The Trail to Home Sweet Home

By HAROLD B. FREEMAN

INTRO:

The introduction consists of two staves of piano music. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The key signature is three flats (B-flat major or D-flat minor) and the time signature is common time (C).

VOICE

The first system of the vocal part includes a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "No mat-ter where you take a no-tion to roam, A cross the land or". The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a steady rhythm.

The second system of the vocal part includes a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "sea; You'll al-ways have that lone-some feel-ing for home,". The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a steady rhythm.

The third system of the vocal part includes a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "And days that used to be. And when your life seems full of". The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a steady rhythm.

The fourth system of the vocal part includes a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "care and re-gret, If you will bear in mind". The piano accompaniment concludes with a final chord and a steady rhythm.

CHORUS

There's an old-en Trail, There's a Gold-en Trail, Where the birds sing sweet and low; It will take you back to moth-er and the long a go; There's a rain-bow too, shin ing just for you, It will guide you as you roam; With the stars a -bove, Watching down with love, On the Trail that leads to Home Sweet Home. — There's an Home. —
