THE BETA PARTY

Friday, May 6, Alumni Hall was the scene of the last of the fraternity dances, that of the University of Maine chapter of Beta Theta Pi. All the conditions for a glorious good time were fulfilled, and everybody that attended surely enjoyed every minute of the evening.

The majority of the guests arrived at about 8.15, and were received by the patronesses and Mr. A. G. Taylor of the chapter. An efficient corps of ushers from the chapter assisted at the reception. Dancing began at about nine o'clock, when Mr. Pullen announced the first waltz, after which attractive dance orders were distributed. With a short intermission, an order of twenty dances was carried out. After the last waltz special cars took the guests to their homes.

The gymnasium was undoubtedly decorated more brilliantly and more beautifully than ever before in its history, and this fact of course assisted materially in making the time a success. The bulk of the decorations consisted of long evergreen strings dotted with incandescent lights of all colors. These gorgeous streamers were festooned to every beam and corner of the hall, with a final droop to the bower in the center of the floor. This bower was fashioned out of evergreen arches, and was lighted by Japanese lanterns. Within sat Mr. Pullen and his accomplished musicians. The balcony was draped with pink and blue bunting, the fraternity colors, while all over the hall were displayed myriads of silk flags. There were fraternity, national and signal flags, and flags of all nations. Four cosy corners added to the attractiveness of the decorations, and they were cosy indeed.

At the refreshment table Mrs. M. B. Rowe presided, and with the help of two maids dispensed fruit punch of a "Beta brew," which was nectar to the thirsty dancers.

Everything seemed to conspire to make the occasion one of the most enjoyable of the season. The evening costumes of the young ladies were especially attractive, the floor was excellent, Pullen was at his best, and there was a general congeniality of the whole company. During the dance before intermission and again during the last dance the lights were dimmed. All were still visible in their many colors, but so dim that it was a very dusky twilight. The music for these two dances was the Beta Theta Pi waltzes, arranged for orchestra by R. E. Lord, '06.

The patronesses were Mrs. W. P. Lowell, Mrs. W. A. Nelson, Mrs. G. E. Fellows, Mrs. M. B. Rowe, Mrs. H. A. Chapman, Mrs. A. P. Webster and Mrs. William Mac. Sawyer.

The committee from the chapter was A. G. Taylor, Ralph T. Hopkins, Frank McCullough, Alphonso Wood, J. Harvey McClure, Winfield D. Bearce and Ralph E. Lord.

DEDICATION OF HOLMES HALL

The program which will be followed on May 25 at the dedication of Holmes hall of agriculture will be as follows: In the morning there will be general inspection of all the buildings, laboratories and equipments of the University; professors and heads of the departments will be in charge for the purpose of explaining and conducting visitors through their respective departments; at 10.30 there will be military drill and sham battle by the military battalion. The exercises for the afternoon will open at one o'clock in the chapel. Addresses will be given by several members of the faculty and lantern slide views shown, illustrating the growth and development of the institution. Other speakers will be Hon. B. Walter McKeen of Freyburg, whose subject will be, Relation of the Organized Agriculture of Maine to the University. The dedicatory exercise will be delivered by Hon. S. L.

Boardman, the former secretary of the State Board of Agriculture. As a part of the exercises there will be the presentation of a handsome portrait of Dr. Holmes. Following the exercises there will be a baseball game between the varsity and Colby College.

THE NORTHFIELD STUDENT CONFERENCE, 1904

The nineteenth annual Northfield Student Conference will be held from Friday night, July 1, through Sunday night, July 10, 1904. This Conference is composed of about 1000 men who come together each year for Bible Study and discussion of Christian Work. The mornings and evenings are set aside for meetings and classes, the afternoons for athletic contests and social times. Many prominent athletes and college leaders are there and the numerous receptions and celebrations present a rare opportunity for men from the different colleges to get acquainted and for secondary school boys to meet fellows from their future alma maters. Some of the delegations are very large. Yale, for instance, including her sub-freshmen, had over 100 men at Northfield last year. Harvard, Princeton, Columbia, Cornell, etc., not quite so many, while Brown, Wesleyan and Williams had even more in proportion to their numbers.

