ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE SELECTMEN
OF THE
TOWN OF CARMEL,
FOR THE
YEAR ENDING FEBRUARY 13,
1902

BANGOR:
IRA H. JOY, PRINTER AND BOOKBINDER.
1902.
Young men have taken very kindly to our Varsity suits. The most popular styles we ever had.

You can see for yourself why: broad shoulders, slightly flaring skirts, form-fitting back; military, snappy; the typical young man's suit. It will be more in demand than ever.

We have a better and larger stock this spring than ever before. We have moved into a new and more commodious store at No. 18 Broad street, just below Fickett's market, where we are better prepared than ever before to attend to your clothing wants.

Miller & Webster Clothing Co.,

Winter Term.—Miss Lottie Andrews, teacher; wages, $6.00. Number of pupils, 14; average, 11. The methods of instruction in this school were very good; government, slightly lax.

NO. 10.

Spring Term.—Taught by Mrs. Bertha Friend; wages, $6.00. Number of pupils, 19; average, 17. A very satisfactory school.

Fall Term.—Taught by Miss Nella Moriarty; wages, $6.00. Number of pupils, 20; average, 16. A good school.

Winter Term.—Taught by Nellie Murphy; wages, $6.00. Number of pupils, 21; average, 16. An excellent school.
All the schools in town except No. 3, began at the same dates. Length of spring schools, 8 weeks; fall schools, 9 weeks; winter schools, 9 weeks. Length of school year, 26 weeks.

Whole number of scholars in town April 1, 1901, 232.

The text-books bought last year are in good condition. I have found it necessary to purchase a few this year, and would recommend a small appropriation to cover their cost, and meet any small needs which may arise during the year.

The town is to be congratulated on the transformation of its poorest school house into a comfortable, modern building.

May the good work go on; and may the near future see every school in town in comfortable quarters.

If we must economize, let it be in some other way than at the expense of our children’s health and comfort.

Respectfully submitted,

C. R. PHILBRICK,
Superintendent of Schools,
Sec. of S. S. Committee.
