INTRODUCTION

Town Charter – Town of Brownville, Maine

Dear Citizens of Brownville:

As provided by Article 6 & 7 of the Warrant of the Special Town Meeting of August 28, 1978, The Brownville Charter Commission was established. Six members were elected and three were appointed by the Selectmen. The Commission held many meetings and two public hearings. The final draft was submitted to the Selectmen on October 6, 1979. The Town voted to accept the new charter at an election held in conjunction with the Special State Referendum Election held on November 6, 1979. The charter took effect January 1, 1980.

Federal and State Law along with our Town Charter govern our Town Government. Some sections of our Town Charter are, in fact, State Law. The purpose of our Town Charter is to more clearly define and put into effect laws which govern our Town Government in order to maximize accountability and responsiveness to our citizenry. We have worked hard to form a Town Charter that will provide the foundation for the most democratic Town Government possible and will provide good efficient government. We wish to thank you the citizens of Brownville for the opportunity we have had to serve you on the Charter Commission.

Respectfully yours,

Richard Mersereau, Chairman
William Hogan, Vice Chairman
