MAINE WINS STATE MEET WITH 60 1-2 POINTS

Bailey Breaks Two of Three Records Broken By Maine at Waterville

SMITH PRAISES TEAM

Maine's well balanced track team won last Saturday a third consecutive State championship. This team amassed a score of 60½ points, scoring 8 first places, tying for one, winning two second and tying for one other, and securing three thirds and tying for another. Besides running up this score Maine athletes broke the only three records broken during the day.

Bowdoin sprung the surprise of the meet by taking second place away from Colby. She was able to do this for the most part because of the failure of Captain Royal of Colby to win anything better than a second in the hurdles. Captain Bailey made his last performance in Maine track athletics a star one by being the high point winner of the meet. He broke his own record in the hammer, tied for second in the shotput, and bettered the discus record held by Gove of Bates by 1 foot and 6 inches with a throw of 127 ft. 6 in. His distance in the hammer was only 162 ft. 4 in. bettering his old record by 11 ½ inches. More was expected by him than this, but the terrible condition of the ring was such that he was unable to do his best.

Palmer was the other man to break a record. Some little doubt was felt as to whether he would win or not as he had not been jumping much better than 5 ft. 5 in. in practice, but Palmer showed that he was still the same man in competition, that he was last year, by jumping 5 ft. 10 in. and adding ¼ inches to the record held by Kempton of Bates.

Coach Smith paid his tribute to the team by saying:

Words cannot properly express my appreciation of the good work performed by the Track Team at Waterville last Saturday. All the boys who played a part in this the greatest victory ever scored in the history of Track Athletics at Maine earned the gratitude of everybody connected with the University. This victory pleased me mostly because every point winner on the team showed a degree of spirit that fairly shames the spirit that has been displayed by some of our teams in other branches of sport.

Capt. Bailey competed Saturday under a physical handicap. He began his career here as a rough novice and his four years of faithful service met with a just reward in our grand victory. Philbrook has been a fine Manager and a big help to us, in fact this victory resulted from long faithful service on the part of everybody concerned and to say the least I want the credit to go to the boys.

The track was in very poor condition. With the absence of Rice in the dashes and the poor showing by Royal in the hurdles, it was left to the distance runs to furnish the thrills. The fine work of Bell, Dempsey, and Preti in these events was the feature of the meet.

Bell in the mile ran a fine race, and was timed for the second fastest mile ever run in the state. Dempsey, until this time an unknown quantity, ran a great race in the half and with a faster track would have bettered any time made in that event in the state for the past few years. Preti in the two-mile was handicapped to a greater extent by the track, but ran a strong race.

French easily won the high hurdles and was leading by inches when he fell in the lows. He was prevented from making a record in the broad jump because of the condition of the runway. The first half of this was barely scraped from the grass. He made one jump in the trials of 23 feet, but fouled by inches.

The morning trials: Maine failed to qualify anyone in the 220 yard dash. King lost out for the pole in his heat in the quarter and was badly boxed for the rest of the race. Leacock barely missed qualifying in the 220.

French easily won his heats in both hurdles. In the track events Maine qualified all of her entries.

440-yard dash—First trial heat won by Lawrence, Bates; second, McWilliams of Bowdoin; third, Webster of Colby. Time 53 seconds.

Second trial heat won by Connors.

DEANS ARE MEETING HERE

Officers From 13 New England Institutions Discuss Problems

Deans from thirteen New England Universities and Colleges are now holding their annual meeting at the University of Maine. The meetings of these Administrative Officers of the various colleges and Universities in New England have become a regular feature in collegiate activities during the past few years. Each year the meeting-place is changed to a different institution.

James Stacy Stevens, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Maine, is President of the second and in co-operation with Dean James Norris Hart, also of the University, and the other members of the faculty, will act as host to the visiting Deans.

The business sessions on the program were held yesterday afternoon and evening and are being held this morning.

Thursday evening the visitors were entertained at dinner by Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Aley, at the President's home. After this a reception was held at the home of Dean James N. Hart.

This morning an opportunity will be given for the Deans to visit the campus and buildings. At 10.00 they will attend morning chapel in Alumni Hall.