The outline of the Conference consists in Platform Meetings by Mr. Robert E. Speer, New York City; Rev. Anson Phelps Stokes, Jr., Yale; Rev. Chas. Cuthbert Hall, D. D., New York; Rev. G. A. Johnston Ross, Cambridge, England; Prof. R. A. Falconer, Halifax, N. S.; Mr. John R. Mott and others; in Bible Study Courses under Mr. W. D. Murray, New York City; Mr. L. H. Miller, Princeton University; Prof. H. M. Tory, McGill University; Mr. Thornton B. Penfield, New York City; Prof. R. A. Falconer and Mr. C. C. Michener; in Mission Studies under J. L. Barton, D. D., Boston, and John Willis Baer of New York; and Life Work meetings held at sunset on Round Top hill.

The expenses during the period are not heavy.

Accommodations may be secured at the Northfield Seminary buildings for $12 for the entire stay; at Camp Northfield, which is open all summer, for $4.00 to $5.00 per week; and at "The Northfield," a first class mountain hotel, where many of the students entertain their relatives and friends. Reduced railway rates and limited opportunities for work further lessen the cost of attending the Conference. The gathering is strictly a student movement, originated by them, and managed by them, and it is the earnest wish that every college and preparatory school in the East will be represented there this summer.

ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING OF MUSICAL CLUBS

The annual business meeting and election of officers of the musical clubs was held May 3. The position of manager was given to Elmer J. Wilson, '07. The position is an especially responsible one owing to the fact that the abilities of the manager in a large nature determine the success of the clubs. Mr. Wilson possesses all the qualities of a good manager and the prospect for a repetition of the past season's work is very favorable. Other officers and leaders elected were as follows: W. H. Burke, '06, assistant manager; R. M. Foster, '07, secretary; R. H. Alton, '05, M. G. Newman, '06, press agents; G. P. Goodwin, '06, leader of the glee club; R. R. Drummond, '05, leader of the mandolin club; A. W. Sprague, '05, leader of the banjo orchestra.

The financial report of the clubs by Mr. Alton was one of the most satisfactory ever submitted. The report shows that in addition to the athletic dues of each member paid to the athletic association there remains a balance in the treasury to be divided among the members.

An indication of the reputation which the clubs have established this year is shown by an attractive offer which has been received by Manager Alton for a summer tour by a combined club of twenty members. The offer was a desirable one but did not allow sufficient time for preparing so large an amount of music.

THE DEUTSCHER VEREIN

A very interesting meeting was held by the Deutscher Verein the evening of May 4 at the home of Professor and Mrs. Huddilston. Mr. Sprague played a number of 'cello solos, and Prof. Harrington gave a talk on a bicycle trip which he had taken through Germany. This talk was especially interesting as it dealt at some length with the island of Rugen, a subject which has recently been brought to the attention of the reading public by means of a new book written by the author of "Elizabeth and Her German Garden."

It was decided to have a banquet at the end of the year, and Dr. Lewis, Miss Buck, '04 and Lord, '06, were chosen as the committee who should have charge of the arrangements. The members are looking forward to this affair with eagerness, as last year's banquet was such a success. Besides the regular members there will be several delegates it is hoped from "Der Deutscher Verein" at Bowdoin.

OMEGA LAMBDA UPSILON

The Omega Lambda Upsilon society, which was formed at the University last February, has gradually increased in membership, and at the present time numbers nineteen. The names of the members by classes are:

1904 — H. F. French, R. Averill, L. C. Smith.

1905 — C. J. Moody, E. L. Cotton, H. D. Cowles.

1906 — H. C. Elliott, S. Elliott, S. Cassey, C. J. Huen, H. L. Churchill, H. L. Abbott, M. J. Comerford.

1907 — W. B. Hurd, W. J. St. Onge, W. A. Sherman, R. E. Robinson, E. M. White, R. E. Bucknam.

MUSICAL NOTES

Last Wednesday Miss Flinch of Winterport sang a solo at chapel.

In the absence of Professor Harrington, the position of organist in chapel is being filled by Sprague, '05.

Miss Mary Winslow Bartlett recently sang at chapel exercises a solo from the "Holy City," which will be sung by the festival chorus in June.

