Opry Livestream

Saturday, Sept. 5, 7:10 p.m.

Kick off your Labor Day weekend celebrations with stars Brad Paisley and Carrie Underwood on the Saturday Night Grand Ole Opry with your host Bobby Bones.

Serving Up Shakespeare
Thurs. Sept. 18, 8 p.m.

Can you cook like the Bard? Foodies and theatre lovers alike will get a chance to find out! Taught by chef and Shakespearean actor John Tufts, this class combines popular foods from Elizabethan times with a love of theatre (and modern cookware). The recipe for this session is for chewets, or mini meat pies. (Did that make you think of Sweeney Todd just now?!)

Trisha Brown Dance - Roof/Room Piece
Watch anytime!

In 1971, Brown and some colleagues scattered themselves across the water-tower-capped roofs of SoHo. One dancer executed a series of movements in which the dancer on the next roof over tried to copy exactly, and so on down the line. See the Covid-era version of this here. Fun fact -- the Trisha Brown Dance Company performed at the CCA during our opening season!

5 Minutes That Will Make You Love the Violin
Listen anytime

The NY Times asked a few friends -- violists, composers and writers -- to choose pieces that move them and would make others fall in love with the violin. All are great listens, but be sure to see who performs the Beethoven piece. (Remember their performance in Minsky?!)

Can You Name the Show From Its Playbill Cover?
Test your Broadway knowledge!

Flip through the Playbills to see how well you know your Broadway shows. Quiz time for us adults, too!
