COMMENCEMENT.

JUNIOR PRIZE THEMES.

In spite of the rain of Saturday evening, a large audience was present in the chapel to attend the Junior Prize Exhibition which took place at 8 o'clock. Before the speaking began Pres. Fellows arose and stated the conditions under which the contestants were chosen. He likewise announced the points on which the judges were to base their decision; viz., thought, composition and delivery. Pres. Fellows then announced the first speaker, and the following program was carried out:

Music.
The Maine Forest Problem.....
John Hollis McCready.
Beauty and Science.....
Amy Ines Maxfield.
Music.
Progress of the West.....
Frank Libby Douglass.
Panama or Nicaragua?.....
Ralph Melvin Connor.
Music.
The War of Progress.....
Archie Ray Benner.
Reflections on Education.....
Paul Dyer Simpson.
Music.

John Hollis McCready spoke of the lack of adequate protection for the Maine forests and the need of a systematic method of replenishing the depleted forests.

Amy Ines Maxfield in a finely written article showed the mistake in the prevalent idea that all beauty and poetry in nature is destroyed by the prying eye of science. The microscope and other scientific instruments serve only to reveal beauties as yet undiscovered.

Frank Libby Douglass traced the growth of the West from its first settlement by non-English races to its present high development.

Ralph Melvin Connor, as the title of his theme would indicate, gave a statement of the advantages and disadvantages of the two proposed canal routes across the Isthmus of Panama.

"The War of Progress," by Archie Ray Benner, was an article indicative of much thought and was finely written and delivered. The predominating influence which war has had in the progress and development of the world is something that is at first thought scarcely realized. But the study of history shows us that every advance in civilization, the rise and fall of every great nation since the creation of the world, has been brought about through the instrumentality of war.

The last speaker, Paul Dyer Simpson, was unable to be present.

It was announced before the speaking began, that the decision of the judges would be made known at the Convocation exercises on the following Monday. The awarding committee consisted of Geo. E. Thompson, Esq., of Orono; and Prof. Geo. E. Gardner and Prof. William E. Walz, both of Bangor. A noticeable fact in regard to the speakers themselves, was that all, with one exception, were students in one of the engineering courses.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON.

Pres. Fellows delivered the baccalaureate sermon before the members of the graduating class in the chapel on Sunday evening. Besides the members of the class, about two hundred people were present. The congregation would undoubtedly have been larger had it not been for the stormy weather,

The seniors headed by Marshals Ross and Wheeler marched into the chapel and occupied seats in the front of the auditorium. On the stage with Dr. Fellows were Rev. W. B. Dukeshire, pastor of the Orono Methodist church; Rev. G. M. Woodwell, pastor of the Congregational church of Orono; and Rev. F. W. Atkinson, pastor of the Orono Universalist church.

The following program was carried out:

CLASS DAY EXERCISES.

The class day exercises were held in the university chapel on Monday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. The auditorium of the building was crowded with students, friends of the graduating class, and visitors. The class marched into the chapel led by Marshal Edwin B. Ross of Bangor and Assistant Marshal A. F. Wheeler.

After the roll call by Marshal Ross, Rev. Mr. Chase offered prayer. Pullen's orchestra of Bangor furnished music for the occasion.

Following was the program:

Music.	Prayer.	Music.
History	Fred E. Holmes
Poem	Frank W. Kallom
	Music.
Oration.....	P. Edward McCarthy
Statistics.....	Charles W. Stephens
	Music.

	Singing Class Ode.
	Smoking Pipe of Peace.
	Music.

CLASS POEM.

The class poem was read by Frank W. Kallom. The composition was good and the speaker delivered it in an easy and interesting manner.

Several of the lines follow:

"Our Alma Mater, fair and strong and young,
Thy story shall be writ, thy glory sung
By worthier pens than mine. Enough for me
To pay my simple tribute here to thee.
With each succeeding year thy power shall grow,
Thy dignity of age shall crown thy brow,
Thy vigorous youth shall change to grand old age
And though the blasts of time around thee rage
Like northern winds that shake thy sheltering pines
In winter: Nought thy power undermines.

No, rather let us who are about to live
 Salute thee, and give what we can give
 To make thy future great, thy power vast
 As those still who before us in the past
 Have done. Still may our thoughts of thee
 Be as bright lights, that on life's stormy sea
 May guide us on to nobler destiny."

CLASS ODE.

Oh Alma Mater, ever dear!
 Oh happy college days!
 The parting hour has drawn us near
 To chant our hymn of praise,
 With saddened hearts and tear-dimmed eyes,
 We tread these dear old halls,
 Apart henceforth each pathway lies
 Wherever Duty calls.

