Valse Moderato

The piano introduction consists of six measures. The right hand features a series of chords and eighth-note patterns, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with dotted half notes.

The first vocal line begins with a rest for two measures, followed by the lyrics: "1. All the days are too long, All the whole world is" and "2. All my dreams are of you, If they on - ly were". The piano accompaniment continues with a melodic line in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand.

The second vocal line continues with the lyrics: "wrong When you are a - way my dear - ie, But you'd" and "true 'twould make life worth while my dear - ie, All the". The piano accompaniment features a more active right hand with chords and moving lines, and a left hand with sustained notes.