It is perhaps thought that the business of the musical clubs is over for the season, but on the contrary it is not. Saturday evening, May 7, four men belonging to the musical clubs, and consisting of the "cream of the University of Maine Glee Club," as the "flyers" state, gave a concert at Lincoln. There was a fair-sized audience, and nearly every number was encored.

ONE of the latest accusations is that the college man is a barbarian. Won't somebody kindly bring in a charge of cannibalism?

AND still our language grows. The Boston Globe says: "Holy Cross College dartmouthed the Harvard nine Saturday in good shape." It is no wonder that the poor foreigner has a hard time in mastering our language as it is spoken.

THE lack of a suitable training table was only too plainly brought to light by last Saturday's meet at Waterville. In some of the events men fell out, or dropped, simply because they did not have the endurance, and this probably because of lack of proper food during the last two or three weeks. A training table is as essential to a winning team as a good coach.

AS a suggestion, would it not be a great benefit to athletics at this University to have a trainer the year round? There is no time during the college year but what there are some men in training for some branch or other of athletics. Would it not be a wise plan for the Trustees and the Athletic Association to cooperate and engage a competent man, as for instance our present track coach, as physical director and trainer? A man in such a position would be able to bring out more track material, especially in the line of "finds." Perhaps this may be good food for thought.

TOO much praise cannot be given to Coach Farrell for the interest that he has taken, and the work that he has done in developing the track team this spring. He has been on the field every forenoon and afternoon, rain or shine, and when not busily engaged coaching a bunch of runners, jumpers, or weight men, he has turned his attention to the track, runways, or pits. Never has Maine had a coach who has taken so much interest in the condition of the field as has "Steve" Farrell. His efforts for the comfort of the athletes have been tireless, and by them have been fully appreciated. Seldom, if ever, will a coach be found who will devote his spare time to manual labor on the track and field. Such interest and effort should not go unrecognized.

THERE is one branch of athletics that is sadly neglected at our University. Every year money is appropriated by the Athletic Association for football, baseball, track and tennis, but how many men are there who take the interest they should in the latter? A man cannot play tennis the first time that he tries. A good player has to be developed, and the trouble rests on this fact. There is only one remedy, and that is to take more interest. The more interest there is taken by the student body, the more men there will be who will try for the team, and these men will be getting just the development needed. Don't be discouraged because you are defeated for a place on the team one year or the next, but keep at it, and remember what keeping everlastingly at it brings.

WITH the announcement of the new faculty rules for next year, that of the approved tutor system will doubtless be hailed with joy. This system has been tried in the larger universities and colleges with great success. Certain students, for the most part seniors, are approved by the faculty as tutors. When a man is "stuck" in any particular subject, instead of having to take the work over in class, he may, with the consent of the faculty, study up the subject under some approved tutor. When in the mind of the tutor the man is prepared to take an examination, he reports it to the faculty, and the faculty then grant the man a special examination. There will also be other changes in rules in regard to notifications and dagger time, but just what these changes will be has not been fully decided.

One of the changes of the new football rules is that the drop kick and place kick count four points instead of five.

C. C. Garland was on the campus recently looking for a tutor for his son. They will spend the summer at Debsconeag.

E. C. Webster has returned from a two months' tour of Europe.

MODERN LANGUAGE ASSOCIATION

Professors Lewis and Segall, Messrs. Shute, Thompson and Edson members, of the faculty of the modern language and English departments, and Drummond, '05, attended the meetings of the Modern Language Association at Brunswick last Thursday and Friday. Prof. Lewis delivered a report on the methods in use at this University for teaching elementary German. A shore dinner at the New Meadows Inn on Friday evening was one of the pleasant features of the meetings. The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Prof. O. F. Lewis, University of Maine, pres.; Annie Torrey, Dartmouth High School, vice pres.; Prof. George C. Files, Bowdoin College, sec-treas.; Prof. Arthur M. Leonard, Bates College, Bertha Russell, Ricker Classical Institute, Bertha Soule, Bangor High School, executive committee.

McLanahan, Yale '05, in the Yale-Princeton dual track meet Saturday, May 7, broke the world's record in the pole vault, clearing the bar at 12 feet 1-2 inches.

