PLANNING BOARD NEWS

MINUTES OF THE REGULAR MEETING OF
THE VIENNA PLANNING BOARD
HELD MARCH 26, 2014

The meeting convened at 7:00 PM at the Town House; regular members present were Waine Whittier, Alan Williams, Ed Lawless, Austin Harrell, and Creston Gaither.

Minutes of the February 19 meeting were read and accepted.

Alan reported that he has not received the item Blaine Hopkins was to send him for delivery to Charlene Stevens (see Feb. 19 minutes) so he has not been to see her.

Waine and Creston were re-elected, as Chairman and Secretary, respectively.

Waine has discussed some of the Board's procedures with attorney Richard Flewelling at Mr. Flewelling said that in lieu of formal rules of procedure the Board's historical practices should suffice as a protocol. Questions had been raised in the recent past as to the Chair's power in controlling meetings. Mr. Flewelling said the Board should perhaps adopt some formal rules. He said Robert's Rules are probably too unwieldy for a small town Board. He said M.M.A. has some sample rules on its website. He said that the word "may" in the "cell tower Ordinance" likely indicates that we would have to base a refusal to waive the setback requirement on safety questions and not on visual impact.

The meeting adjourned at 7:45 PM.

Creston Gaither, secretary

MINUTES OF THE REGULAR MEETING OF
THE VIENNA PLANNING BOARD
HELD APRIL 23, 2014

At 6:30 PM the Board met on the Sciaraffa site (tax map 10 lot 129) to conduct a site visit regarding Dean Sciaraffa's proposal to build a garage there.

The regular meeting convened at 7:00 PM at the Town House; regular members present were

Waine Whittier, Alan Williams, Ed Lawless, Austin Harrell, and Creston Gaither. Also present were realtor Jeff Mitchell and landowner Ed Collins and attorney Andy Hamilton and Blaine Hopkins representing GTP regarding its "cell tower" application.

The Board considered the aforesaid Sciaraffa application and made affirmative Findings of Fact regarding each item in Section 16.D. of the Shoreland Zoning Ordinance (SZO); however, concern was expressed that the site may lie within the floodplain as defined by FEMA. Dean said that the garage floor elevation would be made to equal that of the house, which has already been set at least four feet above the base flood elevation. It was agreed that the garage permit should be conditioned upon best practices regarding soil erosion. Given these considerations The Board voted to authorize Creston to issue the usual SZO permit by letter.

Bob Weingarten arrived to discuss GTP's "cell tower" application but was advised that The Board would not reopen the public hearing it had held in February, which Bob missed due to a medical emergency.

PLANNING BOARD NEWS - CONTINUED

Realtor Jeff Mitchell appeared, representing Ed Collins, owner of tax map 3 lot 52 - 1. He outlined Ed's deed to lots 5 & 6 in the Patten Realty Subdivision on Kimball Pond. He asked whether the 2 acre parcel shown as part of lot 6 on the Patten plan can be sold without subdivision review. Alan noted that Day Road keeps this parcel from being contiguous with lot 6 under the Subdivision Statute, Title 30 - A § 4401, which The Board briefly reviewed. Because Lot 6 has been under the same ownership for at least 5 years, and because the 2-acre parcel is separated from the rest of Lot 6 by a road not established by the current owner (see § 4401.H6) The Board voted 5 - 0 that the proposed sale of the 2-acre parcel does not constitute a subdivision requiring municipal review and approval. Jeff and Ed agreed that inclusion of this decision in the Board's minutes would suffice to resolve this question.

Regarding GTP's "cell tower" application, Andy and Blaine said that their letter of April 16 regarding an alternative site known as "the Meader site" is moot for now and they would like The Board to continue its review of the Seamans site. The Board resumed its deliberations in this matter, with Ed Lawless remaining recused. At 7:15 Court Reporter Heather Williams arrived. Andy said that the aforesaid "Meader site" may be subject to an "improvident transfer" as defined by State law and thus is no longer under consideration for GTP's proposed tower. He reviewed the requirements of Vienna's "Wireless Telecommunications Facilities Siting Ordinance" (henceforth "the Ordinance") regarding the collapsibility of the proposed structure and argued that the design meets its safety requirements.

Blaine Hopkins said he has not heard from Charlene Stevens, to whom Alan delivered GTP's recent offer. Waine said that uncertainty as to proposed towers in Rome and Mount Vernon (now being litigated) means it's hard to say that the "Seamans site" is the only feasible site.

Bob Weingarten asked to speak on the application. It was voted 3 - 1 (Creston dissenting) to disallow this as the formal period for public comment is over (Andy said he concurred with this ruling). Bob provided written copies of his intended testimony.

The Board then voted 4 - 0 against granting a waiver of the setback requirements found in the Ordinance. Creston said that it is incumbent upon the Board to err in favor of safety though the proposed tower is probably safe.

