PUMPKIN MEET AN EASY WIN FOR FRESHMEN

Several Crack Dash Men Appear in Annual Event

NO TIMES ANNOUNCED

The freshmen won the Pumpkin Meet over the sophomores by the score of 83 to 34. This makes the second class victory for the class of 1919. The meet was held under poor weather conditions which was a great drawback to the enthusiasm usually shown.

The material brought out by the entering class should be of great value to the varsity team this spring. In the 100, 220, and 440 yard dashes they took all three places. The sophomore's were only able to take three first places. Rowe '18 winning the broad jump, Stanley '18, the hammer, and Wells '18, the mile.

Allen Rowe '19, was the individual point winner of the meet taking 15 points himself. He did not have much of a lead on Thompson '19, who scored 14 points for his class. In Ziegler '19, Donovan '19, and Lawry '19, Maine has some good material for the dashes. MacBride '19, did some fine work in the 440 yard dash and half mile.

The summary:

100 yard dash—Won by Ziegler, 1919; second, Donovan, 1919; third, Lawry, 1919.

220 yard dash—Won by Ziegler, 1919; second, Donovan, 1919; third, Lawry, 1919.

440 yard dash—Won by MacBride, 1919; second, Davis, 1919; third, A. Rowe, 1919.

880 yard run—Won by MacBride, 1919; second, Wells, 1918; third, Osgood, 1919.

1 Mile run—Won by Wells, 1918; second, mith, 1919; third, Parsons, 1919.

Two Mile run—Won by Cushing, 1919; second, Southard, 1919; third, Cleveland, 1919.

High Jump—Won by Rowe, 1919; second, Cooper, 1919; third, Dolvrin, 1919.

Junior Class Elects Officers

The election for Junior Class officers was held Thursday and R. G. Higgins of Bar Harbor was elected president. The other officers are: Vice President, R. A. Pendleton, Brewer; Secretary, Miss Helen Danforth, Bangor; Treasurer, E. J. Dempsey, Mattapan, Mass.; Executive Committee, H. B. Hiller, Marion, Mass., J. A. McCusker, Braintree, Mass., R. B. Brasseur, Bradford, Mass., H. A. Peterson, Portland, and W. J. Gorham, Wilkes Barre, Pa.; Basketball Manager, G. W. Kilburn, Fort Fairfield; Track Manager, W. B. Littlefield, Brewer; Hockey Manager, F. F. McCabe, Worcester, Mass.

Baseball Gosssip

It is rumored about the campus that the 1916 baseball coach for U. of M.'s diamonds warriors will be Monte Cross, the former Philadelphia Athletics player, who has lately been doing scout duty about the country for Connie Mack, his former boss. While not a sure thing yet, the authorities in charge of the matter think that the chances of getting the old star are good and that he will be the one to direct the team on the field next spring. Several other old league players had been mentioned for the position among them being Ben Houser, who coached the ColM team last year.

Journalist Fraternity First Meeting

The Omega chapter of the Sigma Delta Chi, a journalist fraternity, established at the University of Maine in May, 1915, held its first meeting for the year at the Beta house last Thursday evening. It was an informal meeting held for the purpose of discussing plans for the year. The arrangements and plans made will be disclosed at a later date.

MASQUE TO PRESENT PLAY

Enthusiastic Meeting Held Thursday Evening

Last Thursday evening the Maine Masque held its first meeting of the year at Professor Brown's home and plans for the coming season were discussed. This year marks the tenth anniversary of dramatics at MAINE and the Masque members plan to make this season the finest in the history of the college.

This year The Masque will produce a play written by Professor Windsor P. Daggett, who has always been such an efficient dramatic coach and director. Professor Daggett was the founder of the Maine Dramatic Club in 1907 and he has written an entirely new type of play particularly for the Masque to stage. The play is:

"LELIO AND ISABELLA"

A Commedia Dell'Arte

"Being a colorful representation of the story of Romeo and Juliet as it would have been enacted by the famous Andreini Family and Company at the old Bourgoyne Theatre, Paris, 1604."

In writing this play Professor Daggett was able to get considerable information of value from a book recently written by Professor Winifred Smith which is called "COMMEDIA DELL'ARTE." Professor Smith was graduated from Vassar in 1904 and is now a member of the faculty at Columbia University. Her book, "COMMEDIA DELL'ARTE," is the only one now known which treats of that subject and she is very much interested in Prof. Daggett's conception of this kind of comedy. Professor Smith is very enthusiastic over the producing of the play and has given Prof. Daggett permission to use her name in connection with the piece.

