-stricken crowd in public affairs; and to strengthen cordial relationships between faculty and students. It is a convergence of faculty and student point of view. Student government is not an end, but a process. It is one expression of the whole democratic movement with which the citizens of the United States are supposed to be in favor. It teaches methods and principles for future life.

Student government is organized to establish a means of expression and to secure justice due to group interest. College students as a group represent a select body of students and may be relied upon for their integrity. Maine students are not the exception. When they act they generally know why they act.

We believe that many of the misunderstandings over gym dances, fraternity party regulations, and similar questions could be eliminated if a few students were allowed to meet with the faculty committee to explain the student viewpoint. Real cooperative government could be made possible in this way, and that is what is necessary here now.

AN APPRECIATION

We wish to thank the dormitory council and those fraternities which responded so promptly to our questionnaire on the Student Senate this week. In submitting the topics for discussion we realized that much inconvenience would be caused to the group who took the time to talk over the questions in their business meetings, but we felt that there was enough interest in the problem of making the Senate a more representative and respected body to warrant the request. Altho we have not obtained a reply from every house on the campus for this issue we feel that those which were unable to take up the matter at the meeting this week will do so next week. When all the houses have reported we will endeavor to make a summary of the points for publication and will then present them to the Senate for action. In the statements by the groups published in this issue one can easily see several constructive new ideas, and when such ideas are discussed and perhaps accepted by the Senate we should expect a more satisfactory system of government.

THE INTERFRATERNITY CONFERENCE

At the last meeting of the Student Senate a motion was made that the early pledging of freshmen in the spring be discussed at the next meeting. May we remind the Senate that all matters connected with the pledging of freshmen are to be discussed by the Interfraternity Conference and not by the Senate. This matter is a fraternity affair; the Senate is composed of non-fraternity men. The Interfraternity Conference may be called at any time for changes such as this, but it meets only when such questions arise.

We believe that the suggestion warrants immediate attention and are pleased to hear that the Interfraternity Conference will meet next week.

Deans' List

The dean's list for the first half of the spring semester, effective from February 4 to March 27, is as follows:

CORRESPONDENCE

Editor of the Campus

Dear Sir:

This is a sincere attempt to show "Indignantly '32" the "nigger in the woodpile" for which he clamored so violently through your columns last week. It is hard to believe that his letter was one of friendly inquiry when one observes the rather unfortunate phrasing of his sentence concerning his class officers.

As it happens, through a process of rotation Mr. Youngs, Treasurer of the University, is to be the financial adviser of the class of '32 during its four years here. It was by his authority, acting in the best interests of the class, that the $2.50 for class dues was placed on the term bill. Before the executive committee of the class he gave the following very sensible reasons for its place there.

The lateness of class elections would have made the meeting of the class, the decision on an amount (incidentally we have no conception of the amount needed) and, most important, the collection of the money, a long drawn out affair. For an individual or even a group of individuals to collect $2.50 or some such sum, from every member of the Freshman class, wide scattered as it is, would indeed be a herculean task. By placing it on the term bill a simple, sure method of obtaining the money was arrived at, eliminating unnecessary labor on the part of our class treasurer.

As to the amount of the dues, surely Mr. Youngs' long financial experience as treasurer of the University, and his observance as financial adviser for many previous classes, would qualify him to fix a fair, adequate sum.

The greater part will be used for our class banquet. Any remainder will be used as a nest egg for the heavy expenses of our junior year.

I hope that the criticisms of this method have been answered satisfactorily.

