LIFE'S GAME OF SEE-SAW

Words by EDGAR SELDEN

Music by L. C. WEDGEFUTH

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a melodic line with a 'ritard' (ritardando) marking and a 'rall' (rallentando) marking. The left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

1. Two lit - tle neigh-bors, a girl and a boy, One sum-mer's day,
2. Boy grew to man-hood and jour-neyed a - way, Won wealth and fame, start - ed to play; School was just o - ver, no books to an - noy;

came home to claim His lit tle schoolmate, who of - ten did say;

Rich girl and poor lad were they. With laugh-ter, they soon built a
"Some day she might share his name." He found that her pa - rents were see - saw;

ru - ined,

Up and down they went,
Thro' mis - for - tune they bound - ing with glee.

soon had lost all;

We've

all wealth done now the in - same, played and the he same said child - ish games, Life's "Life's"

in - stead, and he same said as they wed:

see - saw we all play play, you see,.....
sec - saw our play does re - call!".....

CHORUS

Up and down, up and down! That is the way we all go; First we're up, then we're down,

It is life's see-saw, we all know. Now we're high,

Now we're low! Ev'ry one, young, old and heart sore,

Fast or slow, high or low, Play at life's game of see saw!
