PATTER, after 1st time Chorus following 3rd Verse:

I tell you there will great doings when I arrive in Ohio. Although she is an American, she is Scotch, Scotch as the heather. Her father and mither are Scotch-oh! Scotch as - well, they were born in Gourrock. And they were over in Scotland havin' a holiday when her and I got acquainted. Of course, mind you, when her and I got chummy I didn't know her father had money, and now that I do know, it has done no harm. In fact, it has helped to cement our friendship considerably. Of course, when she left to go back again she promised to write, and I promised also, so we wrote and wrote till now we don't write at all. We do our courting by wireless. I'm sending her this message to-morrow morning at 8 a.m.

Dearest and sweetest, I'm sending you this,
 Hoping you're well, and enclosing a kiss
 You'll be happy to hear my affection increases;
 I think when I see you I'll squeeze you to pieces.