The Dartmouth College alumni of the University faculty will meet at the home of Dr. Pearl this evening where at a reception they will be given an opportunity to meet Dean Laycock of Dartmouth. The Yale members of the faculty are also planning several social features for the entertainment of Dean F. S. Jones, Yale.

Dean K. C. M. Sills of Bowdoin College will address the Arts Club of the University this evening at the home of Lucius Merrill. The subject will be "Literature and the Dark Ages."

The deans who will be in attendance at the meeting are: Amherst, Dean G. D. Olds; Brown University, Dean O. E. Randall; Dartmouth College, Dean Craven Laycock; Williams College, Dean F. Ferry; Tufts College, Dean F. G. Wren; Harvard University, Dean B. S. Hurlbut; Yale University, Dean F. S. Jones; Bowdoin College, Dean K. C. M. Sills; Boston University, Dean W. M. Warren; University of Maine, Dean James Stacy Stevens, and Dean James Norris Hart; Wesleyan College, Professor F. W. Nicholson; Princeton University, Dean Howard McClenahan; Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Dean A. E. Burton.

The list of the topics for the discussions were suggested by the deans of the various universities and colleges. Each topic was prepared by the Dean of the institution indicated opposite each subject.

The list includes:—Auditing accounts for student enterprises, Boston; Chapel services, Bowdoin and Yale; Credits allowed graduates of professional and normal schools, Maine; Credit values for algebra and English, Tufts; Dormitory rooms-assignment, Yale; Elementary Greek in college, Williams; Examinations-preliminary and final, Dartmouth and Yale; Exercises per week per course, Williams; Free recreation hours in the afternoon, Brown; Honor courses, Yale; Honor system, Harvard; Limiting student numbers, Wesleyan; Master's degree-non-resident work, Maine; National certificate board, Wesleyan; Parental attitude, Brown; Penalties less severe than suspension, Boston; Press errors, Bowdoin; Quality credits, Yale; Removal of deficiencies, Brown; Required reading, Maine; Scholarships-distribution, Bowdoin; Senior societies, Williams; Success in college and after life, Wesleyan; Synchronizing the shorter vacations, Harvard; Tuition rebates, Boston and Bowdoin. Western students in eastern colleges Bowdoin.

Off for the Meet

Eleven men, Coach Smith, and manager Philbrook left Thursday afternoon for Boston to compete in the New England Intercollegiate meet.

Maine's chances, with Rice out of the running look better than they ever did before. Conservative estimates give the team about 35 points. It is a hard meet to dope and Dartmouth's score depends to a great extent upon the way in which the smaller Colleges cut into the third and fourth places. It is well known that she is not so strong as in former years and with Rice entered for Maine would be doing a lot of worrying about the result. The men who made the trip are: Captain Bailey, Gulliver, Williams, Palmer, Bell Preti, Dempsey, French Allen, Wunderlick and Hutton.

Maine won the fourth game of the Championship series from Bowdoin on Wednesday. Bowdoin played a very loose game, every man who played the whole game with the exception of Phillips making one or more errors.

Lawry played a fine game for Maine. Gorham's catch of a hard hit fly ball in the sixth was one of the features. Ruffner who has been hitting the ball hard but with hard luck came thru with his first hit and stole two bases.

WHAT ABOUT YOU?

A Communication to the Students Regarding Finances

The student body understands that circumstances make it imperative that the Athletic Association get out of debt this year. This could be accomplished if we were not represented at the New England meet Saturday May 22 and the big intercollegiate Saturday, May 29. Every Maine man should make some sacrifice to help defray the expenses of the best track team that ever competed for Maine. Do your part by subscribing liberally when you are approached.

The following men will receive subscriptions: for the faculty, P. W. Monohon; for the Alumni Hosea Buck; for the students, W. H. Martin.

PREP. SCHOOL MEN HERE

To Compete In Annual Invitation Track Meet

Tomorrow the annual invitation meet for high and preparatory schools will take place on the Athletic field. Each year this event is given much notice for it brings together many school boy athletes who are to enter college in the near future. Men from nearly every high and preparatory school in the State meet in keen competition for the various events, and as a result, many close an interesting contests take place. For several years, Hebron, with her array of prominent athletes, has had little trouble in securing first place. The contests have been, for the most part, for second and third. This year, Hebron has a crack team, but they are to meet some worthy opponents from several of the large high schools such as Portland and Bangor.