The play is to be a very elaborate production as the Masque members wish to make the tenth anniversary year a banner one. The story is set in the early 17th century and the costumes is to be very rich. The fashions in this era were quite gorgeous and as the scenario reads: "The costumes will be a study in color." The scenery also this year will greatly surpass that of other productions. The arrangement of the setting is somewhat like that of a Shakespearean drama with a little of the Italian style introduced.

The fact that Prof. Daggett wrote the play is enough alone to insure its success. In addition to this fact, there are a number of Masquers left who have had considerable experience in the dramatics of preceding years. These members: Lovely, Potter, Damren, Sumner Cobb, Herbert Cobb, Jenkins, Shaw, and Culhane are working hard to make this production a remarkable success and they fully expect this year's play to outshine all other efforts of the Masque.

The Masque trip this season is to be much better than those of past seasons. It is expected that the company will make a trip taking in New York City, Hartford, and Boston, although the details of these dates are not yet fully arranged. The rehearsals start this week and it is hoped that a large number of Freshmen will come out as the cast is quite large and the Masque wishes Prof. Daggett's play to be started in such a way that the Masque play of 1915-1916 will go down in University history as the best production of the MAINE MASQUE.

DARTMOUTH TAKES EASY GAME FROM MAINE

Both Teams Handicapped by Mud-dy Field

GREELEY STARS FOR MAINE

Presenting a team which outweighed her opponents almost 15 pounds to a man, Maine was unable to stop Dartmouth, Saturday, and the "Big Green" team romped through Maine's line and around the ends for five touchdowns, kicked four goals from touchdowns, winning the game, 34-0. The battle was staged at Hanover, the home of Dartmouth's eleven, and was played on a field of thick mud, which together with the frequent penalties hampered the play of both teams.

About the only man who featured for U. of M. was "Buster" Greeley who was lauded for the manner in which he broke up many plays and with his pretty tackles smeared the Dartmouth backs. Beverly also played good ball, but otherwise the team from Orono presented a featureless fight.

The first period found a nothing to nothing score confronting the spectators who watched the game. An eight yard run by Gerrish, Dartmouth's left half opened up the offensive for the home team, and was followed by a rapid advance into Maine territory. Maine put up a game fight, and held the Dartmouth team, while the remainder of the period was taken by an exchange of punts, time being called with the ball about in the middle of the gridiron.

In the second period, a 20 yard advance through Maine's line by Thielscher, placed Dartmouth in an opportune chance to score, however a fumble by Duhamel spoiled the chances. A run of 15 yards by McDonough, Dartmouth's quarterback, on a clever fake kick, and a gain by Gerrish of 10 yards on a pretty forward pass, helped out for Dartmouth with a score but the period closed with no further chance to tally.

Pen Card from book at Oak P School, Chicago, went in for Duhamel, at the beginning of the second half, and led off with a 25 yard run through a brokenfield. Within the next ten minutes the Maine line was broken through at will and McDonough, Thielscher, and Switzer, substitute quarter plowed through to touchdowns, Gerrish kicking all three goals. The score stood 28-0 at the close of the third period and in the last few moments of play in the fourth session, Carolan took the ball over the line for the final score, as Gerrish failed to kick the goal.

The score:—

BAND TO MAKE TRIP

Maine Cadet Band Starts Promising Season

The University of Maine Cadet Band has started one of the most promising seasons for many years. Each year brings a better class of musicians to pick from and this year there is an overabundance of capable material to select for the vacant positions. The Military Pop Concerts will be revived this year and several concerts will be given in Orono and Bangor. The spring trip to Dover and Foxcroft is an assured fact and plans are under way for a more extended trip similar to that of the musical clubs. Lewis Blood, the new leader this year, is a member of the senior class and commences with plenty of experience in military band work as he has played in the cadet band for three years. He has also played with the Bangor Band and is the solo cornetist of the Second Regiment Infantry Band.

