COLLEGE HONOR REGULATION

The Senior Skulls have prepared a schedule for the regulation of the number of college activities which may be carried by a student at one time. The following has been drawn up because it has been the consensus of opinion that certain men from time to time in the University have been overloaded with outside work which has been a detriment not only to themselves but to the college activity which they represented. This schedule aims to overcome this evil so far as is possible by limiting the work borne by the student so that greater efficiency may be obtained in the various departments of student interests.

The table is herewith printed in order that each student may become familiar with it and thus be in a position to vote intelligently on its rejection or acceptance when presented formally to the student body.

It is to be noted that this method is not entirely new in the college world at large for it is at present in very successful operation in the leading educational institutions in the country in slightly varying forms.

1. The maximum number of points carried by a student at one time shall not exceed 11, and any deviation shall be referred to the Student Council.

2. This system of the division of college activities shall be under the supervision of the Student Council, understanding that no subsequent changes shall be made by that body without the consent of the Student Body.

3. This schedule shall not go into effect until the beginning of the Fall Semester of 1909, understanding that it shall not conflict with any election of students to college activities prior to that time.

4. Membership in the dramatic club shall be interpreted to mean having an active part in the play.

DRAMATICS

Once more the University of Maine is represented by a premier Dramatic club which has made a "hit" at the very beginning. This year one of Shakespeare's most delightful comedies, "Much Ado About Nothing" has been selected and the way in which the different fellows take their parts shows ability, earnestness and practice.

After a winter spent in study and rehearsals under the instruction of Prof. Daggett, it is safe to say that the club is one of the most successful of college activities. The recent trip including Brewer, Dexter, Guilford, Waterville, and Portland certainly justifies this statement for each night the play was witnessed by large and enthusiastic audiences. The different towns and cities gave the fellows the best of good times and it is safe to say hereafter that the University of Maine Dramatic Club will be a yearly visitor.

With such men as "Tom" Fassett, "Bill" Haines, "Tubby" Gilbert, and "Reddy" Wakefield in the leading parts, nothing but the best could be expected and there is no need of explaining the merits of these fellows for their abilities are well known. In passing it would be only fair to speak of the feminine side of the show. To be sure the co-eds are not members of the club but when Frank Petty dons feminine attire, a more demure young lady never graced the stage. Oliver Sevens takes the part of Hero and he makes a most charming daughter of the sedate Leonato; Frank Shatney, as Ursula, demonstrates his ability to play feminine parts in the most approved manner and appears as one of the leaders in the feminine contingent.

The important part of Leonato is taken by Merton Sumner and although this is his first appearance with the club he has developed rapidly and bids fair to become one of the best. Newell Whitcomb, as the friar, is a fine churchman and he missed his calling when he didn't adopt the church as a profession. "Cy" Gardner has the part of Borrachio and plays it extremely well, while Frank Southard and Ralph Flint are ideal sixteenth century watchmen. Harold B. Wood acts the part of Antonio and Cecil Lycette appears as Don John, the brother of Don Pedro. Herman P. Sweetsir is a city officer and depicts the ability of such to "graft." in true sixteenth century style. "Deac" Parsons takes the part of Conrade, one of the adherents of Don John and he is certainly a true partisan.

This production will be staged Junior Week Week in the gym and it is at this time when the college as a whole, will have a chance to see the entire club.

It is not necessary to make prophecies in regard to the excellence of the play for its predecessors in years past have gone beyond the best of expectations and this year is no exception.

BASEBALL

Next Saturday, April 29th, Maine plays the first regular game of the season with Kent's Hill at Orono. The coach will undoubtedly take advantage of the opportunity to give nearly every man on the squad a chance to show what he can do, and the work of the men in this game will decide to a large extent who goes with the team on the Massachusetts trip. The game will probably open with the following line-up which will be shifted early in the game to try out the new men.