To-night, an entertainment for the visiting men is to be held in the Gymnasium. The M. Club is behind the scheme, so there is no doubt but what it will be very interesting both to visitors and Maine men. The nature of this entertainment has not been given out, but will probably consist of a large rally, into which a number of new features will be introduced. The Cadet Band, always a pleasing feature on a program, will be in attendance, and undoubtedly much "Maine Spirit" will be turned loose.

The trials for the dashes, hurdles and field events will start at 10 A. M. and the finals will be run off at 1.30, in order that the meet may be over in ample time for the production of "As You Like It," which will take place after the meet.

TENNIS SEASON NOW ON

Meets With Colby and at Brunswick are Coming

The tennis season is now on. The first dual meet is scheduled for Friday and Saturday of this week with Colby. This meet will be played on Orono courts. Next week, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Manager Sherman will take his team to Brunswick to compete in the Maine Intercollegiate Meet.

The Maine team is not completely chosen as yet. Hall, '15, is Captain. Other members will be picked from the following: Kilburn, '17, DeWitt, '16; Ingalls, '15; Creighton, '15 or Rollins, '16.

Maines chances for the championship are poor. The entire team which made such a fine showing last year has graduated. With a comparatively green team Maine must compete with veterans of other meets.

Next on the tennis schedule comes the Southard Tournament. Entries for this meet should be in on Thursday, May 27.

May Blue Book Out

The May "Blue Book" has been out for several days. The second number of the revised magazine is fully as good as the first.

Among the stories are:—"Just Like A Man," by Frances Gargor, '17; "The Spirit of Sacrifice," by Muriel Colbath; "15; "The Woman Hater," by A. F. Kallan; "Earning the Privilege," by Paul Gould, '17; and "For Bravery" by Elizabeth Hanly, '15.

A. F. Sherman, '16, business manager of the book said in a recent interview: "We hope that the student body as a whole will support the Blue Book. It costs only ten cents to buy a copy. If 500 students will do that a regular monthly magazine will be possible next year."

N. E. I. MEET TO BE HELD TOMORROW

Maine Is Expected To Make Good Showing at Cambridge

TO SEND ELEVEN MEN

The New England Intercollegiate Meet is to be held tomorrow at Tech Field, Cambridge, Mass. Last year Maine took second place in this meet, Dartmouth being first.

The loss of Rice is felt keenly. Bailey and Gulliver are expected to make good showings in the hammer throw and Palmer, the winner of the high jump last year, is expected to bring points again. The distance men Bell, Preti, Dempsey and Wunderlick are going to fight for places.

In the hurdles there is French. Hutton in the pole vault is expected to take a place. Although a small squad will be sent to Cambridge, Coach Smith believes that they are nearly all point winners.

The entries are: One-mile, Bell; Two-Mile Preti and Wunderlick; Half-Mile, Dempsey; 120-Yard High Hurdles, French High Jump, Palmer; Shot Put, Allen and Bailey; Throwing Hammer, Bailey and Gulliver; Pole Vault, Hutton and Williams; 220-Yd. Low Hurdles, French and Williams; Running Broad Jump, French; Discus, Bailey.

NEW FRATERNITY HOUSE

Sigma Nu To Build $18,000 Home This Summer

By the first of June, Delta Nu Chapter of the Sigma Nu Fraternity, will break ground for a new chapter house, which will be built upon the site between the Theta Chi house and the present Sigma Nu house. This new home, which has been designed by Bangor architects, will be a modern fraternity house in every way and built according to the colonial type of architecture. Designed to accommodate thirty-two men and a matron, it will cost approximately $18,000. The building operations will be rushed during the summer so that the structure may be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the fall semester.

Delta Nu of Sigma Nu started as a local in the fall of 1903 under the name of Theta Epsilon and since that time has occupied its present home. In April, 1913 Theta Epsilon was granted a national charter by Sigma Nu, becoming Delta Nu chapter of that fraternity.

