HARVARD FALLS TO MAINE

Maine Team Winds Up Mass. Trip by Three Straight Victories Over Harvard, New Hampshire State and Bates.

CO-EDS TO PRESENT PLEASING OPERETTA

The co-eds to the University will present "A Dress Rehearsal," a musical comedy, for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A. Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock. The plot is simple, but full of fun and frolic. In the first scene we will be introduced to the school-room of Grove House Academy, of which Miss Jones (Minerva French) is the lady Principal, and Mlle. Epinaud (Mabel Thompson) is the French teacher. It is proposed to wind up the term by a grand party and supper, an additional entertainment being a charade, which, in the hands of the merry girls becomes a burlesque imitation of "Cinderella." Mrs. Jarvey (Achsa Bean) a retired actress, and now a teacher of elocution, is called in to train the pupils in their parts.

As Cindreella (Edith Scott) is practicing her part, Miss Prudence Pinchback (Sarah Crehore) enters, misunderstands the play for real, and hurries out for a policeman. As the play progresses there are many absurd incidents.

OVERSEAS OFFICER SPEAKS FOR LEAGUE

In what was perhaps as interesting a talk as has been given in chapel this year Captain Thomas Chamberlain of the 1st Anti-Aircraft Battalion, U. S. A., spoke on the League of Nations yesterday. Captain Chamberlain is a University of California graduate and a member of one of the fraternities represented on the Maine campus. He has been travelling widely over the United States since his return from France speaking in favor of the League of Nations and has been a member of a party with Ex. President Taft and Ex. President Lowell of Harvard.

He began his talk with an incident from his experiences in France. Then coming to his subject he said in part: "The League of Nations is the greatest problem of all time. The organization of the nations of the world for peace is a practical political problem for all. It means a new army of public opinion in which the universities are to be the generals." Captain Chamberlain then proceeded to explain the meaning of the League and of the amendments which have been incorporated in it since the first draft has been made. He emphasized the fact that already more than enough senators had expressed themselves as opposed to the covenant than it required to prevent its passage thru the Senate. Then taking past historical examples, he showed how the League of Nations would do all that was claimed to prevent the reoccurrence on disastrous Maine ended her Massachusetts trip by winning three consecutive games, including from Harvard, New Hampshire State and Bates.

Partially due to the sickness of one of the players and the prevailing cold weather, Maine lost the first three games to Boston College, Holy Cross, and Dartmouth.

Thursday at Soldiers Field, Maine caused Harvard to kneel to a superior team winning by a score of 9-8. Each team chalked up 11 hits but Harvard was unable to come through in the pinches due to the superior playing of the Maine team.

Jerry Reardon made the feature hit of the game a home run with one man on. In 5 times at bat Young made three singles and was walked once. Wyer chalked up three hits one a triple. Johnson pitched a fine game for Maine striking out seven men and holding Harvard's heavy hitters in the pinches.

KAPPA SIGMA WINS IN OPENING GAME

The first game of the "Sunset Baseball League" was played Wednesday evening, April 23, by Kappa Sigma and Theta Chi, resulting in a victory for the former team. The Kappa Sigma boys bunched hits early in the game, and in the end won out, eight to two. On Monday, April 28, Phi Eta Kappa trimmed up S. A. E. by a score of fifteen to two. The Phi Etas showed good stuff with the bat, and slammed the ball far and often. The

CLASS TRACK MEET SATURDAY

This Saturday afternoon at 2.30, an inter-class track meet will be held. If you have any life at all, come out for the meet. To date, the track team has been greatly handicapped by the weather. The 23rd Maine Intercollegiate Track Meet will be held in Orono, May 17th so there is but little time left for the team to train. Attempts to secure a dual meet before the State Meet were unsuccessful. This means that Coach French is relying on a large list of entries to furnish competition for his squad before the State Meet. Remember, that by coming out for this meet, you are not only helping your class, but the varsity track squad as well. Entries should be in to Asst. Managers Tibbets or Foley by Wednesday night at 6 P. M.

The following is the list of events: 100 yd. dash, 220 yd. dash, 440 yd. run, 880 yd. run, 1 mile, 2 mile, 120 yd. hurdles, 220 yd. hurdles, running broad jump, high jump, pole vault, 16 lb. shot put, throwing 16 lb. hammer, throwing the discus.