The personnel of the 1916 band is as follows: Lewis Blood '16, leader, H. G. Cobb and S. C. Page, solo and asst. solo cornets, Jardine, K. P. Brown, first cornets, A. H. Harmon and E. Blackley, second cornets, H. W. Dole, P. Wiggins, D. J. Hurd, P. C. Curtis, and S. Beverage clarinets. E. flat clarinet, E. J. Parker, E. L. Coolbroth; flute, Alvin Joyce, saxophone, O. K. Edes, C. L. Richardson and H. S. LaSalle, trombones, W. B. Beckler, W. B. Cobb, B. L. Hopkins, drums, T. D. Bonney, F. B. Holden, G. E. Hanson, M. E. Barker, P. A. Morris, E. Bradley, alto horns, G. E. Dole and J. L. Barnes, bass horns, L. O. Barrows and E. I. Clapp, baritone.

Of this number in the band there are eleven from the freshman class.

MR. NELLES TALKS

Dean Hart to Speak Oct. 10; Smith and Porter May Come Soon

Teeming with good food for earnest thought was the talk by Mr. Nelles, Secretary for the Lumbermen, in which he impressed upon the minds of all the students, who attended the second general Christian Association meeting in Alumni Hall, last Sunday afternoon, the necessity of observing the four factors religious certainty, obedience, faithfulness, and service.

This meeting was fairly well attended, but many more would have gone had they realized the importance of these talks which are considered by Dr. Alecy as being one of the best events of each week.

Next Sunday at 4.30 P. M., Dean Hart will be the speaker. Soon it is hoped that Jefferson C. Smith and Dave Porter will be able to come up here and address the students at one of these general meetings.

MAINE MAN MAY PLAY LEAGUE BASEBALL

O. C. Lawry to Confer With Moran

IS CAPTAIN OF 1916 TEAM

Captain-elect Otis Clifford Lawry, of the 1916 baseball team received a letter a few days ago from Manager Pat Moran, of the Philadelphia National League Champions, asking Lawry to report for a tryout. In his letter, Manager Moran, stated that he had heard of the Maine boy's ability as a ball player through a scout of the Phillies, and wanted to know if Lawry would report at Boston either Friday or Saturday, Oct. 1st or 2nd. If he could, Manager Moran stated that he would like to try him out on his team.

"Rabbit" was unable to leave although thinks he will make a trip to Boston, and see the Phillies manager when that team engages in the world series with Boston, at the Hub.

963 SIT IN CHAPEL

No Room for 'Short' Men Even After Organ is Removed

Nowhere on the University Campus is the increase in numbers so noticeable as in the Chapel. The growth of the student body during the last few years has made it necessary to make use of every bit of available space.

To make room for the newcomers this fall, the old pipe organ, so long a part of the chapel service, has had to be removed, and its place in the balcony filled with hastily constructed benches, rising tier on tier. Here, part of the freshmen and co-eds hold balcony seats, while the choir has been promoted to a position on the platform beside President Alecy. In all there are 963 assigned seats, while the two year men will be obliged to remain outside until a new chapel is built.

Coburn 19; U. of M. 2d, 0

The U. of M. second team journeyed to Waterville, Saturday morning and was defeated by Coburn Classical Institute, 19-0, out-pointed in all departments of the game. The field was very muddy, and necessitated open play, most of the gains being made around the ends, and with an occasional forward pass. Holseth, Rollo Fagan, and Kewer were the stars of the game for Coburn, while Small made a good play in recovering a punt. The summary:

Cross Country Events

Maine will run no dual cross country races this fall but will rest content with four runs, which have been arranged as follows by Weston B. Haskell, '16, who is manager of the team:—

Oct. 30—Interclass run.
Nov. 5—Maine Intercollegiate run at Orono.
Nov. 13—New England Intercollegiate run, Franklin Park, Boston.
Nov. 20—Eastern run, Belmont Field, Cambridge, Mass.

The Interclass meet will be held between the halves of the Colby game, the runners starting on the field, and then around the course, and finishing the run with a lap around the track.

The following Friday will be a big day for Orono, as the state hill and dale run will be contested, and it is the hopes of those in charge to have college close at 3 o'clock, get the band out, and make the run a big time.

Roland E. Gooch of Taunton, Mass., was recently a guest of his daughter at Balentine Hall.

BANGOR CO-OPERATIVE PRINTING COMPANY

EDITORIALS

The following letter has been received from the University office. The letter should be read and its contents carefully considered by every student who in the future intends to seek employment to help defray his expenses at Maine. As the writer says, "No man can expect something for nothing, be he striving for an education or not."

