Marching time

Or - e - gon and Mich - i - gan and Flor - i - da and Maine, Tex - as and New Mex - i - co are rea - dy to en - train. North and South and East and West they hear the bu - gle sound, — And here they come by tens of thous - ands from the coun - try round. For we'll march, march, march and we'll fight, fight, fight, — For just one flag with all our might. Whether it's Wash-ing-ton or Lin-coln or Mc - Kin-ley sounds the call, — Or Wil - son says, "there's trouble boys," just sig-nal for us all. And we'll march, march, march, and we'll fight, fight, fight For the flag we love, both day and night. And it's wee to him who stops us as we press on to the fight, For the flag we fight for stands for right. For we'll right.

From the mountain, from the prairie
From the crowded way,
Gather men of every calling
One in thought today.
Homes are left to trusted hands
And labors left undone,
To fall in line together
'Til the victory is won.

Never may the way be longer
Than we care to go.
Ever may our hearts be stronger
As we weary grow.
Let us give, that those may live
Whose love is all we care;
And follow where the COLORS lead,
Yes—, follow anywhere.