The old house which is the property of the college will be used temporarily as a girl's dormitory until the completion of Balentine Hall.

This is the first attempt of the co-eds at anything serious in the way of theatricals. If it proves successful co-ed theatricals may become an annual institution.

The visiting preparatory school girls will be the guests of the Woman's Club of the University at the play.

EDITORIALS

Maine won a great victory at Waterville Saturday. Too much praise cannot be given Coach Smith and the members of the team for the excellent work which they have done. The State Championship was won by a big margin in spite of such handicaps as the loss of Charlie Rice. The individual performances were unusually good. In addition to this it seems that the team work was unusually good. The men who took seconds, thirds or did not place gave the best they had and deserve their share of the glory.

This week the team is at the New England Meet. The student body have all confidence that it will give an unusually good account of itself there and uphold the honor of Maine against strong competition.

It is a great pleasure to have so many "prep" school men here this week as our guests. Every student here wants to do all in his power to give our visitors a good time. Both the Interscholastic Meet and the Speaking Contests are events which should receive our heartiest support. They are important elements in the development of the next generation of University Students. The University is brought into closer touch with the schools by such occasions as these.

The alumni and student body will be very much interested in Dr. Fernald's letter which appears in this issue of the "CAMPUS." The congratulations and best wishes of all who have ever been connected with the University will go out to Dr. and Mrs. Fernald on the occasion of their golden wedding.

Dr. Fernald's "History of the University of Maine," will fulfill a long felt want. No man is so well qualified to undertake this work as Dr. Fernald.

The cheering at the State Meet was especially good. While we realize that it will become a guest to criticize his host, we cannot refrain from remarking on the excellent spirit shown by the Maine rooters. In spite of the extremely disadvantages location of the Maine bleachers, the student body for the most part remained together, cheering their men although they could see neither start nor finish in most events.

Harmon 15, is an unusually good cheer leader and we hope that his successor will be equally good.

The Athletic Association has chosen its new officers. We believe that it has chosen wisely and that the future of the association under such leaders is indeed bright.

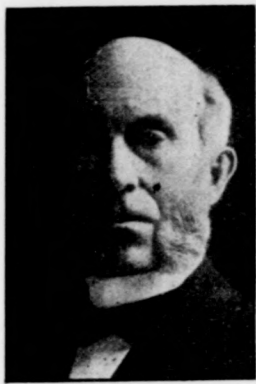

LETTER FROM DR. FERNALD

To the Teachers and Former Students of the University of Maine:

MY DEAR FRIENDS:

Providence permitting, Mrs. Fernald and I shall observe our golden wedding on August 24th of the present year. It would be delightful for us, could you all be present, but we realize that this is impossible. I beg, therefore, to repeat a suggestion which it was my privilege to make last January at the meeting of the Boston Alumni Association, with the understanding that it now applies to you all. It was to this effect. Many of you will be present at Commencement in early June. It will give Mrs. Fernald and myself great satisfaction, if to the extent possible, you will make the Commencement season an occasion for calling upon us. Entirely informally and at any convenient hour, at our home, 54 Main Street, Orono. The latchstring will be out, and it will be a pleasure for us to take you again by the hand and renew, even briefly, the old association.

Another matter may be of interest to you. At the Boston meetings referred to,

President Aley announced that I am engaged in writing a history of the University of Maine. It is proper for me to say to you all, that, in response to repeated solicitations on the part of Alumni and other persons interested, I came to regard it a duty to undertake the preparation of a history of our beloved institution, early known as the Maine State College and later as the University of Maine.

Several chapters have already been written, covering the preliminary history, that is, prior to the opening of the institution to students; the three years when I was Acting President, from 1868 to 1871; the administration of Rev. Dr. Allen from 1871 to 1878; my own administration from 1879 to 1893; and the administration of Dr. Harris from 1893 to 1901. When the general history down to the present time shall be completed, it is my purpose to add a number of chapters on some of the special features and departments of the University which seem to call for separate or supplementary treatment.

You will understand that this statement gives the outline only in its most general form. It is my design to dedicate the volume to the graduates and former students, the men and the women who have received their academic training at this institution, and who, like myself, appreciate more and more its worthy and invaluable service, and hold it in ever increasing honor and affection.

