JUNIOR PRISM MAY BE MODIFIED THIS YEAR

The junior class is at sea over the quality and style of the 1919 Prism. The Prism is published each year by the junior class. It contains the roll of the faculty, of each class, including a picture of and remarks on each junior, a history of the junior class, a record of athletics, dramatics, clubs, fraternities and almost every student organization. The binding, the quality of paper and the artistic cuts have heretofore been first-class, and the whole book has always been prized by juniors as a substantial and permanent record of the presence of their class in the University.

But the committee on student publications composed of faculty members has decided that the class of 1919 must be content with a war time publication which shall be radically different from the Prisms of other years. The committee has made many suggestions, which, if carried out, will alter the makeup and general appearance of the book to such an extent that it will hardly embody the form of the traditional Prism. Some of the suggestions that the committee made are that the quality of paper be reduced, that several of the more elaborate illustrations, which have always made the book such a success, be eliminated, that both pictures of fraternity houses and fraternity chapter rolls be abolished and that the individual pictures of the junior class instead of being printed in the book, be reproduced on separate paper and pasted in.

The student officials of the Prism are Oscar L. Whalen, business manager; Samuel Collins, editor in chief; Raymond J. Cook, art editor; R. D. Chellis, C. H. Files, L. E. Merrow, Estelle P. Spear and Emery Lawry form the associate editors. These students are working hard to get out

U. S. RADIO STATION AT THE U. OF M.

President Robert J. Aley has received the following letter from Chief Signal Officer of the War Department:

"The Signal Corps is establishing a series of important special radio stations at various points throughout the United States, these tests to continue for an indefinite period of time.

"The University of Maine is one of the points which is being considered for the location of one of these experimental stations.

"The general plan is to supply these stations with a standard type of apparatus and supplies from this office. This is done in order to make the observed results comparable. The educational institutions would be asked to co-operate by furnishing a suitable room to be devoted exclusively to this work. This room should preferably be at least fifteen feet square with a fifteen foot ceiling, though one twelve feet square and twelve feet high could be utilized. It would also be necessary for the University of Maine to supply at least four radio operators capable of taking twenty words a minute, the scheme being to keep a continuous twenty-four hour receiving watch. No transmitting will be done. As the work is highly important, and of a confidential nature, it would be necessary to have a member of the faculty assume general supervision of the operation of the station. It is suggested that possibly the departments of physics and electrical engineering might be able to supply the personnel above mentioned, the operators being secured from among interested students.

"Briefly stated then, the Signal Corps will supply the technical equipment and ask the University to supply the room and personnel. A Signal Corps officer would go to the University to superintend the installation of the equipment.

JUNIORS VOTE FOR ASSESSMENT

The Junior Class at a meeting held Monday after chapel voted in favor of a $1.50 assessment from every member of the class. Business Manager Whalen told the class about the critical condition the Prism is in and urged every student to pay the assessment promptly. He also stated that individual photographs should be taken as soon as possible at Chalmers Studio, Bangor.

Mr. Whalen told how that firm has always done the work for the Prism and since it has always been satisfactory, it would be good policy to continue giving them the Prism business.

CREAM of BASKETBALL MEN TO PLAY RESERVES HERE

Plans have been launched for the biggest mid-winter attraction this year in the form of a basketball game in the gymnasium between a team composed of the five best men in college and the aggregation of the Portland Naval Reserves, which will include Ken McQuarrie '19, Art Couri '20 and possibly Pat French '17. The exact date of the big event has not been decided, but Myron Mitchell '19, promoter of the contest, plans on bringing the sailors to Orono shortly after the Christmas recess.

The clash, coming in the dull season from an athletic point of view, will be an oasis in a desert, and together with the dancing which will follow immediately after the game will be a welcome event to Maine men and women. In spite of the fact that the call to arms has been answered by many of Maine's basketball men, there is still plenty of ability in college from which a fast five can be moulded. The team of the Reserves will include at least two of the men who helped to make the inter-class series so snappy last year, and the Maine five which will be composed of men from all classes may prove the birth of varsity basketball at the University.