During the past summer the University office has had a large call from old and prospective students for employment and every effort has been, and is being made, to meet this demand.

The work of those in charge of securing this employment by no means an easy task. If the University were situated in or near a large city, where there is a demand for student help the work would be quite simple. As so much time is necessarily required during the day for class room and laboratory work, there are very few full afternoons when the University can furnish student help.

On the other hand experience has shown that student labor is not as satisfactory or dependable as might be supposed. Many students "for Nothing" want work when there is none at hand and do not want to work when there is. Many also find that they do not want to work as badly as they thought and prefer to attend the football game. Several employers of students have found that the students do not give good value or earn their money. No man can expect something for nothing, be he striving for an education or not.

It has been noticed that many students who really must work or leave the University get busy and find work and give their employer good value for his money. Those students who will work at any time when not in class room, or at any kind of honest work are rare, but are bound to succeed and find everyone ready to help and assist. This work is mutual and must have the hearty cooperation of students as well as the University.

Last spring a notice was put on the Employment Board calling for two students for an afternoon. The nature of the work was not mentioned but it may be assumed that it was manual work. No one applied for the job although the notice remained on the board an entire day. The next morning a notice was placed on the board calling for three men for inside work at a desk with a leather arm chair. Inside of half an hour, the notice was taken down because the place had been filled.

The Maine football team has been away for two successive Saturdays and has met with two successive defeats. No body feels any worse about those defeats than the men who played in those two games. Each and every man gave the best that there was in him and lost with the sort of true sportsmanship that we like to think all Maine Men have. We would like to think that the general student body, to a man, could lose with that same spirit. The man who thinks that the right thing is to "crab" and be a "calamity howler" will find himself decidedly out of place among real Maine Men. The first question is—What are you going to do about it?

That same Maine team is going to play at home for the next four Saturdays. Those men have had enough defeats for this season. They are going to work harder than they ever worked in their lives to get in shape to win every other game on the schedule. They have a big job on their hands for the handicaps have been and are many. Nevertheless, it can be done, but not alone by the few men who are on the field in uniform every night. This brings us to the second question which is like the first,—What are you going to do about it?

Here are some of the things which must be done. Among them every man should, if he is the right sort, find his answer to the above questions. There should be at least fifty men out there in uniform every night. Those quitters who are now sitting around "crabbing" should be driven back to do their part and to get some training which might make men of them. Then again every student should be out on the side lines showing his interest and encouraging the men who are giving all that they have for the glory of Maine. Why not have some organized cheering every night? It would help in more ways than one. There is one more point. A team can not be run on enthusiasm alone. There must be something more substantial and it goes without saying that the man who will not support a team to the extent of paying his blanket tax, is a pretty poor specimen of Maine Man. The above suggests some of the more obvious things to be done. There are others, and again we ask the question,—WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO ABOUT IT?

There is a ruling against posting the names of those who have not paid their blanket tax. We believe there would be no objection to posting a daily list of those who have paid. Why not start some competition between the classes?

Evidently somebody started something when he mentioned "Cocds" at the last mass meeting. The ladies should remember, however, that many things are exaggerated as they pass from mouth to mouth.

The Maine Christian Association should be a big factor for good here. There is a great opportunity for service in this work. The association needs the cooperation of every man here. The "Campus" will have more to say on this subject in the near future.

"Well begun is half done," applies to a semesters work in the University better than it applies to most things.

Most people appreciate the efforts of those in charge of the grounds, enough to keep off the grass and to throw waste matter into the proper receptacles. Those who do not should be made to.

Arts and Sciences Making Plans

The College of Arts and Sciences is planning a program for the coming season somewhat similar to that of last year. The Arts faculty met Monday night and definite plans will be announced later. The usual rallies will doubtless be a feature of the program, as well as the other plays and entertainments that were so popular last year.

THE MAINE CAMPUS

NEW UNIVERSITY PRESS

Equipment in Coburn Hall Will Soon
Do All Our Printing

A printing plant of considerable size and value has been installed in the cellar of Coburn Hall. Here will be printed, in the future, the Prism, the Campus, the University Bulletin, the Blue Book, and all work for the University, classes, and athletic association. Hugh W. Haswell late of the Haswell Press, Lewiston, has been placed in charge of it. For nearly two years Mr. Haswell, who knows the art of printing "from A to Z" as a Portland paper recently expressed it, has been State Superintendent of printing at Augusta.