Thou guided right our stumbling feet,
 Thy influence was strong:
 Thou led our lives in ways most meet
 To keep from every wrong.
 The future dim we bravely face,
 Alone each one must plan;
 The world has for one his place;
 We'll do the best we can.

Fair Alma Mater, now adieu
 The breezes whispering sigh;
 May friendship's bond bind firm and true,
 As swift the years pass by,
 And in our hearts thy memory dear
 Will ever hold its sway;
 Life never can be wholly drear
 With this to cheer our way.

Now Alma Mater on each one
 Thy benediction send;
 Crown each one's years with victory now
 O kind and guiding friend,
 May ever the future records tell
 Of honor, wealth and fame
 For we who sing our last farewell
 To thy bright and glorious name.

ALUMNI REUNION.

Monday evening at the residence of the president on the campus about 30 alumni of the University held an informal reunion. The evening was passed very pleasantly by all and the reunion broke up at a late hour, the alumni voting that such informal affairs should be continued in the future.

Refreshments were served during the evening and Pres. Fellows, Mrs. Fellows and Miss Fellows assisted in entertaining the guests in their usual graceful manner.

Those present were the following: Edwin J. Haskell, '72, Westbrook; Prof. George H. Hamlin, '73, Orono; Hon. Louis C. Southard, '75, Boston; Freeland Jones, Esq., '75, Bangor; Col. Charles P. EDITORIALS.

WE wish to correct a slight mistake which occurred in the last issue of THE CAMPUS, where it was stated that the Christmas recess would next year extend from Wednesday, December 23 at 5.30 o'clock, to January 22 at noon. The end of the recess will be Jan. 2 at noon instead of Jan. 22 as stated.

THE Prism is ready for its subscribers and the briefest perusal of its pages is enough to incline us to thank Editor Conner and his assistants for the slight delay in its publication, if to that is to be ascribed the superior quality of the volume. The most noticeable feature of the book is the originality which is exhibited in its every page. One of the most difficult tasks in the production of a work like the Prism is the proper arrangements of its parts. And in this respect it would be difficult to improve on the present work. The judicious selection of "grinds" always requires a nice sense of propriety. The object should be without overstepping the bounds of common courtesy to present a good caricature. One that is apt but has nothing in it of the spirit of malice. The current issue of the Prism seems to have reached the right degree in this respect to a nicety. The victims of the "grinds" are in general, undergraduates. The cuts and half-tones are numerous. And the cuts in particular are remarkably good, showing a degree of originality in design that has been seldom reached in previous issues. In nearly every feature of the book it is obvious that an upward step has been taken.

PHI KAPPA PHI INITIATION.

The leading event of Tuesday forenoon was the Phi Kappa Phi initiation which was held in the chapel at 9.30. The meeting was called to order by Prof. Hart, president of the Maine chapter. Dr. Fernald was appointed master of ceremonies and F. H. Vose, marshal.

The following candidates were then admitted to the order: Henry Ernest Cole, Walter Hampton Eldridge, Wesley Clarendon Elliott, Henry Carter French, Horace Parlin Hamlin, Alpheus Crosby Lyon, Frank Ethelbert Pressey, Clinton Nathan Rackliffe, Marie Cecilia Rice, Arthur Elmer Silver.

The ceremonies were very simple consisting of a brief address by Prof. Fernald regarding the fraternity, membership to which is a mark of high scholarship, and the explanation of the grip by Prof. Stevens. This being concluded the annual business meeting was held. Prof. Stevens, Jones and Merrill were appointed as a nomination committee and reported the following choice of officers, the choice being ratified by the chapter; H. M. Estabrooke, president; W. M. Munson, vice president; F. H. Vose, secretary; K. P. Harrington, treasurer.

RECEPTIONS BY THE FRATERNITIES.

The local chapters of the Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Sigma, Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Chi and Alpha Tau Omega fraternities held receptions during Tuesday afternoon.

Despite the rain of the early part of the afternoon the attendance upon all the receptions was good.

BETA THETA PI.

The Beta house was finely decorated for the occasion with potted plants and evergreen. The patronesses were stationed in the front part of the double parlors and the guests were ushered in by members of the chapter. The music was furnished by Pullen.

The patronesses for the reception included

Mrs. Nathan C. Grover and Mrs. Ralph K. Jones of Orono, Mrs. Walter Ross, Mrs. Harry A. Chapman, Mrs. George T. Thatcher and Mrs. Frederic H. Strickland of Bangor.

