Plenty of Excitement Furnished "Freighters"

Warm Welcome Given Boys At
Arrival in Waterville

There are several things in connection with the annual Maine inter-collegiate track meets besides taking the Maine special and competing in the events. Not the least important feature of the yearly exodus from Orono is "hopping" a freight. Very nearly one hundred and fifty students, including several Bowdoin men, one of whom was blind, who had come up in the same way to see the baseball game on Friday, traveled on the "side-door Pullmans" last Friday night, either because it was the only possible way to get to Brunswick or because they did it for the love of adventure.

But this event was a handicap in favor of the railroad men. Hard luck and train men seemed to stay right with the amateur hoboes all night and brought them to a very sad end.

Things went fairly well at first, except for the few who failed to get aboard in the Bangor freight yards. But when the train was about a mile from Pittsfield somebody looked over the side of one of the cars, containing a load of pulp wood and about forty sleeping "rough necks," and discovered that the car ahead had developed a hot-box and the flame was growing bigger every minute. The engineer discovered it very soon and the train was stopped. The cars behind the burning one were detached and the rest went on to Pittsfield, side-tracked the car and returned. Pretty poor service on the Maine Central's part most of the fellows thought, but they were slightly more inconvenienced when the Pittsfield yardmaster appeared with the returning cars and pugnaciously announced: "All off!"

Then it was "all off" for most of the boys as far as the trip was concerned, but about fifty who thought that Pittsfield was a very inconvenient place to be left in that night crawled into the little end door of a cattle car containing lumber, and hid there.

They could not have been hid very well because, as is well known, they were provided with rooms and board at the city's expense in Waterville a few hours later. An automobile tour through the city with specially uniformed guides was also provided to give the visitors an appetite. The good fare and entertainment must have charmed the boys because they failed to show up in Brunswick for the track meet. Anyhow Maine won, so that softened their disappointment.

Those who were lucky enough not to get back on the freight split up into several parties. Most of them slept in the station at Pittsfield. About fifteen walked seven miles to Burnham Junction just to pass the time. All of them took the regular in the morning, arriving in Brunswick about noon. A few had courage enough to walk the whole twenty-two miles into Waterville to finish the trip on the special.

All this goes to show that there are more ways than one of getting to a track meet.

The students wish to publicly thank the Bangor yard men for their efforts to provide comfortable cars, good shelter, and sane advice. Maybe, also, they wouldn't mind letting that Pittsfield yardmaster know that he fits like the proverbial pussy at the U. of M.

M. A. A. Election

The following are the results of Thursday's Athletic Association election:

President—E. J. Dempsey.
Vice-President—R. J. Higgins.
Secretary—A. W. Wunderlick.
Senior Members Athletic Council—C. A. Rice, H. L. Jenkins.
Junior Member—H. N. Jones.
Track Manager—S. M. Dunham.
Baseball Manager—V. E. Abbott.

A very light vote was polled, the total being 288. The ruling of the Athletic Council that only those whose blanket taxes are paid can cast a ballot probably accounts for the size of the vote.

Scabbard and Blade Initiation on May 20

Cadet Major, Captains, and Lieutenants Become Members

Twenty-one officers of the student battalion will be initiated into Scabbard and Blade, the honorary military officers' fraternity. Lieutenant Frank Sheldon Clark, first lieutenant Coast Artillery Corps, in charge of military instruction, and Adjutant General G. M. Presson will be initiated as honorary members of the organization.

Colonel Rhodes of Cambridge, Massachusetts, will initiate these men on the twentieth of May. The student initiates will include the major of the battalion, Ansel A. Packard of Belfast, Captain Carroll M. DeWitt of Brewer, Captain Omar K. Edes of Dexter, Captain Harold W. Coffin of Portland, Captain Donald J. MacIntire of Biddeford, Captain Hobart G. Lackee of Woodfords, Captain Archelaus L. Hamblen of Gorham, First Lieutenant Howard L. Jenkins of Methuen, Massachusetts, the battalion adjutant, Captain Ralph E. Fraser, ordnance officer, of Presque, and the lieutenants of the six companies including S. L. Reed, N. F. Mank, John L. Scribner, Waldemar B. Littlefield, William F. O'Donoghue, Herbert E. Watkins, George T. W. Bell, Frank W. Gray, Alfred D. Hayden, Robert J. Travers, and Ferris J. Zabe. This is the probable list and there will be several others not mentioned.

After the initiation there will be a big banquet and get-together in Bangor, probably at the Bangor House. Among those present, besides the initiates and Colonel Rhodes, will be Doctor Robert J. Ale, president of the University, Harold S. Boardman, dean of the College of Technology and professor of Civil Engineering, and Major E. N. Southard, Captain Asaworth and Lieutenant Sawyer of the National Guard of Bangor.

