spoke; But you saw my face did show The main, Though no one my thoughts e'er knew, They pain our part - ing woke. Years, long years have were, love not in vain. Wealth and fame, my passed from sight, But in my heart I've kept One sweet ea - ger quest, To win them both for thee, Nor re-word you said to me that night, And love has pine at fate's un-yield - ing test, If it could slept... That word per - haps you can re-call, Per-be... But when my task was done, there came A

-haps no thought re-mains; In for-eign lands it was my pain that dulled my heart, Sup-pose that you were not the all, Worth more than gold - en gains. Shall I re-peat the same, Love's chains in time will part. But when I home-ward mag - ic word, That pow - er gave to cope? It was the turned my way, Hope said she loves but thee, The words you crave, to you she'll say, And it shall be!

CHORUS.

Hope, hope, hope, you said, With hope's wings my love has flown;

Love, love, love, is dead, If my faith is o'er thrown.

Ped.

Hope, hope, hope, has grown, Ope your heart, let forth the dove,

I will be your own, When you say that word, love.
