Respectfully submitted,

F. M. SIMPSON, } Selectmen
R. A. ROBINSON, } of ALFRED GETCHELL, } Carmel.

I have examined the within report and find it correct.

ALONZO TILTON, Auditor.
Have the Goodness to Read This.

During the present year I wish to largely increase the amount of my sales, and have decided that the most feasible plan is to sell my customers Good Goods at a smaller profit than the same goods can be bought for elsewhere.

I need not remind you that I have been forty years on Main street, and paid 100 cents on a dollar, and given my customers a dollar's worth of goods for every dollar paid me.

I want all the trade this year that you will be pleased to give me, and it will be my honest endeavor to merit it. I keep almost everything in Silk, Woolen, Cotton and Linen Goods needed in a family, and solicit an examination of my stock.

Very Respectfully,

JOSEPH F. SNOW,
