Brightly (Not too fast)

f

There's a land I know Where the Buck-eyes grow, That I al-ways long to Ev - 'ry face I see seems to smile at me, With the smile I used to

see, It's the on - ly state out of for - ty eight That is "home sweet home" to know And the boys I meet on the old time street Bring me back the long a - me; And its sim - ply grand just to shake the hand Of each friend I used to go I have stood to - day where I used to play In the dear old days of know, I am might - y proud of my home town crowd, And I want the world to know.

yore I would give a lot to be on that spot Just to be a child once more.

pp

When the sky in the East flames crim-son and gold In the light of the morn-ing sun, — When in clear lit-ting voice sweet song birds re-joice, Bid-ding wel-come to-day just be-fore sun: — Then I poco cresc. f p

pass on my way to the la-bor of day, And your smile as we part thrills me through, — For it

Tenderly

- and with much expression short-ens the day till the light fades a-way, And eve-ning brings rest and you; — And