STATE MEET AT MAINE MAY 17

The track squad is making rapid strides toward copping off the honors in the State Meet May 17, and each practice shows improvement over previous work outs. Judging from reports of meets in which other Maine colleges took part, we can look forward to a victory with confidence in the big meet of the season. Many of the events should bring out fine competition, especially in the 880, mile, 220 and high hurdles. Bowdoin has some very fast men for these events in Cleaves, Goodwin, Averill, Thompson and Savage. Maine should hold her own however with Wansker, Zeigler, Herrick, Waite and Castle running.

Tickets for this meet will be on sale the latter part of the week and the price of admission will be seventy-five cents, plus $.25 for reserved seat. All tickets will be $1.00 plus War Tax. When these tickets are ready there should be a pile of "pep" shown in selling as many as possible, thus assuring Maine of a financial success as well as one on the track.

DARK HAPPENINGS AT SOPHOMORE HOP

The annual Sophomore Hop was held Friday evening, May second, in the gymnasium. Dr. and Mrs. Aley, Dean and Mrs. Boardman and Paul Murphy received. Mitchell's Jazz Band had its usual pep and things were going

NOTE BURNED AT DINNER GIVEN BY PRES. ALEY

Saturday evening the twenty-one members of the publishing board of the Maine "Campus" celebrated the event of the burning of a long standing bill against the "Campus". This celebration took the shape of a banquet given in the private dining room of the Bangor House by President and Mrs. Aley. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cummings being guests of honor.

Some four years ago the "Campus" was threatened with law suit on account of

EDITORIAL

The University of Maine has in the past been brought before the readers of a Boston newspaper in an injurious and an unjust light. The general policies of this paper are too well known to require comment but those who read it believe its contents so the effect is not lessened. At the same time in comment of the same affair the best newspapers of New England came out with articles which were based on facts and which gave a true story of the affair. It is to be regretted that there is no way of reaching a paper of the type of the Boston "American" which will intentionally distort conditions and ignore facts and use misleading headlines simply for the purpose of selling their papers. The harm which they do cannot be estimated.

The best and most truthful version of the recent hazing episode is that given by President Aley on April 29. It is as follows:

"The faculty of the University of Maine deeply regretting the affair which has been distorted from published accounts, desires to say that the race question was not the cause of the difficulty and that colored students are welcomed at the university and well treated.

"Members of the freshman class resenting treatment received from Roger and Samuel Courtney (colored) of Boston, sophomores, determined, as they say, to repay this treatment, and visited the Courtneys' room. There was a scuffle and the Courtneys escaped, but later gave themselves up to the freshmen, who hazed them by applying molasses and feathers. Roger Courtney had previously been requested to withdraw from the university for violation of rules.

"The faculty does not condone the affair, regarding it as one extremely regrettable, but one likely to happen at any time, at any college, the gravity depending much upon the susceptibilities of the victim and the notoriety given."

The Massachusetts baseball trip was on the whole a successful one. We lost to two strong teams, to another in a close game and wound up in good shape by winning three straight games, from HARVARD, New Hampshire State, and the first game of the States Series with Bates. It is a good start for the State Series.

The Interclass Track Meet Saturday should furnish interesting competition and will help to get a line on varsity material. Anyone who competes in this meet will be helping the varsity track team. Get out for this meet.

It may be of interest to the fraternities that after April 1st, 1919 no tax is imposed for dues or initiation fee. The following is quoted from the Revenue Act of 1918 (Regulation 43):

"The Revenue Act of 1918 expressly exempts from tax 'All amounts paid as dues or fees to a fraternal society, order or association, operating under the lodge system.'"

LETTERS OF A FRESHMAN

Hannabil H. H.

April 28 1919.

Dear Folks at Home:

Well what do you think I went and done now. I went to church. The man that talked made me think of one of my professors Ma. He had a coat that was long Ma and pants that didn't match. He wore a bow tie that instead of looking like a couple of para tell lines pointed in all four directions just like the sign pointing to Stillwater. They called him something like a minute ster but the way he talked I should think they would call him longer than that. He talked on serving Ma but the only serving I know about is at meals. He also spoke about Jeri Mira on the road to Jerico. All that I could think about was Jerima Readon on the road playing base ball. I guess he got the two mixed up because all he spoke about was leading and inspiring the men and that is wat Jerry does. I wish I was a base ball player Ma. I guess I haven't improved any Ma since I used to catch flies for you in the kitchen. You remember how I used to miss them all? Well it is the same way now.