This chapter of Scabbard and Blade has just been awarded to the University of Maine after careful investigation by the fraternity into our status and the condition, prospects, behavior and ability of our student battalion. The University of Maine is the only institution other than military schools and colleges that has been awarded a charter in this organization and is therefore doubly honored. Lieutenant Clark and the battalion officers have worked hard to procure it and are to be complimented on the success of their efforts.

On Saturday, May twentieth, there will also be, in the morning from nine to twelve o'clock, a sham-battle and problem, worked out by the military companies somewhere near the college grounds. At least part of the battle will consist of advancing through thick underbrush, woods and swamps to receive the enemy as soon as the advance is completed. Four companies will probably do the attacking and the other two companies will choose a favorable position and act on the defensive. A decision will be given by the umpires, probably officers of the Bangor militia, and the winning side announced.

The annual inspection and exhibition will be held the following Saturday, May twenty-seventh. If the students do well and work hard at this time it has been decided to have no more military training this year, excepting, of course, the final examination, which will be held some night in the following week. As formerly, the students had to wait over after finals until commencement, this change is very satisfactory to the freshmen, sophomores and officers who do not care to stay until commencement week.

The Alpha Chi Sigma held a meeting Tuesday night and initiated their new members. Refreshments were served, and a social hour was enjoyed after the meeting. The following were initiated: D. W. Norton, C. A. Jortberg, C. A. Benson, F. G. Sherman, R. B. Pierce, T. E. Kloss, H. L. Reed, H. N. Currier.

The regular ball players who will not be eligible to play in the Inter-Fraternity Baseball League are as follows: Giles, Holden, Stewart, Ruffner, Reardon, Hackett, Gorham, Pemberton, Driscoll, Frost, Rowe, Lawry, Phillips, Bonney, Watson.

Resume of Work of Round Table

Report Shows an Active and Successful Year

The ladies of the Round Table of the University of Maine held their final business meeting of this year on Tuesday, May 2. A resume of the work accomplished by them during the past season was given by the secretary, Mrs. Louise Miner, and this report shows that from all standpoints the work of the club this year has been most successful.

The purpose for which the club has been striving was the bringing about of a greater feeling of fellowship than has ever before existed between the faculty and women students of the University and all other women in any way interested in the college—in brief, to become a part of the great nationwide community movement. Much credit for the success of their plans is due to the efforts of the executive committee, which was made up as follows: Honorary president, Mrs. Robert J. Ale; president, Mrs. Roland P. Gray; first vice-president, Mrs. James S. Stevens; second vice-president, Mrs. Harold Wright; secretary, Mrs. Louise Miner; treasurer, Mrs. Frank S. Clark; members at large, Mrs. M. S. Boardman, Mrs. Rush Hamlin and Miss Frances Freeman.

The first of the entertainments given by the Round Table last fall was a Columbus Day lawn fete, at which the faculty members and their families and the students were present. In November, Edward Avis, the famous bird lecturer of Boston, gave his stereopticon lecture at the University under the auspices of the club. In January, the Round Table was again the host at a social afternoon in the club rooms of the library. Invitations were sent to the ladies of the neighboring clubs and a number of members from Old Town and Bangor were present.

In the winter a gift of thirty-five dollars was made by the organization toward the initial expenses of an ice-rink. Later, in February, it was planned to hold an ice carnival for the student body, but the weather was not favorable and the plans had to be given up.

Another gift of the club this year was a tea wagon, which was presented to the Mount Vernon House in appreciation of its hospitality as a meeting place for the club on several occasions.

At a recent meeting it was voted to pay the expenses of a member of the University Y. W. C. A. at the annual Silver Bay Conference in June. The executive board of the Y. W. C. A. is to have the privilege of choosing this delegate.

The club as a whole received invitations from the girls of the Mount Vernon House to a tea, and from the Nineteenth Century Club of Bangor to a lecture by Lucia Ames Mead, on Preparedness. An invitation to the annual musicale to be given soon by the Athene Club of Bangor has also been received and will be accepted by many of the ladies.

Although the regular business meetings for this year are ended, the club is making plans for one more good time for the girls of the college before vacation begins. This will be a "Field Day," and will be held after final examinations are over, though the exact date has not been set. A feature of this Field Day will be the presentation by the women of the college of an original play called "Spring Revel," written by Miss Vaughn of the English department. This entertainment gives promise of being a splendid ending to the series of good times which the University, and especially the women of the University, owe to the ladies of the Round Table this year.

