CORRESPONDENCE
Editor, The Campus.

The beginning of the season there was much interest about winter sports at the Maine college, but the interest waned when word of University of Maine's Washington Carnival was announced. In which a few men put their heads together, they decided that Maine was represented at the State Carnival. There were a few difficulties but with the time Maine was represented in many sports, and under the direction of the Maine Olympic Club, the Winter Sports Committee, and the men who made sure that at Bates and Bowdoin was found the way to interest and win.

Now the question comes up, what is it supposed to mean? Is the state paper supposed to mean anything? There is enough material in the campus right now to make some men think that Maine's basketball and hockey are not going to disintegrate, but people who have watched the games knew that it was not a question of basketball and hockey, but what would happen to the winter sports in general. The purpose of the winter sports is to give the students some form of recreation during the winter months.

The outdoor events included this year according to reports will be: the ski jumping, the winter carnival, the ski club, the ski race, the ski track, the ski jump, and the ski race. All these events will provide a good deal of interest for the students.

MAINE GRADUATE REVIEWING BOOK Mary Patrice Threlkeld, former Banqer and a graduate student in Latin at the University of Maine, is doing interning work in the office of Dr. C. H. Conway's, the "The Four English Transcriptions of the Classics" for the Journal of English and German Philology published by the University of Maine. Miss Threlkeld was graduated from Banner High School in 1918 and from the University of Maine in 1922. She took her B.A. in English and attended graduate schools and membership in Phi Beta Kapa-nu. She is also a prominent member of the Minnehaha.

The campus there has been one talk on the campus of a woman's tennis class. If enough interest is shown there is a probability that the class will be formed.

One way to trap a beaver Not everybody in the Banner's Eye Com-paper was a trapster, nor are more than everybody in the Bell System is a telephone engineer.

The Banner's Eye people trapped a good many beavers in the campus offices, where the skillful trapping and careful business mangagement served to back up the men actually
