Two Fast Games Won by Maine

Rhode Island State and Colby are Losers in Close Battles

The Rhode Island State ball nine met defeat at the hands of the University of Maine boys in a lively and interesting game Thursday on Alumni Field. It was an ideal day for the game and Maine rooters and co-eds were out in full force.

Maine put the game on ice in the third inning by scoring four runs and in the end they won out 5 to 2. In this inning Watson led off with a good single, followed by Wood who also singled. Sargent sacrificed and Young cleared the bases with the assistance of some booting and crazy heaving by the Rhode Island team. Waterman followed with a single and was scored on a drive by Slattery. Nichols then stopped the rally by fanning Lawry.

Watson pitched a calm and heady game for Maine and never was in very serious trouble, altho his outfielders saved calamity several times by pulling down some bad drives. It was certainly the best game that the Maine nine has played this season and they look good to clean up everything from now on.

There was plenty of noise, besides the band, from the bleachers and altogether some lively afternoon with a good showing of spirit by the Maine crowd.

LIVELY RALLY HELD BEFORE TRACK MEET

A rousing rally was held in the chapel Thursday evening in preparation for the state track meet. "Sam" Collins took charge of the meeting, and after a few remarks called on "Jerry" Reardon, who, together with the speakers following, was greeted with a storm of cheering and applause. "Jerry" said that a laundry is to be operated on behalf of the University athletes, that they may be given an opportunity to earn money to go toward paying expenses. If any student has an idea for coining money, that may be of value, let him show his Maine spirit by telling Captain Reardon about it. The money is needed. He also said that everybody must get behind the track team at the state meet just as we got behind the baseball team at the Rhode Island game.

Manager "Squirt" Lingley then gave a few facts concerning the coming event. He urged everyone to turn out at the trials Saturday morning. Capt. "Bill" Allen said that due to the war, Maine spirit had suffered, but that it was now well aroused. The two lower classes are just learning what true Maine spirit is. Since it is seldom easy to induce "Bill" to speak, "Sam" Collins should be congratulated upon securing him.

Coach "Pat" French was called upon next. Out competitors, he said, were for the most part, inexperienced men who did not know what a state meet was like. They were doing their best and we must show them that we, too, are not quitters.

Maine Loses Track Championship to Bowdoin

Fast Time Made Considering the Condition of the Track

The University of Maine through hard breaks lost the 23rd annual track championship to Bowdoin. The ineligibility of Wyer '21 and the absence of Zeigler '19 lowered Maine's score greatly.

MAINE TO SEND TEAM TO N. E. I. A. A.

Maine will be represented at the annual New England Intercollegiate Track meet to be held at M. I. T. next Saturday, May 24. Practically all the colleges of New England will be represented and there will be keen competition for points. Coach "Pat" French will send a squad of about twelve men to represent Maine. Without doubt the men will make a creditable showing, although Maine has been handicapped by loss of Zeigler, and several men being ineligible. "Bill" Allen ought to come through with the shot taking first place, repeating his past performances. There will be keen competition in the quarter mile between Pratt of Maine, Driscoll of Boston College and Bowden of M. I. T. In the other events Maine will also capture a number of points as Herrick is a good man in the mile run. Probably Maine will land well up among the leaders.

MANY FORMER FACULTY TO RETURN

The University of Maine lost many of the best members of its faculty through the call of the great war. A large percentage of these will be back at their posts next September.

The following tells of the present location of many of the former faculty members.

Winslow P. Daggett, Professor of Public Speaking, 2nd Lieutenant, U. S. A., is teaching in the Alviene Schools, 225 West 57th Street, New York. Professor Daggett returns to the University of Maine in September. Caroline Colvin, Professor of History, who has been with the commission on Training Camp Activities, Social Service Division, will return to Maine in September.

In weather that made both track and field events a hardship, Bowdoin scored 73, Maine 36 and Bates 17 points.