The following officers for the club have been elected for the coming year: Honorary president, Mrs. Robert J. Ale; president, Mrs. J. H. Huddleston; first vice-president, Mrs. L. S. Corbett; second vice-president, Mrs. D. W. Pearce; secretary, Mrs. Lowell Reed; treasurer, Mrs. Rush Hamlin; committee at large, Mrs. W. J. Sweetser, Mrs. Gannett and Miss Gladys Merrill.

TWENTY-SECOND TRACK AND FIELD MEET WON BY BLUE AND WHITE TEAM

Three Records Go. Maine Gets Seven Firsts, Six Seconds and Seven Thirds in the Fourteen
Events. Team Looms Big For the Great New England Meet

Maine, 61.
Bowdoin, 39.
Bates, 13.
Colby, 13.

NEW RECORDS.

High Jump—New record, G. C. Palmer, Maine, 6 ft. 1 1/4 in. Old record, G. C. Palmer, Maine, 5 ft. 10 in.

Broad Jump—New record, F. A. French, Maine, 22 ft. 9 3/4 in.; old record, Faulkner, Bowdoin, 22 ft. 4 3/4 in.

Shot Put—New record, W. H. Allen, Maine, 46.35 ft.; old record, Shepard, Bates, 44 ft. 4 1/2 in.

Scoring in thirteen of the fourteen events and taking seven first places, Art Smith's team from the University of Maine, although crippled, Saturday practically achieved the university's aim of making a clean-up when they carried off the honors in the twenty-second annual track and field meet of the Maine State colleges with 61 points to 39 for Bowdoin, and 13 each for Bates and Colby. New records were set up in the high jump, broad jump and shot put. Charlie Rice in the two dashes equalled former marks and Savage of Bowdoin clipped the best former times in both hurdle events, but none of these marks was allowed to stand because of the strong favoring wind.

The performance of the Maine team makes it look like a formidable contender with the big green team from Dartmouth in the New England games at Springfield next Saturday, while if Bowdoin holds up to its form of yesterday it should figure near the top in the New England intercollegiate.

A feature of the meet was the small number of men who actually participated in most of the events, particularly the races. So few came forward that there were no trials in the 220 yard dash, or the hurdle events, and only two trial heats in the 100 and the 440. In none of the longer distances did the number of men competing exceed eight.

BROKEN RECORDS.

By the record breaking Maine took two records formerly held by Bowdoin and Bates, for F. A. French of Maine increased by five inches the mark of 22 feet 4 3/4 inches established in the broad jump by Faulkner of Bowdoin, and W. H. Allen of Maine set up a record of 46.35 feet in the shot put, in which the former record of 44 feet 7 1/2 inches was held by Shepard of Bates. G. C. Palmer of Maine raised his own record in the high jump from 5 feet 10 inches to 6 feet 1 1/4 inches.

There was also some near record breaking. On one heave G. W. Lead-better of Bowdoin threw the hammer 170 feet, 8 feet ahead of Bailey's 1915 record, but the throw was not counted because of a foul. W. A. Savage of Bowdoin did the high hurdles in 15 4-5 seconds, 1-5 less than the record held by Woodman of Bates, but the record was not allowed because of the wind, and the same ruling was made about his mark of 24 2-5 seconds in the low hurdles, 2-5 of a second better than the record made by Edwards of Bowdoin. Charlie Rice of Maine met with the same difficulty, for the referee would not recognize his mark of 9 4-5 seconds in the 100 yard dash, equalling the record of Cloudman of Bowdoin, although this ruling did not matter much in the 220 yard dash, when Rice equalled his own record of 21 4-5 seconds.

SOME EXCITING RACES.

The long distance events although presenting nothing startling in the way of times added to the entertainment of the afternoon by furnishing some close and exciting races. Bell of Maine drew the pole in the mile, with O'Brien of Colby next to him, while Herrick of Maine was fourth in the line. Bell led off the first quarter in 1 minute 6 4-5 seconds, with Herrick and O'Brien following close behind. In the second quarter he gave up the lead to T. Thompson of Colby, Herrick dropped back to third and O'Brien ran with the pack. This quarter was run in 1 minute, 8 seconds. The third quarter was done in 1 minute, 12 seconds, with little change, but in the last quarter, which was speeded up to 1 minute, 8 seconds, Bell O'Brien and Herrick left T. Thompson and the others behind and O'Brien passed Herrick for a second place. Bell taking first. The mile was run in 4 minutes, 34 4-5 seconds.