Sincerely,
Atwood Levensaler,
Freshman Class President

MAINE, NEW HAMPSHIRE, AND VERMONT IN WRITING CONTEST

Preparation for the annual intercollegiate competition in writing between the University of Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont is now getting underway, and there appears to be the usual amount of interest in the contests in short story, essay, and verse writing. Prizes of $25, $15, and $10 will be awarded for first, second, and third choices by the judges in each contest. The rules for the competition follow:

RULES

1. All contributions must be submitted in triplicate and in typewritten form.
2. Neither the name of the competitor nor any indication of his university shall appear on or in the MS submitted. Each MS must be signed with an assumed name, which, together with the student's real name, shall be inclosed in a sealed envelope and passed in with the MS.
3. Each contribution shall be accompanied by a signed statement on a separate sheet that the author has received no assistance of any kind in writing the paper submitted.
4. Contributions must not be used for any other purpose prior to their being submitted in this competition. No restriction is placed upon their use after the awards in the competition have been announced.
5. No restriction is placed upon the number of contributions which may be submitted by any one student, but no student may be awarded more than one place in each of the three contests.
6. Poems are limited to two hundred and fifty lines in length, essays to three thousand words, and stories to five thousand words.
7. All contributions submitted by each university must be in the hands of the Registrar not later than March 15, 1929.

Faculty News

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bray were the guests of the Pi Beta Phi fraternity at a party given in honor of Mrs. Bray, the new Pi Phi patroness, Saturday evening. The chapter presented Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Bray with patronesses' pins. Mrs. James Stevens could not be present. Refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed by all.

A meeting of the Bangor Association of Engineers was held last Thursday at the Bangor House. Dr. Perrin of the American Tel. & Tel. Co. spoke on "Television." The Bangor Association is made up of engineers living in or near Bangor, and of many of the members of the faculty of the College of Technology. The Association is similar in nature to the Maine Association, which has its nearest office in Portland.

MASQUE REHEARSING "WHAT EVERY WOMAN KNOWS"

Rehearsals for Barrie's What Every Woman Knows are well under way. The Maine Masque, in choosing this play, has again ventured into the realm of high grade productions. Although lighter plays have a more popular appeal on Broadway, here at Maine the greatest success has been achieved with the higher class dramas. In the past few years, the Masque has offered to University audiences Galsworthy's Loyalties, Wilde's The Importance of Being Earnest, G. B. Shaw's Candida, and several other plays of that calibre. What Every Woman Knows should make a good addition to the Masque's list of accomplishments.

J. M. Barrie also wrote the play, Half an Hour, from which the cinema, The Doctor's Secret, presented recently in Bangor, was taken.

Prof. Mark Bailey, who has coached many successful Masque productions, will coach the play.

N. H. FRESHMEN DEFEAT MAINE

New Hampshire University freshmen defeated Maine freshmen 45-20 in a walkover game of basketball at Durham last night. Capt. Moore starred for Maine, making eight points of the twenty.

The Maine freshmen will play Higgins Classical Institute Friday night at the Indoor Field. Higgins has not been defeated this year.

MAINE PLAYS COLBY

March 16 will see a game of basketball here between the Maine varsity and a five picked from the Colby interfraternity teams. Last year a Colby team of this nature gave Maine a good fight here.

SPANISH CLUB DANCE IS SUCCESS

On Saturday evening a dance was given to the members of the Spanish Club and invited guests by Senior Louis Cabrera as a get-together after the successful Spanish Night held not long ago.

An orchestra made up of various members of the Spanish Club played and during intermission three of the members gave solos on their instruments. "Pat" Loane playing the marimba offered something different in the line of music and some piano solos by Neil Calderwood were also good. "Tillie" Sawyer doing the Varsity Drag and Senor Cabrera singing "La Paloma" were other features of the entertainment.

NEW MAINE-SPRING IS ON SALE

Once more the literary efforts of the students of Maine have burst forth in that select of literary papers, "The Maine-Spring." This time it has appeared in a larger copy than ever before. To those lovers of variety it should be a source of delight. One would say at first glance that Maine was getting poetic but to those whose taste is not for poetry, there is a thrilling tale of murder, "The Crimson Sash"; a goodly laugh at trouble in "And In Flew Enza"; an interesting bit of philosophy "Books and People"; a novel idea of springtime, "What is Spring?" and to all courageous co-eds is dedicated "The Victory of Love!"

OPEN-HOUSE COMMENTS

When it was rumored about the campus that there would be no open house parties next week, the following comments were heard:

Lavon Zakarian: "Open house is a necessary part of college social life, in my estimation. I crave practice in tripping the light fantastic, and only open house parties can satisfy."