I was coming up on the car from seeing my girl from Veazie and I heard two men talking. I guess they must have been Holy Jumpers. One had a button on that said "Ephot League". That was a new one on me and after thinking a while I guess it meant a new kind of a baseball league. One of them said that he felt something come in his ear and go way down to his feet. He saw me smiling. Ma and snapped quick and said "Young Man do you know how to Register Distress?" I come right back quick Ma and said, "Sure, fly the flag upside down." I guess you know now that I learned something in the navy. He seemed taken back Ma when I said "And I know how to registrar a letter too." I heard him say that he heard the language of the Angels but couldn't interpetit it. I had a good mind to tell him to come up to college and ask the Proffessor of Foreign Languages, he'd be able to do it. He wore a big black bow tie and I guess he must have been in morning for himself.

I went to the freshman banquet Ma but I can't tell you anything about it now. I have got to call up "Prexy" Aley and see if there is going to be any college today because it is raining.

Your loving Son,
Afeelus.

HOSPITAL TRAIN MAKES TRANSCONTINENTAL TRIP

For the first time in the history of the army a complete hospital train made the entire transcontinental trip from New York City to Camp Kearney, Cal., during the last week in March. It carried 136 sick and wounded overseas fighters who had been evacuated from Debarkation Hospital No. 3 in the old Greenhut Building, Debarkation Hospital No. 5 in the Grand Central Palace, New York City, and the Base Hospital at Camp Merritt, N. J. The patients were all men from the far West who were being removed to the hospital nearest their home towns.

The men were accompanied virtually the whole length of the trip by Red Cross workers who were on duty in relays. At each stop a pair of Red Cross women boarded the train and rode to the next station, where they were relieved by their Red Cross sisters in that town, who took up the work where they left off. This arrangement worked perfectly.

The train was in charge of the Medical Department of the United States Army and in addition to the invalids, carried a large escort detachment of enlisted men of the Medical Department. Towns and cities along the route were notified of the departure of the hospital train and the expected hour of its arrival and the boys received a riotous welcome at every stop. In like manner every Red Cross auxiliary was on hand to regale the heroes with good things to eat and drink and cigarettes.

WEARING THE UNIFORM OF THE UNITED STATES

There is much trouble arising in many places on account of the illegal wearing of the uniforms, both army and navy. When the uniform is given the man on his discharge he may wear it at any time that he sees fit. The uniform is to be worn as such and not to be mixed with other apparel.

At the present time there is too much mixing of the uniform with other articles of clothing on the campus. It is not an uncommon sight to see a man with a pair of breeches on and a pea-coat the whole combination probably surmounted by a watch-cap or a freshman hat.

With the time for the annual government inspection drawing near it is for the best interest of the institution to refrain from the illegal wearing of the uniform. The military department has a high standing with the War Department, at the present time. We don't want to see it get in wrong just on account of a few thoughtless individuals. If the inspector should see the men wearing pieces of their uniform he would have a bad impression of the military department and might make it disagreeable for our Commandant for allowing such practices to occur. Please think this over and stop mixing uniforms with your civilian clothes.

JAZZ ORCHESTRA FOR MILITARY HOP

The one big formal affair given by the freshman class, the Military Hop, is to come off on May 16 at eight P. M. The drill program will consist in part of close order drill and a formal guard mount, to be executed by a picked company of six squads. "Bill"

Feeney has charge of the military events.

A good jazz orchestra will furnish music for the dance.

The hall is to be well decorated. The fraternities will have booths.

After the hop a special car will leave the waiting room for Bangor.

Every freshman should attend and show that his class can make a success of this formal affair.

NEW PLEDGES TO HONORARY FRATERNITIES

On Wednesday President Aley made announcement of the following pledges

SOLDIERS SHOULD PAY PREMIUMS

All discharged soldiers and sailors should be advised to keep up the payment of the premiums due on their War Risk Insurance applied for while in the military service.

