A STOLEN KISS.

Words and Music by MAURICE DANIELS.

VOICE.

Moderato.

PIANO.

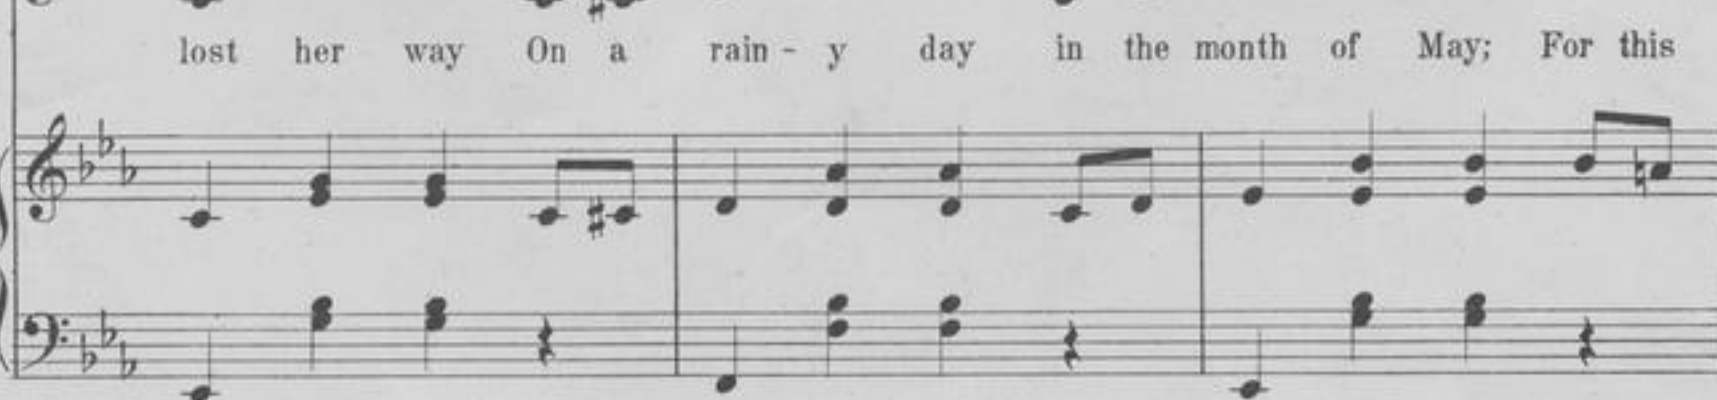

There was once a shy young maiden who had lost her way On a rain - y day in the month of May; For this maid-en fair had left her home that ve - ry day To go up - on the stage This pret - ty miss with big brown eyes Was look - ing for a nice young man Who could love her too and still be true To an - y one he prized. And there chanced to pass her way, a young col - le - gi - ate Who had nev - er ate a sup - per late And at sight he knew this maid-en he could I - dol - ize, And to her he did sigh

§ CHORUS.

My pret - ty lit - tle maiden how are you to - day? Ex - cuse me, sir but you are in my way! Don't be an - gry with me lit - tle one For I've something to tell you a - lone Go a - way young man for I am a shy young miss That's the ver-ry reas-on why I going to steal a kiss; You won't be an - gry if I steal one On-ly one, — yes one just one!

DANCE.