The Board then voted 4 - 0 to deny GTP's application.

Andy asked if they could amend the application to move the tower closer to the Stevens property. He was advised that a new application and review would be required for this.

The meeting adjourned at 7:40 PM.

Creston Gaither, secretary

FROM THE HEALTH OFFICER

Bug Bites: Black Flies, Mosquitoes, and Ticks.

The black flies will be out, probably before you read this; and mosquitoes won't be far behind. Ticks have already woken up, begun molting, and trying to get blood meals from you, your dog, deer mice, horses, deer, birds and other domestic or wild animals. Here are some reminders of how to protect you and your family from diseases these bugs can transmit.

Black flies don't carry any diseases, fortunately, but only bite. Like most biting insects, they inject enzymes into the bite to numb and prevent our blood clotting before they fill up. Those enzymes, more than the minuscule bite itself, cause the reaction we call a bug bite; skin cells release histamine, which causes blood vessels to dilate up and bring more fluid, blood and white cells to "fight the foreign invasion". Those reactions are greater in areas with loose skin, especially around the eyes. Because children are less good at swatting flies away, bugs bite them longer and in more places. They often get extensive facial swelling, sometimes closing their eyes. The swelling is worst after lying down because gravity can't help drain the face. Bug dopes, especially those containing DEET can help, but many parents understandably hesitate to use them on young children where inadvertent ingestion can cause neurologic symptoms. Using permethrin (used for head lice too) treated clothing, or spraying clothing with DEET are good alternative strategies. Netting and screens obviously keep bugs away too, as does waiting to spend much time outside until the black fly season ends in a few weeks. After the bites, cold packs can diminish the swelling. Strangely, anti-histamines, like Benadryl, don't help much.

Mosquitoes appear just after black flies and hang around all summer, worst in the evenings.

They cause bites similar to black flies, which can be prevented with various bug dopes. But they do, here in Maine, carry a small risk of transmitting arbo viruses, which can cause the very bad (high mortality) Eastern Equine Encephalitis (EEE) or the usually less severe West Nile encephalitis (WNE). Both are rare viral infections of the central nervous system with high fever and acute confusion, although most cases of WNE are mild or asymptomatic. There is no antibiotic treatment or vaccine available for either. There was only one human case of West Nile disease last year in Maine and none of EEE. Both are carried by and kill birds; EEE, as the name implies, also kills horses. So if you hear news or public service announcements about bird or horses dying in large numbers, stay inside or use lots of DEET.

Ticks are getting ever more numerous and can transmit many diseases here in Maine, starting with Lyme disease (after Lyme, Connecticut, where first identified). There are two kinds of ticks, dog and deer; but trying to distinguish them takes time and is too unsure to make a difference, because the nymphs (babies) of both are very small (poppy seed-sized) and cause half the bites. There were 1350 confirmed cases of human Lyme disease in Maine last year, as well as 75 cases of Anaplasmosis, caused by a rickettsial bacterium, and 36 cases of Babesiosis, a malaria-like parasite, both also transmitted by ticks. Lyme typically comes on within a month of a tick attached for as little as 24 hr, but usually over 72 hr. 75% of patients have a rash, usually a "target" with a red spot in the middle, a clear zone, then more rash ring. Later (months to years out), if untreated, other complications can appear including nerve paralysis like Bell's Palsy of the face, arthritis, and even encephalitis of the brain. Anaplasmosis causes fever, aches, nausea, and suppression of blood cells, similar to Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever but without the rash. Babesiosis causes fever and swollen glands. All 3 diseases can be diagnosed with blood antibody testing, and, in the case of the latter two, by microscopic examination of a blood smear for the germs themselves.

There are no human vaccines for any of these diseases, despite some for dogs and horses, of questionable efficacy. An ounce of prevention is worth a lot of cure; so to prevent these several tick-borne diseases, one must prevent the bite, or at least don't let the tick stay long enough to infect the wound. Avoid shaded brushy areas where ticks live. Use bug dope on your exposed skin and on your clothing below the belt line because most ticks start at that height. Pull your white socks over your light pants so they have to go north on the outside of your clothing and you can see them as they climb. Intercept them and kill them. Check bodies daily and remove those you find imbedded; use a leatherman (good for killing them too) or extraction spoon (available at local drug stores) with slow gentle pressure so they eventually let go. It takes over a minute at least, to extract them; too fast and you break off the head. But don't try to dig out the head if they break and don't use matches or oil to burn or suffocate them; those don't work.