The two mile was a pretty contest between M. K. Thompson of Colby and C. A. Gregory of Bates in which the stride and experience of the big Colby runner gave him the verdict over his little rival from Bates. Frank Preti of Maine was a rather poor third in this event, showing very emphatically in his reversal of strength the effects of the severe cold from which he has been suffering. Preti, although he drew the pole was never better than third, except in the third quarter when Gregory dropped back to fourth and this Portland favorite was about 30 yards behind when Thompson broke the tape.

Thompson started next to Preti, and led through the first mile, Gregory pushed him through the first half, running abreast of him much of the time. In the third quarter he dropped back but in the fourth quarter came up and forged to the lead at the beginning of the second mile. Thompson went ahead again but the little Bates runner passed him and led in the sixth and seventh quarters, starting on the last lap with a good lead. Then Thompson began to stretch his legs, passed Gregory on the back turn and came in well ahead. Libby of Maine figured among the leading four through most of the race. The first quarter was run in 61 seconds. The first half in 4 min. 57 sec. and the two miles in 10 min. 9 2-5 sec. Wunderlich of Maine was not in any race, owing to a strained tendon.

The 880-yard run was a pretty contest of strength and wits between Bell of Maine and Crosby of Bowdoin, with Dempsey of Maine figuring as a close third and Turner of Bowdoin as fourth. The first quarter, with Crosby leading, was run in 1 min. 5 sec, and then the race really began. Bell passed Crosby at the beginning of the second quarter, Crosby went out ahead again at the first turn, but the Maine man was too much for him and Bell again passed him on the last stretch. The last quarter was run in 57 1-5th, 7 4-5th seconds faster than the first, making the time for the half 2 min. 2 1-5th sec.

The 440-yard dash was won on the home stretch by W. F. Lawrence of Bates with MacBride of Maine fitting into the second place and crowding Turner of Bowdoin back to third in a close and exciting finish, after Turner, starting from the pole, had led through most of the quarter. Gray of Bowdoin fell on the first corner and I. Merrill of Colby was thrown off his form in the mix-up.

Both hurdle events furnished keen competition among Savage of Bowdoin, French of Maine and Webber of Bowdoin. French showed traces of lameness in a disposition to favor his left leg, although he did not lag far behind Savage, who was running in fine form. Webber of Bowdoin did not permit French to do anything less than his best to take second.

MAINE TAKES DASHES.

There was nothing to it but Maine in the 100-yard dash and 220-yard dash. Rice leading the triumphant march of the blue with his usual ease and grace, backed by O. C. Lawry and Zeigler in the 100 and Zeigler and Donovan in the 220. His backers weren't traveling very far behind him, either, especially Lawry in the 100.

Perhaps the pole vault would have gone differently if Hutton of Maine hadn't turned his ankle during the morning trials. As it was, Hutton made a try for a win but was unable to better his qualifying vault of 10 feet. Sampson of Bowdoin was the only one of the five who qualified to go above the 10-foot mark, and he only went to 10 feet 6 inches. The other four, Hutton, Drew of Bates, Warren of Bowdoin and Mayers of Colby, stuck at 10 feet, and divided among them the four points due to second and third places.

French's qualifying broad jump of 22 feet 2 inches was enough to give him first place in the event, but he went in to jump for a record and made it 22 feet, 9 3/4 inches. This event was also an all Maine affair, with Pierce taking second and Rowe third. French may force an extension on Maine field

EDITORIALS

Again a Maine track team has contested for first honors in a State Meet, and has won them. In due form, the victory has been celebrated. At this time, the "Campus" takes the opportunity to unite with the many who have said and who are saying, "Well done," to the eighteen men who put so much into the event, that Maine might again be first. We are glad that the Maine team won and proud of the men who were responsible for the victory. But as winners, we must not forget that three groups of college men were not cheering for winning teams. Was their enthusiasm less, or their spirit lacking in any way, even with odds against them?

Not at all. Throughout the meet their men could hear their cheers, and knew that there was no lack of loyalty. There was loyalty shown by the men in each of the four cheering sections, but that in three of them calls for a larger share of credit than that which cheered a conceded winner on to victory. In passing, let it be said, that the loyalty shown by the colleges toward each other is always one of the real features of a State Meet. May such feeling, such loyalty, live as long as such contests are held, for without it a State meet would be a hollow affair.

NEWSPAPER WEEK

This week-end, the students in Journalism, and the faculty are to receive and entertain newspaper men from all over Maine. The occasion is the second annual Newspaper Institute.

We wish to extend to each of the visitors a hearty greeting and to assure them of the real sincerity with which we welcome them. It is largely through the help and co-operation of the Maine newspaper men that Journalism at the University of Maine will live and grow.

We are all concerned with the growth and welfare of Maine.