LOCALS

Prof. O. F. Lewis left Monday to visit several of the fitting schools of Knox county.

Mrs. Charles Stebbins, president of the Delta Sigma sorority was visiting on the campus recently.

At a meeting of the tennis team held May 10, George T. Stewart was elected captain for the coming season.

President George E. Fellows, while in Rockland and Thomaston recently, visited the high schools of those places.

At a meeting of the faculty it was voted that henceforth the degree of B. A. will be granted in place of the degree of Ph. B. which is to be dropped.

Among the students who have left college for the remainder of the term are the following: H. W. Bachelder, '05, E. G. Day, '04, A. L. Beedle, '07.

The seventeenth annual meeting and banquet of the New England Intercollegiate Press Association will be held at the Copely Square Hotel, Boston, on May 23.

Prof. Karl P. Harrington was among the guests at the annual banquet of the Kotzschmar Club, Portland's musical club, at the casino at Riverton, last Thursday night.

Athletics at our University will be represented by an exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition, a part of the exhibit being pictures of the 1901 championship football, baseball and track teams.

The sophomore hop will be held in the gymnasium May 27. The committee of arrangements consists of W. H. Burke, G. P. Goodwin, F. R. Reed, Jr., E. D. Brawn and F. A. Banks.

At a meeting of the building committee of Lord Hall held recently the contract for the heating of the hall and the forges for the shop was awarded to the Sturtevant Heating Co., of Boston.

Colby evidently fully expected to win from us last Friday. The students had all learned a song entitled "Maine am in de cold, cold Ground"; libretto by Charles Phillips Chipman, '06.

It is interesting to note that three of the members of Dr. Fernald's class in Pedagogy have secured positions as school superintendents: G. R. Anthony, '05, Lincoln; H. L. Hofstead, North Anson; L. H. Johnstone, Milford.

George C. Purington, Jr., Bowdoin, '04, was on the campus last week selling Maine arm bands. The bands are of blue felt with a white M, and are worn over the coat sleeve. They are a great improvement over the old style of wearing a ribbon or badge.

The last meeting of the Deutscher Verein for the season will be the occasion of the annual banquet, May 18. The affair will be held at The Alpha, Bangor. An invitation has been extended to the Deutscher Verein at Bowdoin to send delegates to this annual dinner.

Ground has been broken for the Sigma Alpha Epsilon chapter house and in all probability the foundation will be completed by commencement time. The location is an ideal one for a fraternity house, being near the University buildings and of easy access from the street railway.

The result of the Dexter-Second game which was played at Dexter, Saturday, May 7, shows that there are some snappy players other than those on the varsity. Although the team was defeated those who saw the contest give much praise to the second for playing a very brilliant game.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Athletic Association held Monday evening, May 9, the following board of officers for the ensuing year was recommended: G. K. Huntington, president; A. W. Collins, vice president; F. A. Banks, secretary; Prof. W. D. Hurd, acting treasurer.

Students in the two lower classes who have been enthusiastic over the idea of a half holiday on ball game days had their enthusiasm somewhat cooled at the announcement from the military department that it would be necessary to lengthen the drill period to one and one-quarter hours on those weeks.

One of the many indications of the steady advance and growth in popularity of the University is shown in the flourishing advertisement which is being circulated for the sale of a new foot gear, styled the U. of M. Shoe. We have already furnished the brand for a fragrant ten-cent cigar. What next?

A very encouraging fact revealed by the score card of the class meet is that the team will not suffer very severely by graduation. The totals show that the seniors took but 17 out of 126 points. The only serious losses to the team will be in Captain Parker and Lawrence whose places in the pole vault, broad jump and two-mile run will be hard ones to fill.

At a recent meeting of the faculty it was voted that the intermediate courses in German and French, Gm 2a and 2b and Rm 2a and 2b be dropped from the curriculum. Students on entering will be expected to present two years of modern languages and will be required to take but two credits in modern languages instead of four as at present.

