we _____ To lend a hand to the mother - land We sailed a - way _____ From our em - pire grand but they'll un - der - stand When we read our cross the sea _____ We have carved our name on the scroll of deeds to - day _____ When the charge was made we were not a - fame When the shrap - nel fell like rain _____ And the dead - ly fraid But we fought with might and main _____ Tho' we lost our gas thined our ranks a - las But we stood the aw - ful strain. _____

 guns to the treacherous Huns We won them back a - gain. _____

The Lads Of The 4

Chorus.

For we are sons of the Brit - ish Em - pire

From our land a - cross the foam

All for the moth - er coun - try

We have left our na - tive home

Fight - ing a - mid the tren - ches To drive our foe men back And for Brit - ain home and beau - ty We would glad - ly do our du - ty Or we'll die be - neath the Un - ion Jack. For we are Jack.