Sincerely and cordially yours,
M. C. Fernald.

Orono, Maine, May 18, 1915.

Ex-President Fellows Goes to Utah

George Emory Fellows, President of the University from 1902 to 1910 has resigned from the James Milliken University in Illinois and has accepted the chair of History at the University of Utah.

Huddilston Discusses Lusitania

The action of the United States in regard to the sinking of the Lusitania was the theme of a spirited speech by Dr. J. H. Huddilston at Chapel recently. Dr. Huddilston enumerated the indignities suffered by this nation since the outbreak of the War and expressed his belief that the government should take prompt and stringent measures to prevent further violations of our rights.

The personnel and the plan of the Federal Trades Commission was the subject of Prof. G. W. Stephens' talk at Friday Chapel. The increasing economic size of the employer necessitates such a board which consists of seven members appointed by the president. An important function of the board is the adjustment of labor disputes. Its purpose is not to alter statutes but to discover public opinion. Such an organization is a result of the inevitable trend of industry. It is regretted that its efforts and its possibilities are just now overshadowed.

THE MAINE CAMPUS

GIVES SULPHUR BURNER

Prof. McKee's Address In February Is Reprinted

The Pulp and Paper course will receive a new Vesuvius sulphur burner as an addition to its regular equipment. The new apparatus, which represents the best thing in sulphur burners, was designed especially for the University and is the gift of the builders, the Valley Iron Works of Appleton, Wisconsin.

Recent issues of the World's Paper Trade Review of London, the Paper Maker and British Paper Trade Journal, and the Pulp and Paper Magazine of Canada contain a reprint of an address on "The Progress of Paper Making Chemistry." This was delivered by Prof. H. McKee of the department of chemistry at the annual meeting of the American Pulp and Paper Association, which was held in New York city last February. The first two publications mentioned circulate over practically all the world.

TO HOLD REUNIONS

Each Five Year Class Since 1885
To Reunite At Commencement

Many of the old classes are planning for special reunions for Commencement. In addition to the reunions of the first seven classes, each five year class, beginning 1885 and including the 1915 class, is planning to have many members back. The members of the two classes immediately preceding and two immediately following the five year classes are invited. Plans for class supper are to be made by the representatives of the classes, on Monday night of Commencement Week. The reunion of the first seven classes graduated will be held at the Tarratine Club House, Bangor. Dean Boardman has charge of the arrangements for the class of 1895.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' CLUBS

Much Interest Being Shown In Agricultural Pursuits

"To make the best better." This is the motto of the Boys' and Girls Agricultural Clubs.

The club work, under the direction of the Extension Service of the College of Agriculture, has been extended within a year, to nearly every county in Maine. Two fair associations have made special classes for the exhibits of club members. $45 in prizes is the inducement offered by the Northern Maine Fair Association at Presque Isle, while the Caribou Fair offers $25 in this department.

Besides Aroostook there are ten other counties which have active and enthusiastic clubs. In all there are more than fifty of these local organizations, nineteen being Girls Canning Clubs, and the others Potato and Poultry Clubs. There are approximately 300 members in the Potato, 100 in the Poultry, and 150 in the Canning Clubs, making a total of more than 500 boys and girls.

The purposes of the club work are: to give the boys and girls an opportunity to earn money; to furnish fruit, vegetables and poultry, fresh and canned, for the home, thus producing purer and better food at a lower cost; to establish a more satisfactory home life and create community spirit; to provide a means of extending the principles of Agriculture and Home Economics; to establish a closer relationship between the schools and the homes; and to establish a more useful, intelligent and contented citizenship, thru the development of trained hands, trained minds and sounder health.

The club work is entirely practical and is designed to fit local conditions. In Aroostook, the boys are planting potatoes, and there are even a few girls engaged in the same work. The poultry clubs are for boys and girls, and are more prevalent in the southern part of the state. The girls in the Canning Clubs are confined this year to the growing and canning of beets and string beans, but, as the clubs grow, other vegetables will be added.

