High Spirit Marks First Football Rally

Speeches by Coaches Baldwin and Ryder and Former Students Make Event Enthusiastic

The first rally of the year took place in the chapel on Friday evening at 7 o'clock on the eve of the Fort McKinley game and was marked by the intense enthusiasm of pre-war rallies. The evening opened with a terrific peanut riot, the bass player of the band winning highest honors with his horn full of monkeyfeed. After a selection by the band, and after a round of the Maine cheers Coach Baldwin was introduced by Manager Ham and greeted with a thunder of cheers. The Coach spoke briefly as follows: "I know every man here will be present tomorrow, and I only hope every person in the university also, but if only you men are present we will have some loud cheering all right. I should like to make one request and that is your assistance in keeping the men in training. I know that this has been the custom, but war has come and you may have forgotten it.

Beginning Monday we shall have secret practice. There will be times when we shall ask you to come to practice, but it is necessary to have secret practice also. You may not know what the team is up to, but we want a winning team and must look out for enemy spies. Our best plays are made possible by secret practice, so as long as the team is winning, even by a small margin, don't kick, but just wait until the Bowdoin game. If a player is taken from the game don't groan, make unfair comments, and above all don't think he is playing poorly. I like to give them all a chance when it is possible so don't criticize when they are taken out, but give them a fine cheer. When the team comes off the field tomorrow they will have won or lost by playing their hardest, and with true Maine spirit, by playing the game fair."

The next speaker presented, Don Coady, proved the dark horse of the evening as a speaker. He asserted the belief that "with all these freshmen, with the upperclassmen, the

Home Ec. Girls Have Practice House

Formal House Opening to be Given in the Near Future

In accordance with the Smith-Hughes Act, North Hall is being used as a practice house for the Home Economics seniors. There are seven seniors this year; this semester four are working in the practice house and three are doing practice teaching in Old Town. Next semester three will be working in the house and four will be teaching in Old Town. The family also includes the four home economics teachers, making eleven in all.

Rent, heat, and light are all paid into the university as at any other dwelling.

The girls pay the same board as they would if living at a dormitory but it is paid to the practice house. Each of the four girls who is working at the house has her own work to do. One is housekeeper; another is cook; the third assistant cook and the fourth is general helper.

The housekeeper does all the ordering, buying and planning of meals for the family and pays the bills.

The cook and assistant cook work together in cooking the meals planned.

The general helper has cleaning, some laundrying to do and helps the cooks when help is needed.

This work is conducted under the

Football Captain Not Yet Elected

The "M" Club had a meeting last week to elect a football captain, but so few men showed up that the meeting was postponed. It is hard to tell who will win the election. It is pretty close between Green '20, the All Maine center and Beverly '20 the All Maine end. Both are equally good men and both deserve the election.

Round Table to Elect Officers

Women Students Plan to Have Another Successful Year

The Round Table recently held the first meeting of the year at Balentine. Mrs. Hart, who presided, gave a brief outline of the work of the organization and then announced the election of officers for the coming year among whom were the following:

Presidents: Mrs. Hart, Miss Anderson, Miss Elliott.
Secretary: Miss Collins.
Treasurer: Mrs. Blake.
Executive Committee: The officers, Mrs. Aley, Miss Hannington, Miss Catherine Cary.

After the business was transacted, Miss McGinnis gave a pleasing vocal selection, and Miss Colvin spoke of the new opportunities and responsibilities of women in the United States. Refreshments were served in the social hour that followed.

The membership of the Round Table includes faculty women, wives of members of the faculty and the women students of the University. The object is to promote the social life, and bring about close cooperation among the women connected with the University. During the war the Round Table was active in supporting a Belgian orphan, and aiding various organizations. It

Heck Clubs Holds First Meeting

The first "Heck" Club meeting of the year was held in Winslow Hall, Wednesday evening, Sept. 24. There were about fifty members present which was a very good showing for the first meeting. Since there is a large number of students registered in the College of Agriculture and we are an

Japanese Tea Given by Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Carl Estabrooke Who Recently Returned from Japan Spoke

The Japanese Tea held by the Y. W. C. A. at Balentine Hall last Thursday from 3 to 5 P. M. was well attended by both the ladies of the faculty and the girls. Miss Dorothy Hannington had charge of the affair. She was ably assisted by several young ladies attractively gowned in Japanese costumes who served tea and wafers to the guests. During the afternoon there was a sale of Japanese favors. The proceeds of the sale as well as the silver collection which was taken will go for the benefit of the Japanese mission in which the Y. W. is interested.