The young ladies who assisted in serving were: Miss Geneva R. Hamilton and Miss Emily Hamlin of Orono, Miss Ethel S. Hill, Miss Marian Hart, Miss Ethel Rowe and Miss Mary Winslow Bartlett of Bangor.

AT THE ALPHA HOUSE.

The guests at the Alpha Tau Omega house were received by Mrs. P. J. Douglass, Mrs. A. E. Rogers, Mrs. George H. Hamlin, Mrs. C. B. Porter, Mrs. John M. Oak and Mrs. Charles Whittier.

Refreshments were served in the dining room by the following young ladies: Miss Annie A. Douglass of Orono, Miss Edna Clark of Waterville, Miss Helen C. Evans of Portland, Miss Abbie Cooper of Old Town, Miss Margaret Mullaney of Bangor, and Miss Abbie J. Wilson of Orono.

Hall's orchestra of Waterville furnished excellent music throughout the reception.

PHI GAMMA DELTA.

Monaghan's orchestra of Ellsworth furnished music for the reception at the Phi Gamma Delta house on Tuesday afternoon. The house was decorated for the occasion and the guests were received in the drawing room, while refreshments were served in the dining room.

The reception committee was divided into two parts, so as to allow all to attend the other receptions. On the first committee which served from 2 to 3.30 o'clock were the following: Mrs. C. A. Belcher, Mrs. Karl F. Harrington, Mrs. Edward C. Lyon, Charles M. Margesson, Mrs. Louis C. Southard, and Alpheus C. Lyon. The following composed the second committee: Mrs. J. N. Hart, Mrs. Ezra Sterns, Mrs. J. M. Bartlett, Mrs. Albert O. Brown, H. John Hinchliffe, and Herbert W. Sewall.

Miss Marjorie Brown and Miss Elsie Lyon of Bangor assisted in serving.

KAPPA SIGMA.

The guests at the Kappa house were received by the following committee: Mrs. Gilbert A. Drew, Mrs. Fred E. Sprague, Mrs. Freeland Jones, Mrs. A. A. Young, Fred E. Collins and Harold M. Carr.

Delightful refreshments were served during the afternoon by the following young ladies: Miss Lord, Miss Estabrooke and Miss Thurston of Bangor, Miss Bumps of Dexter and Miss Drummond of Portland.

SIGMA CHI ENTERTAINED.

Although there was no formal reception at the chapter house of the local chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity, the members of the chapter entertained a large number of their friends throughout the afternoon.

AT THE MT. VERNON HOUSE.

The first commencement reception to be given by Phi Gamma, the ladies' local society, was held at the Mt. Vernon house from 3 to 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The guests were received in the drawing room, while refreshments were served in the dining room at the other end of the spacious hall.

The receiving committee was divided into two sections, the first acting until 4.30 o'clock, and the second during the remainder of the afternoon. The first committee was composed of Mrs. M. C. Fernald, Mrs. E. A. Balentine, Mrs. T. B. F. Boland, Miss Knowles and Miss Boland. The second committee comprised Mrs. Amy E. Briggs, Mrs. J. N. Hart, Mrs. K. P. Harrington, Miss Rice and Miss Bussell.

The following assisted in serving refreshments during the afternoon: Miss Sleeper, Miss Fitzgerald, Miss Copeland, Miss Baisdell, Mrs. Fletcher, Miss Bean, Miss Cousins, Miss Allen and Miss Balentine.

These young ladies acted as ushers during the reception: Miss Hinckley, Miss Williams, Miss Florence Balentine, Miss Fraser, Miss Webber, Miss Powell, Miss Hamlin, Miss Carr, Miss Fellows, Miss Maxfield, Miss Burnham, Miss Wentworth, Miss Green and Miss Pope.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION.

Many hundreds of people from Bangor, Orono and Old Town attended the president's reception on Tuesday evening and the event proved to be as enjoyable as any held in former years. Although the threatening weather kept many people away from the affair, those who attended the event were delighted with the reception. The crowd that attended was handled in a most convenient way by being ushered to the house by the side door and departing through the front door.

The reception committee was stationed in the drawing room and consisted of Pres. and Mrs. Fellows, Hon. Henry Lord, president of the board of trustees and Mrs. Lord, Dr. and Mrs. Merritt C. Fernald, Prof. George E. Gardner, dean of the Law school, and Mrs. Gardner.

The guests were introduced to the reception committee by Clinton L. Cole, a member of the faculty of the university. Fred H. Vose, Guy A. Thompson, Archer L. Grover, and Edward R. Mansfield, all members of the faculty, assisted in entertaining the guests.