It is by such meetings as the coming gathering of newspaper men, that we get our ideas and impetus for expansion. There are a great many at Maine who look forward to a Department of Journalism. Surely such a department is within our reach if only the right kind of effort is shown. Let us all get behind the Newspaper Institute and work for its entire success, with two ideas in mind,—that the visitors may long remember this visit to Orono, and that we are laying a foundation for a School of Journalism.

INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET

Next Saturday Maine men divide their interest between the New England Meet at Springfield and the Interscholastic Meet at Orono. There is great importance to be attached to both. If we are to consider future

New England meets, and all other athletic and collegiate activities, it is easy to see that there should be added interest in the schoolboy meet here. It is from among the younger athletes who will gather here, that future Maine men are to be picked.

In many cases, the boys who will be here Saturday are making their first visit to Orono. We believe that there is great importance in first impressions. If we are concerned in getting these men to see Maine ahead of other colleges, and we all should be, there should be a lot done for the comfort and entertainment of the visitors. Let them see what we can offer them, show them the Maine spirit that they have heard about, see that they meet as many Maine men as possible, and we will have taken a big step toward turning their attention in the right direction.

Special Runs to Portland After All

Fine Celebration Held in Jefferson Theatre

"We want to go to Portland," is the cry that was realized last Saturday night after the Maine victory. About seven hundred enthusiastic Maine men arrived in Portland, cheering and singing until they were hoarse. The parade formed at Union Station, and headed by Joe McCusker and Bananas, marched up Congress street to Monument Square, where there was more cheering around the banner-draped monument. The streets and square were lined with Portland people who were enjoying the celebration. An exhibition of Maine spirit and enthusiasm was given which made a lasting impression on both Portlanders and students. Then the crowd broke up for supper.

At 7.30 they met again at the Jefferson theatre. Here 600 seats had been reserved for Maine. The theatre was attractively draped with Maine banners and pennants. Joe McCusker, in his Maine shirt and white pants, led cheers for the team and coach. After the show, the tired throng managed to get to the Union Station, where they piled into the special for Orono.

U. of M. Band Plays at Newport and Dexter

Over Eight Hundred Out For Dexter Concert

The Military Band, also known as the Second Maine Infantry Band of the National Guard, with thirty-five pieces under the leadership of Lieut. L. H. Blood, invaded Newport on Thursday and Dexter on Friday with full musical equipment. The trip was the first concert tour of the year for the band but was full of thrilling and narrow escapes from missing trains. "Dinny" O'Neill '16, who was the feature of the musical clubs this season, traveled with the soldiers as cornet virtuoso, and Winn Mayers '16 as piano accompaniment.

At Newport the concert and dance was given under the auspices of the Newport High School in I. O. O. F. Hall. The concert was attended by a large crowd, who showed their appreciation by demands for continued encores. The concert program was:

March, "Bombasto".....
Songs of the South.....
Selection, Military Review.....
Cornet Solo.....
D. H. O'Neill '16.
1. Carnival of Venice
2. Somewhere a Voice is Calling
3. Hear the Thrush at Eve.

Overture, Bridal Roses.....
Intermezzo.....
March, "Queen of the Fleet".....

After the concert the band played for the dance. An elaborate dinner was given the college men by the high school girls.

At Dover the concert and dance was conducted under the management of the military company. It was attended by over eight hundred and the band made a great hit. The same program was played at Dexter as at Newport.

The Smoke of Men Who Win

A fresh-rolled "Bull" Durham cigarette almost says "Speed up!" right out loud. Keen-eyed, clear-headed young fellows smoke "Bull" Durham because it has the sparkle and the "punch"—the youthful vim and vigor. Every time you "roll your own" with "Bull" Durham you open the door to Hustle.

GENUINE

"BULL" DURHAM
SMOKING TOBACCO

"Bull" Durham is unique among the world's tobaccos. It is distinguished from all others by its wonderful mildness, its delicious mellow-sweet flavor and its distinctive aroma.

That's because it's made of the very choicest of rich, ripe Virginia-North Carolina "bright" leaf—the smoothest and mellowest tobacco in the world.

You get a lively smoke and a satisfying smoke when you "roll your own" with "Bull" Durham.

jumping pits next year. Bowdoin men were surprised when Leadbetter showed better in the discus than Moulton, scaling the plate 122.36 feet while Moulton's best heave was 115.73 feet. But in the afternoon Moulton came up to 123.38 feet, while Captain Leadbetter was unable to better his forenoon mark. It was only a matter of time of division and points between team mates.

The high jump was a pretty event when Palmer was jumping for his record long after competition had been eliminated, and he was generally applauded after each successful jump. His two runners-up, Pinkham of Bates and White of Bowdoin, were doing jumping that would have been considered very excellent in this State not so many years ago.