Within a short time those who have kept up such payments will be permitted to convert their present insurance to other forms without another physical examination. Any discharged soldier who has permitted his insurance to lapse should correspond with or call at the office of Captain T. J. Johnston, Department Insurance Officer, Headquarters Northeastern Department, Room 717, 99 Chauncy Street, Boston, Mass., as soon as possible, as it is not yet too late to be reinstated. Information may also be obtained there with reference to the new kinds of insurance to be issued and the premium rates therefor. In writing, in addition to asking the information desired, the person should indicate the date of his discharge and whether he has paid any premiums since such discharge.

"BERT" SMITH AT Y. W. C. A. MEETING

Last Thursday evening the Y. W. C. A. met at Mt. Vernon House. "Bert" Smith gave a graphic description of "Eight Weeks Club" work. She told of the need of girls of secondary school age for definite organizations, for inspiration and action. She spoke of the need of leaders for such—girls who shall be sympathetic, embodying a school girl's ideals of courtesy, attractive appearance, hospitality, gracious and correct speech, emphasizing the college girl as a leader. Then she spoke of the results of such work among young girls—the feeling of real democracy, tendency for girls to co-operate, and higher ideals for social service, and, finally, our duty as college women to raise standards and efficiency of American women.

Don't think the other fellow has the easier job.

for the missing. Its searchlight, thrown on overseas battle fields, base hospitals, and embarkation camps, has probed the mystery of many a boy's silence and brought news of his whereabouts or death to the anxious family at home.

"Please send me news of my boy," begged the mother of one private. "I only know he has been missing since July 15. It is worse to be in doubt than to know he is killed." The young man's name and his regiment were immediately filed, and sent abroad to be added to the searcher's list that is published monthly by the Red Cross.

Searchers travel through the base and military hospitals, through rest camps and embarkation camps, carrying with them their book of missing men. Everywhere they go they get into communication with patients and other soldiers stationed at the same command as the missing men. In a recent case, a young lieutenant was found in Debarkation Hospital No. 3 who knew one of the missing men and had seen him die. His story as written into the record was that Private Sand, the missing soldier, had been killed on July 15th at the battle of the Marne, while saving the lieutenant's life. The news was immediately wired the bereaved mother. She is now waiting to meet the lieutenant for whom her son went to his death and to learn from him the details of the tragedy. And the lieutenant will make this trip to see the boy's mother even before he goes home to his own family.

OVERSEAS OFFICER SPEAKS FOR LEAGUE wars, laying special emphasis on the element of delay which is necessary in order to make any peaceful settlement of difficulties possible. He showed how an economic blockade as well as military power was a potent agent in the hands of the League of Nations to insure the carrying out of its judgments.

Captain Chamberlain then applied some of the present problems of the Peace Conference to the League of Nations and showed how they would be treated. He then effectually refuted arguments against the plan, concluding by showing how the nation and the soldiers wanted the League and how it was to each of their interests. He mentioned the fact that the two senators from Maine had both expressed themselves as opposed to the League and asked that everyone who believed in it to write their senator and tell him of their opinion.

ing very smoothly when the lights suddenly, thru some mysterious cause, went out. This did not bother the crowd for they danced in the dark until a couple search lights were found. The Sophomores lost no time in finding the trouble and the electric lights soon came on. Ice cream and crackers were served at intermission in the gymnasium. Dancing lasted until two o'clock.

FRESHMEN CELEBRATE AT BANGOR HOUSE

There were some who were sober, There were some who were joyous, There were men from Skowhegan, And some from Sebois; But the merry shouts that rang thru the hall, Proved that a good time was had by all.

quet. The committee in charge had worked well and faithfully, and promptly at nine o'clock we were ushered into the dining hall, which was tastefully decorated with flowers and flags. Eating was the first thing on the program and was unanimously attended to.

After the good things to eat had been disposed of, came the feast of reason and flow of soul. The toastmaster introduced the speakers with a glowing eloquence that would have startled the English Department. There were many speakers. The essay on "Prohibition" proved to be one of the most popular of the evening.

And even when it is "years after" we will have pleasant "memories" of the banquet of the class of 1922.