The especial feature of the afternoon was the talk given by Mrs. Carl Estabrooke whose husband is a graduate of the University of Maine. Mrs. Estabrooke has recently returned from Japan where she and her husband have been teaching. She told of the manners and customs of the Japanese. Everything that is done in Japan is done in accordance with rules which were made centuries ago. The Japanese consider that higher education is not a thing that the women should enjoy. Very few of them even attend the schools that correspond to our high schools. The people that have become Christians are much more interested in education. Mrs. Estabrooke said that the need for Y. W. C. A. secretaries was very imperative in Japan as there are very few there and nearly all of these are located in the large industrial centers.

Stock Judging Team Goes to Boston

After a lapse of two years, University of Maine again sent a Stock Judging Team to enter the contest held in connection with Brockton Fair. Try-outs began the last week in September and the team was finally chosen Saturday night, September 27th. The men chosen were R. N. Atherton '20; H. Robbins '20; and Harold Bruce '20; with C. A. R. Lewis '20, as alternate. The team was coached and accompanied by Professor Corbett head of the Department of Animal Industry.

The trip to Brockton started on Monday morning, September 29th, travelling in Prof. Corbett's new "Universal Car." The plan was to spend Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in looking over some good stock in this and other New England States; then Thursday to judge at Brockton and back by the end of the week.

The first place visited was "Sagadahoc Farms," near Portland, where "Shorty" Peabody '16 reigns. The

Faculty Advisers Assigned to Freshmen

In order to make the change from High School to College life easier, for some years it has been the custom to assign freshmen in small groups to members of the faculty who are asked to act as advisers. This year the old custom has been revived and each freshman has some faculty member to whom he or she may freely go for advice and help. The relation between the students and advisers is to be more personal than official. In this way the faculty and new students get better acquainted and are mutually helpful to each other, the faculty is helped to understand the students, and the students feel that someone is looking out for them from a personal, rather than an official point of view. Upper classmen can testify to the help certain faculty members have been to them. It is hoped that the freshman class will take advantage of this splendid opportunity to become acquainted with the faculty and that it will be mutually beneficial.

State Cross Country Meet Placed for November 7

A meeting of the Maine Intercollegiate Athletic Association was held at the Hotel Elmwood, Waterville at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The purpose of the meeting was to make arrangement for the annual M. I. A. A. cross country run.

Bates was represented by Manager L. W. Philbrook, Bowdoin by Lewis W. Brown, Colby by Manager R. H. Sturdevant and Maine by Alfred B. Lingley. Coach Michael J. Ryan of Colby and George L. Rider of Maine also attended the meeting. It was voted to hold the run strictly according to the constitution. This will be the Friday of the week preceding the N. E. I. C. A. A. run at Boston. The date of the New England run will not be decided until next week. However, it is practically certain that the New England will take place Nov. 15. This will cause the State run to be at Waterville Friday, Nov. 7.

"Billy" O'Connell of the P. A. C. has been engaged as starter and referee. The other officials will be announced in a week.

M. C. A. Rest Room Very Complete

A feature much appreciated by the men students this year is the new M. C. A. Room at No. 1 Alumni Hall. The former class room has been completely renovated and painted. The old blackboards have gone and with them their intricate mathematical formulas and equations. In their place is

The heavy football team from Fort McKinley proved to be easy meat for our light but fast team. The soldier boys did not have the ball in our territory at anytime of the game. Their line was too heavy for any line plunging but their backfield was so slow that our plays around the ends were executed with hardly any difficulty. Coach Baldwin used almost all of his squad in this game.

In the first quarter McKinley intercepted a forward pass on their own seven yd. line and after trying a play through center fumbled and Smith '23 fell on the ball back of the goal line for the first touchdown of the game. Neavling '23 kicked the goal. Maine kicked to McKinley who lost ground on the next three plays and then punted to Coady who received the ball on the 50 yd. line and ran through the fort men for the second touchdown. Neavling kicked the goal. End of quarter. Score Maine 14 to 0.