The meet was a good one taking into consideration the heavy track and wet field. Maine was unable to place in the hurdles thus Bowdoin received 18 points. Due to the slippery field, Maine did not come through in the finals of the high jump as she was expected to. Both Maine and Bowdoin jumpers being tied for first place.

Wanker made a fine showing in spite of a bad leg in the 100 yards, Holbrook winning only by a foot. Wanker showed a great deal of pep in this race. In the 220 yard dash, Pratt nosed in ahead of Averli in the fastest and most interesting race of the meet, while Sewell took 3rd place.

CAPT. "BILL" ALLEN

Captain Bill Allen easily took first place in the shot put his nearest contestant being 8 ft. short of Bill's best throw!

The 440 yard dash was an interesting race won by Savage of Bowdoin. The pole vault resulted in a tie between Wood of Maine and Rice of Bates.

The running broad jump was won by Pratt of Maine with Sewell of Maine 3rd.

EDITORIAL

In last Saturday's Track Meet Bowdoin carried away the laurels. Let that sink in; Bowdoin, a school of one half the size of Maine. There is only one thing to do, get behind athletic teams at Maine. If the student body had recognized the importance of supporting the track team to their utmost ability, there would have been a different result last Saturday.

Next year Bowdoin will have practically the same track team. It is absolutely necessary that the track material at Maine must be increased.

It is up to every Maine man with red blood in his veins to go out for track himself and try to influence men that you know ought to be good track material to come to Maine. See if Maine cannot turn the tables on Bowdoin and wipe out the stain of Saturday by utterly swamping Bowdoin next year at the M. I. A. A.

Keep the Alumni interested in Maine. We, like every other institution which has gone thru the war, needs help in every way possible to put things back to better than normal shape. Alumni because of their influence and situation can do a lot to help our institution along. You may think that just because you don't hear much about the alumni at times that they are not alive to the interests of Maine. That is a false impression derived from a lack of knowledge of the true conditions. It is up to the active student body to keep those graduates who have gone out in track with the condition and the needs of the University. We want the help of the alumni to start in the right manner next fall. Will you do your part?

LETTER TO THE '99's

To the Class of 1899:

Considering the fact that 1899 has never had any kind of a class reunion since graduating, would not this twentieth anniversary be a fitting time to get together and talk over the old times. "Reddie" Stephens thinks YES on this proposition and the writer is of the same opinion.

When it comes to returning alumni, this commencement is going to be record breaker. June 21, 22 and 23. Remember the dates. Be making your plans to come. More information to follow.

"Archie" Grover.

LETTER TO PENOBSCOT VALLEY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Bangor, Me., May 12, 1919
To Maine Men of Penobscot Valley and Vicinity:

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Penobscot Valley Alumni on March 31 steps were taken which will give all Maine men hereabouts a chance to get into the game and join the big movement to make our association a leader in alumni activities and to be of real service to their Alma Mater. This letter will tell you what we are planning to do and how you can do your bit to help put the program through.

ALUMNI DAY, JUNE 21. This will be the big day of the greatest commencement ever held at Orono. One of the big attractions is to be provided by the Penobscot Valley Alumni. We are going to furnish them with a band and you all know what a big, live band can do at an occasion like this. So dig down and help us along. Also be on hand to hear the band.

SCHOLARSHIP. A scholarship is to be founded to be known as the Penobscot Valley Association Scholarship. Help to make this a good and worthy of the name of our association.

ANNUAL DUES OF TWO DOLLARS ARE NOW PAYABLE. The committee appointed to raise funds for the above mentioned projects has recommended that the money be appropriated from the annual dues and it is expected this will be sufficient if the response is prompt. Send remittance to Secretary-Treasurer at 175 State St., Bangor, Me. Make checks payable to Clifford Patch, Treas. Do it now before you forget.

ALUMNI MEETING AND SMOKER, Monday, June 2, at 8 P. M., at Chamber of Commerce Rooms, Bangor. Come yourself and bring all the other Maine Alumni that you can lay your hands on. No further assessments or passing the hat to cast gloom over the occasion, but some important business to transact and lots of the old Maine pep, with smokes and music and a good time for everybody. Remember the date.

