MAINE WINS IN THE TENTH

Driscoll Outpitches Opponents in a ten inning Battle

The sun shone brightly and opened into the western haze, threatening to stay with a thunderstorm chinese cooking the region. The Lewiston team of the New England league and the University team of the New England League took to the field at 3:30 yesterday afternoon.

The Lewiston team, which is a four in the field and eight in the batting order, was outscored by Maine, the score being 3 to 2.

There was no crowd of first game fans that turned out to watch the exhibition.

Driscoll was on the mound for the Lewiston team and Maine's pitcher, Johnson, was on the mound for the University team.

Remarkably, the game had to be decided in extra innings, after a desperate struggle for victory.

The University team led at first, but the game was tied at the end of the ninth inning. The deciding run came in the final inning, when Johnson, after making a perfect hit in two outs, was brought home by the Maine team. The score was 3 to 2.

The game was continued the next day, and Driscoll and Johnson were both in good form, but their teams were evenly matched.

In the end, the University team scored the decisive hit, and the game was won.

There were several outstanding performances by both teams, including the pitching of Driscoll and Johnson, who showed a remarkable talent for outpitching each other.

The game was played under the rules of the NCAA, and was a good indication of the level of play that can be expected in future college baseball games.

The University team emerged victorious, and the game was a testament to the skill and determination of both teams.

Despite the close score, the game was an enjoyable spectacle for fans of all ages.

The final score was Maine 3, Lewiston 2.

ORONO THEATRE

Feeling that something is needed to make the Student body and the Faculty acquainted with the better productions of the stage, the Dramatic Club of the Hebrew Union College, under the direction of H. A. Strohmenger, has this season given a series of plays in the college auditorium.

The plays included a modern comedy by the English author Samuel French, "The Man at the Iron Door," which was produced under the direction of Mrs. O. H. Lee, and a one-act play by the English actor and writer, Louis Charles, "The Damned," which was produced under the direction of Miss Mabel A. Reynolds.

The plays were well received by the audience and the credit for the success of the season rests with the Dramatic Club for the excellent management of the auditorium and the efficient work of the stage crew.

The idea of greater value-giving has become so intensely associated with this store that the name "Finnegan & Monaghan" is now synonymous in the minds of most men with better values in better things. It explains why, season after season, the same men come here for their clothes, clothes service and clothes satisfaction—why these men bring their friends with them—and why every purchase is a steady day-by-day advertisement for our name and our values.

Here we are selling the genuine in every style and fabric for every man's fancy, ideas that wear years, worked out in every desired weave, in every pleasing pattern and shade. Here are garments to fit the hard-earned as well as the perfectly proportioned— all priced in proof of greater value.
