INTRO.

The introduction is written for piano in 2/4 time, featuring a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The piece begins with a forte (f) dynamic and concludes with a fermata over the final chord.

The first system of the song includes a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line starts with a fermata. The piano accompaniment features a 'Vamp till ready' section with a piano (p) dynamic. The lyrics are:

1. I've tra - velled all a -
2. King Ed - ward is a
3. When Rus - sia fought the

The second system continues the vocal and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are:

round the world, I've sailed on ev' - ry sea; Met grand old man, as all the world ad - mits; But Ja - pa - nese, we thought they'd nev - er cease. A 4.

Not long ago the railroads owned the whole United States,
Their rates were high to farmers, but a trust could get rebates.
Who stopped this crime of freight rebates among the railroad men?
Who fixed it so the railroads carry people now and then?

Chorus.

Our Theodore, the peaceful Theodore,
Since he exposed the railroad's crime
The Erie hasn't run on time.
The midnight train dont start till half past four;
All trains are late since he fixed rates;
Hurray! Hurray! Hurray! for Theodore.

5.

The Japs think they should go to school, with children who are white,
They've got a great big Navy and they're looking for a fight.
The Panama Canal's not done, and Theodore's no fool;
But when its cut, he'll teach the Japs, what they can't learn in school.

Chorus.

Our Theodore, the peaceful Theodore,
In case the Japs give him the laugh,
He'll bite that Isthmus right in half.
His Eastern ships, can hold the Western shore;
He'll wipe the Jap, clean off the map,
Hurray! Hurray! Hurray! for Theodore.

6.

This Theodore's a hunter, too, in spite of all his cares;
He's hunted mountain lions, and he's hunted Bulls and Bears.
The only failure he has had, since hunting he began;
Was when he hunted Congress through, to find an honest man.

Chorus.

Our Theodore, the peaceful Theodore,
He is a hunting President,
He chased a whole coon regiment.
Don't make him mad, he's awful when he's sore;
He even scares the Teddy Bears,
Hurray! Hurray! Hurray! for Theodore.
