Piano.

Slowly with expression.

I am think-ing Ma-ry dear of a sweet and by gone year, When Last night dear I had a dream moon-beams bright-ly were a gleam, We life was but a fond and mer-ry chime, I just wan-dered by the Sus-que-han-na shore, 'Twas the sit a-lone and sigh joy-ful tears be-dim my eye, As mer-ry month of June all the world it seemed in tune, Just thoughts come back when I first called you mine, Midst as it did in gold - en days of yore, I'd all the hap - py vis - ions that come to mem - o - ry the give up all my fu - ture just heav - en on - ly knows to place where we first met I plain - ly see. Where the be nowhere the Sus - que - han - na flows, flows.

Chorus.

dream - y Sus - que - han - na flows dear, Thats where I first met you, ——— You were like the brightest sum-mer rose dear, Pure, fond and true, ——— Both your bright blue eyes with joy did beam dear, As we spoke of love's sweet dream, rall. I'll nev - er for - get the first time we met, Where the dream-y Sus-que-han-na flows. — Where the flows. —