Thirty-four clubs were organized in 1914. Seventy-six boys and girls with ten local leaders attended the state contest at the University of Maine in December, 1914, where ten counties and twenty-seven towns were represented. There were ninety-five exhibits of potatoes and canned string beans. $400 in prizes were awarded to thirty-six different boys and girls. The highest per acre yield of potatoes was 573 bushels. The lowest cost per bushel was 13 cents.

Since the beginning of this year, about 20 local clubs have been added, and from York to Aroostook, the summer's activities have begun. Instruction sheets on planting and growing the crops have been sent to each club member by the state leaders, Miss Gurdy and Mr. Mitchell. In June, before the first vegetables appear, Miss Gurdy will have a bulletin published dealing with their preparation and cooking. Later on, instruction sheets will be issued on the harvesting, storing, and marketing of all crops.

No pains will be spared to make this a year of success for the boys and girls. It is expected that the Agriculture of the entire state will be improved to a marked degree.

First Outside Mass Meeting Held

After a short meeting in Alumni Hall, May 13, the first out of door mass meeting was celebrated. With the Cadet Band at the head a parade was begun, the first stop being made at the president's house, where President and Mrs. Aleo expressed their best wishes for a Maine victory on Saturday at the track meet. The parade marched to Orono and formed in front of the University Inn where "Bill" Martin introduced as speakers: Bernheisel, Donahue, Rice, Fogler, and Doyle. The result of the mass meeting was shown by the largest attendance of Maine students at a state meet on a rival college campus.

A. O. P. Gives Annual Dance

The Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority gave its annual dance at the Mount Vernon House, May 14. The house was decorated with American Beauty roses, the Sorority flower. The receiving line was composed of: Professor G. W. Stephens and Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. Kate C. Estabrooke, Mrs. Jeanette Harrington, Professor Colvin and Mrs. H. L. Farwell, '08. The music was supplied by Pullen's orchestra of Bangor and the refreshments by Mrs. Guess, the caterer.

Fred Perley Loring, reports that the sale of Prisms to date compares very favorably with the corresponding sales of other years. About 190 were sold on the first day of sale while the total number of sales to date is about 250.

M. A. A. Elects Officers

The election of officers of the M. A. A. took place May 13. Michael C. Driscoll was elected president of the association. The vice-president is Otis C. Lawry. Nash, and the Track Manager is Weston B. Haskell.

College of Law

The Law School nine came out very successful in their trip to Knox County. The first game which was with Rockland was the only one out of the four that the team lost.

Summary:—Rockland, 9; Law School, 5; Vinal Haven, 3; Law School, 5; Camden, 11; Law School, 13; Thomaston, 2; Law School, 11.

The team has a few more games to play before the close of the College year and all of the Law School fans are looking forward to results that will compare with the results of the Knox Co. trip.

Harry B. Westgate, Esq., of the class of 1913 has served during the past session of the California legislature as clerk of the Banking and Public Utility Commission. As the session was one of unusual importance he gained quite an insight into the legislative system of the state. After inarguable duties he took a long trip with Mrs. Westgate to the Panama exposition and has now returned to Pomona California where he is practicing law.

Pittsburg Alumni's Annual Meeting

The Pittsburg Alumni Association of the University of Maine held its annual meeting and banquet Saturday, May 8. The meeting, which was presided over by President J. W. Brown, '99, was full of enthusiasm of the sort that shows that the Maine spirit has not diminished in the years that have passed since graduation.

President Brown called on Warren McDonald, '12, who spoke on "Efficient Enthusiasm." This was followed by the Stein Song and cheers for Maine, for President Aleo, and for the Pittsburg Alumni. The next speaker was C. D. Smith, '05, who discussed "Home Ties." It had been planned to exhibit stereoscopic views of the campus and vicinity, but owing to a delay in the arrival of the slides this could not be done. W. R. Crocker, '11, provided an excellent substitute in slides which showed very interestingly the work of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, with which he is connected. H. E. Cole, '02, spoke on "Loyalty."

The annual election of officers was held with the following results:—President, J. W. Brown; vice-president, Warren McDonald, secretary and treasurer, C. D. Smith, executive committee F. W. Conlogue, C. L. Lyette, and B. H. Chatto, press correspondent, R. O. Shorey. It was voted to continue the Pittsburg Alumni scholarship at the University.