Although it is hard to keep up the interest in anything like educational meetings at this season of the year when everyone is interested in athletics, the Junior Mechanical and Electrical Society held one of its most successful meetings May 2. The subjects and the speakers for the evening were as follows: Electric Furnaces, A. W. Weeks; Calcium Carbide, L. A. Thomas; Nernst Lamp, B. H. Chatto.

The committee in charge of the commencement concert has announced that Edward Barrow, the famous English tenor, has been secured as soloist for the occasion. Pullen's orchestra will furnish music for the commencement ball which follows the concert. The concert is to be held this year June 8th. The committee in charge consists of A. R. Small, I. M. Bearce, Philip Dorticos, E. C. Clifford and A. L. Jordan.

The Philological Club held a very interesting meeting at Wingate Hall, Monday evening, May 2. The subjects and the speakers of the evening were as follows: Quintillian's Use of Connectives, Miss Florence Ballentine; Apokokyms of Seneca, T. F. Taylor; Cyrano de Bergerac, Prof. J. B. Segall. This meeting closed a very successful season of the club. During the last year the meetings have been well attended and the subjects presented in a very instructive manner.

Professor R. K. Jones had a narrow escape from what might have proved a very serious if not fatal accident at the inter-class meet last Saturday. It was during the trials for the discus throw that the accident occurred, the discus on being returned from a throw landed in the midst of the crowd who were witnessing the event. Professor Jones was the unfortunate victim, the discus striking him a glancing blow over the left eye, which necessitated several stitches to close the wound.

At a meeting of the Deutscher Verein held at the home of Professor Huddilston, May 4, it was voted to procure the club medals. The medal is the size of a half-dollar, with the stamp of the German eagle on one side while on the opposite side is the German monogram of the Deutscher Verein with a place for the initials of the wearer. Around the monogram next to the rim is the inscription, University of Maine, 1902. The general design of the medal conforms to those adopted by the Harvard and Bowdoin Deutscher Verein. The medals form a very pretty pendant for a watch fob.

R. S. Sherman, '06, is in Buffalo attending the International Convention of the Y. M. C. A., and the Eastern Student Presidents' Conference as a delegate from the University Y. M. C. A. At the several meetings of the convention and conference there will be men of prominence from all branches of the work from different parts of the world. The Student Presidents' Conference is held each year just after the annual election of officers of the various college associations and has for its object the preparing of the newly elected presidents for the year's work. Bowdoin, Colby and Bates have sent delegates.

The question, Was Hamlet Insane when He Murdered King Claudius, which was argued by the law students in the chapel, May 5, attracted a large number of students. The affair was conducted under the auspices of the University Debating Society, the judges and jury being chosen from the members of that organization. The affirmative was supported by A. S. Crawford, and the negative by L. G. C. Brown. After an interesting argument on both sides of the question the jury decided the weight of argument to be in favor of Mr. Brown, that Hamlet was perfectly sane and therefore guilty of murder. The judges, whose decision lay upon the merits of the argument, decided in favor of Mr. Crawford. The jury was composed of E. B. Crowley, foreman; J. H. Quimby, Geo. H. Hayter, J. T. Bates, F. O. Stevens, H. A. Emery, G. R. Tarbox, E. A. Stanford, C. H. Sampson, R. W. E. Kingsbury, R. S. Sherman and A. J. Butterworth. The judges for the merits of the argument were C. G. Chase, C. S. Chaplin, and G. R. Anthony.

ATHLETICS

MAINE INTERCOLLEGIATE MEET

The fastest track team which ever represented the University of Maine met the teams from the other three Maine colleges at Waterville last Saturday and lost to the best team Bowdoin has ever produced by what might in all fairness be called a narrow margin. We lost not because the men in the white and blue did not strain every nerve and muscle to win, not because the band and the rest of the loyal Maine aggregation in the grand stand did not do their utmost to put strength into weary legs and snap into aching arms, but because we were competing in a record-breaking meet and Bowdoin was just fast enough to snatch the victory from us. The disqualification of Currier in the low hurdles was a piece of hard luck, and no doubt robbed us of five points, but the judges decided that he ran around one hurdle in the trials, which would of course disqualify him and we must look upon it as one of the misfortunes of war and bear it accordingly.

The Colby track was in the best of condition, and although its shape was more or less of a handicap to men used to a track like our own, it was certainly a fast one, as the records in the quarter mile and the 220-yard run show.