If the tick may have been on over 2-3 days or is swollen with blood, post exposure prophylaxis with a single dose of doxycycline can decrease subsequent disease rates from 4% to 0.5%; amoxicillin is used in children and pregnant women. Time is of the essence, so call your clinician even on a weekend. If you get a target rash and/or sick within the month of a bite, testing for the diagnosis and 2-3 weeks of antibiotics are in order and help the vast majority. And those strategies work also for Anaplasmosis. Babesiosis is treated well with anti-parasitic antibiotics.

But, don't let anxiety about these critters spoil your summer; just use some caution as outlined above.

DR. SHAW MEMORIAL LIBRARY NEWS - JUNE 2014

Library News for June 2014

We held our first ebook help session on Saturday, May 31, from 1-3pm. Many thanks to the patrons and library volunteers who offered to help – Carol Fuller, Jon Gilman, and Libby Harville. Many people do know how to download ebooks to their devices from Amazon or Barnes & Noble, but downloading books from the Maine State Library site, or from free sites like Gutenberg Project, can be a bit more challenging. We hope to continue offering similar afternoons of sharing information and skills.

Next up is our annual Bird Walk, with Linda Smith and Dona Seegers (and often with a young helper who lists the birds we find). Please join us on Monday, June 2nd. Bring your kids, your neighbor, a pair of binoculars if you have them, and wear comfortable clothing for a walk around the village. We'll post the list of birds at the front desk at the library, and on our Facebook page. This is one of our favorite events!

Later this summer, we'll have the annual Book Sale at the Community Center on Saturday, July 19th we'll be asking for volunteers – let us know if you can help!), and then the Community Poetry Reading on Tuesday, August 5th.

DR. SHAW MEMORIAL LIBRARY NEWS CONTINUED

But first, we're gearing up for Fizz, Boom, Read! Our summer reading program for children is all about science this year. We'll have stories and activities each Monday at 4pm in the children's room at the library, starting June 30 and continuing through July. Join Alice, some great volunteers, parents, and our young patrons for adventures in reading and science.

To start the program, on June 30th we'll have local musician Dan Simons come perform acoustic music with the kids! He plays guitar, banjo, and mandolin, and plays lots of children's songs about nature and animals. Dan is a funny, warm, accomplished musician. Please bring your kids and join us on June 30th at 4pm.

Between bouts of picking rhubarb, I am reading Louise Penny's latest quiet mystery, entitled The Beautiful Mystery. It features her usual main character, Chief Inspector Gamache, his assistant Beauvoir, and is set in a secluded monastery in the wilds of Canada. The mystery revolves around ancient Gregorian chant. A great way to end each evening. What are you reading as the garden flourishes and the lawn needs endless mowing?

--Mary Anne Libby

NEWS FROM THE 30 MILE WATERSHED ASSOCIATION

Youth Conservation Corps Back for Another Season of Projects!

This summer, landowners will again be able to take advantage of 30 Mile River Watershed Association's (30MRWA) Youth Conservation Corps (YCC) to address erosion problems that damage water quality. YCC works with landowners to decrease erosion and filter stormwater carrying phosphorous on their properties by constructing easy to maintain erosion control projects. These projects help keep our lakes clean for recreation, while protecting wildlife and property values. Thanks to the financial support of towns like Vienna, along with lake associations and individual contributors, landowners will receive the services of YCC at only half the cost this year. To learn more or to sign up for a free site visit, go to www.30mileriver.org.

Volunteer Opportunity: Become a Courtesy Boat Inspector

With invasive aquatic plants in the nearby Belgrade Lakes, and more people coming from other lakes to launch their boats in our watershed, the threat from these invaders continues to grow every year. Memorial Day weekend we kicked off our courtesy boat inspection season, with both paid and volunteer CBIs returning to the boat launches on Parker and Flying Ponds. CBIs are looking for hitchhiking plants found on trailers, boats, and fishing gear. We need a few more volunteers to join us this summer, especially on Saturday and Sunday mornings. If you are available to help for only a few hours, or would consider becoming a regular volunteer, please contact us (see below).

Flying Pond Watershed Survey

Last month, community members came together with the Flying Pond Improvement Association, 30MRWA and the Maine DEP to survey the Flying Pond and Mill Stream watersheds for sources of pollution and erosion. The survey was a great success and we want to thank the 30 local volunteers and staff who helped us gather this important information. We will have preliminary results available in July and the full report available this fall.

Save the Date: 6th Annual Paddle Trek, Saturday, July 26, 2014

Please join us for all or just part of our annual paddle from Mt. Vernon Village to Wayne Village. See the watershed from a new perspective as we travel by canoe and kayak through many of the lakes that form the "30 Mile River." Through this once-a-year opportunity, participants will be permitted to travel a continuous route, thanks to the generous landowners that grant us permission to portage across their property for this event. Register online at www.30mileriver.org. (Rain date July 27).

Contact us: For information about upcoming programs and events, visit www.30mileriver.org, contact info@30mileriver.org, 695-4956, or like us on Facebook.