Leadbetter, throwing the hammer 155.02 feet, had little to fear from competition, for his closest competitor, Joyce of Colby, was throwing 22 feet less than he was.

The meet was viewed by about 2,000, most of them loyal rooters of one college or another. The college bands were there, and the usual color was given by the banners and the cheering and singing of the various groups of rooters.

French of Maine and Leadbetter of Bowdoin were high point winners of the meet with 11 points each, French taking first in the broad jump and seconds in both hurdles and Leadbetter first in the hammer and seconds in the shot and discus. There were three men with two first and 10 points each. Rice in the 100 and 220, Bell in the 880 and mile and Savage in the high and low hurdles.

Of the point winners in the meet Maine will lose by graduation, Bell, 10 points; Palmer, five points, and Lawry, three points; Bowdoin will lose Leadbetter, 11 point; Moulton, five points, and Webber, two points. Bates loses Drew and Pinkham, one point each, and Colby, O'Brien, three points.

THE SUMMARY.

Maine-Bates Game Played to a Tie

MAINE 4; BATES 4.

Darkness ended a 13-inning struggle between Bates and Maine at Lewiston Wednesday, the game ending in a 4 to 4 tie. Unsteady work by the visiting infield gave Bates a two-run lead, but Purvere, who pitched well at other times, weakened slightly in the ninth and Maine tied the score. Driscoll held Bates safely in the last five innings. A stop and throw by Pendleton with two on in the 11th saved the game for Maine. The score:

Alpha Zeta Holds Annual Initiation

Alpha Zeta, the honorary agricultural society, held its spring initiation Thursday evening, May 11, at Clark's bungalow in Hampden. The four men received into the society at this time are Oscar H. Sanborn '16 of Weld, Charles E. Crossland '17 of Lawrence, Massachusetts, Daniel E. Green '17 of Brewer, and Lee Vrooman '18 of Greenville.

Following the initiation came the customary banquet. "Don" Welch '17 acted as toastmaster and the chief speakers of the evening were Prof. H. W. Smith '09, "Prexy" Monohon '14, and "Shorty" Loring '16. Among those present were J. Fred Thomas, instructor in Dairying; Neil C. Sherwood '14, instructor in Animal Husbandry, and Oscar M. Wilbur '15.

STUDENT CHAPEL.

Student chapel was held last Wednesday morning, for the purpose of arousing enthusiasm for the state intercollegiate track meet. The prevailing sentiment throughout the student body for the past week had been that it was perfectly safe to put confidence in our winning the meet. With this feeling at heart very little real "pep" would be shown by any one.

It was to show the students the correct attitude which they should hold concerning this event that Dempsey, of our track team, put forth the situation as it really stood. He told in a brief way the hard luck which the team has had to contend with, due to the misfortune of its most promising members.

The effect of giving the student body a knowledge of the actual situation was shown in a pleasing way, by the spirit shown at a mass meeting a few nights ago.

Hard Hitting Wins Game For Maine

Bowdoin Pitchers Get Recall Frequently

Maine batted Bowdoin pitchers hard Saturday and won 13 to 2. The game was played in weather more suitable for football and was slow and listless. Umpire Conway called the game at the end of the seventh inning, giving darkness as an excuse.

Bowdoin started Butterfield, captain of last year's Andover team, in the box. He was wild and seemed to have little to baffle the Maine batters. He lasted one-third of an inning and Coach Houser sent White, who held Colby to one hit a week ago, in to take up the burden. He was wild and ineffective and was yanked after Rowe had slammed out a home run in the third. Hight, the standby of the Bowdoin second team, then went in and his slow delivery had more luck than did the speed of his predecessors.

The game was not marked by any exceptional plays and the only thing to feature was Rowe's home run in the third. The ball was only stopped by the fence at the entrance of the twenty-straightaway. F. Phillips made a good catch of Hackett's hard hit fly in the third.

Butterfield started by walking Wentworth. Scratch hits by Lawry and Hackett filled the bases and Butterfield forced in the first run by walking Rowe. Lawry and Hackett scored when Finn fumbled Pendleton's slow grounder and tried to get his man at first. Rowe attempted to make third when McElwee tried to get Hackett at the plate and was out, Chapman to Larrabee. Gorham hit a liner, for which Phillips made a good try. Pendleton scored and then White relieved Butterfield. Reardon hit to Larrabee, who threw to Goodsky, retiring Gorham. Larrabee fooled Phillips' grounder and Reardon, who had previously stolen second, went to third. Driscoll shot one over second and Reardon scored. Wentworth came through with a hit and Phillips scored. Lawry fanned, ending the inning.