The most exciting contest of the meet was in the 440, upon which considerable money changed hands. Maine men placed great confidence in their two fast freshmen, Wyman and St. Onge, while Bowdoin was equally confident of Weld and Everett, and the crowd went frantic when after a heart-breaking fight they came around the last corner neck and neck. As they passed the grand stand it was evident that Weld was a trifle too much for the boy from Skowhegan, but Wyman was game and fought his way in a close second. The time, 51 4-5 seconds, beats the state record by 1 2-5 seconds.

The mile and the two mile were heart-breaking races, and were run in good time.

Thomas ran a pretty race in the mile, keeping his usual easy stride until the last lap, when he put on steam and took the lead, keeping ahead until the last turn where Lane of Bates and Shorey of Bowdoin gradually pulled by him by him and captured first and second. Time 4.49.

The two mile was practically easy for Shorey and Robinson of Bowdoin. The Maine men no doubt missed Lawrence's leadership, but it cannot be denied that the pace was too hot for them. Robertson who is a new man this year, ran a game race and finished third by a good margin. Lane of Bates tried a little pace making, but was promptly disqualified.

Bates came in for another first place in the half, when Capt. Flanders crossed the tape just ahead of Shorey of Bowdoin, with Pete Chaplin of Maine in third position.

Bates Bowdoin's crack sprinter, was pitted against Porter in the dashes, and won first in each. Porter got a poor position in the hundred, which accounts in a great measure for his inability to do the distance in 10-2 as he has easily done many times.

yards, and Henderson—also of Bowdoin—took third in the 220.

Currier and McClure had a walk-over for first and second in the high hurdles, but luck was against us in the low hurdles, Currier disqualifying in the trials, leaving it all in Bowdoin's hands.

In the weights the Maine men did even better than was expected of them. The invincible Denning took first in the shot and hammer, breaking his former state record in the shot by 9 1-2 inches, and his New England record in the hammer by nearly 10 feet. His team mate, Small, was an easy second in both events, while Neil Violette surprised every one by taking third in the shot, and Eddie Bearce came next to Small in the hammer. Weymouth gave the Maine delegation a pleasant surprise by putting the discus out 105 feet for first place. Judge Parker took second and Denning had to be content with third.

Shaw and Soderstrom easily out-jumped the bunch in the high jump and tied for first place at a comparatively low mark, while Bean of Colby surprised himself by beating Goodwin for second.

Parker, Shaw and Rogers had everything their own way in the pole vault, Winchell of Bowdoin being the only one who was able to make Rogers work for third. Judge Parker was kept busy first at the broad jump and then at the pole vault, but after winning first in the pole vault and second in the jump, he ended his last state meet with a try for the record in the vault, and just as Bowdoin's band with the Bowdoin rooters in tow were passing the vaulting pit, in their triumphal march around the track, "Old Judge" sailed over the bar at 10 ft. 8 in., beating the state record by 1 1-8 in.

This was the last scene in one of the fastest meets ever held between the Maine colleges. Five State records were broken, while Denning went 10 ft. ahead of the New England record in the hammer, and Bates equalled it in the 220 yd. dash. Parker of Maine and Denning of Bowdoin tied for the individual championship with 11 points each.

The Maine team put up a game fight, Wyman,

Thomas, Robertson and Chaplin especially making heroic efforts for their points, but Bowdoin's fast men and good luck were a little too much for us, and it was a quiet but not at all disheartened crowd which took the special for Bangor after the meet. The summary:

One-mile run—Won by Lane of Bates; 2nd, Shorey of Bowdoin; 3rd, Thomas of Maine. Time 4m 49s.

Quarter-mile run—Won by Weld of Bowdoin; 2nd, Wyman of Maine; 3rd, Everett of Bowdoin. Time 51 4-5s.

100-yard dash—Won by Bates of Bowdoin; 2nd, Porter of Maine; 3rd, Doherty of Bowdoin. Time 10 2-5s.

120-yard hurdle—Won by Currier of Maine; 2nd, McClure of Maine; 3rd, Ross of Colby. Time 17 1-5s.

