Maine Farm and Seafood Products Directory

Available Local Food and Alternative Pick-Up Options

Last updated on: 4/21/2020 7:00 p.m.

Many farmers, fishermen, and other producers across Maine have added alternative ways for customers to obtain food and other products to accommodate for social distancing in light of the COVID-19 outbreak. Many thanks to Allison Lakin of East Forty Farm and Lakin’s Gorges Cheese for initiating this important resource.

Connect with producers directly using the contact information provided in the directory.*

Directory information is available in two formats: interactive map and spreadsheet.

Please see tips and additional information and resources below the map.

To use the interactive map:

- Click on the map markers or on locations in the county list for directory information.
- Click on the arrow in the upper left corner of the map for the county list. Then click on the down arrow to expand the list.
- The map is easier to navigate and search in full screen mode or in the Google Maps app. Click on the view larger map icon in the upper right corner of the map or click here to access.

Mobile phone and tablet users:

- For optimal viewing of the map, open in the Google Maps app by clicking on the view larger map icon.
- Mobile phone users may need to rotate their phone in order to access the icon.
- Alternatively, you may wish to view the information as a spreadsheet which is also searchable.
- On a mobile device, you can navigate and search the spreadsheet in the Google Sheets app.
