I found all of the accounts of the officers of the town kept in a very clear manner, and the officers in general are deserving of much credit, for the system in which their accounts are kept.

In conclusion, I would suggest that all officers and parties working for the town render an itemized account for all service rendered the town giving days and dates, also an itemized statement of all their expenses, etc.; by so doing I believe it would prove very satisfactory to the town as well as to the parties concerned.

Respectfully submitted,

PITTSFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY REPORT.

The addition to the Pittsfield Public Library of over 250 volumes since March, '97, makes available for the free use of every family in our town, more than 800 books, whose authors aim to please and enlighten the young as well as satisfy the demand of broader and more cultivated minds.

The appropriations of the past have, of course, been inadequate for your committee to meet the desires of the most exacting, yet the interest manifested by the ever increasing number of patrons, encourages us to ask for a larger fund to be expended in the interest of our boys and girls who are so soon to assume the responsibilities of the men and women of today. We make no financial report for past year as this is duly set forth in report of selectmen.

In closing we would call attention to the fact that several books are in bad condition from improper treatment by patrons, and we respectfully ask your co-operation and assistance in the preservation of our library by carefully handling its volumes, and turning the pages with unsoiled hands.

REPORT OF SUPT. OF SCHOOLS.

The citizens of Pittsfield have reason to congratulate themselves on the general success that has attended the schools of the town during the past year. It is hardly to be expected that every school in town should be a model one. Some will always be better than others, but there have been no cases of decided failure during the year, and the work done has been in general very good.

The village schools have now been for the most part relieved from the unfavorable conditions reported one year ago. The completion of the new schoolhouse on Hartland Avenue and the opening of two schools there have made an end of the overcrowding in the other schools except in the Riverside Primary Department. It has not seemed possible to bring that school down to the proper number without sending the children too far from their homes. The increased appropriation has given every pupil the privilege of attending school for thirty weeks during the year, and besides this, the time lost by the village schools during the previous year, has been made up.

The wages of teachers have for the most part been restored to the point at which they stood previous to the reduction of the year before. This is as it should be. Cheap teachers can be hired, but there is nothing gained by it. It is worth while to employ good teachers and to pay them good wages. It is often said that the schools ought to belong to the teachers of the town, rather than to those outside. There is something of truth in this, of course, but the schools belong to the teachers that can do the best work.

The fact that a teacher, or some near relative of hers, pays taxes in town does not at all give her a right to the town's money unless she can make as good a return for that money as some other teacher can. While the most of our teachers for the past year have belonged in town the committee has gone outside whenever it seemed wise to do so. We spend a large amount of money for our schools and we ought to be sure of having the best possible return for it. If every parent would be careful heartily to sustain the teacher of his children, to see that those children attend school regularly and conduct themselves properly while there, and to encourage them to do their best in all their school work, the efficiency of the schools would be increased a hundred fold. Every time a parent criticises a teacher in the presence of his children, every time he allows them to remain out of school because of something in the teacher's management that they do not exactly like, or while attending, to cripple the efficiency of the school by bad conduct, he is doing an injury to the school that he can hardly repair. Even if the work of a teacher is not quite ideal work, how much better to make the best of it than by criticism and interference to make matters worse! It needs the whole community to make a good school. There must be a good teacher, good pupils and good parents as well. With a considerable outlay of work on my own part the text-books of the town have been numbered, and blank books have been furnished the teachers in which to keep a record of those loaned to pupils. Only in this way can the loss of books through carelessness be prevented. The books do not last as they ought to. It is very much to be desired that parents and all having charge of children exert all the influence in their power to prevent the misuse of the town's books. To be sure, the law provides a remedy for such misuse, but it is very seldom that books go "to pieces all at once," and where the destruction is somewhat gradual, it is difficult for school officers to place the responsibility where it belongs.

The Lancey St. Grammar School has been unfortunate in being obliged to change teachers twice during the year. It is always more profitable to keep in a school for a series of terms any teacher who is doing acceptable work than to make frequent changes. There is no need of rehearsing the unfortunate occurrences that interfered somewhat with the success of the spring term of this school. Such occurrences are always deeply to be deplored. Mr. Pratt, who took the school at the beginning of the fall term, proved himself a very efficient teacher, but he took himself away, quite unexpectedly to the school board, soon after the opening of the winter term. Mr. I. O. Bragg completed the term with general acceptance. Miss Freeman, the teacher of the Intermediate School has already won her reputation as a teacher. The school has done especially good work during the last term, since the opening of the new school reduced the number of its pupils.

Miss Chalmers to the regret of all interested in the school, resigned at the close of the spring term, her position as teacher of the Primary Department. In commendation of the work of Miss Bowman, who succeeded her, it is sufficient to say that the school, under her management, has not fallen below its previous high standard. It is one of our best schools.

At the end of the spring term Miss Lothrop resigned the position so long held by her as teacher of the Riverside Grammar School. Her place was filled by Mrs. W. H. Burton, a teacher favorably known before to many of the people of the town. Under her the school has been a model one. Teacher and pupils have worked together with a harmony and an enthusiasm that could not fail to produce the best results.

In the Intermediate School, at the opening of the fall term, Miss Minnie Patten took the place of Miss Bowman, who was transferred to the Lancy St. Primary School. This school also has done excellent work, and the teacher has fully sustained the reputation that she had previously gained in other schools of the town.

The Primary School has been badly overcrowded and too much can hardly be said in praise of the work done by Mrs. Brown under such unfavorable circumstances. During the winter term she was given an assistant for two or three hours a day, and remarkable progress was made by the several classes.

The new schools on Hartland Avenue have also been highly successful. Their work compares favorably with that of the older schools.

In Dist. No. 6 all were very sorry to lose at the end of the spring term the services of Mrs. Burton, who had so long and so successfully managed the school. Unfortunately this school also has had three different teachers during the year. In the fall Miss Plumstead worked very hard for the school, with good success in most respects, but found the discipline of the school somewhat difficult. Mr. Felker, who taught the winter term, gave excellent satisfaction.

Miss Helen Maines taught very acceptably the school in Dist. No. 8 for the entire year. This school has some excellent scholars, but others fail to take the interest that they should. Home influences are perhaps not in all cases favorable to the most earnest work in school.

In Dist. No. 3 the spring term was taught by Miss Mertie Kenney, who seems able in an unusual degree to win the good will and love of her pupils. Poor health detracted somewhat from her energy during this term. Under Miss Ina Lancaster, who succeeded her, the school showed remarkable improvement during the fall term. In the winter there seemed, for some reason, to be a little falling off from the standard of the previous term.

Miss Minnie Patten taught the spring term in Dist. No. 5 with her usual success. The other two terms have been taught by Miss Kate Patten. Though this was her first experience as a teacher, yet her school has been one of the best. This is one of the pleasantest schools in town. The pupils are orderly and willing to work. In Dist. No. 10, both Miss Crawford in the spring and Miss Johonnett during the remainder of the year did excellent work, and those who attended school regularly had the best of opportunities for improvement.

In Dist. No. 11, both Miss Sinclair in the spring and Miss Horne in the fall were highly successful. The school was small, but very pleasant and profitable. The pupils from this district were conveyed to Dist. No. 3 during the winter term, and were thus able to attend school as many weeks for the year as those in other parts of the town. O. H. DRAKE, Superintendent.