FRESHMEN ELECT OFFICERS

The election of the Freshman class took place Friday afternoon. Eli A. Marcoux was elected president with 103 votes. Warren H. Preble received 72 and Edward J. Bowley 34 votes.

For vice-president, James K. Pennell was chosen with 99 votes. Gordon J. Malone and Lawrence M. Cornell received 92 and 17 votes respectively.

Robert B. Tackerberry was chosen for treasurer with 97 votes while Seth Pinkham received 85 and Edward T. Myers 25 votes.

Miss Achsa M. Bean won the race for secretary with 90 votes, while Helen P. Reed and Celia Longfellow received 46 and 71 votes respectively.

The two chosen for the executive committee were Chester J. Austin 123, and Joseph T. Cole 149 votes. The others on this ballot were Colman J. Costello 103, William F. Barry 87, and Wesley C. Plumer 104 votes.

For football manager, Roger C. Castle had no opponent and received 180 votes.

Milton J. Ricker was chosen for baseball manager with 114 votes and Richard S. Harriman received 86.

EDITORIALS

The Maine Masque has issued a call for candidates to compete for parts in this year's production. Heretofore, the custom has been that every character in the play or plays should be carried by a male student in spite of the fact that Maine is a coeducational institution and that many of its women students possess unusual talent in all lines of student activity. At the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the practice of men playing the parts of women in the annual Tech Show is a necessary one, and was gladly seized upon as the idea to feature.

In spite of the fact that one or two men can usually be found to imitate women, there has always been difficulty at Tech in securing enough students to carry out feminine parts satisfactorily and the same difficulty has been experienced at Maine. Much coaching and practicing is necessary to soften a man's voice and to instill grace into his movements, and it is hard to see the advantage of doing so when so much genuine material is available.

Physical training has been abolished at the University of Maine in favor of additional military training work, it was announced this week by President Aley.

Since the university was founded, training in the art of war has been one of the required courses, and as a result, a great many of U. of M. men are now serving their country in the present war, and not as amateurs either. Now, more courses than ever are given in this all important subject.

Some 240 freshmen will take the extra course, as well as 35 upper classmen. The men are divided into two battalions of two companies each. The officers are mostly sophomores and juniors, but the corporals and other non-coms are taken from freshmen rank.

More upper classmen than ever before are taking the military courses. To every junior and senior who takes the military training throughout one of his two last years a credit of $100 is given towards his college expenses. In the past, even this inducement has not proven sufficient to induce upper classmen to take part in military training, but now there is a big rush to take advantage of the opportunities in this direction.

And they are going into the training with the realization that perhaps in a few months, some of them will be called into actual service.

MILITARY LECTURES ANNOUNCED

The following General Lectures will be given in the Military Department during the First Semester. All men taking Military Training will attend. During the continuance of the course both Battalions will assemble in the Gymnasium at 10.40 A. M. Saturdays and be conducted by the Cadet Officers to the Chapel.

General Lectures—Military Department 1917-1918

- Dec. 1, Preliminary Talk, Major Lang
8, International Law, Professor Matthews
15, Psychology of War, Professor Craig
Jan. 5, Military Topography, Professor Eaton
12, Military Topography, Professor Eaton
19, International Law, Professor Matthews
26, International Relations, Professor Matthews

The course of lectures will be continued in the Second Semester. Subjects to be announced later.

FRESHMEN WILL WEAR TOQUES THIS WINTER

The cap committee composed of Johnny Walker, Mike Stevens, Vern Beverly, and Alfred Lingley have decided that the men of 1921 must be distinguished in winter as well as the warmer months and have chosen a toque which will be duplicated so that every freshman can be identified this winter. The hat selected is not a radical departure from previous winter toques and was ordered from the James Brine Company of Boston.

HUNKA TIN

(From the American Field Service Bulletin, Paris.)