Second Quarter—This quarter started on the Fort's 30 yd. line. After trying two rushes Purinton threw a pass to Beverly making another touchdown. Neavling missed the goal. The Fort kicked to Maine who tried three plays and then lost the ball on a forward pass. Maine held the Fort for downs and Smith went over the line for another touchdown. Neavling kicked the goal. The soldiers kicked to Maine and Maine made two first downs, then

Girls' Glee Club Elects Officers

Mandolin Club Has not as Yet Been Organized

The members of the Girls' Glee Club met for the first time, Sept. 25, for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. Florence Morrill '21 was elected business manager; Katherine Stewart '21, secretary and treasurer; Mary Couchlin, librarian. Candidates for positions of leader and pianist will be chosen later on when the try-outs for new members are held.

The club is very enthusiastic about starting on the concert program, as there are prospects of making one or two trips, besides the usual concerts given in Orono, Old Town and Bangor. The greater part of last year's members are here this year and there is good material among the new girls.

The club will certainly miss "Peanut" Snow at rehearsals for she has been so active in making the concerts a success for the past three years.

The Girls' Mandolin Club has not yet been organized. However, a meeting will be held soon to elect a leader and to plan for try-outs. There are several new instruments on the campus which will add to the fund of good material already in the club.

CROSS COUNTRY

"A University of Maine Cross Country Team has never been defeated by a team from a Maine state college." That statement sounds pretty good, doesn't it? It is something to be proud of.

For some reason, the interest in cross country in some cases seems to be lagging. A squad of 60 men has dwindled to barely a dozen. Cross country is a hard sport. Practice means lots of good, hard plugging on the road and careful training.

It is readily apparent that more than a squad of a dozen men is needed to furnish competition to pick out a good team. These men of the former squad of 60 men who dropped out for no good reason should get back into the togs again.

TROPHIES

The moving of the Trophy case from its dark corner in Alumni Hall into the M. C. A. room is a good piece of business, but it leaves the job only half done. It is doubtful if more than a few people really know the identity and numbers of cups and trophies which are scattered from one end of the campus to another.

CORRESPONDENCE

A college newspaper should in the broadest sense represent the entire student body of that institution. It cannot, unlike the city papers, take sides upon properly debatable questions within the institution for that reason.

in must be signed with the name of the writer. We do not feel that the "Campus" is properly serving the university unless something of the sort is in operation. Without doubt many good results would come from such a plan.

Two or three weeks ago when the question of eliminating some of the college hazing was put before the students it received an almost unanimous veto. It has been our custom for many years and we would not like to see it changed.

But when we hear of one event that happened during the interclass frolics on Saturday it makes us wonder if the hazing business has gone too far. Ten freshmen who held the bell on Wingate Hall until it was taken from them by the sophomores had the hair on their heads clipped by these same sophomores.

What we can say is that this action is the work of cowards on a day when a feeling of true sport should reign and after Maine had won a victory on the field. This is a matter that cannot be passed over.

The Standpipe, Saturday, September 29, was the scene of a very jolly picnic of about fifty Maine girls of all classes. The girls were divided into three groups each of which had a different trail to follow through the woods.

Mt. Vernon Notes

Faye Smith '18 who is teaching in the Guilford High School is a guest of the house for this week-end.

Florence MacLeod is spending the week-end in Bangor where she is attending the Festival.

Helen Furbish was the guest of Rachel Bowen in Bangor last week-end.

Catherine Sargent spent the week-end in Bangor as the guest of Marguerite Tibbetts ex '22.

Dorothea Stetson and Gertrude O'Brien were the guests of Helen Reed last Saturday and Sunday.

Mt. Vernon Annex has had two visitors during the past week which have created quite a bit of excitement and amusement. A few nights ago, when it was nearly time for "lights out" a huge rat was seen on third floor.

Several cats and even a dog have strayed into the house and gravely inspected the new quarters. If only they had been there when the rat and mouse were around!

Mrs. Kate C. Estabrooke attended a meeting of the State Library Commission at Augusta, Oct. 5.

Miss Dorothy Quincy of Bangor was on the campus Monday as the guest of Miss Antoinette Gould.

Marjorie Willey '23, spent the week-end at her home in Bar Harbor.

John W. Glover '16 and wife are in town.

News has been received of the marriage of "Pop" Wentworth '18 and Helen White '20. They will live in Springfield, Vermont.

Roy H. Flint '04 was on the campus Saturday to attend a meeting of the Publishing Committee of the General Alumni Association of which he is a member.

