Maine Will Make Bid For State Champs.

Letter Men Out for Old Positions

The prospects have never been better for a champion to come from Maine than they are this spring. At least ten letter men are back although some have been out of school for some time in the service. All these are intemel with the exception of Woodman who played an excellent game in last year's garden last season.

Four letter men are candidates for the pitching staff, Charlie Zeigler, "Red" Wyer of Augusta, Small. All these men have pitched excellent ball for Maine in the past. Pike Johnson, a former pitcher on Everette High, and several other prep school stars, will work out for the twirling jobs. On the other hand the battery will probalby be Jerry Reardon, who will be hard pressed by "Tim" Lawry who showed remarkably well during the suls last year.

John Conley, a former Portland High star, will give Jess Willard a hard fight for the first base. George Wyer who starred for Cony High and M. C. I. has entered the University and as he is a heavy hitter, he should also have a strong bid for the initial sac. Burleigh Waterman is commonly known as "Hy," has been a recent visitor to the campus. He is a common student in good standing at any of the Maine colleges will be represented in freshman-sophomore games. Dolloff starred for 1922 in basket shooting while Purington displayed his best dribbling and offensive work. Of, 1921, a transfer from Colgate, got the best basket of the game.

lar student in good standing at any College or University at the time he entered the military or naval service of the U. S. lected at Bates and Colby within a week.

Another meeting of the Association will be held in Waterville about May 17, when the final arrangements for the meet will be completed.

WORD FROM BIERUT

The following letter is from Don Davis of Bierut, Syria. The letter is addressed to the Maine Committee for Relief in the Near East. The Relief party arrived in Constantiopolis about the first of March.

U.S. S. Pensacola
At Bietrut, Syria
Feb. 20, 1919

Dear:

We dropped anchor about 10 P.M. This morning after the gunfire had died down, we cruised back around the city and went to the central bazaar. The bazaar of Bierut is a very interesting place. It has a very large and very active market. There are all sorts of goods to be seen and people from all over the world to see them.

We went into an English grocery store and bought some bread and fruit. We also bought some clothes and shoes. We paid twenty piastres or about five cents. We left the store with a very large bag of fruit and a bag of bread.

At the time the blanket tax was levied, it was estimated that the tax would amount to about five cents per person. However, the tax was later increased to about one dollar per person. The tax was a very unpopular one and was met with great resistance.

We hope that the tax will be abolished in the future. It is not legally compulsory but it is very difficult to escape.

Sincerely,

Frederick F. Marston

EDITORIAL

The royal few who turned out to the.Remembrance Day meeting last Thursday night listened to a series of speeches which every man in the university should have heard. One of the speakers, a senior and a transfer from another institution, said that the Maine College spirit which the university should give to its men. A man who graduates without the Maine spirit will have a mighty poor opinion of his alma mater and will not be the alumni that he should be. It is up to the upperclassmen to show the freshmen the way to do it, for they are the only men who know what Maine spirit is. It is not fair to blame the freshmen wholly for their lack of spirit when there is no example set. The war is over and there is no reason why we should not get that old Maine spirit into action. Athletics this spring are going to be worth watching. The baseball and track seasons will be in full swing and both sports will bear watching. Make the next meeting a real Mass meeting. Come yourself and see that your friends come. Spring term's registration was 691. The installation of the new administration of about 650 students. Last week's meeting was well attended.

BLANKET TAX AT STUDENT CHAPEL

A lively Student Chapel was held last Wednesday in which much spirit was shown. Sam Collins introduced the meeting by mentioning the spring weather. Miles Ham spoke first by giving out a general warning to all Blanket Tax slackers. He said that if athletics are to be successful, the men must be able to afford them. All the students should be prepared to pay their fair share. We went into an English grocery store and bought some bread and fruit. We paid twenty piastres or about five cents. We left the store with a very large bag of fruit and a bag of bread.