He has four assistants at work and may soon employ a few more. They are: Joseph Adler, of Lewiston; St. Marie, postgraduate in the Pulp and Paper Department; F. C. Ferguson, '18, and Elmer Potter, '16.

The equipment was purchased from a large printing house in Bangor which recently went out of business. There are three power presses: a large Whitlock Cylinder Press, a Golding Jobber, and a small Pearl Job Press. The two smaller presses are now operated by foot power, but it is expected that within two weeks the work will be completed so that each of the three presses may be run by direct electric connection.

PLANS FOR Y. M. C. A.

Maine Students Confer on Problems at Cobbosseecontee

At the first annual fall Y. M. C. A. 'setting-up' Conference each of the four Maine colleges was well represented. E. A. McLean, E. D. Potter, L. E. Fairchild, Roger Gowell, R. A. Wentzel and Lee Vrooman attended from the University of Maine.

Many eminent speakers addressed these meetings. Henry King of the International Y. M. C. A. Committee spoke on the technical part of the work. Rev. Ashley Day Leavitt of Portland, conducted an inspirational meeting. Jefferson C. Smith, State Y. M. C. A. secretary, and A. A. Heald, prominent in Laymen's Christian Federation work, also spoke. The conference was held at the Y. M. C. A. camp at Lake Cobbosseecontee, Winthrop Centre.

At this conference the following plans for the coming year were worked out: A weekly meeting is to be held by the Y. M. C. A. These meetings will be addressed by big men in Y. M. C. A. work. Occasionally some of the big men connected with the University will speak and it is not improbable that students will speak as well. Every Sunday at 2 p. m. a Freshman Discussion Group will be held. This group will study student problems. An effort is being made by the Association to obtain permanent rooms.

CHEMISTRY NEWS

Most of the sections of Freshman Chemistry which have been delayed on account of carpentry will be started in the last of this week.

New instructors who have begun work this year are Mr. Chester Goldsmith of the class of 1915 of U. of M. and Mr. Fred W. Lane of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, of the class of 1913. Mr. Goldsmith's work will be General Chemistry. Mr. Lane's work will be Organic Chemistry, which he has been teaching for the last two years at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

New Boiler and Draft System Installed

The University made extensive repairs on the power plant last summer placing a new boiler in the power house, making five in all. An artificial draft system is also being installed. The boiler and draft system were purchased from the New England Iron Works of Boston, Massachusetts, and are expected to give much better heat in the different buildings on the campus. The construction work is under the supervision of Eugene W. Goodwin, 1915.

CERCLE FRANCAISE MEETS

Eligible Students Urged to Join
Branch of National Society

An enthusiastic meeting of the Cercle Francaise was held last Thursday evening and plans were made for the club activities of the present year. Among other things it is planned to present several French plays, to hold a banquet "a la francaise," and to hold several social gatherings, in addition to the regular fortnightly meetings. At these regular meetings programs of literary and musical character will be given and the club will be addressed from time to time by noted speakers.

The club is planning this year on a considerable increase in membership as many of the entering class are taking courses in French. Membership in the club is open to students who have completed three years of French in high school or the equivalent of that amount in college.

Owing to the graduation of some of the officers of the club it will be necessary at the next meeting to elect officers to fill the vacancies.

The Cercle Francaise is a branch of the national, or rather world-wide organization of the Alliance Francaise. The purpose of this last organization is to promote interest in France, French art, literature, history, etc., and to increase one's knowledge of written, spoken French. It has a large membership comprising many nationalities. The latest bulletin of the Alliance Francaise contains an account of the group at the University of Maine being affiliated with the national body.

The next meeting of the Cercle Francaise will be held in the lecture room of the Library Thursday evening, October 7th. All students who have had three years of French in high school or the equivalent, are cordially invited to be present.

GIRLS CAN VEGETABLES

Sell Jars to Pay For Trip Here
This December

Among the most successful of the Girls' Canning Clubs are those in Aroostook County. At the Northern Maine Fair held in Presque Isle, September 7, 8, 9, 10, the girls had exhibits of canned fruits and vegetables which attracted a great deal of attention.

Nine club members from Mapleton have put up over 600 quart jars of pickled beets, and already more than thirty dozen jars have been sold. The girls are hoping to realize enough from their sales to pay for their trip to the state contest here on the Campus in December.