Charles Bickford '82 has been re-elected to the Trusteeship of the University.

Richard A. Powers, class of 1913, is now located at Madison, Wisconsin and is planning to teach Agriculture at Waderea, Minnesota. "Dick" Power was a member of Phi Eta Kappa Fraternity and a big man in student activities.

Earle Herrick Danforth '19, Phi Eta Kappa, was married to Mae Ellen Hamlin, Thursday the 25th of September at Gardiner, Maine.

Paul Slocum ex '15 was on the campus for a few days last week. He is 1st Lieutenant in the U. S. Aerial Bombing service. Lt. Slocum is in charge of all aerial bombing in the U. S. Army.

Erle St. J. Parker, "Inky" ex '18, paid us a pleasant visit recently. He is instructor of romance languages and music in Camden High School. He is also coach of dramatics and athletics.

Ballow '12 and Cleaves '12, Phi Gamma Delta paid us a short visit last week. "Billy" Ballow is in business in Bangor and "Jock" Cleaves is inspector for The Traveler's Insurance Co. of Hartford, Conn.

Annual Bag Scrap Won by Freshmen

The annual bag scrap between the sophomore and freshman classes took place last Saturday after the football game on Alumni Field. The class of 1923 emerged the victors, having succeeded in moving one bag to their goal.

The two classes lined up on either side of the bags, all attired for the fray and at the sound of the pistol rushed for the bags. A fierce battle raged and torn shirts and trousers filled the air. After a few moments the pistol announced the end of the struggle.

A fight for possession of the bell in Wingate Hall took place immediately afterwards but the Freshmen were defeated. The sophomores also carefully guarded the power house but long series of toots of 23 from the whistle rent the air for quite a while.

Being outnumbered at least two to one by the freshmen a defeat for 1922 was expected as was the case. The freshmen are to be complimented on carrying one of the bags to their goal.

THE MEETING

They met; 'twas in the starry depths Of August's cloudless sky: Fair Luna trod her silvery path In matchless majesty: The cricket chirped, the firefly Pursued his fitful dance. 'Twas in the balmy slumb'rous night That those two met by chance.

With throbbing heart and beating pulse He spoke in accents low And in her glancing eye there came A deeper, warmer glow: Then up the apple tree she flew And there vindictive spat, For "he" was "Jack" my terrier, And "she" our neighbor's cat.

A PERSONAL PART.—A certain young actress had a small part in a "war" drama—a very small part and she was not satisfied. So one morning after rehearsal, she set out to interview the boss.

"I have only one line in the first act," she pouted, "and but one in the second. Couldn't you give me a line for the third act also?"

The actor-manager thought for a moment.

"Well, yes," he replied. "When the bombardment scene is on, and the hero is crouching in his dugout you may enter and say, 'Here is a dud!'"

"Oh, thanks!" she exclaimed. "And do I bring an unexploded shell on the stage with me?"

"No," answered the actor-manager. "It's not a speech, my dear; it's a confession."—Blighty (London).

ART.—The artist dipped his brush in a bucket of paint and wiped it across the canvas several times horizontally. When he had done this he took his labor in hand and carefully placed it in an elaborate frame.

"What's the idea?" his boon companion inquired.

"Impressionistic study."

"Do you mean to tell me that is a finished painting?"

"Certainly."

"What are you going to call it?"

"A village street as seen from the rear seat of a motor-cycle."—London Answers.

ACQUIRING POLISH—"Frances," said the little girl's mamma, who was entertaining callers in the parlor, "you came downstairs so noisily that you could be heard all over the house. Now go back and come downstairs like a lady."

Frances retired and after a few moments reentered the parlor.

"Did you hear me come downstairs this time, mama?"

"No, dear; I am glad you came down quietly. Now, don't ever let me have to tell you again not to come down noisily. Now tell these ladies how you managed to come down like a lady the second time, when the first time you made so much noise."

"The last time I slid down the banisters," explained Frances.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

MORE WOMEN'S RIGHTS—Ward Heeler—"Are the women trying to reform politics?" District Leader—Reform nothing! They've started in to grab the jobs."—Life.

It Is Said

That "Iky" Crandall is heartbroken and lonesome.

That the way the team showed up on Saturday was a surprise to the students as well as to the Fort McKinley men.

That the interference Coach Baldwin has built up in the team proves that he is doing his work in a most capable manner.