Half-mile run—Won by Flanders of Bates; 2nd, A. C. Shorey of Bowdoin; 3rd, Chaplin of Maine. Time 2m 6 3-5s.

220 yard dash—Won by Bates of Bowdoin; 2nd, Porter of Maine; 3rd, Henderson of Bowdoin. Time 22 1-5s.

Two-mile run—Won by P. R. Shorey of Bowdoin; 2nd, Robinson of Bowdoin; 3rd, Robertson of Maine. Time 10m 36 3-5s.

220-yard hurdle—Won by Rowe of Bowdoin; 2nd, Bass of Bowdoin; 3rd, Porter of Bowdoin. Time 29 4-5s.

Running high jump—Tie between Shaw and Soderstrom of Maine at 5ft 1 3/4 in; Bean of Colby third.

CLASS MEET

Students at this University remember no more successful or faster class meet than that on Alumni Field, May 7. From the start of the hundred it was evident to onlookers that many Maine creords were liable to be broken. And so they were. In the quarter, Wyman, a freshman, made the remarkable time of 52 1-5 seconds, thus breaking the previous record. Only a little later H. A. Thomas, '05, established a new record in the mile run, finishing the four laps after a pretty and close race in 4 min. 55 2-5 sec. But it was in the high jump that Shaw demonstrated the fact that he was probably the best high jumper in the State by clearing 5 ft. 9 1-8 in., and Parker bettered his previous records in the pole vault to the extent of vaulting 10 ft. 11 in. The last two records at least will probably hold good at this University for some time..

It was evident to those present that the sophomores excelled greatly in athletic lines. At no time were they pressed closely by the other classes, and Porter, Currier and Weymouth were able to increase the score by the addition of many first places. At the close of the meet the sophomores had 62 points to their credit, the juniors 33, the seniors 17, and the freshmen 14.

BOWDOIN 3, MAINE 0

Through ragged fielding and inability to fathom Cox's delivery Maine lost the first championship game with Bowdoin by a score of 3-0. It was a pitchers' battle, and Cox had a little of the better of it from the start, but Frost pitched a remarkable game, and although nine hits were made off him it is probable that but for costly errors in the field the score would have been 0-0 at the end of the 9th inning.

The day was almost an ideal one, and about 600 people witnessed the game, which although devoid of anything sensational, was interesting from start to finish.

Bowdoin went out in order in the first, and Captain Mitchell, the first man up for Maine, got a pretty single but was caught between first and second on Collin's in-field fly. Violette was out at first, and this ended Maine's hopes of scoring until the ninth.

In the fourth, with Wiggin on third, Violette threw wild to second in an attempt to catch Kinsman, the ball rolling to center field, while Wiggin and Kinsman trotted home. Piper came in from second on McDonald's fumble in the sixth, making Bowdoin's third score.

Cox got a single in the seventh, and Gould and Piper each one in the eighth, but Frost was to much for the men following them and they were unable to score.

With two men out in the ninth, Gussie Mitchell drove a clean two-bagger to center, and for a moment it looked like a garrison finish, but Collins hit an easy one to Cox and all was over.

MAINE 5, BOWDOIN 4

Just as the last events in the interclass meet were being pulled off, and every Maine man was jubilant over the showing made by the track team, came the news that the baseball team had won from Bowdoin, and before the result of the broad jump was settled, Boliver was flying at full mast from the goal posts over by the north straight-away, and calmly assuring the happy crowd that "it is a long lane that has no turning."

For the second time in a week, Jack Frost and Jimmy Cox were pitted against each other, and the day was all Jack's. Although only six hits were made off Cox to eight off Frost, Cox allowed the Maine players four consecutive hits and one base on balls in the second, while Frost put on steam and retired his men when hits meant runs.

Mitchell scored the first run for Maine in the first on errors by Gould and Wiggin. White, the first man up for Bowdoin, was hit by a pitched ball, went to second on Stone's sacrifice, and scored on Clark's two-bagger. A single by Cox and a sacrifice by Wiggin scored Clark, and with the score 2-1 in favor of Bowdoin the "farmers" solved the invincible Cox in the second for four safe hits and a base on balls, netting three runs. Captain Mitchell brought in the fourth score on a mix-up between Piper and White.