LAW SCHOOL NOTES

The entering class at the Law School numbers twenty-nine this year, about twelve less than last year. But it looks like good material for the Law School. Fourteen out of the twenty-nine are men that have an A. B. degree from one of our State colleges or have attended college at least two years. There are only two out of the State men in the entering class this fall and both of these are from New Hampshire.

The Debating Society at the Law School held their first debate Friday, Oct. 1st at ten o'clock. The subject of debate was: Resolved that equal suffrage should be adopted in this State. For the affirmative, Earl E. Hooker and Horace Towle. For the Negative, Harris Crahmer and Charles S. Taylor.

Friends of Joseph E. Harvey '16, of the Law School are pleased to hear that he has made the varsity football team.

The Law School has the honor to have in the entering class this fall, Frank Preti Maine's crack cross country man. Mr. Preti has been in College two years on the Campus and is now taking up the study of law.

William H. Dwyer esq., class of 1913, has been appointed recorder of Piscataquis county, municipal court.

Howard C. Moody class of 1915, who has visited the World's Exposition since the graduated last June is now preparing for the New Hampshire bar in the office of Gen. F. P. Cilley at Rockland.

Chas. B. Hosmer esq., class of 1910 is very ill at the home of relatives in Garland. Mr. Hosmer has been practicing since he graduated, in Lewiston in partnership with Carl F. Getchell a member of the same class.

1916 Nominations are Made

The following is the list of 1916 nominations: For President: C. W. Ruffner, O. C. Lawry; for vice president: W. W. Webber, O. K. Edes; for permanent secretary: L. E. Philbrook, F. O. Phelps; for treasurer: A. W. Nickerson, H. E. Rollins; for basketball manager: Sherman, Gray; for hockey manager: Kriger, Bonney; for basketball manager: Silva, Lewis; for student council: Palmer, Crimmin, Bell, Driscoll; for executive committee: Sherman, Muloney, Edminster, Mansfield, Purington, Lackee, Blood, Packard.

George Randolph Chester

Famous Author, says:

"Why shouldn't a man be willing to recommend a tobacco which gives as cool, sweet and satisfying a smoke
as Tuxedo?"

For Mentally Alert
Men—Tuxedo

George Randolph Chester's "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford" stories have delighted thousands through the mental alertness, good humor and keen mind shown by the wily promoter.

When George Randolph Chester writes of things typically American he knows what he is talking about; and when he endorses Tuxedo—the typically American tobacco—his endorsement carries great weight with the keen-minded, alert and brainy smokers of this country.

Tuxedo
The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

is made especially to maintain the American spirit of good humor. Its constant use benefits a man in mind and body, by keeping him happy and physically fit.

Tuxedo is the finest Kentucky Burley—the world's premier smoking-tobacco leaf—made absolutely non-biting by the original "Tuxedo Process" that has never been successfully imitated. Tuxedo is delightfully mild, fragrant, rich, and gives a cool and satisfying smoke. Tuxedo is in a class by itself.

Prof. Chase Talks on 'Finding Money'

Professor Chase of the Latin Department gave a very interesting talk in Chapel, Friday morning. He took for his subject, "Finding Money." He spoke of the hunt for old coins and what an uncommon occurrence it was to find old money or buried treasure in America, while it was quite a common occurrence to find treasure in Europe. He cited a few instances of the present war, in which soldiers had found money hidden in the earth. But he ended with saying that he did not advise people to hunt for money for it was not a profitable occupation.

Campus Board Meets MAINE 14

U. of VERMONT 0

The Sunday afternoon meeting of the M. C. A. was addressed by Dean Hart on the subject "What Are You Going In For." It is to be regretted that more men did not avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing this interesting topic discussed. These who were present were deeply impressed by the talk.

An important meeting of the Campus Board together with the Faculty Committee on publications was held recently and matters governing reorganization were discussed. It was decided that a mailing list of those who had paid their Blanket Tax be prepared, and copies mailed to them. In this way the Campus will only go to those who help support it. More complete information will be given in an early issue.

"MAINE NIGHT" Soon

Plans are under way for a "Maine Night" at the Strand Theatre, Oldtown in the near future. A feature program is being prepared, and a general good time is expected.

The first college dance of the year will be held Friday evening, October 15, in Alumni Hall. The proceeds are for the support of Athletic Activities in the University. For details of the event, Consult the Poster in Alumni Hall.