Light refreshments were served in two different rooms by Miss Gladys Fellows, daughter of Pres. and Mrs. Fellows, and Miss Linnie Spencer Lord of Orono. At the doors and landing at the staircase within, several members of the University of Maine cadet battalion in uniform were stationed to guide the guests.

Five members of Pullen's orchestra occupied the upper hall during the evening and played many pleasing selections.

The house was beautifully decorated with plants and evergreens and many cut flowers were placed in conspicuous places about the several rooms of the house.

FRATERNITY REUNIONS.

The local chapters of the Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Sigma, and Phi Gamma Delta fraternities held reunions and banquets on Tuesday evening while the Alpha Tau Omega and Sigma Chi chapters held informal affairs at which many alumni were present and a good time enjoyed.

THE BETA "DORG."

The University of Maine chapter of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity held its 27th annual reunion and "dorg" at its chapter house on the campus on Tuesday evening. After a fine dinner, Harris P. Gould, '93, of Washington, D. C., officiated as toastmaster and the following toasts were responded to by the alumni and active members of the chapter:

1902	Edward W. Delano, '02.

Vose, '00.

PHI GAMMA DELTA.

Prof. Horace M. Estabrooke, '76, acted as toastmaster at the annual reunion and banquet of the local chapter of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. The following toasts were responded to:

The Local Alumni	Albert H. Brown, '80.
The Law School	Thomas A. Anderson, '02.
Phi Gamma Delta	Harvey D. Whitney, '03.
The Alumni	Dr. W. A. Bumps, '75.
Our Chapter	Herbert T. Sewall, '02.

Several other informal toasts were responded to by alumni and undergraduate members of the chapter.

Many others were present besides those on the program as follows: Hon. Louis C. Southard, '75; Prof. James M. Bartlett, '80; Prof. F. L. Russell, '85; Prof. Howard S. Webb, '87; Maurice W. Powell, '99; Charles W. Mullen, '83; Dr. Harry Butler, '88; Joseph F. Gould, '82; E. J. Haskell, '72; H. S. French, '86; A. D. Houghton, '87; C. M. Hayes, '99; F. L. Small, '88.

KAPPA SIGMA.

The chapter house of Kappa Sigma was the scene of a most enjoyable reunion of alumni on Tuesday evening. Fred E. Collins, 1903, officiated as toastmaster and the following toasts were answered:

Progress of District I	Dr. J. S. Ferguson, '89.
Psi	Harry M. Carr, '02.
Alpha Rho	J. H. Folsom, Bowdoin.

Athletics	Alvin M. Watson, '02.
Boston Alumni Banquet	Charles A. Dillingham, '90.

Besides there were several impromptu remarks by members of the chapter and alumni. A delegation of Bowdoin Kappas was also in attendance.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

The 31st annual commencement exercises of the University were held in the chapel on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. Eight members of the class delivered their parts in a most creditable manner. Fifty-four members of the class received degrees from the academic department, 14 from the Law school and three from the short course in pharmacy.

The entire membership of the class formed in the gymnasium and marched into the chapel headed by Marshals Edwin B. Ross and Allen F. Wheeler, and occupied seats in the front of the auditorium. On the stage were Pres. George Emory Fellows, Hon. Henry Lord, president of the board of trustees, Prof. A. L. Aubert, E. J. Haskell, '72, and Charles F. Allen, '76.

Pullen's orchestra of ten pieces furnished excellent music throughout the exercises.

The following program was carried out:
Music.

The Lawyer: His Duty to Himself, to His Profession, and to the State, James O'Halloran, Bangor.
Value of a College Education..... Wesley Clarendon Elliott, Patten.

The Opportunity	Harold Malcolm Carr, Sangeville. Music.
Old Time Music.....	Lida May Knowles, Bangor.
The Lawyer of Today.....	George William Ritter, Monson, Mass. Music.
The Pursuit of Wealth.....	Patrick Edward McCarthy, Lewiston.
The Education of Man.....	Henry Ernest Cole, South Portland.
Anarchy in America.....	Arthur Elmer Silver, Silver's Mills. Music.
Conferring of Degrees.	Music.

COMMENCEMENT CONCERT.

Commencement exercises closed Wednesday night with the annual concert and ball held in the chapel and the drill hall. The affair was as pleasant a one as has been given for this season and was fully enjoyed by a large gathering of guests from the cities and towns surrounding Orono and from distant parts of the state.