The present were:—A. G. Mitchell, '75, W. T. Brastow, '97, J. W. Brown, '99, H. L. Maddocks, '00, G. F. Murph, '00, H. E. Cole, '02, P. H. Harris, '03, B. H. Chatto, '05, C. D. Smith, '05, R. L. Caruso

"Tuxedo Does Not Irritate My Throat"

The non-irritating quality of Tuxedo which Caruso praises is due to the original "Tuxedo Process" by which the tobacco is treated. This process refines the tobacco and absolutely removes all bite and sting.

Many thousands of men think they cannot smoke a pipe, for fear the tobacco might burn or parch their mouths. Tuxedo has done away with any such possibility. You can smoke Tuxedo all day long, without any irritation whatsoever—indeed with increasing pleasure.

You cut off an inch of inspiration and real joy every hour you stay away from Tuxedo. Because it's so good, so true, so delicious, so fragrant, its memory lingers every time your smoke-appetite gets tuned up.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

WAR WITH CANADA

Cadets Represent the Dominion Troops In Tomorrow's Battle

The "soldiers" of the University of Maine are looking forward with interest to the military tactical problem of tomorrow, when a state of war will be assumed to exist between the United States and Canada.

The general situation involved is as follows: In the first few days after war has been declared between the two countries, and before the troops of the United States have been mobilized, Company G of Bangor, 2nd Infantry of the National Guard of Maine, has been ordered to Orono, to hold the two bridges which cross the Stillwater river and check and advance attempted on the road from the north. Up until the morning of May 22, the nearest troops are assumed to be in the vicinity of Vanceboro.

The special situation, develops as follows: On the morning of May 22, a train load of Canadian troops (the University of Maine battalion) arrive at Old Town on their way to seize Bangor. Being apprised at Old Town of the presence of United States troops at the Orono bridges, the battalion commander of the Canadian force telegraphs back to headquarters for orders, and is instructed to detain at Old Town and march to Orono so as to drive away the opposition at that place and clear the way for reinforcements which will arrive at about noon. The battalion commander wisely decides not to force a crossing of the bridges but instead to march via Stillwater and advance if necessary along Bennoch street.

The significant points which distinguish this problem from the others executed this year will be the exercise of company control and company fire in the Bangor Company, and the exercise and control of the Maine Battalion, the six companies of said battalion acting together as a fighting unit.

After the problem Lieut. F. S. Clark will give an informal luncheon, at which he will entertain Adjutant General G. McL. Presson; Colonel Hume, 2nd Maine Regiment National Guard of Houlton; Major Walter Wayo, Company F of Dover; Major Southard, also of the National Guard; First Lieut. Francis H. Farnum of the U. S. Infantry, at present detailed as Inspector-instructor to the Maine National Guard; Captain Ashworth, and Lieut. Sawyer of the Machine Gun Company of Bangor; Captain Gould, Lieut. Doane, and Lieut. Bryant of Company G of Bangor. President Aley and Judge Dunn, treasurer of the University, will also attend. The object of the luncheon will be to furnish an opportunity for the consideration of such matters as will bring about closer cooperation between the National Guard of the State and the Military Department of the University.

Bangor Boy Wins Scholarship

First place in the Interscholastic Discussion League was awarded to Irving R. Donovan of Bangor High School at the final contest, held in Alumni Hall Wednesday evening. The prize is four years free tuition at this University or the equivalent of $240. The other speakers who qualified for this contest were: Arthur W. Brooks, Portland; William C. Ellsworth, Farmington; Roper Irving, Clinton Howard Wilson, Belfast; Lloyd Hatch, Dexter; and Edward L. Hunter of Freeport.

The judges were: O. G. Dunn, Treasurer of the University; George Ware Stevens, Professor of Economics; and Rev. Dr. Lyman of Orono.

The speeches were original, and each speaker was allowed ten minutes for his main discussion, and four minutes for rebuttal. The judges were to award first place to the man who made the most effective discussion, being free to determine for themselves what constitutes effective discussion.

