R. W. BELL, '16, ELECTED CROSS-COUNTRY CAPTAIN

At a meeting of the championship cross-country team last Friday, R. W. Bell, '16, of Arlington, Mass., was elected captain for the coming year. Herberto the captain of the track team has served also as captain of the cross-country team but since cross-country has grown to be a distinct branch of athletics in itself it was thought advisable to elect a separate captain. Bell will certainly be the man to watch this year for he has worked faithfully since entering college. He was a member of the cross-country and track teams last year, finishing second in the state cross-country race and winning the half-mile in the state track meet. This year his work in cross-country has been in every way a credit to him. In the New England race held at Hanover, he finished second to Marcus of Dartmouth and pushed the Green runner to his limit. Bell will be a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity and the Sophomore Owls.

RECEPTION TO MRS. TOWER

PLAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

The United States, an educational ideal cherished by President Washington has for the past thirty years been a great reality and an important place in the thought of educators. It is planned to make this a great national university which will make use of socially derived income for raising the standards of popular intelligence.

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF MECHANICAL ENGINEERS

University of Maine Student Branch
Addressed by Mr. F. B. Scoom of Brooklyn, N. Y.

On Tuesday evening, November 25th, Mr. F. B. Scoom of the Continental Iron Works of Brooklyn, N. Y., gave an address before the University of Maine Student Branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers on "Internal Furnace Boilers.", He dwelt at some length on the adaptability of the Morison Suspension Furnace to any type of internally fired boilers, either fire tube or water tube and the advantages of these furnaces over the plain. In the 39,000 internationally fired boilers in use in this country there is no record of a single explosion, which is wonderful, as one sees almost daily an account of some fatal explosion of an externally fired boiler. The difference in accidents is due largely to the fact that in internally fired boilers the flames do not come in contact with the shell and the firebox is entirely surrounded by water.

The Continental Iron Works built the famous "Monitor" and Mr. Scoom gave a very interesting account of its erection. From the time the keel was laid until it was in the water was exactly 100 days. In the same docks were built many more steel vessels in later years.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS

Maine Students Branch Elects Officers

At a recent business meeting of the University of Maine Students Branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, officers were elected as follows:

President, Charles M. Kelley, Jr., of Ellsworth, Maine; Vice-President, Philip B. Sheridan of Salem, Mass.; Secretary, Edward L. Getchell of Waterville; Treasurer, Mark Pendleton of Lewiston; Executive Committee, Herman R. Clark of Townsend, Mass.; Frederick S. Jones of Augusta, Sherwood H. Willard of Greenfield, Mass., and Prof. William E. Barrows of the electrical engineering department.

The purpose of this club is to promote electrical interests in the University. At the meetings talks are given by members of the faculty and the students and from time to time prominent men from away are secured to lecture on up to date topics in the electrical world.

ENGINEERING NOTES

Last week Prof. Jocett attended a meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers in New York. He also visited several large manufacturing under scientific management in New York and Philadelphia.

The Electrical Department expect to have the new motor generator in operation by the end of this week. It will probably take about three weeks to finish wiring and setting up of the switchboard.

U. OF M. GIRLS GETTING PRACTICAL HOUSEWORK

The work of the class in practical housework at the university is proving exceptionally interesting, largely through the novelty of all the regular routine of housekeeping being put in as a requirement for a college course. The whole upper floor of the home economics department is given over for the purpose of the three-day housekeeping, furnishing a kitchen, dining room, reception room, bedroom, and bathroom to be taken care of by the two young women in the course assigned to the work at this time. Three meals are to be served on each of the three days except that there will be only breakfast and luncheon Saturday.

The meals are all served by courses, there being three courses for breakfast, three for luncheon, and four for dinner, which is the principal meal and comes at night. Five persons are served at each meal. Miss Cornelia Palmer, professor of home economics, Miss Eugenia Rodiek, '14, of Bar Harbor, and Miss Grace E. Clapp, of Winslow, the two young women doing the work, and two guests.

A maximum limit of expenditure for the food for the eight meals has been set at $5, yet some very dainty meals are served. Miss Palmer is the host, and one of the young women acts as hostess and the other waitress for one day and then these two exchange places.

The breakfast, which is a three-course meal, consists of fruit, cereal, and an egg or meat course. Luncheon which is also a three-course meal, consists of soup or salad and dessert. Dinner, the principal meal, is of four courses: Soup, meat, salad and dessert.

Thursday’s breakfast consisted of baked apples, cream of wheat with cream, date muffins and coffee. Thursday’s lunch consisted of puree peas, fruit salad, bread and butter, preserved quinces, cookies and tea. The menu for Thursday’s dinner consisted of consomme with wafers, veal cutlet, rice potatoes, creamed peas, pineapple salad, fruit jelly and coffee.

For breakfast Friday the menu consisted of oranges, oatmeal, with cream, poached egg, toast and coffee. For lunch there were cream of potato soup with croquettes, corn pudding, carrot conserve, bread and butter, pineapple jelly, cookies and tea. For dinner Friday there will be beef blanquette, chicken fricassee with gravy, sweet potatoes, mashed turnip, orange and grapefruit salad with cheese nut balls, maraschino cherry and black coffee.

