Till Ready

A youth met a maid—a few
Her heart told the girl—he was even-ings a-go,— Her eyes full of spark—le, her cheeks all a-glow— Just tell-ing the truth,— She nev-er had met— such a won-der-ful youth— Just how it should hap-pen he nev-er could tell,— But deep-ly in love— he fell.

why it should hap-pen they know not nor care,— She heard the old sto-ry there.

Chorus

For I want to—love some-one just like you,— I know you were made for me, just me, dear, — For you're the girl of — my fond-est dreams, dear, —

— My dear-est i-deal I long to see — Like the sun-shine there is no day with - out you — I know that your love — must be so real and true, —

— And when I met you — to day I knew dear, no one — could be as true dear

I want — to love some - one like you. — For I you. —
