THE TRAIL TO HOME SWEET HOME

by HAROLD B. FREEMAN

A brand new song by the writer of "MY MOTHER'S LULLABY," "TAKE ME BACK TO YOUR GARDEN OF ROSES," "A LETTER FROM NO MAN'S LAND," "A DADDY'S PRAYER," etc., and bound to be his greatest success. Read the words of the Chorus:—

CHORUS

There's an olden trail, there's a golden trail,
Where the birds sing sweet and low;
It will take you back to Mother,
And the long ago.
There's a rainbow, too, shining just for you,
It will guide you as you roam;
With the stars above watching down with love,
On the trail that leads to Home Sweet Home.

Now try this little excerpt of the music:—

CHORUS

There's an old-en Trail, There's a Gold-en Trail, Where the birds sing sweet and low; It will take you back to moth-er and the long a-go; There's a rain-bow too, shin-ing