The annual inter-class cross country will be run off next Saturday, probably between the halves of the Maine-Boston College game.

It is hoped that Jeff Smith, State Secretary of Y. M. C. A. will be here for the afternoon meeting next Sunday.

The Alpha Omicron Pi Girls gave an informal party at North Hall October first.

The Phi Mu sorority held a dancing party at the Mt. Vernon House recently.

Playing a decidedly better game than it has so far this season, the U. of M. squad defeated Vermont by a score of 14-0, Saturday. The teams were about equal in weight, and in line plugging the results were fairly even. Maine made good gains with her passes, and in the last period Vermont confined its effort to the passing game. The work of Dolphin, the Vermont fullback was prominent, and for Maine, Daley and Jones starred. Kriger, Ruffner and Gorham played consistently. The team is far from being in shape for the State games yet, but is fast getting in shape.

BLANKET TAX

The following statistics have been turned in by the Blanket Tax Committee. Out of a student body of approximately 1046, 541 have paid thirty-seven have signed notes and eighty-one have returned their tickets. This means that about 51 per cent have paid, 34 per cent have signed notes and nearly 8 per cent have returned the tickets. This leaves 387 students or about 37 per cent of the entire student body who have not paid but by holding their tickets as per notice attached are considered liable and intending to pay. The "CAMPUS" will continue to print from time to time all available statistics on the work of the Blanket Tax Committee.

EDITORIAL

Once more we are in trouble. The University Press is not yet prepared to print a full-size "CAMPUS" and our late printers do not care to print any more for us. We hope that in another week our difficulties will be over and that we will be able to give you a better sheet than ever before. In the mean time we ask your patience. We hope you will like the "CAMPUSSETTE".

Dr. Barnitz is Now in Europe

Wirt W. Barnitz, whom many of the students in this University will remember as having delivered a speech in Chapel last November on "The Significance To the United States of Japan's Part in the Present European War", has recently left for the battlefields of Europe as a regularly accredited war correspondent of the New York World. He expects to spend a considerable part of his time in Germany and Austria and in discovering the inside story of the war. When he returns at the end of the year, these experiences of his are to be compacted into an address on "The World, the War, and Germany".

Juniors Vote on Prism Picture

A meeting of the Junior Class was held Thursday noon. It was voted that a nominating committee meet Thursday evening to nominate for the Student Council and Junior Assembly. It was also agreed that no member of the class could have a picture in the Prism unless the class dues and an assessment of $1.00 were paid.

Speakers' Club Rally Tomorrow

A meeting of the Speakers' Club was held Thursday night in No. One Alumni Hall, for the purpose of taking up business which had come before the club. Harry E. Rollins, '16, presided. It was voted to hold a rally tomorrow evening for the purpose of bringing out new material for the club and furnish entertainment for those interested. Several proposed changes in the constitution, one regarding the election of members to the club, were talked over. It was also voted to give ten dollars toward the second prize in the Intercollegiate Peace conference.

Arts Club Meets at Dean Stevens

The first regular meeting of the Arts Club was held at the home of Dean Stevens on Friday evening. An informal program was rendered this time, but hereafter there will be a formal program with regular speakers.

The plan is to have these meetings on the second Saturday of each month, this first one being postponed on account of the Eastern Maine Music Festival.

Team Sustains

Many Injuries

Bates Game Will Not be Won Easily Saturday

BATES HAS LIGHT TEAM

Before the football team entered the Boston College game last Saturday, prospects for a winning state outfit looked decidedly dubious. Bill Allen, George Kirke and Clint Purington have been out of the battle for the past three weeks, owing to injuries to the latter two, and sickness of the former. Jimmy Speirs, who played at end in the Maine-Vermont battle, injured his shoulder by tearing a ligament in it Thursday night. Bill Gray, who has just recovered from an ailment to his shoulder, is out again with a bad foot, while Louie Kriger was not able to get out the latter part of last week owing to injuries.

It is expected that the trio first mentioned will be about on the team for the state series, and that the other men will join the team from week to week. Maine is not the only team that is laid up on account of ailments to the players, as Bowdoin and Colby have felt the axe lately to more or less extent, as Captain Injury has been cutting his swathe. Whether it's too hard practice with too much scrimmage or whether the men have insufficiently trained for the season's campaign is a doubt, but whatever is the matter better times could be welcomed by the team, and more of the men able to play.