Driscoll was in a hole in the second. Hackett lost Woodman and he went to second on a passed ball. Larrabee walked. Driscoll then tightened and struck out the next three men.

Maine fell on White in the third. He was wild and walked Reardon. Phillips hit and Driscoll walked. White knocked down Wentworth's grounder so that the rest of the infield couldn't get it and two men scored. Lawry lifted a high fly to Phillips and Driscoll scored. Wentworth went to third on the play and scored on a wild pitch. Hackett fled out to Phillips and Rowe hit to left for a home run. Finn and McElwee got Pendleton, ending the inning.

Driscoll and his team-mates let up in the fourth and Bowdoin scored two runs. Woodman hit to right and Lawry made but little effort to get his throw in and the runner advanced to second. He went to third on Larrabee's out and scored later while Pendleton and Hackett were getting Phillips. No attempt was made to get the runner at the plate. Bowdoin's second run came after Gorham had dropped Bradford's easy fly. Donnell batting for White, brought him across with a three-bagger. Maine picked up another run in the fourth and another in the sixth.

New YorkCampus Board Has
First Annual BanquetOptimism and Confidence
Shown in Speeches

At a recent meeting of the Campus Board it was voted to hold each year, after the annual meeting in May, at which the new board is elected, a banquet at which the out-going and incoming members of the board may meet and discuss the paper, together with plans and possibilities for the future.

The first of these banquets was held Thursday night at the Bangor House. Both the old and the new Campus boards were present, and also Professors Kaulfuss and McAnney of the Faculty Committee on Publications. The banquet was in every way a success, the men were enthusiastic, and the speakers intensely interesting, presenting many valuable suggestions to the coming board.

The speakers of the evening were:

Toastmaster
Albion F. Sherman, 1916.
The Business Management of the Campus
William E. Nash, 1917.
The Freshman Point of View
Forrest A. Barbour, 1919.
The Campus in 1916-1917
Frank O. Stephens, 1917.
The Business of Next Year
Lloyd I. Edgerley, 1917.
Four Years With the Campus
Fred Curtis, 1916.
A Word from the Coach
Prof. Burnett O. McAnney.
Financing Student Activities
Prof. Kaulfuss.

One of the important points mentioned by Professor Kaulfuss, who is auditor of the board, was the remarkable advance in sound finance during the past year. Whereas in previous years the Campus has been going in debt, this year owing to the efficient work of Manager Nash a surplus of over five hundred dollars has been turned over to the treasurer.

The board who will have charge of the Campus next year are the following:

Editor-in-Chief—F. O. Stephens, '17.
Alumni Editor—L. T. Pittman, '17.
Sport Editor—W. B. Haskell, '17.
Associate Editors—J. H. Magee '18, J. P. Ramsey '18, J. H. Grey '18, J. M. O'Connell '18, F. C. Ferguson '18, A. H. Harmon '18.

Reporters—R. S. Greenwood '17, H. L. White '18, C. D. McIlroy '18, F. A. Barbour '19, R. T. Collins '19, Miss Jessie Sturtevant '17, R. B. Kennett '18, R. D. Chellis '19, W. C. Hoagland '19.
Business Manager—L. I. Edgerley, 1918.

Circulation Manager—D. B. Perry, 1918.

Phormio of Terence

The Phormio of Terence—a Roman comedy—was presented by the students of the Latin department in the gymnasium last Friday evening. The presentation was in English, but Latin costumes were worn by the players. The acting of Miss Alice M. Poore '16, as Geta, the slave of Demipho, was especially good. The cast was as follows:

The Prolog.....Christine Northrup
Davos, a slave.....Dorothy Thompson
Geta, slave of Demipho, Alice M. Poore
Antipho, son of Demipho.....
.....Dorothy L. Folsom
Demipho, an old gentleman of Athens.....Warren T. Mayers
Phormio, a parasite.....

BIOLOGY NOTES.

Dr. W. A. Clemens was recently awarded a prize of $100 by the Boston Natural History Society for an article on May Fly Larvae, which incidentally was his doctor's thesis prepared at Cornell last year.

Dr. Clemens has been offered an excellent position at his Alma Mater, the University of Toronto, and will not return to Maine next year.

American Academy

Dr. Raymond Pearl, biologist at the Maine Experiment Station, who has recently been made a member of the American Academy of Science, was given a banquet in the gymnasium Thursday evening in recognition of this honor. The guests included about seventy-five members of the University faculty, and Professor Webster Chester, of the biology department of Colby College, and Mrs. Chester.