If your address is incorrect please inform the secretary.

Very truly yours,

Clifford Patch '11
Sec.-Treas.

BOSTON HERALD BOOSTS MAINE

The Boston Sunday Herald had a very exhaustive page of matter in the interest of the University Sunday, May 11th. It was devoted principally to the extension courses with a boost for the University in general. It was interesting and should be the means of bringing the University to the attention of many people. There were pictures of several winners of the Boy and Girl Clubs with several of the buildings. All going to show the important work our University is doing for Maine and New England. Let us as alumni not lose faith in our Alma Mater especially in these trying times when she needs so much of our help. War has left the marks of its destructive hands all over the globe and our greatly cherished University is no exception to this despoiler. Let us show our loyalty and our desire to have her put back on a pre-war basis by being present at Commencement this year and lend a hand to those who are trying to sustain her.

They are requested to register their names with Lieutenant Smith and to signify their intention to parade and to request complimentary tickets for the banquet, theatre party, reception and dance which the city of Bangor is going to furnish for the returned service men. AGRICULTURAL CLUB HOLDS MEETING

The last "Heck" Club meeting of the year was held Wednesday evening. The meeting was called to order by President Carl Lewis and turned over to the faculty. After some controversy Prof. Corbett consented to act as toastmaster. Mr. Cummings was called upon and proved himself a first rate entertainer. Refreshments of smokes and ice cream were furnished by the faculty and enjoyed by all. The seniors spoke of their plans for work after graduation and were given some good advice by Dean Merrill. Plans for making the Club bigger and better next year were discussed. Every member present felt well repaid for his time. Those absent missed a pleasant and profitable evening.

MAINE HISTORY IS VALUABLE VOLUME

It was thought that all of the "History of the University of Maine" books by our late beloved president Dr. Merrit C. Fernald had been sold, but it is found that it is not so a quite a number has been found recently at the University and they will be held for Commencement in order that the alumni can have the first opportunity to purchase them. As the number is limited an early application should be made for them. This is the only authentic and exhaustive history of the University and never can be duplicated as Dr. Fernald had lived it and been an active part of the University up to the time of his death
a few years ago. They are the property of Mrs. Fernald and as there are only a limited number of them they should be sold out very quickly. Dr.
Fernald was a strong man, he laid a firm foundation, he built better than he knew as later years have shown.
He has an indestructible monument in the University, a better one no man or scholar could wish.

The Interscholastic Meet Saturday
will be worth attending.

FORESTRY CLUB

The Forestry Club will hold an interesting meeting next Thursday evening. Several speakers are promised.
Students are invited to attend.

Several ex-Maine men have been on the campus the past week.

Claude Boyle '08 of Allston, Mass., has been visiting the A. T. O. men, of which fraternity he was a member.

Vinton O'Harkness, S. A. E. of Lincolnville, and an ex'20 man, was on the campus Wednesday. He is member of the U. of M. band which has just returned from across.

Edward H. Kelley '19 has returned to Bangor with the rank of ensign in the navy. He was a student at the University before entering the service enlisted as a seaman, and after attending school in Boston was given sea duty, after which he was sent to Pelham Bay ensign school. His brother Francis is in Germany with the 56th
Pioneer regiment.

Sergt. Edward W. Connors '15 who has been overseas for a year in the engineering Corps is now taking a short course in University College, Dublin, Ireland agreeable to a policy of our government (all expenses paid for soldiers) and which many of our soldiers are eagerly taking advantage of the opportunity.

He is very much pleased with the institution and its surroundings and considers himself very fortunate to be one to have this opportunity.

RED CROSS AS CUPID'S AIDE

On the continent the fathers and mothers arrange it. Over here, the boys and girls do it alone. So when the boy's from over here and the girl's from over there, what is the procedure to be? One girl solved it.

