There's a val - ley that is filled with sun - shine, Just the sun - shine, of a maid - ens Seems I hear the bum - ble bees a - buz - zing, And the mur - mer of the old Pine smile With heart so true and eyes so blue They haunt me all the tree While sha - dows play and flow - ers sway Down where I long to while In my dreams I hear a fond heart call - ing As I did in days of be I can see the hon - ey - suck - les twin - ing And a sweet heart there a - you And I'm long-ing for that val - ley, Down in Dix - ie - land once more.

 lone Who is wait - ing my re - turn - ing, To my old Ken - tuck - y home.

There's a lit - tle girl in Sun - shine Val - ley With eyes as blue as skies a - bove — There's a lit - tle girl in Sun - shine Val - ley Who knows just how to love — So I'm go - ing back — where birds are sing - ing And hearts are ev - er gay Just to claim the girl I left be - hind me In Sun - shine Val - ley far a - way. There's a way.

TRY THESE LATE SONG SUCCESSES

On A Mountain Trail In Old Virginia.

Words by GEORGE RICE. Made by BOB ALLAN

Chorus: Oh a mossy path leads to the top of the hill. When the sun and wind are still.

VERSE: I'll wander the way I used with a tin horn. Come a tune when the night is late.

VERSE: Will the years show my length of life here done, The day I'll see you again.

VERSE: And I'll see you again. The day I'll see you again. The day I'll see you again.

Longing For You

Words by MICHAEL WELLS and Wm. PAGE. Made by ERNIE BERNETT

VERSE: How my heart is torn by your face. But for you, I know, and it will stay. If you could be with me now, I'd tell you that I love you.

CHORUS: How my heart is torn by your face. But for you, I know, and it will stay. If you could be with me now, I'd tell you that I love you.

VERSE: How my heart is torn by your face. But for you, I know, and it will stay. If you could be with me now, I'd tell you that I love you.

Olden Golden Days

Words by BOB ALLAN. Made by BOB ALLAN

VERSE: Remember the day I met you. The day I met you. The day I met you.

VERSE: Remember the day I met you. The day I met you. The day I met you.

VERSE: Remember the day I met you. The day I met you. The day I met you.