Smith or Richardson. ....	Catcher
Libby. ....	Pitcher
Mayo. ....	1st Base
French. ....	2d Base
Coombs. ....	Short Stop
Higgins. ....	3rd base
Fulton. ....	Center Field

While it is early in the season to do much prophesying, till, after seeing the men tried out Saturday one should begin to get a line on what Maine's prospects are for this year. Every man, knowing that his chances of making the Mass. trip depend on his playing Saturday is sure to do his best, and, with the competition which exists for every position, it is going to be fast, snappy game as far as Maine is concerned.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Athletic Association held last week it was voted to amend the by-laws so that numerals shall be awarded to the winners in each of the singles and doubles in the Southard Tennis Medal contests. G. A. Hall '10, of Brewer, was elected manager of the track team for the remainder of the season to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of E. S. Berry, '10, of Malden, Mass.

The M was awarded for basketball to F. G. Wadsworth '10, W. M. Black '09, G. A. Stuart '10, R. C. Marshall '11, N. N. Scales '11, V. J. Clark '12 and H. L. Farwell '09. The election of R. C. Marshall '11, of Wellesley, Mass., as captain was ratified and A. S. Moore of Lynn, Mass., was chosen manager for next season.

Y. M. C. A.

The Young Men's Christian Association held its annual election of officers at the last meeting before the spring recess. I. M. Stover, '10, was chosen president to fill the place vacated by B. A. Chadler, '09; H. R. Sargent, '11, was elected vice-president; J. L. Whitmore, '10, secretary; and M. D. Jones, '12, treasurer. President Stover has appointed most of the committees for the coming year and great efforts will be made to increase the strength and influence of the Association in the University. A strenuous campaign will be waged next fall to obtain a good-sized enrollment of men who will appreciate the objects and the work of the Association, and who will maintain an active interest in this organization.

During the last few years it has been largely extending its work and many new departments which have developed have proved very successful. A few lines, however, have failed to bring forth the best results and it is quite likely that these will be dropped and the work be concentrated on having an active membership and spreading the Bible study so that it will include a greater number of students in interesting and well-attended classes.

SOPHOMORE HOP.

The Sophomore Hop committee, consisting of A. H. Hart, L. E. Drew, W. E. Parsons, T. E. Houghton, and G. A. Phillips, is busy with the preparations for this function, one of the most brilliant during the whole college year, which will be held in the Gymnasium next Friday evening. The Hop and the Junior Prom are by far the most important and the most largely attended dances of the year and every effort is put forth by the classes to make them memorable social events.

A large body of the Sophomores will begin to decorate the gymnasium Thursday evening, as the arrangement of the color scheme, which will be blue and white, will require much time and care. The committee have several unique features which they will bring out Friday evening. The guests will be received in the Chapel by President and Mrs. Fellows, Dean and Mrs. Stevens, and Robert C. Marshall, president of the class. During intermission refreshments will be served in the gym. Pullen's orchestra of twelve pieces will furnish the music for an order of twenty-eight dances. Very neat invitations have been sent to the upperclassmen.

On Saturday evening April 10, the Juniors of Delta Tau Delta fraternity entertained representatives of the Junior class at an informal dancing party. The orders were dainty affairs in crimson and white the class colors. Music was furnished by members of the house orchestra. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by everyone.

EDITORIAL.

THE present CAMPUS Board retires with this issue. In our connections with the CAMPUS the year has passed very uneventfully and no changes have been made. The system as now used, of having a Managing Editor, an Alumni Editor, a Law School Editor, and an Exchange Editor, was established during the latter part of the previous year. This arrangement of editors seems to be the most satisfactory of any that can be made, and during the past year it has well proven its worth.

There are however several features of THE CAMPUS which will bear considerable improvement and perhaps, for the good of the paper and those interested in it, these features should be cited. The first and probably the most vital is that there should be more reading matter per size of issue. In an institution of our size there is no lack of suitable and interesting subjects for a college paper. These subjects should be written up in more detail and more emphasis should be laid on the subjects which are in reality of great interest to the student body. At present, the reason that they are not written up at greater length is obvious. The cost of printing is high, the subscription list small, and the advertising rates are low. To keep the CAMPUS on a basis where it will pay for itself, as it must, more space for reading matter cannot be given.