An error by Burns, a two-base hit by Clark, and a single by Hodgson gave Bowdoin two runs in the seventh, but that ended the scoring. The Maine team fielded well and hit the ball when hits counted, while Bowdoin was a little off color in both departments. The score:

Dexter High school defeated the second team at Dexter, Saturday, May 7, in a close and interesting game. Quint was in the box for the second team and pitched good ball until the very last when he weakened somewhat. Kingsland caught a good game and batted well, while Wood put up a clean, snappy game at first. The summary:

BATES 5, MAINE 2

Costly errors at critical times and rather weak work with the stick gave Bates her first game with Maine on Auburn A. A. field last Thursday. Capt. Doe for Bates and Frost for Maine pitched good ball but Doe had a little the best of the support, for Maine errors came at critical points.

The first three men up for Maine got first on an error by Kendall and two by Doe, and with three men on bases Larrabee fled to Rounds, scoring Mitchell, and Hosmer sent Collins home with a pretty liner by third. Burns struck out, Violette was caught off third and Maine's first time at bat was finished with two runs to the good. Three hits failed to net Bates any runs and the score at the end of the first was Maine 2, Bates 0.

A three bagger by Kendall, singles by Rogers and Bowers and an error gave Bates three runs and the lead in the third.

In the last of the seventh Kendall and Austin hit safe; Kendall stole second and Austin stole third, scoring on McDonald's error. Bates 4, Maine 2.

Maine went out in one, two, three order in the eighth. Rounds for Bates was hit by a pitched ball, took first and second when Larrabee muffed Bowman's pop fly. Maine failed to score in the ninth and the game ended 5-2 in favor of Bates.

COLBY 3, MAINE 0

Colby College and the University of Maine met on the Colby diamond on Friday afternoon for their first game of the season and Colby came off victorious, mainly because of the great work of John Coombs in the box for Colby. The Maine men could do nothing with Coombs' delivery, and he was hit safely only three times. Shortly after the game commenced the crowd was augmented by the arrival of the members of the Maine track team, accompanied by a large number of students, and from that time on the Colby supporters had to exert themselves to make their cheers heard.

Although the story of the game in itself is mainly a story of the great work of Coombs, the Maine team has little cause to be ashamed of the showing it made. Mitchell pitched a heady game, Larrabee fielded almost impossible balls, and "Pat" Collins handled everything that came his way.

Probably Colby did not earn a single run, and the three secured resulted from men being advanced around the bases by untimely errors, and being scored on a lucky hit. In this way Colby got two tallies in the fourth and one in the fifth. Since the only scoring done was in these two innings perhaps a detailed account of them would not be out of place. In Colby's half of the fatal fourth Willey was the first man up and got first on a grounder to short. Leighton followed, forcing Willey out at second but getting first. Pugsley was up next and flied out to McDonald. With two out Craig met one of Mitchell's curves for a pretty single to left field, Leighton going to second. A passed ball advanced each a base. Then Pile cracked out a pretty single scoring both Leighton and Craig amid the deafening cheers of the crowd. Reynolds was up next and was an easy out, short to first.

In her half of the fifth Colby was out for yet more runs. Coombs was up first and cracked out a pretty single to left. Cowing flied out to McDonald, Newman sent a grounder to Bird and got first in the shuffle that followed, Coombs going to second. Willey sent a slow one to Mitchell, was retired at first and two were out, although Newman and Coombs each advanced a base. Leighton hit a slow one to second and Coombs scored, but Newman was caught at the plate retiring the side.

This ended the scoring for the game, although both teams placed men on the bases at different times. Maine's inability to score must be laid to Coombs' effective delivery; Colby's inability to score more than three tallies, to the fine work of Mitchell, Violette, Larrabee and Collins.

West Point's football schedule shows that West Point plays Harvard, Yale and Princeton in a space of three weeks' time.

Three of the college thieves that have been operating in the universities of the East, have been caught and are held in Boston awaiting trial.

At Northwestern University the students have decided to wear flannel shirts and old clothes in order to show that they are not "dudes."

There is satisfaction in "Boston Made" clothes.
