Tears Tell

(The Story To Me)

Words and Music by
C. and F. WILSON

Adagio

Piano

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of chords and single notes in a slow, melancholic mood. The left hand provides a simple harmonic accompaniment. The tempo is marked 'Adagio'.

My thoughts turn back to you sweet-heart, My dreams are all of you — Why
Your lips may lie but still you'll sigh, When I have gone a - way You

The first line of the song features a vocal melody in the treble clef and piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The piano part includes a dynamic marking 'p' (piano). The lyrics are: "My thoughts turn back to you sweet-heart, My dreams are all of you — Why Your lips may lie but still you'll sigh, When I have gone a - way You".

was it that we two should part? I'm sure I nev - er knew — Your e'en may trick me with your eye Or lead my feet a stray But

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "was it that we two should part? I'm sure I nev - er knew — Your e'en may trick me with your eye Or lead my feet a stray But".

love was all my own sweet-heart For ev - er and for aye — Why love you can't de - ny sweet-heart For some - thing tells me true Those

The third line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "love was all my own sweet-heart For ev - er and for aye — Why love you can't de - ny sweet-heart For some - thing tells me true Those".

was it that we should de - part When tears said we should stay. — tear-drops in your eye sweet-heart Say I be - long to you. —

The fourth line of the song concludes the piece. The lyrics are: "was it that we should de - part When tears said we should stay. — tear-drops in your eye sweet-heart Say I be - long to you. —". The piano part includes dynamic markings: 'poco accel.', 'a tempo', 'poco rall.', and 'poco rall.'.