That the bags used in the scrap should be cut in two so as to make six smaller bags which would make the event more lively.

That Colby in winning from Fort Williams by a score of 99-0 used few substitutes and just tried to pile up the score.

That the interclass sports on Saturday were marred by the cutting of ten freshmen's heads. See editorial.

That the fight on the power house roof would have ended seriously if the Senior Skulls did not step in and stop it.

That the trophy case has been removed from the hallway in Alumni Hall to the Y. M. C. A. restroom. Now, why not collect the rest of the scattered trophies and bring them there also.

That Neavling '23 did some good booting on Saturday besides only missing one goal kick after touchdowns.

That the faculty-alumni get-together is to be a big event this fall.

That the state cross country meet will be held at Waterville.

That better efficiency should be used in the chemical stock room. It reminds one of the efficiency of the College Store's soda fountain.

That more men should turn out for cross country.

That the moving picture project of the M. C. A. will be explained in next week's Campus.

That the moving pictures taken at the bag scrap will be shown by the M. C. A. in two or three weeks.

Harvest Ball to Be Held Oct. 17

The annual Harvest Ball will be held this year on October 17 in the gymnasium under the auspices of the Heck Club. This feature was omitted last year due to the war conditions but will be renewed this year. This is the first college dance and it will surely be a good starter if the plans the club have in mind come to a focus.

The music will be furnished by "Doc" Turner's Jazz Orchestra and everybody knows how they can play. The decorations will be of a novel type in keeping with the harvest idea. So put this date down in your notebook.

whole party stayed overnight here. The trip continued Tuesday morning to Lord's Farm, near Wells, where some fine Guernsey stock was seen. That afternoon saw the party in Ipswich, at another Guernsey place. Wednesday morning a trip was made to an Ayrshire farm in Hingham, and in the afternoon to another Ayrshire place in Lincoln, near Waltham.
Thursday was the eventful day, as well as the fatal one, as it later proved when the contest for honors was staged between teams from other New England States. Mass. "Aggie", Connecticut and New Hampshire each sent a team. These teams, it seems, had all been to at least one other big fair, where practically all of the same stock was exhibited. Moreover, their coaches were the official Judges, or had been at other recent fairs.
The Maine team could not quite bridge such a handicap, and in a close grouping were placed last. Mass. "Aggie" won, followed by Connecticut, New Hampshire and Maine. It is doubtful if another team is sent from Maine under the same conditions.

President Lewis gave the new men a brief outline of the work performed last year and some of the plans for the coming year. He then asked Dean Merrill to speak. As is his custom at the first meeting each year, he spoke principally to the Freshmen. After this, the meeting was given over for new business, the most important item of which was the vote a Stock Judging Team to Brockton Fair to compete with similar teams from other Agricultural Colleges. Another vote was made to have the usual Harvest Ball. The committee have planned to have it take place on October 17.
The next meeting will be held Wednesday evening, Oct. 8, and we hope that every Agricultural student will plan to be present. There is sure to be a program which will be of interest to all the Hecks.

Home Economics Club Elects President
Eleanor Jackson '20 was elected president of the Home Economics Club last week. The first meeting will be held Wednesday night at North Hall for the purpose of welcoming the new girls in home economics.

The "Constitution" of To-day—Electrically Propelled

THE U. S. S. "New Mexico," the first battleship of any nation to be electrically propelled, is one of the most important achievements of the scientific age. She not only develops the maximum power and, with electrical control, has greater flexibility of maneuver, which is a distinct naval advantage, but also gives greater economy. At 10 knots, her normal cruising speed, she will steam on less fuel than the best turbine-driven ship that preceded her.
The electric generating plant, totaling 28,000 horsepower, and the propulsion equipment of the great super-dreadnaught were built by the General Electric Company. Their operation has demonstrated the superiority of electric propulsion over old-time methods and a wider application of this principle in the merchant marine is fast making progress.

Six auxiliary General Electric Turbine-Generators of 400 horsepower each, supply power for nearly 500 motors, driving pumps, fans, shop machinery, and kitchen and laundry appliances, etc.
Utilizing electricity to propel ships at sea marks the advancement of another phase of the electrical industry in which the General Electric Company is the pioneer. Of equal importance has been its part in perfecting electric transportation on land, transforming the potential energy of waterfalls for use in electric motors, developing the possibilities of electric lighting and many other similar achievements.

