Words and Music by RODNEY POWERS.

Valse.

Voice.

There's a pair of blue eyes, Eyes that I i - dol - ise, Ah! those gems that I prize, Are my own sweet-hearts eyes, They Bright as the star - lights glow, In a sweet smil - ing lead all the way to her heart, And they lead me it face sweet - est joy I can trace, Those blue eyes beam for me I seems to that fair land of dreams, With charms and ways of true love's know, _____ And at ev - er - y glance those eyes seem to art! _____ All my life I would give in their warm light to dance, As if to tell me they are true, _____ A place I will live, They've won me more than I can tell, _____ With her lips so keep, Un - till we both meet, A world of love all for you. _____ fair, And her gold - en hair, They still hold me in their spell. _____

CHORUS.

There's a world of love in her eyes, _____ A land of dreams I know, Fair - er by far than the eve - ning star up in the heav - ens a glow,

Still in your heart a se - cret must dwell a se - cret you can - not dis - guise, But still I can tell, just plain as words can spell, There's a world of love in her eyes. There's a eyes.