Our game next Saturday with Bates, although an easy one at this time of writing, cannot be counted on as a win without a large amount of fight from all the players, and the men fit for the contest. Bates, although supporting a light team, is said to be snappy. Maine wants to win, and she has got to look out for any difficulties that may set her back from the path of victory in the state series.

Round Table Gives Play

Entertain Students on Library Lawn, Columbus Day

Tuesday, Columbus Day, The Round Table entertained the faculty and students on the campus. The first pleasing feature was a folk dance, led by Miss Vaughn and Miss Taylor, who played a wild melody on their violins.

Next came "Fate's Darling," a drama in many acts, with marvelous scenic effects and finished actors. Mrs. Rideout played with great skill the leading role. Do we hear Booth shiver with fear in his grave at the possibility of having his great name overshadowed by that of Kueny?

The two duellists, who would be arrested if their names were known, did away with each other in record time. Miss Marion Plummer as the maid, flicked imaginary dust with dexterity.

A suit case race followed, which reminded one of the many nightmares in which one dreams of catching trains in vain.

The band played an important part in the afternoon entertainment. Refreshments were served, the freshmen lads making adorable serving maids.

The afternoon ended amid cheers for the Round Table.

Porter Speaks To Freshmen

Sunday afternoon Mr. Porter gave a very interesting talk at the meeting of the Freshmen Discussion Group. He brought up before the minds of the freshmen the need of starting the college course right and especially the starting of the Morning Watch, a movement that is now well under way in most of the large colleges and universities of the country. The number of fellows attending these meetings are increasing and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance at the meeting next Sunday.

FRENCH CLUB MEETS

Select New Play After White is Elected President

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Cercle Francais was held in the Lecture Room of the Library, Thursday evening, October 14th. About thirty were present. The president, M. C. Driscoll, 1916, presided. The first business of the evening was the election of officers. H. L. White, 1918, was elected president, and Eloise Huskins, 1918, vice-president, Madeline Robinson, 1916, and C.D. Mac Ilroy, 1918, were re-elected secretary and treasurer respectively.

Next in order came the discussion of the play to be presented by the club "La Poudre aux Yeux" was recommended by the committee and decided upon. Mr. Kueny was appointed chairman of the committee on the assignment of parts. The other members were Helen Stinchfield 1918, Fred Curtis 1916 and Schuyler Page, Jr. 1917. The next meeting of the club will be held in the Lecture Room of the Library on Thursday evening, October 28 at 7.30.

A Chrysanthemum and Carnation Show is to be held in Bangor, Monday and Tuesday, November 1 and 2, by the Maine State Florists' Society. The exhibit, which should be of value to those interested in floriculture, will be in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, where all will be welcome.

Work on the east wing of the new dairy barn is well under way. This modern brick structure is to be 156 feet long and nearly 40 feet wide. Next year, with the erection of a corresponding west wing and the moving of the large dairy barn to form the central portion, all the dairy animals will be transferred to these new quarters.

to Dee, who after two plays returned the kick to Daley in mid-field. Kriger went in for Kirke, and made 1 yard. Jones was thrown back for a five yard loss on an attempted forward pass. Kriger failed to gain, and Gorham punted to Dee who ran the ball back to his 24 yard line. On the next play L. Daley kicked and it was Maine's ball in the middle of the field. A series of rushes brought the ball to Maine's 34 yard line, and Ruffner tried for a drop kick but failed. Boston rushed the ball from her 20 yard line out to the forty where Maine held for downs. On a fake delayed pass formation, Jones threw to Kriger who made the second touchdown of the game, Ruffner kicking the goal. Maine 14, Boston College, 0. Time was called.

Boston came back in the last half and displayed plenty of fight, holding Maine back from the line, and preventing further scoring. The period was frequented by much rough-house tactics mostly on the part of the visitors, and women were vanished from the field for scrapping. The period ended with the ball mid-field.

The fourth period was similar to the third and consisted of scrappy play about the middle of the field. Boston started a march during the last few minutes, and with a gain of 25 yards on a pretty forward pass McKenna to J. Kirke placed the ball near the goal line but time was called and further advance stopped.

For Maine, Hussey showed up big in the line, while Gorham, Kirke, and Daley with Jones played constant ball in the backfield. Ragan, Boston's first quarter was easily the star of the visiting eleven.