Eddie Malloy: "In my eight years at Maine I have found that the open house is an institution deserving of continuance."

Harold Lloyd: "I am heartily in favor of the action to be taken by the social committee. The music at open house dances is always of a very low grade."

Slim Sylvester: "The presence of women at open-house parties has always spoiled the evening for me. I favor stag parties."

Fat Davis: "Open-house parties keep me a perfect 36. They must not be abolished."

The Campus will not publish more comments in this issue. The foregoing are typical examples of the opinions of the student body—which is what the paper endeavors to show.

Dr. Brautlecht: "Do you follow me?"
Sotto voice: "Yes, but I'm quite a ways behind."

After an Exam in Hy: "I wish Napoleon had been an Englishman."

"Why?"
"Because that's what I put on my paper."

Artie: "I refuse to eat this steak."
Waiter: "Whazzamatter?"
Artie: "It simply isn't done, old thing."

Prof: "Name one thing of importance in the U. S. that did not exist one hundred years ago."
G. Hargreaves: "Well, I didn't."

"What have you been doing this winter?"
"Working in my father's office."

"Oh, I haven't been working either."

President Boardman introducing Chapel speaker, "This man was a Trustee of the University for 16 years. It was my good fortune to be a student here during that time."

As long as that?
If the jury system is to be abolished, the campus should begin preparations at once, against the depredations of the "master minds of the underworld." See Asa Wasgatt for detailed information.

Freshmen—always around when you don't want them, never around when you do (want them).

"Why, Whiting, old chap, when did you get married?"
"Oh, nothing like that, Frederick, I got that cut on the ice."

Fair Maine Coed, I should think you'd freeze!
Naught but silk hose to the tops of your knees.

Handsome Ed, take a back, back chair.
'Neath the silken hose, there's a woolen pair.

"Eighty miles an hour," yelled the chauffeur. "Are you brave?"
"Yes, I'm full of grit," said the pretty girl as she swallowed another pint of dust.

JUST GASSING

"I am burning with love for you."
"Oh, don't make a fuel of yourself."

"FAST WORKER"

Garland (in Marketing): "What are some of the motives for sales appeals in the Chrysler car?"
Mansur: "Well, one would be the essential of smartness in quick pick-up!"

"Send me $500, dad," wrote the young man from college. "Money makes the mare go."

The reply was equally brief. It said, "Yours received. I enclose $50. That ought to be enuf for a jackass."

100 ATTEND OUTING CLUB
SPORT DANCE

The Outing Club dance last Friday night more than lived up to the requisites for a good time. Harold Lloyd's ten HarMAINEs surely kept moving every minute with snappy music. The idea of everybody wearing sport togs lent a different atmosphere to the evening. Sweaters, white flannels, etc. were comfortable to wear and it was no bother to get ready.

The decoration of fir trees was effective and lent a background for the rustic furniture in the chaperones' corner.

A hundred couples enjoyed themselves immensely and will be looking for more such fun by the Outing Club next year. The money from the dance is being used to send five men of the Winter Sports Team to the carnivals at Bates and at Rumford this week-end.

CAMPUS NOTES

Phi Mu entertained at a tea in honor of its patronesses Saturday afternoon at the Penobscot Valley Country Club. In the receiving line were Carlita Mutty, Mrs. J. N. Hart, Mrs. Cecil Fielder, Miss Marion Buzzell, and Arlene Robbins. Ella Bolan and Ramona Poley poured.

Sunday evening, February 10, the Chi Omega girls were entertained by their alumnae at Miss Mildred Brown's home on College Road. Supper was served which everyone heartily enjoyed. To top off the happy party, Mrs. Arthur Stevens gave two readings, The Tactful Pound Look by James T. Barrie, and one of her own writing.

Phi Mu Delta held its formal initiation and banquet Sunday and Monday. Five freshmen were initiated at this time: Hugh Morton, Theodore Nutting, Philip Plummer, Robert Dearth, and Roscoe Masterman.