As a result, so general are the applications of electricity to the needs of mankind that scarcely a home or individual today need be without the benefits of General Electric products and service.

DON'T take a fellow's pipe. Take some other possession. Because wrapped up in his pipe is a fellow's peace of mind, his relaxation, his contentment. This is more than true if it's a WDC Pipe, because then a good smoke is multiplied many times over. Our special seasoning process takes care of this by bringing out all the sweetness and mellowness of the genuine French briar. Just you go to any good dealer and select several good shapes. Put them in your rack. Smoke a cool one every time, and you'll be well on your way to pipe-happiness.

Fort McKinley Falls to Maine

Coady '21 went around right end 30 yds. for another touchdown. Neavling kicked the goal. The Fort kicked to Maine and the whistle blew for the end of the half before Maine could make any more touchdowns. Score Maine 34 to 0.

The second half was just a repetition of Maine's scoring, the final count being 55 to 0.

Coady played a superb game in the backfield and Neavling got away with some fine punts. Green '20 also played a good game stopping many of the plays through the line. Smith carried the ball for gains every time he was tried and McCarthy was seen in every defense play while he was in the game. Beverly '20 played a good game at end and received two perfect forward passes thrown by Purinton '22 who ran the team like a general. Jordan '22, Small '21, Feeney '22, Lawry '21, and MacNair '23 played well. The summary:

alumni, faculty and friends of the college, those bleachers should be filled to overflowing at the game with McKinley and that their cheering should carry the team along to victory.

Manager Ham next brought forth Athletic Director Ryder who made a very sincere address, ending with "One thing I rather hesitate to mention is this: The men of the visiting team are your guests. Don't forget it, and whether or not these guests beat us up on the field, should make no difference in your treatment of them. Remember that the best team will win, and if it should happen that they win tomorrow pat them on the back for they will deserve all the credit they get."

"Hickle" Green, the popular big boy at center, next orated as follows: "I have played against Fort McKinley before. They may not know everything about football, but they have the fight. Cheering certainly carries the team along, and everybody has got to be there cheering. We will be out there fighting and let us know that you are all there behind us, rooting your heads off."

After the "Houn' Dog" by the entire company, Beverly '20 gave a talk. "It is easier to play and easy to cheer when we are winning. When we are losing the cheering is inclined to lull. That is just the time we need it. We cannot hear the cheering when it is going full blast, but when it dies down we miss it, and feel that something is lacking. I hope you have the true Maine spirit and I hope you will all be there on the bleachers with it tomorrow."

Shouts for Jerry Reardon next brought him to the stand, which resulted in the interesting views of a graduate.

After the plan of action for the parade and cheering were presented by "Bandy" Merrow, cheer leader, some straight facts in regard to cross-country were brought up by "Squirt" Lingley: "You men have had quite an awful of football tonight. I will try to tell you about cross-country. Three weeks ago we started with sixty men in the pack. Tonight there were ten. There is no cheering for this pack after they have run four or five miles and come back dog-tired every night, and then have to go home and study. There is not a varsity man in the pack. How is the coach going to pick men for the coming meets? The U. of M. cross-country teams have never been defeated by a Maine cross-country team. Are you going to let them do it this year? Do you want to read in the newspapers that Bowdoin has trimmed Maine in cross-country? We like football, but don't forget cross-country. It takes more than ten men to win cross-country. Get out there Monday and show some fight."

Professor Grover delighted his audience with reminiscences of 1899 and made the players realize that the old-timers are always behind them.

After "Chink" Friend had made just exhortations for a one hundred per cent record of blanket tax payments, Manager Ham properly closed the ceremonies by voicing the unanimous decision of everybody present that they would be on the bleachers full of cheers for the game Saturday, that they were going to back cross-country to the limit, and that every blanket tax would be paid.

Then came the old Stein song, sung with the old time gusto.

a piano, popular music, rugs, chairs, trophy case, current magazines and papers, a writing table supplied with paper and envelopes. It is planned to install a telephone pay station later.

The purpose of this room is to help the student, who has spare hours around the campus, pass them profitably and to aid the M. C. A. in reaching all the university students. The room has been thus far liberally patronized and the coming of cold and stormy weather cannot fail to increase its popularity when the Store bench becomes untenable.

The M. C. A. room is but one of the features of the extensive program which Secretary "Occie" Whalen has prepared and which will be announced as soon as practicable.