The second objectionable feature is the form in which THE CAMPUS is printed. As it now appears it is in the form of a literary magazine or a High School paper. It is obviously wrong for a University to send out its paper in such a form. THE CAMPUS makes no pretensions of being a literary magazine and is in the strictest sense a newspaper. Should the form be changed to that of a newspaper, as may be readily accomplished, much will have been done to improve the appearance of the paper at least.

The third feature which may be changed with advantage is that of having it come out at more frequent intervals. This objection may be readily coupled with the first as it bears on the same subject, and its remedy will also include the remedy of the second objection. There is without any doubt enough subject matter for a paper of the same size were it published two or three times a week. It is equally true that being published only once a week all of the subject matter can not be written up in the way that it should. To remedy this THE CAMPUS should be published twice a week at least, and this could be accomplished if the CAMPUS assumed the form of newspaper. In this form it would have more space for reading matter and more space for advertisements. The increase of cost would be very slight, for which, the increased room for advertisements would more than pay. Bearing this in mind it would seem that the logical thing for THE CAMPUS to do, if it is to represent this University as such an institution should be represented, is to change its form and appear at least twice a week.

There are doubtless many other points along which THE CAMPUS could change to much advantage but those cited seem to be the principle difficulties that are in the way of making it the success that it should be. When these points have been overcome much will have been accomplished and then THE CAMPUS will more truly represent the University of Maine as such an institution should be represented.

HEAD OF GERMAN DEPARTMENT.

Prof. Robert A. Crowell, of Amherst, Mass., whom the death of Prof. Carr has called to take charge of the German department, has had considerable experience in various colleges and schools of the Middle West. He graduated from Amherst College in 1889. From 1889 to 1892 he was an instructor in German at Lincoln College, Lincoln, Ill. Then he taught for four years in the Central High School, Columbus, O. From 1896 to 1898 he traveled and studied abroad taking courses in the University of Goettingen. On his return Prof. Crowell again went to Lincoln College, until 1902 when he went as professor of German to Waynesburg College, Waynesburg, Pa. In 1908 he took the degree of M. A. at Harvard, after a year of work in the Graduate School.

Miss Elizabeth R. Estabrooke '08 was the soloist in chapel last Thursday.

LAW SCHOOL NOTES

Dean Walz and wife left for an extended tour in the old country April 5th. Dean Walz has worked so hard and faithfully in the Law School that he is broken down in body and spirit and surely need a well deserved vacation.

The Friday before the Dean left, the students assembled with Mr. Snow in the chair and presented him with a beautiful, open faced, Howard watch. On the inside was engraved "William Emanuel Walz, from the students of the University of Maine Law School" Upon this gift being presented Dean Walz was greeted with cheers and applause to which he replied with a well worded speech the gist of which was in regards to his high admiration of the Law School and of the students. Prof. Simpson was then called upon for speech to which he replied expressing his great regard for the unanimous way the school had showed their affection for the Dean.

Mr. Worster was then called upon and gave a brief speech showing his appreciation in the way the students treated the faculty. Mr. Brooks then gave a talk expressing the sentiment of the school in that he hoped the Dean would return with renewed vigor and strength. Mr. Snow then closed with some very appropriate remarks. Great credit is due to the committee on presentation which consisted of Mr. Snow, Mr. Cartier and Mr. Halliday. Among other places of interest Dean Walz will visit "Yermany" The Sphinx, and the home of the late Oscar Wilde.

At a recent meeting of the assembly a new assembly was created. Mr. Mitchell was elected president, Mr. Doak vice-president, and Mr. Campbell, secretary and treasurer. Mr. Hosmer, Mr. Doak and Mr. Elmasion were selected to serve as an executive committee.

