Composer of
As the daisies need the Sunshine I need you.

The piano introduction is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It begins with a dynamic marking of f (forte). The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving bass lines.

VOICE.

The first vocal entry is in 4/4 time. The lyrics are: "I look in - to your eyes you say your'e mine dear — You / You turn a - way and still I ask a - gain dear — Why". The melody is written in a soprano clef. The piano accompaniment is in the same key signature and time signature, starting with a dynamic marking of p (piano).

The second vocal entry continues the melody. The lyrics are: "ask me if my heart is ev - er true — If some day I will break the vows I / do you doubt and think I would de - ceive — You say our meet - ing you will ne'er re -". The piano accompaniment continues with a similar harmonic structure.

The third vocal entry concludes the piece. The lyrics are: "gave you And on life's stream drift far a - way from you — But / gret dear So bid your heart trust on and still be - lieve — Our". The piano accompaniment provides a final harmonic resolution.