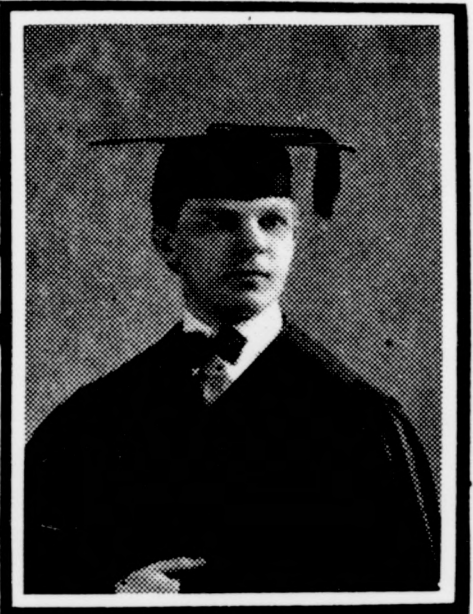

The concert which was given in the chapel by Pullen's orchestra and by Francis Archambault, basso cantate, of New York, was excellent and the audience gave evidence of its appreciation by hearty applause. William R. Chapman accompanied the singer. The dance in the drill hall across the corridor was started immediately after the last number on the program had been given, there being no long waits. Throughout the evening Floor Manager Edwin B. Ross kept things going along evenly and the order of 16 dances and two extras was carried through with the utmost success. The car service was the best that has been given and materially added to the comfort of the people from out of town.

DANCE BEGAN.

The concert lasted until shortly before 10 o'clock when the audience filed from the chapel and hurried across the long corridor to the big drill hall where the orchestra had taken its place for the evening. Programs were given out at once and within five minutes the music for the first dance was started. The floor was better than it has ever been, and, although the decorations were not especially elaborate they brightened up the big place and gave it a cosy appearance.

A short intermission was allowed a little before midnight, at which refreshments were served by Fox & Adams. It was too cold to allow of strolling on the campus, but the guests made themselves comfortable in the gallery and in cosy corners for the short rest. It was delightfully comfortable for dancing.

NEXT YEAR'S PRISM.

Preparations have been made for the publication of the next issue of the Prism by the election of Roy H. Flint as editor-in-chief and James H. Sawyer as business manager. Mr. Flint has not yet appointed his assistants but will do so as soon as possible.

CHANGES IN THE FACULTY.

Considerable business of importance was transacted at the meeting of the board of trustees held in the board's room in Alumni hall beginning at 9 o'clock Tuesday. Chief among the items considered was the establishment of a department of history with President Fellows as professor thereof and the election of Miss Caroline Colvin as assistant professor. Perley Walker, M. E., U. of M., '95, was elected professor of mechanical engineering, Prof. Walz was made acting dean of the law school, with E. M. Simpson, as instructor in law.

It was also voted to devote more work to the culture of English and public speaking and Pres. Fellows was authorized to engage an instructor for this branch.

Miss Caroline Colvin, Ph. D., who is elected instructor of history, is a graduate of the Indiana State Normal school in the class of 1891 and received her degree of Bachelor of Arts from the University of Indiana in the class of 1893. Miss Colvin had ten years' experience as an instructor in charge of the department of history at Fort Wayne, Ind.

She took postgraduate work at the University of Pennsylvania and has taken her degree of Ph. D. Her thesis upon a subject in Irish history received commendation from the president of the Royal Historical society of Great Britain and has gained for her an election to membership in the Royal Antiquarian society. Miss Colvin has also had the benefit of two years' study abroad.

Perley Walker, M. E., who is elected to the chair of mechanical engineering to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Prof. Walter Flint, is a graduate of the University of Maine, in the class of 1895. Prof. Walker was an instructor at the university until 1900, and in 1900 and 1901 took graduate work in naval architecture and marine engineering at Cornell university, where he received the master's degree last June. Since that time, Prof. Walker has been connected with the Newport News Shipbuilding Co. Prof. Walker will be prepared to give a course in marine engineering, which will be of a great advantage to students at the university.

PERLEY WALKER, Maine '95.
Who has been elected to chair of Mechanical Engineering.

Prof. William E. Walz, who is elected acting dean of the law school for one year has been an instructor in that department for the past two years. Previous to his coming to the law school, Prof. Walz studied and taught abroad. Since being connected with the university Prof. Walz has made many friends and has commanded the respect of every member of the school. E. M. Simpson, who is made instructor in law is a graduate of Bowdoin, '94, and has been lecturer at the law school for the past few years.

Yale and Pennsylvania have resumed baseball relations after a break of nine years.

There is a concerted movement among the Michigan colleges to do away with football.