Two guests are invited in for each meal. The following from among those connected with the university are the fortunate ones to receive the hospitality of the young women in the course of practical housekeeping: President and Mrs. Robert J. Aley for breakfast Thursday; Prof. and Mrs. A. J. Jones, who were present at luncheon on Thursday; Dr. and Mrs. Minett A. Chandler for dinner Thursday; Miss Dorothy Beach and Miss Alice Boring for breakfast Friday; Dr. and Mrs. Merritt C. Forland for luncheon Friday; and Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Eadie for dinner Friday. Victor G. Aubrey and Prof. Lambert Corbet were the guests for breakfast Thursday morning and Dr. and Mrs. Ralph H. McKee for luncheon that day.

PHI MU ENTERTAINS

In Honor of Miss Harris

Pi Chapter of Phi Mu entertained in honor of Miss Harris at the Mt. Vernon house, Saturday evening, Dec. 6, 1913. The rooms were prettily decorated with evergreen, rose carnations and rose-colored lights casting a soft shade over all. The evening was very enjoyable spent in dancing. Music by Miss Brown '17, and Miss Barnes of Bangor.

At the Mt. Vernon House, Monday afternoon, Dec. 8, 1913, the Phi Mu girls gave an informal tea in honor of Miss Harris to the wives of the faculty, the matrons and the girls of the college. Although the weather conditions were very unfavorable, quite a large number attended. Music for the afternoon was furnished by Miss Brown, the pianist and Miss Barnes of Bangor, the violinist.

GRAND STAND AND FIELD ACCOUNT

The Athletic report, as published in this issue of the Campus has been mailed to all our alumni using the last addresses which we have. Our list is however two years old and Mr. Ames is at present working on a new directory. It is expected that a great many of these reports will be returned on account of change of address. However, the report has been mailed to the best address which we have on file in the office for the alumni.

NOTE

The following letter which we have received for publication, is self-explanatory:

December 1, 1913.

DEAR SIR:

Students taking part in basketball contests, other than those of class teams must first receive permission from the Faculty Committee on Athletics. Faculty Committee on Athletics.

Quite a little talk has been made recently among the students with regard to the present rule on chapel attendance.

Attendance once. The one complaint most universally heard is that there is no clear and definite interpretation of the rule. "And what is it?" the students ask, "that is, what is the rule?" They say that the rule, as they understand it, is the same as the former rule, but that the new rule has been made more strict. The new rule has been made more strict by the addition of a new clause which states that no student will be allowed to leave chapel after the exercises have been completed. This new clause makes the rule more strict.

That the chapel exercises this year have been the most noisy since they were instituted. The Senior of the fact that the exercises are religious in their nature, a respectful quiet is very necessary. The Senior says: "I think it is a pity that some of the students do not make a more effort to attend the exercises. The exercises are meant to be attended in a respectful manner, and I think it is a pity that some of the students do not make a more effort to attend the exercises."

The Senior goes on to say that the exercises are meant to be attended in a respectful manner, and that if the students do not make a more effort to attend the exercises, they will be permitted to leave the exercises at any time. This new rule has been made more strict by the addition of a new clause which states that no student will be allowed to leave chapel after the exercises have been completed. This new clause makes the rule more strict.

ROUND TABLE SOCIAL

An Enjoyable Occasion Promised

The social to be given by the Round Table, Saturday evening, to the Faculty and their ladies, students and alumni seems likely to prove a very pleasant occasion. The committee in charge of the social entertainment is Mrs. Jeanette Harrington, Mrs. Surface and Miss Rebecca Chillcott. Mr. Ted Haddock is stage manager and has a large corps of assistants.

Committee in charge of music and dancing is Mrs. Ella J. Mason, Mrs. Robert Drummond and Miss Antonette Webb. Floor Manager, Mr. Oswald B. Higgins. Special Aides, Mr. Paul Murray, Mr. Fred Lewis, with the following aides: Philip Sheridan, Ray Thompson, Ralph Lawrence, Ernest Fowle, Paul Warren, Drummond Fosse, Gerald Rounds. Philip Thomas, Alfred King, Henry F. Worcester, Ernest Goodwin.

Refreshments are in charge of Mrs. Leon S. Merrill, Mrs. James Stevens, Mrs. Kate Estabrooks, Mrs. Walter Farnham, Mrs. Tower and other members of the Round Table. Music will be by the college orchestra, Mr. Park Elliot, leader.

Arrangements are being made to have special cars from Orono at 7:40, returning at 11:40. It will be a strictly college function and a large number of both the Faculty and students have expressed their intentions to be present.

MAINE MASQUE NOTICE

All sophomores who intend to work out on the Round Table social are requested to see M. F. Banks, the manager, at once.

LETTER TO ALUMNI, UNIVERSITY OF MAINE
In the past four years, eleven championships have been decided. Maine has won eight, an average we are proud of. Our football team defeated Bates 34-0, Colby 31-0, Bowdoin 50-0, and finally the football championship. This fall, our new Wyoming boiler defeated Dartmouth, 10-0, and won the State Championship, and for the first time in the history of the New England Colleges, Maine won the Championship of the New England Meet. Championships cost money and to equip our teams so that they may be at their best and in position to compete successfully with the other leading colleges of New England, we have gone into debt to the amount of approximately $1.400.00. Can you not give a small subscription toward running expenses of the Association? You will see from Grand Stand and Field report that many subscriptions remain unpaid and many of our alumni have not subscribed at all. Hon. E. H. Blake of Bangor has been promised $5174.73 has already been paid.