A Jack from Minnesota said "Will you?" to a Jill in France. That was the American way. But continental traditions are not shattered in a moment. Jill, whose name is "Henriette," wrote to the American Red Cross at Washington: "Now, would you," she wrote, "be so kind as to arrange with the parents of my suitor that they might convey through your organization, for which my family has the highest regard, to my uncle, who is my guardian, their willingness for the betrothal to be arranged?"

The Washington headquarters very properly sent the message on to Minneapolis. Now it's up to the home folks. If they will allow the Home Service Section to "convey to 'mon uncle' " approval of the match, there'll be one more international marriage.
And who wouldn't want docile Hen-riette for daughter-in-law.

LIVELY RALLY HELD BEFORE TRACK MEET

"Sam" Collins then aptly introduced "Prexy" Monahan, who gave his listeners a talk that clinched every point he brought out. Enthusiasm, which is not "hot air" means success. Loyalty and sacrifice, he said, are next in importance. The institution owes its students nothing; we owe the institution more than we can ever hope to repay it.

"Prexy" Aley, who had been an attentive listener among the students was then called upon amid cheering and applause that shook the very foundations of Alumni Hall. He said, in brief, that as a man grows older he exaggerates upon the experiences of his youth. The "old timers" never saw more spirit than was manifested at that rally.

A few of the competitors responded to persistent shouting of their names. Herrick, Wansker, "Pete" Allen, and Pratt each said that they would do their best at the meet, and urged the students to cheer them on.

After the speeches, the track team was cheered individually. Then the old Stein song was sung and the meeting broke up.

Maine Loses Track Championship to Bowdoin

seemed that Maine still had a chance to win but Maine was unable to come through where first places were expected.

Goodwin of Bowdoin ran a fine mile and two mile race.

Pratt was the highest point winner for Maine taking 13 points, 2 firsts and one second. On the whole the meet was a failure. But it is to be remembered that Maine was handicapped by the loss of Zeigler and Wyer, also that every one on Maine's team except Capt. Allen were green men in college circles and in almost every case they were running against experienced men.

GLEE CLUB COMPLETES SUCCESSFUL YEAR

The Belfast-Rockland and Vinalhaven concert trip planned by the Men's Glee Club has had to be cancelled in view of the fact that the government has set aside May as the date for Military inspection of the Maine R. O. T. C. The date originally planned for the Rockland concert. Every effort was made to retain these same concert dates for the Girls' Glee Club but satisfactory arrangements could not be made. This means the conclusion of one of the most successful seasons that the Maine Musical Clubs have known. The Men's Glee Club had a very successful trip thru Dover Foxcroft and Guilford with a final concert in Bangor. The girls were planning an unusually successful year since for the first time in the history of co-ed activities permission was granted to give the concert in other parts of the state. The season was so near an end that satisfactory arrangements could not be made. The concert in Orono, Oldtown and Bangor were without doubt the most successful ever given by the Girls' Glee Clubs and every effort will be made to secure dates for a concert trip next year.

PRIZE HELMETS AWARDED TO WINNERS

Ella A. Wheeler 1919 and Samuel W. Collins 1919 are the winners of the two German helmets offered to the woman and man of the University, selling the largest number of Victory bonds.

Miss Wheeler sold twenty-three bonds amounting to $1750. Mr. Collins sold eleven bonds totaling to $2950.

Sense never fails to give them that have it, words enough to make them understood.—William Penn.

MILITARY HOP DECIDED SUCCESS

Everyone who attended the Military Hop Friday evening, May 16, will agree that the success of the performance was complete. The evening started with a reception with President and Mrs. Aley, Lieut. and Mrs. Harry Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stephenson and Trecarten, President of the Freshman class, in the receiving line. This was followed by a guard mount and close order drill by the Freshmen, which received plenty of applause.

Dancing continued until one o'clock, only broken by the absence of lights for a few moments—which, it seems, was greatly appreciated.

During the last dance confetti and streamers were flying in abundance which brought a fitting close to a most successful affair.

Rice's orchestra furnished the music.