Rising Day Comes May 25

In pursuance of the custom instituted last year, Rising Day will be observed next Tuesday. A parade will probably be held with bonfire into which will be thrown the jockey skypieces now worn by Freshmen. All Freshmen should be at Alumni Hall by seven o'clock on Tuesday evening, May 25. The committee having charge consists of E. Hyland May, chairman, Harry White, Harland Rowe, George Hutchins, and Lawrence T. Merriman.

The Maine Masque will present "The Amazons" in Orono Town Hall this evening under the auspices of the Orono Chapter of the Knights of Columbus. The proceeds are to be donated to St. Mary's Church.

The afternoon events:

In the trials for the hundred Lawry won his heat with ease. In the finals he ran second up to within 10 yards of the finish and was barely passed by Wyman of Bowdoin. Both men pushed Howe hard.

The mile found Bell and Wunderlick in a field of eleven. Bell went out and made it his own race from the start. He made the half in 2:08 and was continually helping Wunderlick who ran a handsome race. At the start of the last quarter Bell started to open up a lead and was leading on the back stretch with Wunderlick second by some 20 yards. On the last turn Thompson of Colby the biggest runner in the meet started a sprint and passed Wunderlick on the home stretch.

Merrill and Webster of Colby ran well in the quarter after being set back three yards. Merrill passed McWilliams of Bowdoin on the back stretch and Webster was a close third.

Dempsey in the half ran his own race, using his head well. Golden of Colby started a sprint on the first lap, thus throwing away his chances. Dempsey began to open up on the last half of his last lap and was leading by 30 yards at the finish.

Preti started almost from the gun to lead in the two-mile. The race soon settled down between Preti and Herriek of Maine, and Levine and Wentz of Colby. The battle between them lasted until the last lap when Preti started his sprint. Wentz left the track in distress as soon as he had turned the first corner. Herriek and Golden fought for second place Golden winning by 15 yards.

1918 DEFEATS 1917

Emery Wins Individual Prize In Annual Debate

The Freshmen won the interclass debate from the Sophomores Tuesday evening by a two to one vote of the judges. E. L. Emery of the Sophomore team won the individual prize of thirty dollars. The question for debate was: Resolved, that, beginning with the year 1916, the United States should build at least four battleships and a proportionate number of auxiliaries each year. The judges were Prof. Colvin, Prof. Craig, and Dean Stevens. There was but a small attendance present.

As the debate progressed, three main issues developed, the proving of which brought victory for the Freshmen. These were: The possibility of a war involving the United States is great; the United States is unprepared for war; a larger navy will tend for peace rather than for war. Those on the freshmen team were: O'Connell, Vrooman, and Norton; while Emery, Crossman, and P. Cobb represented the Sophomores.

To Offer New Economic Courses

The department of Economics and Sociology is planning to add to the work regularly offered, two courses that will be of special interest to students who expect to engage in business upon the completion of their college work. One of these courses will be in American Commerce, and will comprise a study of the development, present character and prospective trend of the foreign trade of the United States. The course will run throughout the year, the first semester being devoted primarily to Latin-American, the second to European and Oriental commerce.

The other course will be in Accounting, in which the fundamental principles of bookkeeping and a scientific analysis and record of business transactions will be presented.

Good opportunity will thus be afforded for a comprehensive study of subjects preparatory to a business career. Among these subjects, besides the two above mentioned, are included: Elements of Economics, Money and Banking, Transportation, Business Organization, Business Management and Commercial Law. The course in Advertising, presented in connection with the subject of Journalism, also belongs to the above category, and is available to students interested in business matters.

Prizes Offered By Chicago Firm

The list of subjects for the economic essay prizes offered by Messrs. Hart, Schaffner & Marx, of Chicago, has been announced and may be had upon application from Professor J. Lawrence Laughlin, the University of Chicago. The contest is open to any American. There are two prizes, two and three hundred dollars respectively, offered to college undergraduates.

Elect Editors of 1917 Prism

The editors of the 1917 Prism will be: Editor in Chief, W. C. Jones, Associate Editors, H. L. Jenkins, W. J. Gorham, R. E. McKown, C. P. Creighton, R. E. Fraser, and E. J. Dempsey. The business manager is H. C. Waugh and the assistant Business manager is W. E. Nash.