Following the regular business meeting of Phi Sigma on Feb. 6 a debate took place between Henry Plummer and Lee Wescott on "Are acquired characteristics inherited or not." After a lengthy discussion of the subject the members were served refreshments.

Man is of Vegetable Origin. According to Darwin's theory of evolution, man descends from the ape; but since apes descend from trees, we must conclude that man is of vegetable origin.

Campus Organizations Submit
Plans for Student Senate

4. Co-ed representation:
(a) In matters which affect the entire University, such as Thanksgiving holidays, should co-eds vote, and if so, in what proportion.
(1) Suggestion—one vote for every 40 women.

5. Representation of social fraternities not large enough to own a house.
(a) Should these groups be represented by the dorm or off-campus representatives?

6. Pins and shingles:
(a) Question of eligibility of members receiving them.
(b) How paid for—by members themselves or by Senate treasury?

7. General discussion of Senate's authority:
(a) Senate should not be dictator but rather servant of student body?

8. Other discussion. Correspondence desired.

Decisions

The dormitory council voted as follows on the points submitted:

1. Membership
(a) Sophomore, junior, and senior representatives.
(b) Off-campus men should choose own representatives.
(c) Alternate should be elected at time regular representative was chosen.
2. Attendance should be left to the president of the group or jurisdiction of the Senate.
3. Financing—Group favored assessment on term bill and partial support by the administration.
4. No discussion.
5. Fraternity too small to own house should be represented by group with which they live.
6. Pins and shingles. Each senator's shingle should be gratis, but his pin should be obtained by a financial budget by the Senate.
7. Authority. Senate has right sort of authority at present.
8. The five dorm votes all shall go as the majority wishes, and not split.

Beta Kappa reports the following decisions:

1. Membership
(a) Affirmative.
(b) Negative.
(c) Affirmative.
2. Methods of gaining attendance. No suggestions.
3. Financing.
(a) No; (b) No; (c) Yes.
(d) Co-eds' vote.
(e) They should be allowed to vote.
4. (1) Suggestion opposed.
5. All fraternities should be represented.
6. Not in favor of pins and shingles.
7. Should be servant.

Phi Eta Kappa's report:

1. Membership—All suggestions accepted.
2. Method of gaining attendance—fine for not attending regular meetings.
3. Financing—All suggestions unfavorable. Proposed that student body have nothing to do with financing of Senate.
4. Co-ed representation. Group not in favor of co-ed representation in Senate.
5. Small fraternities should be represented by group with which they stay.
6. Pins and shingles—Each member stand expense of own.
7. Power—recommend but not govern.

Alpha Gamma Rho:

1. Membership
(a) Juniors and seniors only.
(b) Designated number of off-campus students should elect representative.
(c) Each delegate should have substitute. Both should have signed statement of authority from organization secretary.
2. Interest would be built up if definite aims were considered.
3. Students should be assessed about 25 cents to defray expenses.
4. Co-ed representation should not be permitted.
5. Dormitory delegates should represent small fraternities.
6. Insignia and shingle question should be left to Senate. The individual members should pay for their own.

Phi Gamma Delta decided:

1. Membership
(a) Juniors and seniors only.
(b) Off-campus representation 1 to 40.
(c) Alternates—Representative should be head of house—alternate next in line. Off-campus alternates, however, should be elected.
2. Interest—Use honorary basis (pin or charm).
3. Finance.
(a) Each student pay 25¢ a year or part thereof.
(b) Yes.

- (c) Yes (half-way attitude, at least).
- Co-ed representatives. One to 40 as for off-campus men, the women to settle the distribution.
- Frats not large enough to own a house should be included in off-campus group.
- Eligibility for pins and shingles—require percentage of attendance at meeting.
- (b) Pins to be paid for by members.
- Servant of student body, but sort of clearing house for student body, Skulls, and administration, including president.

Delta Tau Delta:

1. (a) Juniors and seniors only.
(b) Off-campus groups—one representative for 40 students, these persons to be elected in a mass meeting of off-campus students.
2. Action concerning absence left to discretion of Senate itself.
3. Assessment of 25 cents on term bill of each student, both men and women.
4. The co-eds should be represented by a delegate for every 40 women students.
5. Social fraternities too small to own house should be represented by dorm men.
6. Left to discretion of Senate.
7. Senate not a dictator; it should be a servant of the student body.