You may talk about your voitures
When you're sitting round the quarters,
But when it comes to getting blessed in,
Take a little tip from me,
Let those heavy motors be,
Pin your faith to Henry F.'s old
Hunka Tin.
Give her essence and l'eau,
Crank her up and let her go.
You back firin', spark plug foulin'
Hunka Tin.

The paint is not so good,
And no doubt you'll find the hood
Will rattle like a boiler shop en route;
The cooler's sure to boil,
And perhaps she's leakin' oil,
Then oftentimes the horn declines
to toot,
But when the night is black,
And there's blessed to take back,
And they hardly give you time to take a smoke,
It's mighty good to feel,
When you're sitting at the wheel,
She'll be running when the bigger cars are broke.

After all the wars are past,
And we're taken home at last,
To our reward of which the preacher
sings,
When these ukelele sharps
Will be strumming golden harps,
And the aviators all have reglar
wings,
When the Kaiser is in hell,
With the furnace drawing well,
Paying for his million different kinds
of sin,
If they're running short of coal,
Show me how to reach the hole.
And I'll cast a few loads down with
Hunka Tin.

Yes, Tin, Tin, Tin,
You exasperating puzzle, Hunka Tin.
I've abused you and I've flayed you,
But, by Henry Ford who made you,
You are better than a Packard, Hunka
Tin.

"BRUTE" HASKELL MARRIES MAINE CO-ED

Miss Pauline Derby of Bangor and Weston Bradford Haskell of Auburn, a student officer at Plattsburg, were married at Plattsburg, N. Y., Saturday. Both Miss Derby and Mr. Haskell have been popular University of Maine students, the former to graduate from the state university in February, and the latter receiving the degree of bachelor of science in agriculture last June.

Haskell is a member of the Second Officers' Training Camp, receiving his appointment in August, and will probably remain at Plattsburg until the camp closes, around the 25th of November.

Miss Derby is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Derby of Bangor and will have completed a four-year course at U. of M. in three years and one-half. She has been a popular student and member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. Haskell, since graduation and until reporting at Plattsburg, has been sales manager for the Turner Center Creamery at its Auburn offices. He was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity at Orono and a member of the Junior Mask and Senior Skull societies. He was manager of track during his junior year and was prominent in athletic and class activities.

BOYS AND GIRLS COMING TO MAINE

The Boys and Girls Agricultural Club will hold their annual gathering at the University the week preceding, instead of during, the Christmas recess, as has been the custom in preceding years. The children of this organization range from ten to eighteen years of age. Prizes are given each year for excellence in vegetable production and animal raising. The annual visit to the University includes a tour of inspection and often results in bringing the youngsters to Maine after they graduate from High School.

Ancient Farming

Herodotus, in the year 450 B. C., said that good cultivation yielded two-hundredfold in the Valley of the Euphrates. Ever in that land of Eden, poor cultivation yielded but fiftyfold.

In 1898, the average Wheat yield per acre in New York State was 21.2 bushels; in 1907, 17.3 bushels per acre; in 1912, but 16 bushels. This does not speak very highly for our Fertilizers.

Average American yield per acre of Agricultural Produce is at present about Eleven Dollars. European yields are more than double.

Isn't it time for our farmers to get down to business methods? Home Mixed Fertilizers will help.

George C. Shute, with 108 votes was elected basketball manager and Roger D. Courtney received 99 votes.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS SELECTS PLAYS TO BE GIVEN IN FRENCH

At a meeting of "Le Cercle Français" the play to be presented in French this winter was selected. Upon the suggestion of Professor Kueny, "Le Voyage de Monsieur Perrichon" in four acts by Labiche was adopted, and a comedy, "Bataille de Dames," is also to be produced.

Etelle B. Sawyer '19 has tendered her resignation to the office of president and Armand T. Gaudreau '19 was elected to succeed her by a unanimous vote. He has assigned the parts in the play to the members, and regular rehearsals will commence at the next meeting.

