January 20, 1939

To the Board of Selectmen
Town of Island Falls, Maine

This is to certify that I have audited the books of the Selectmen, Treasurer and Tax Collector for the fiscal year ending March 1st, 1938, as required by the act of legislature of 1937 and find them correct.

All records have been kept in a very credible manner, and in my opinion reveal all of the transactions of the town for the year audited. The Treasurer's cash on hand reconciles with the Bank Statement. The Tax Collector has settled in full for his total commitment.

In addition to the audit for the fiscal year of 1937, I have revised and set up the State Uniform System of Municipal Accounts for the current year, and posted all accounts up to November 4th, 1938. Attached hereton is a financial Statement as of March 1st, 1938, figures used in this statement are a true copy of the records, and correctly show the financial standing of the town. All Liabilities have been verified either by personal contact or letter.

Respectfully submitted,

W. Frank Gardner, Auditor

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the Citizens and School Committee:

As required by Statute, it is my honor and privilege to submit the report of the financial and disciplinary conditions of the schools of Island Falls.

School Routine

The "rotating" schedule of recitation is now well established in the High School. The specific plan is the "seven-five" rotation which means only that there are seven periods in the teaching program and that five periods meet each day. Mondays, for instance, periods one to five are held; Tuesday starts with period six, seven and then one again and so on. This plan is highly successful not only in Island Falls but in many other schools as it makes for longer recitation periods wherein pupils may be given help in supervised study and project work under the teacher's direction. It also makes allowance in the program for a wide program of activities such as art, music, and the hand-crafts. While the activity program in our school is as yet largely experimental, promise is had of a wide and varied program as the sponsors of the various activities learn of the most productive clubs and how to conduct them.

There is a definite demand, on the part of parents and pupils of the high school alike, for a course in Agriculture in the town. This course could be handled by a half-time teacher from a neighboring high school. Under this scheme this teacher would work in one town in the mornings and in the other in the afternoon. The cost of such a teacher would be less than we are now paying our classroom teachers, and I recommend the establishment of such a course in the school next Fall.

This type of position is a full time job for the man selected. During the summer he works with the neighboring farmers in the matter of inspection of seed plots, poultry husbandry and with the boys of the school in their summertime projects on their own farms. Inasmuch as the State and Federal government pays two-thirds of the cost of such a course, it is an economical move to establish one. With the present enrollment in the high school, state requirements can be met by employing four and one-half teachers, rather than the five we now employ. The enrollment, on the other hand, is too large to be handled by four teachers so we must either keep the five teachers now employed or make the slight change in putting in this half time teacher for agriculture. Hence from the viewpoint of demand as well as that of economy, I make the recommendation.

Graded Schools

In the grades an adaptation of the platoon system of instruction was put into effect last term. Under the plan one teacher handles all the Geography in grades 4, 5, and 6; another teaches Arithmetic, while the third conducts the classes in History. The teachers chose their own subjects and each was assigned that subject she preferred. This method makes for better continuity in the classes as the teacher, knowing what will be offered the next year, can better plan this year's work.

Highly gratifying results are again being noted this year in the primary grades. The teachers are now well skilled in the teaching of "phrase" reading and the rapidity with which the pupils actually learn to read during these first three years is amazing.

Our schools this year are benefiting by the professional attitude of the teachers as shown by the attendance of four at summer school last Summer. At Aroostook Normal were Miss Maynard and Miss Gregg. Mr. Wagnis attended Bates while Miss Soper and your superintendent were at the U. of M. Many newer methods, studied by this group have been handed on to the rest of the teaching force through teachers' institutes and meetings.

Finances

The school accounts continue to remain in good shape. In the general school funds, a balance of over $1600.00 is unexpended. This has been brought about by the greatly increased amount of equalization money made available to Island Falls. In the common schools the average cost per pupil is $23.70 for the year, about fifty cents less than a year ago. In the High School the average cost of the year's schooling was $64.26 per child as compared with $68.97. This $4.51 drop in cost was occasioned by an increased enrollment in the school. These low averages do not bespeak curtailment of any essential offering but may rather be traced to the economical consolidation of the school system and the care on the part of the committee over expenditures.

Hereunder are tabulations showing the enrollment and the personal data about the employees and their positions.

Health and Hygiene

Miss Clara Tapley, a dental hygienist from the department of Health and Welfare, spent ten days in the schools, working grades 1, 3, 5, and 7. Of the 122 children examined, she found but two with clean mouths; but eight with controlled caries. In addition 76 per cent of the children examined showed carious permanent teeth and 71 per cent showed carious "baby" teeth. As discouraging as this report is, it should not convey the idea that improvement is not possible. Should this dental health education program continue, coupled with subsequent corrective treatment, the time and money spent will return to the town in the form of estimable citizens.

In the matter of health, the picture is entirely different. Dr. Swett has continued his work as school physician. He has guided us through another year without serious epidemic. He is liberal with his office calls to all parents whose children are sent for attention by the school officials and he follows up those matters referred to him by the teachers with home visits and instruction. The routine examination of the children not only tends to check what might be a serious illness, but educates the children to look upon the doctor not only for aid in illness but as a guide in the keeping of good health.

Education is a fascinating and important work. We of the faculty request your cooperation in our study of the widely varying personalities we daily meet in the classroom. Each and every teacher appreciates your calls and suggestions.

Respectfully submitted,

HARRY E. LEWIN, Supt. of Schools