Phi Kappa Sigma:

1. (a) Juniors and seniors only.
(b) One for every 40 off-campus students.
(c) Regular representative and alternate elected by house. The head of the house should send an appropriate person in case neither can attend. Off-campus groups should have an alternate.
2. Notification to delegates of meetings.
3. Each student assessed 20 or 25 cents on term bill.
4. One vote to every 40 women.
5. If the local fraternity is recognized by the school authorities and has more than 20 members it should be given one vote. If less than 20 members it should come under dorm regulation.
6. (a) Any member eligible.
(b) Shingles but no pins.
7. To be paid by Senate treasury.
8. Servant not dictator.

Sigma Chi:

1. Membership
(a) Two representatives, a junior and a senior, but only senior representative votes.
- (b) Off-campus—two for every 40—one junior, one senior.
- (c) Alternate—taken care of in the membership. For any other substitute a written permission from head of house.
2. To maintain interest. Have some kind of forfeit, such as loss of vote for period of time.
3. Finance—small assessment on term bill of each student.
4. Women should be included in Student Senate—one vote for every 40 students.
5. No organization of less than 20 members shall have a vote (frats without house).
6. Shingles and key—to be paid for by individual himself.
7. Eligibility—scholastic standing shall be the same as that of an athlete.
8. Power—The Senate shall have a power of suggestion only, and act as a linking influence between students and faculty.

Alpha Tau Omega:

Answer. Questionnaire read. Discussion by group decided unnecessary. Senate representative, LaPlante, had previously considered all the questions at last Senate meeting and this attention was considered sufficient. He explained his position and the group accorded with it. Future correspondence may be expected.

1932 GIRLS DEFEAT
ORONO HIGH

Last night in the Alumni gym the Orono High sextette went down to defeat before the snappy Freshman girls' outfit by a score of 39-4. It was a slow game and uninteresting due to excessive fouling on both sides.

Captain Estelle Burrill, of the pale blue and Captain Merrill of the Orono team were the outstanding players.

The 1932 lineup was: RF, Montgomery, Lewis; LF, Burrill, Carbone; VC, Miller; SC, Washburn, Findlen; RG, Noddin, Talbot; LG, Gilbert, Churchill.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity will not hold a house dance on Saturday evening, February 23, because a chapter banquet is to be held that night.

RHODE ISLAND DEFEATS
MAINE VARSITY 48-22

The Maine varsity basketball team went down to defeat 48-22, Saturday night, before Rhode Island. Maine with a new and disorganized team on the floor, was able to give poor opposition to the Rhode Island quintet. Aquoid and Hurtz led the Rhode Island five in points scored, while Sylvester and Emerson started for Maine.

PLAY DAY AT N. H. BIG SUCCESS

The Play Day at the University of New Hampshire last week-end was a decided success. Delegates were present from all the New England colleges, including Wellesley.

The Play Day began with the registration in the gymnasium. The girls were separated, and divided into teams according to their respective colors. No inter-collegiate competition was involved. The morning was spent in playing volleyball and basketball—the different colored teams competing against one another.

After lunch each team devised a cheer, a sing, and a stunt, which offered great amusement. Afterwards folk dancing was enjoyed, and one of the New Hampshire co-eds gave an exhibition of clogging. The teams played soccer for the rest of the afternoon. At night a banquet was held after which the girls watched a men's basketball game between New Hampshire and Providence. This ended the Play Day.

The girls from each college were separated from their friends and were scattered in dormitory and sorority houses.

The nine delegates from the University of Maine were the most outstanding athletes among the women students. They were C. Collins, R. Greenlaw, M. Robinson, S. Gould, M. Hussey, M. Churchill, E. Burrill, G. Modes and J. Kierstead.

At 4:15 P.M. this coming Sunday the first regular Vespers service of the spring semester will be held. Reverend Gardner Day of Trinity Church, Boston, will be the speaker. Rev. Day is perhaps New England's outstanding young minister; his messages to students are well known throughout lower New England. There will be special selections of music.