The Maine Law Review held their annual election at the Law School April 2, Mr. Mitchell was elected Editor in Chief in Mr. Halliday's place, Mr. Gould Managing Editor in Mr. Snow's place, Mr. Hosmer, Mr. Caplan and Mr. Getchell associated editors to fill the vacancies created by the graduation of Mr. Kiernan and Mr. Fitz-

Randolph, Mr. Clancy and Mr. Bass holding over as associate editors.

The Law School recently enjoyed two lectures by the Honorable Isaac W. Dyer of Portland, U. S. District attorney, Mr. Dyer was received with great enthusiasm by the students.

MOOT COURT DIVISION.

N. F. LINWOOD & Co.
v.

PENOBSCOT TRADES AND LABOR ASSEMBLY AND OTHERS
Before Judge J. B. Perkins, Justice.

STATEMENT OF FACTS.

The complainant had an office in Portland with branches in Lewiston and Bangor, and was engaged in the wholesale fruit business. Complainant sought an injunction against the Penobscot Trades & Labor Assembly of Bangor, and against certain officers of the same and other men affiliated with them. Complainant was doing a large business in New England, but had been declared unfair by the New England Federation of Labor, owing to some difficulty it had with its employees. The action of the New England Federation of Labor was endorsed by the defendants in the resolution passed Oct. 10, 1908, and declaring complainant unfair. The entire matter was referred by defendants to their grievance committee, with instructions to inform the public of Penobscot County of the action taken. This grievance committee with the approval and subsequent ratification by the defendants, issued a widely read circular reading as follows:—

UNFAIR.

"All laboring men and those in sympathy with organized labor are requested not to patronize Linwood & Co. who are engaged in the wholesale fruit business, also distributors for cigars and vegetables of all kinds in Bangor and vicinity as they are unfair. We urge the retail merchants, laboring men and all who are in sympathy with organized labor to place themselves in position to patronize friendly wholesalers. We further desire to call the attention to the fact that Linwood & Co. are operating peddling wagons throughout this city, and we ask the people to guard against patronizing these wagons. We ask this for your own protection, and the protection of organized labor.

(Signed) Penobscot Trades and Labor Assembly.

The business done by complainant in Bangor and vicinity immediately fell off, owing to the failure of the retail merchants to patronize them, and also owing to the Union men generally not patronizing complainant, (2) N. F. L. Co. vs. P. T. & L. A. & O. nor patronizing any one else that would patronize them. Great financial loss was thus sustained by the complainant by the reason of the circulars sent out. This was the direct and intended result of the boycott, which boycott was effective, though no use was made of pickets, banners, or placards. Complainant succeeded to the proof of the above facts to have an injunction issued which read as follows:—

"You are hereby restrained and enjoined, until the further order of this court, or the judge thereof, from in any manner, directly or indirectly, interfering with or obstructing the business of complainant in the City of Bangor, and vicinity, of in any manner interfering with any of the patrons of the complainant from trading or dealing with the complainant, or by threats, abuse, intimidation, or other means calculated or intended to interfere with the said business of the complainants; from declaring the complainant unfair, or from boycotting the complainant or from printing, publishing, circulating, posting, or distributing any circulars, posters, handbills, or other written or printed matter containing opprobrious or injurious epithets against said complainant or its business; from interfering with, intimidating, boycotting, molesting, or threatening in any manner the patrons or customers of the complainant, or any other person or persons, with the purpose of inducing them not to deal with or do business with the complainant and from giving any directions or orders to committees, associations, unions, or any of their officers or members, or otherwise for the performance of any act in this complaint mentioned, or in any manner obstructing or interfering with the regular operations and the conduct of the business of the complainant and from any way or manner threatening, intimidating, or interfering with the complainant's business or in the discharge of the duties of any such officers, agents, or employees."

Defendants move that this injunction be dissolved. and from an order denying this motion, defendants appeal.