President Robert J. Aley presided at the banquet and Dean James S. Stevens of the College of Arts and Sciences was the principal speaker of the evening. Professor Chester of Colby and Dr. Charles Woods of the Maine Experiment Station also gave brief talks. Professor Chester spoke particularly of the great honor which has been done Dr. Pearl in his recent appointment, since the membership of the Academy is limited, and is usually confined to old men who have done years of work along scientific lines. Dr. Woods spoke of the careful research work done by Professor Pearl in biological subjects, and told of many flattering offers from large colleges which he has refused in order to stay at Maine, where he would have a better opportunity to carry on this work.

Dean Stevens then gave an interesting history of the founding of the American Academy of Science—its aim, its scope, and its progress during the fifty odd years in which it has been in existence. He also named some of the leading members of the Academy, mentioning the fact that previous to Dr. Pearl but one man from Maine has ever been elected to membership—Professor William Rogers of Colby College. Dean Stevens closed his address with remarks concerning the honor which has been conferred upon the University of Maine through Dr. Pearl's appointment.

The whole evening's entertainment was a fitting expression of the esteem in which Dr. Pearl is held by everyone in the University.

Professor Frances Freeman of the Home Economics department had charge of the menu for the banquet, which was prepared and served by the girls in her department.

Maine Tennis Team
Beaten at BowdoinSets Go Only After Hard Fight
to Win

The tennis team met defeat at Bowdoin last Friday by a 4-2 score. All the matches were close and Bowdoin men had to play their best to get away with a victory. Captain Kilburn and Cram were Maine's stars, each of them playing a fast game and winning their matches.

L. Rollins and Hurd lost their matches to Greely and Flynt, 6-1 and 7-5. Kilburn and Cram defeated Bartlett and Woodman in extra sets, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4. Hurd lost to Greely in the singles, 1-6, 6-4, 6-2. Rollins could do nothing with Flynt's drives and lost his match, 6-2, 6-0. Cram played a fast game against Bartlett, but was forced to take the count in straight sets, 8-6, 6-4. Kilburn was the only man to win in the singles. He defeated Woodman 6-4, 7-5.

Last Mass Meeting is Real ThrillerAbundance of Enthusiasm in Speeches and Cheers

The old Maine spirit and enthusiasm which had been smoldering since the football season, flamed up again with full force last Wednesday evening, rekindled by the rally in chapel before the Bowdoin trip. Nearly every man's seat in the hall was filled.

S. C. Philbrook '16 presided, and seated on the platform with him were Roger W. Bell '16, Weston B. Haskell '16, and James A. Gannett of the alumni-faculty. The University band played several selections at intermissions during the speaking.

Joe McCusker was right there, leading the cheering, with his usual snap to start the old cheers and also to initiate a new one. It goes something like this: the crowd gets up with an increasing Wow—Biff-Bang—Clean-up—Maine. It was certainly a good one and given with great force.

Then came the "set ups" for the track team, followed by a rousing speech by Jim Gannett. He said that many alumni had expressed to him their regrets that they had not taken a more active part in student life; that they were sorry that they had not been more hearty supporters of school activities, and urged that we be active now, for there is no time as opportune as the present.

Next "Cap" Bell with his old encouraging spirit assured the crowd that with their help Maine should win. Then "Brute" Haskell expressed his confidence in the team and that it deserved the hearty support of the student body. This was followed by a talk by Joe McCusker in regard to the Portland trip, which remained undecided.

Someone discovered Hosea Buck and Perley Palmer of the alumni in the audience and they were called upon to speak. Both urged that the financial end of the Maine support must also be upheld. Then came calls for speeches from Dempsey, French and Purinton, each of whom appealed strongly to the crowd. The meeting was finally brought to a close by singing the Stein song.

N. Y. Alumni Hold
Ladies' Night

The University of Maine New York Alumni Association held its last affair of the season on Friday evening, April 28, at 220 Madison avenue, New York city. The gathering was arranged as an entirely informal "get-together" to afford Maine men and women and their friends an opportunity for becoming better acquainted. After a brief entertainment feature the evening was given over to dancing, cards, Maine songs, conversation, and the like, with refreshments in between, as best suited the individual liking. Among those present, nearly all of whom were accompanied by their wives or lady friends, were: C. H. Kilbourne '91, C. G. Cushman '89, C. W. Crockett '99, A. W. Stephens '99, G. O. Hamlin '00, A. E. Silver '02, A. L. Chesley '03, R. E. Lord '06, E. G. Hooper '07, G. J. Hopkins '08, Orwell Logan '10, T. F. Shatney '09, A. H. Hart '11, Philip Garland '12, J. H. Lancaster '12, P. H. Murphy '12, W. F. Pride '14, E. P. Ingalls '15, C. N. Rackliffe '02.