BOX IN ALUMNI HALL FOR PRISM JOKES

A box has been installed in Alumni Hall to receive the usual "grinds" for this year's Prism. Anything will be considered for publication but the Prism Board does not promise that everything will get in. Cards, letters, or other papers displaying a humorous situation at the expense of a junior or popular member of other class from which a cut can be made are also desired, as are suggestions of any kind for the makeup of the 1919 Prism.

FAMOUS HARVARD MEN IN SERVICE

All the members of Harvard's most famous football combination—Brickley, Mahan, Hardwick and Bradlee—are now in training for an assault on the Hindenburg line. Frederick J. Bradlee, Jr., mentioned in 1913 and 1914 in the leading selections for "All-America" half back has just received word that he has passed examinations for a commission in the regular army. Charles Brickley, the famous drop kicker, is under orders to report for duty on the staff of Major General John A. Johnston of the department of the northeast. Eddie Mahan is in the marine and "Tacks" Hardwick, who rounded out the most formidable football team Harvard ever had, is "some where in France" as an artillery officer.

GIANT SERVICE FLAG FOR MAINE

Some of the students are talking of raising a fund to purchase a giant service flag, bearing a star for every Maine man, including the alumni, in service. Such a flag would contain over four hundred stars and would fly from the large flag pole in front of Fernald Hall. A few of the fraternity houses already have service flags for their men in service and several others who have ordered them, are waiting their shipment.

NAVAL RESERVES MAY ORGANIZE

The twenty-five or thirty Navel Reservists who are in college on leave are considering a plan to organize for the purpose of keeping in touch with the war and naval affairs, and if possible to conduct a dance in the gymnasium. The corresponding class of men at Bowdoin have done so already.

HAP SMILEY ILL IN FRANCE

News has been received of the serious illness of Floyd F. Smiley '19 of Caribou, private in the band, Headquarters Company, 103rd Infantry, 26th Division. Smiley, who is now in France, was taken ill shortly after his arrival with pneumonia and his condition was so serious that his parents and fraternity were notified. He is a member of Phi Kappa Sigma Fraternity, and enlisted in the band which was the musical organization of the old Second Maine last spring.

MAINE MASQUE BEGINS SEASON

The first call for actors for the Maine Masque has been sent out by Business Manager Donald Perry '18. The first rehearsal will be held at 7.00 P. M. on Tuesday evening, December 4, in 14 Wingate Hall. Men who wish to work out for business manager should report to Mr. Perry, Phi Eta Kappa House.

ment and would also visit the station from time to time during its operation.

"If such a radio station could be established and operated at your institution, the University of Maine would be rendering a highly important service to the government."

(Signed) Chas. A. Culver,
Captain Signal R. C.

President Alely replied as follows:

"The University of Maine stands ready to do everything required by the Government in the way of maintaining radio stations. We await your further instructions."

Frank E. Donovan '19 has been chosen by the students of Old Town High School to coach the basketball team of that institution.

The college world may well think over the suggestion by President Hopkins of Dartmouth that a degree of bachelor of military science would be far more fitting for the students who have gone to the front than the misleading "bachelor of arts."

a book that will conform with the ideas of the faculty committee and with the wishes of the class at large, but the problem is a big one and either one side or the other will have to surrender on certain points. The sentiment of the juniors is that they are willing to pay a greater price for each volume of the Prism than has been customary, and receive a book that will require no apologies if compared with previous editions. They argue that they are perfectly willing to economize this year on customs that are temporary, such as the Junior Prom and other activities of Junior Week, but as the Prism reflects their days in college and is of a permanent nature they desire to cling to the old style.

However, the question is by no means settled. Mr. Whalen will apply to other publishers for estimations and will try his utmost to eliminate phases of the book which will not seriously alter its general appearance and value. The faculty committee does not in any way, desire to deprive the class of 1919 of one of its most cherished treasures and privileges, and will willingly conform to any solution that seems reasonable and practical. With this in mind, all connected with the Prism are working to produce a satisfactory book.
