My Dear Son

        I Received your letter of the 11th last night I was glad to hear from you again so soon and that you was well, it seams that you have not received my two last letters that I wrote to you but they are on the way some ware,,   your mother and the girls ware all will on monday when I left home but Josephene   she has not got quite well yet but is gaining I think that she had a slite run of the Pipthere and it has taken the strength out of her limbs but she is getting better now,, you wote that you wanted me to git you a pair of Boots made and send out to you, I shall go to day and order them made so as to have them reddy to send when John gits his reddy you sent a couple of Photographs of Capt Daggett he looks prety rugged. every one calls him a noble looking soldier I wish that you had sent yours I should like to had them with his,, give my best respects to him tel him that I saw John Augusta and Convers on sunday they ware all well, Convers Preached a most an exelant sermon to us on Sunday, We receive accounts of victories here allmost every day

        It is vary dul times here   now business is vary quiet,,   I wrote to you when I received your money but it appears that you had not got the letter when you wrote,   it came all safe and in a good time for me   you have my sincear thanks for it for it will help me a good eal at the present time, I will try to youse it so that it will be an advantage to you when you git home   Mr & Mrs Goss send thear love to you and Capt Daggett also I shall have to close in order to git this in to the male to day so good by my Dear Son for this time   I shall write again soon write as often as you can

                From your Father as ever

                Samuel R. Lemont