The Interfraternity Conference will meet next Tuesday night at the M.C.A. building.

remain thus.

Several of the students present explained the viewpoint taken by their organizations in the matter and all urgently requested open house parties. Keith Lydiard, chairman of the Intra-Mural Ball committee, stated that the success of the formal party depended upon the open-house parties. More people are attracted to the campus by a week-end of dancing, and only this would assure the success of the mid winter party.

The Winter Carnival Ball is to be a one o'clock dance. The Board of Administration voted that only four parties should continue until 2 a.m. These are the Commencement Ball, Junior Prom, Sophomore Hop, and Military Hop. The coming affair must close at the earlier hour to be in accord with the new University ruling.

The general committee for the Intra-Mural Winter Ball this year is composed of Faculty Advisor Prof. L. J. Pollard, President Keith B. Lydiard and Richard A. Merrill are in charge of decorating. Bernard M. Berenson is in charge of the tickets and checking. In charge of the orchestra and programs is Harold E. Russell while the Publicity Committee is made up of William J. Hartley, Kenneth P. Twombly and Edward C. Bryant.

The Winter Ball will find President and Mrs. Boardman, Dean and Mrs. Hart, Dean and Mrs. Cloke, Prof. Pollard and Mrs. Pollard, Prof. Corbett and Mrs. Corbett and Prof. Wallace and Mrs. Wallace in the receiving line.

2. The dances must be of service and of interest to all people.

3. Dances may also be held in case of emergency—when money is drastically needed for some organization. In this case the accounts of the organization must be approved by the auditor.

All applications with the necessary signatures must be given to Professor Kueny two weeks before the appointed date. If they are not then the said application must come before a special committee which will decide upon it by a majority vote.

All gymnasium functions must have two chaperones, and Mr. Kueny wishes it made clear that chaperones are ladies. All fraternity functions must have one chaperone.

Fraternity and sorority informal dances must end at 11:30. Formal dances must end at 1:00, with four exceptions. The Junior Promenade, Commencement Ball, Sophomore Hop, and Military Ball may last until 2:00.

President Boardman Has Trophy
Collection

Italian, Hungarian, Belgian, French, Mexican, Argentine.

Most of these flags are the gifts of foreign diplomats. One American flag, a large silk flag was a gift of Adolph Lewisohn. The other is the flag which was flown over the White House at the last session of Congress.

Mr. Hopper has also sent President Boardman autographed photographs of: J. G. Sargent, Charles E. Hughes, Calvin Coolidge, Herbert Hoover, Wm. Philip, Prime Minister of Canada, and a portrait of M. le Dr. Depage.

There is also a large picture of the Capitol, Washington, and the tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Several books and plaquettes have also been received. These trophies are kept in the President's offices at Alumni Hall.

Saturday night at the Indoor Field, the Freshman basketball team plays Higgins Classical Institute, and the Varsity plays Bridgewater Normal School. The first game begins at 7 o'clock.

The Fisher Building

Where do young college men get in a large industrial organization? Have they opportunity to exercise creative talent? Is individual work recognized?

IN architectural beauty and in completeness of accommodations for all classes of business and professional activities, Detroit's magnificent new Fisher Building has been pronounced fully ten years ahead of the times.

An important feature of its advanced development is the Westinghouse elevator system which serves the 26-story tower and the 11-story wings. Twenty-five elevators are installed, all with automatic control which brings each car to a smooth stop exactly level with the floor every time. A master control system, in addition, enables the chief operator to advance or retard speeds from his own station and to maintain accurate service schedules.

Lighting equipment, installed under the largest contract of its kind ever placed, is equally advanced. More than 12,000 Westinghouse Sollux units give light without glare throughout the entire structure.

The pumps and ventilating fans in the building are driven by Westinghouse motors.

The complete electrification of the Fisher Building is the sort of a job that must go to an organization large enough to handle it. Westinghouse offers young men a type of opportunity that appeals to those with enterprise and talent
